

FFWPU USA Newsletter for August 31, 2020 - 40 Days of Hope

Demian Dunkley
August 31, 2020

FAMILY FEDERATION

The Newsletter

August 31, 2020

Hello family. A week of devotion starts tomorrow. Michigan camp gets news grounds. Last discount day for Divine Principle series. The latest news from Korea. And PSWM masks are for sale.

Get Ready for 40 Days of Hope

Starting Tomorrow With a Week of Devotion

Tomorrow, September 1, 2020, marks the first of the month, and the first day of our 40 Days of Hope leading up to the CheonBo induction ceremony and Special Blessing ceremony on October 10.

From tomorrow we will start these next 40 days with a special one-week period of devotion centering on the 8th Anniversary of the Holy Ascension of Sun Myung Moon, the True Parent of Heaven, Earth and Humankind.

This week of devotion is an opportunity to strengthen our heartistic relationship with True Parents, through offering our prayers, our special donations, and to read True Mother's memoir with the heart of filial piety and devotion.

Learn more

Never Give Up On Your Dreams

Photo: New grounds for Camp KOHOE in Michigan

After more than two decades, the long-awaited dream of one Unificationist family to build a vast nature retreat for their community has finally come true. On August 10, Dieter and Rosemary Jesper purchased a sprawling 150-acre property in Watervliet, a sleepy rural town in southern Michigan where they plan to host regional and national retreats, camps, and workshops for the Unificationist community.

“The first time we stepped onto the property my wife said, ‘There is an incredible spirit here; it’s so beautiful and open and surrounded by 2.5 miles of river,’” said Dieter. “There are miles of trails all around so you can go walking for hours and meditate by the river. This is really the place that I envisioned when I had the inspiration to build a community workshop site 21 years ago in Cheongpyeong, South Korea, even though I didn’t have the resources to do it.”

“We don’t need to know how to move forward in success, we just have to keep moving.”

– Dieter Jesper

The serene property alongside the Paw Paw River was once a tennis camp in the 1970s and 80s. It boasts several amenities including two houses, a cabin, a showroom house with floor-to-ceiling windows, an in-ground swimming pool, two fish ponds, and multiple tennis and basketball courts.

The historic grounds, to be renamed Camp KOHOE (Kingdom of Heaven on Earth), also offer a plethora of possibilities.

The property’s four houses can hold up to 40 people, but the Jespers hope to expand with more buildings to eventually host as many as 120 guests for future youth camps, couples’ and marriage retreats, and Divine Principle workshops, among other programs. The Divine Principle is the core teachings of the Unification movement.

Read more

Last Chance!

Today is the last day to get Chosen: Discovering the Divine Principle for only $47. The price goes up to $197 tomorrow, September 1. Don't miss out on getting lifetime access while the price is right.

Buy series

From Korea

HJ Global News

iPeace TV's weekly segment featuring messages by True Parents and news from Unificationist communities around the world.

Watch here

Did a friend forward this to you? Subscribe to get The Newsletter straight to your inbox.
