“It all started with one person, and the whole family joined in. You can see the smiles of joy and togetherness on our faces. What a day it was.”

“On top of being a person made out of a rainbow of beautiful emotions, Gerry Servito is an incredible lecturer full of sensibility and passion about Heavenly Parent’s heart. I’m literally amazed. Why? He just made me FEEL it more clearly.”

“Our family time was really good today. We heard Masa sharing deeper about his life, and we wrote letters to each other. It’s a different feeling when you get to know your brothers’ and sisters’ feelings towards you through a letter.”

-E. Stena (right)

“I’m having a great time at the Top Gun workshop. My highlight so far has definitely been hearing about other peoples’ faith and vision for the future, like Demian shared last night.”

-K. Muraoka

“Today our clan was practicing our song which we will perform for True Mother. It was really inspiring to see how talented my clan is in music.”

“Today we went deep within our hearts, and for me it’s difficult to share. I like to reflect on many things internally, but I rarely like sharing them with others. Sounds like a terrible first remark to a blog, but don’t worry, I like pointing out and sharing interesting things I experience. This quote (paraphrased) stood out to me today: “In order for spiritual mind and physical mind to become united, the heart must be the center... It is necessary for (us) to experience God’s heart and unite with it.” I like this because I do struggle with mind and body unity, temptations, bad habits, etc., and even if you know the side effects of bad habits, it doesn’t really matter unless the issue touches your heart. But at the same time, there’s not a clear solution; sometimes as time passes the impact an issue has on your heart gradually fades. Especially if you aren’t reminded regularly.”

-K. Miyazawa (right)

“We got invited by In Sup Park to watch a movie and eat lunch together! Seeing him taking time off from his busy schedule to spend time with us made me re-discover the values that this movement stands on.”
