Demian Dunkley
August 8, 2020

Dear Heavenly Tribal Messiahs,

Thank you for your continued efforts to support Heavenly Parent and True Parents' providence and for your consistent commitment towards Tribal Messiahship. As you know, the CheonBo Won application deadline was August 6. However, to give those who may have had complications in registration time to upload all their forms, we will continue accepting applications until end of day this Monday, August 10.

Whether you have completed your application or are still in the process, below are new updates everyone must pay attention to ensure that the application process runs smoothly.

After you have completed uploading your forms, you must press the link at the bottom of the page that says request evaluation. Without doing this final step, your application is not complete and can't be reviewed.

Everyone must upload a picture to their account with the following requirements.

Standard of Digital Photo: height of 3,840 pixels and width of 2,160 pixels, photo quality of 72 dpi or higher

Family photos are not permitted.

The husband must stand on the right side of the wife.

Photos must be uploaded by August 15.

The deadline to receive an approval from your pastor is August 10.

Again, thank you all for your commitment to God and True Parents. If you have any questions about the application process, please contact your local HTM Coordinator.

God Bless you, your families, and your tribes,

The TribeNet Team
