AMERICAN CLERGY LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (ACLC) -Northeast USA

Prayer Luncheon Report (June)

ACLC-D3: "Achieving True Peace together as One Family"

"This is not a white man's world. This is not a black man's world. This is God's world. What matters to God should matter to you and me. And to God all lives matter. We are all God's children and that's what makes us a family," said Rev. Dr. Prescott Butler. He is the pastor of two United Methodist Churches in East Orange and Irvington, and the President of United Clergy of the Oranges and vicinity.

He spoke about the issue of racism and discrimination faced by African Americans throughout American history. He also shared that we should all come together as God's children and as one family united in love and peace. "When we return to God as a nation, truly under God with liberty and justice for all, then and only then we can find peace and God will heal our land, remarked Rev. Butler.
