Hello family. 9/11 anniversary reminds us to lead with a heart of love. Next PSWM Virtual Rally announced. And the latest issue of Peace Magazine is out.

Love Your Enemy

Father Moon's message to America three days after 9/11

It has been 19 years since tragedy struck the United States on September 11, 2001. Many of us can remember the very moment we heard about the terrorist attacks that devastated our nation, and the wave of emotions that followed.

Today, we observe that day—a turning point for America—and its fallen heroes.

We are also reminded of the hope that emerges from darkness and pain, and that through unity, peace and love prevail.

“Jesus was on the cross; and now America stands on the cross of the world,” said Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon after prayerfully reflecting on the attacks for three days. “Now is the time to change everything. America and Americans must take the lead in practicing ‘Love your enemy.’”

The late Rev. Moon, co-founder of the Unification movement along with his wife Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, long spoke of unifying humanity through living for the sake of others. He also taught that, as ambassadors of peace, peacemaking begins with each one of us. The 9/11 attacks served as an example prompting the question, ‘How would America respond?’
