

UPF Nicaragua launches International Association of Parliamentarian for Peace

Agustín Jarquin
July 7, 2017

On July 7, 2017, at the Crown Plaza Hotel in Managua, Nicaragua, a selected group of personalities guided by UPF Nicaragua, gathered together to inaugurate the International Association of Parliamentarian for Peace.

At this founding ceremony, we had honor of receiving important international delegations including Dr. Chang Sick Yang, Secretary General of UPF International, Rev. Sang Seuk Kim, regional president of Central America, and Caribbean, and Hon. Jose Alberto Alfaro Jimenez, former president of National Assembly of Costa Rica and Regional President of IAPP.

Among the participants, we had 140 dignitaries including F\former present of Nicaragua, Hon. Arnaldo Aleman and his wife, Fernanda Flores, who is a congresswoman at this time.

Furthermore there were 20 current and former congressmen, in attendance, plus various professionals in the area of education, president of universities, religious leaders and so on.

