In today's news, Mother of Peace #1 on Amazon list. National Family Service calling for translators. And in Korea's update, Unificationists around the world continue supporting their local communities during the pandemic.

Memoir #1 in Women's Spirituality

Thanks to the overwhelmingly positive reviews and purchases on Amazon, Mother of Peace is ranked first in New Releases in Women's Spirituality. This is a great start to making Mother's memoir a best seller not just in one category, but for all books on Amazon. Make sure to buy your copies on Kindle and paperBack at the link below.

French and Korean Translators Needed

National Family Service is looking for volunteer translators who can interpret live during upcoming Sunday broadcasts. Spanish and Japanese translations are already provided, but the team wants to serve as much of the world family tuning in as possible.

If you speak Korean or French and would be willing to spare just an hour per week of your time, please contact the team at hello@nationalfamilyservice.org for more details.

Merci beaucoup !

감사합니다!
