

Sponsor or Donate to the Oxford Little Angels School in South Africa

Bakary Camara
December 9, 2019

Founded in 2017, the Oxford Little Angels is a Unificationist-owned preschool based on the Independent School Association of Southern Africa (ISASA) curriculum.

The school educates students on the Unificationist approach toward building character and learning about morals and sexual education based on the fulfillment of human portion of responsibility toward one's self, nature and humankind. They aim to sharpen the sense of responsibility of the children by providing them with educational activities, play experience and a positive environment.

The Oxford Little Angels are asking for school supply donations, monetary donations, or sponsors for the school.

Please note the donation will be converted from U.S. Dollars (USD) to South African Rand (ZAR).

Conversion rate:

$1 USD = $14.65 ZAR

$10 USD = $146.45 ZAR

$50 USD = $733.59 ZAR

Welcome to Oxford Little Angels

Oxford Little Angels was started with the intention of creating future African leaders starting from a very young age. We believe that if we support our children the right way, then the future will be limitless for them. We wish to stir a strong passion for learning in our children through their creativity. We believe that all kids have this potential and we try to help them discover it in their own unique ways.
