In today's news, your smart home device can read Mother's memoir to you out loud. And UTS takes Mother of Peace into the virtual classroom.

Alexa, read Mother of Peace.

Did you know that Alexa will read Mother of Peace for you if you buy the Kindle e-book?

If you have an Amazon smart home device, you can use your voice to ask Alexa (Amazon's cloud-based voice service) to begin reading by simply saying "Alexa, read Mother of Peace." Or you can navigate in the Alexa companion app under the new Kindle Books section to choose the book for her to read it to you.

There are so many ways to digest Mother's words. Try one or all of them to get the full experience.

Lessons in Leadership and Gratitude

What can we learn from someone who, from her childhood, has experienced it all: war, hunger, oppression, persecution, tragedy, hope, endurance, True Love, and unbelievable victory?

In Mother of Peace, Unification Theological Seminary (UTS) Co-Founder Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon reveals a philosophy of leadership rooted in a special relationship with God, our Heavenly Parent, and an undying commitment to the 7.7 billion members of God's family who share our planet.

Join UTS faculty and students in a special session that joins heart and mind: "Mother of Peace: Lessons in Leadership and Gratitude."

Get your copy of Mother of Peace on Amazon in preparation.
