

Demian Dunkley
June 19, 2020

FAMILY FEDERATION

The Newsletter

June 19, 2020

In today's news. Peace Starts With Me goes virtual. Mother's memoir title says it all. Interfaith talks inspire reflection during Covid. Dads are getting all the love. And women lead pandemic discussion on family literacy.

On Juneteenth A Call to Come Together Because Peace Starts With Me

The following is a press release by Family Federation for World Peace and Unification.

NEW YORK CITY, June 19, 2020 – On this important day of Juneteenth, we should honor this historic occasion by coming together. We at Family Federation for World Peace and Unification believe that we are all the family of God. The ongoing protests that have sparked as a result of the injustices against Rayshard Brooks, Ahmad Arbery, Breonna Taylor, Christian Cooper, George Floyd and countless others, are a reflection of the grief that our black brothers and sisters have carried as a result of the racial discrimination that has stained our American history. This ungodly hubris has made it impossible to find lasting peace, and weakened our capacity to lead the world as One Nation Under God.

A fast growing number of God's children are tired of this mistreatment and are seeking to make it right. We see our streets filled with people crying out for change. Peace Starts with Me means each of us has the power and responsibility to affect change. Stand with us in support of our black brothers and sisters as we come together for a Peace Start with Me Virtual Rally on August 1, 2020 at peacestartswithme.com. Scheduled to appear as the keynote speaker will be Bishop Noel Jones of City of Refuge megachurch in Los Angeles, CA.

Let us come together across races and denominations— as One Family Under God. May God continue to work through each of us to carry on this wave of change across America because Peace Starts With Me.

Dr. Ki Hoon Kim

Chairman, FFWPU North America

Rev. Demian Dunkley

And God Shall Wipe Away All the Tears from Their Eyes

Take a moment to let that sink in.

Mother Moon’s journey as a religious woman leader is breathtaking: Born in Japanese-occupied Korea in 1943, she spent her early life in nature so she could commune with God. War forced her to flee south with her mother and grandmother; they crossed the Han River Bridge minutes before it was blown up. Later, she walked and worked side-by-side with Father Moon, one of history’s most energetic and visionary men. They visited every corner of the earth and, despite relentless persecution, met with world leaders, including Mikhail Gorbachev and Kim Il Sung, to bring God’s message for them.

Buy here

Reset With God

UPF Interfaith Talks Highlight Pros of Time at Home

Faith leaders of different religions have come together to pray for global unity and healing from the coronavirus, including leaders of Universal Peace Federation (UPF). For the past several weeks, the organization has hosted a live interfaith prayer online through Zoom and Facebook, bringing together hundreds of people of all religious backgrounds.

“These interfaith prayers are lifting up so much attendance and faith in God,” said UPF President Dr. Michael Jenkins during the recent interfaith prayer. “Love from God, and His Word, is the greatest healing power.”

Read more

Dad's Turn

We honored all the moms last month, now we want to thank the dads in our lives for Father's Day this Sunday.

If you would like us to feature your dad on National Family Service this coming Sunday, June 21, send us their photo at hello@nationalfamilyservice.org by Saturday morning. Make sure to include his full name.

Be sure to join the live service.

Perspectives

300 representatives from 30 countries attended WFP's launch of their digital platform showcasing distinguished leaders who are creating an impact. The first webinar focused on family literacy in the time of Covid.

Read more

*Did a friend forward this to you? Subscribe to get The Newsletter straight to your inbox.*

Follow Us

