Peace Starts with Giving

Support True Mother's COVID-19 Relief Fundraiser

True Mother started giving to areas around the world already back in early 2020. Let's bring that same heart to our American brothers and sisters suffering and in need of support.

In gearing up for the Reconciliation of All People Virtual Rally this Saturday, Peace Starts with Me is responding to the COVID-19 pandemic by giving much-needed relief to the most vulnerable communities here in the U.S. Help us help the community.

From Point of Pain to Holy Ground

Peace Road Kicks Off at Starting Point of Slavery in the U.S.

Point Comfort, Virginia, was the first stop on the Peace Road 2020: Reconciling All People tour, where a group of Unificationist leaders, local public officials, and other clergy gathered on July 29 to offer heartfelt prayers for healing and reconciliation. The coastal city, near Jamestown, is where the slavery era in America began in 1619.

“We pray that Jesus will bless us this day and that all of God’s children will come together now,” said Rev. Michael Jenkins, president of Universal Peace Federation (UPF) and national co-chairman emeritus of the American Clergy Leadership Conference (ACLIC). “We will turn this place of pain, sadness, and sorrow into a holy ground.”
