My Heart Was Open Wide

The following is an excerpt from a letter written on June 12, 2020 from David Oran Miller, a longtime Unificationist, to Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon after reading her recent memoir.

I'm not sure how or why this happened. Somehow, the words you wrote about this special time in history, a time when I joined the movement touched me to the core of my being. True Mother, for the first time in many years I could deeply feel your love. I felt you were loving me, recognizing me, appreciating me. I tried to keep reading, through the tears, but it was no use. I couldn't stop crying.

My heart was open wide and I could finally feel how much you loved, not just me, but all members and especially members who struggled their whole adult life to attend True Parents. Get your copy of Mother of Peace today.

New Leadership Welcomed As Jin-A Director Retires

Jin-A Child Care Center in New Jersey, a beloved interfaith preschool of more than three decades, reopened its doors on Monday, June 15 under new leadership after its 2020 graduation ceremony. Founded in 1987 through an interfaith vision and the fundraising efforts of Unificationist Mamiko Rattley, the school temporarily closed in March amid the global COVID-19 pandemic. Now, under social distancing and sanitizing guidelines, Jin-A is welcoming a fresh group of children along with a new director, Lincoln LaGrotteria, as Jin-A's longtime president and director Christl Brunkhorst retires after 32 years.
