The HJ Culture for Music and Arts Department is working to find ways to support our artists and musicians around the nation. They have launched a Donate-to-Download campaign in conjunction with the National Family Service. All proceeds will go directly to the artist. Currently there are two songs available, Joshua Cotter's new original "Do It In the Name of Love," and guitarist Sunghoon Jung's instrumental arrangement of the popular song "10,000 Reasons." Samples can be found on the website and choose any amount to donate in order to get a downloadable MP3 to enjoy these songs whenever you like.
