

WFWP and UPF DR Congo Inaugurated the Global Woman's Peace Network

Jean-Pierre Kadima
September 29, 2018

The Federation of Women for World Peace held this Saturday, September 29, 2018 the launch of the Global Woman's Peace Network-Democratic Republic of Congo. Everything happened in a particular atmosphere and the particularity of this ceremony resided in the fact that the UPF General Secretary and FFWPU National Leader Reverend Jean Pierre KADIMA has himself presided over the whole event by encouraging women leaders to work for the advent of a world based on the maternal heart.

Fifty peaceful women had enhanced their presence at the Ceremony. To link the useful to the pleasant three women were distinguished as ambassadors for peace. The network was launched internationally in 2012 by the couple Sun Myung Moon founder and the aim is to reach the establishment of the UN WOMEN. Signatures in passing that the Council National Peace has been working closely with the WFWP and intends to make this partnership more diversified by other activities.

Several people took the floor to express an aspect of the vision and mission of the WFWP: Among them we could mention the very special intervention of Mrs. Caroline Pwati Deputy Leader of the International Interreligious Association for Peace and Development and Responsible under / Regional Women's Federation for World Peace.

Mike Samuel Makenda DIRCAB of the National Peace Council President spoke on behalf of the President prevented. Everything was closed by a refresh and Family Photo was taken. This event occurs on the end of September 30, 2018; The UPF Secretary General was on the floor of his Ancestors after his long stay in South Korea.

