In Memoriam Katsuyuki Kikuchi Seonghwa Ceremony live on ZOOM, July 13, 2021, 10:00 CET

Our dear brother Katsuyuki Kikuchi passed away on June 7, 2021 at the age of 61 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Katsuyuki was born on July 14, 1959, in Tochigi-ken, Japan. He joined Japanese CARP and later came to Europe as a missionary for German CARP for almost a decade (1980s). During this time he was also involved as a translator for then European president Won Pil Kim.

He was blessed to Ing-Marie Hedberg from Sweden in Korea in 1989 as part of 1275 couples. Later he was a missionary to Poland, but his main contribution came when he and his wife took responsibility as national leaders in Sweden, a mission they kept for 15 years (2006-2021). Katsuyuki showed loyalty and accuracy in his mission.

Among his many talents, his ability for learning languages stood out. He came to master German, Swedish and English. During his last year of life, he committed himself to translate True Mother's autobiography from Japanese to Swedish.

Katsuyuki is survived by his wife Ing-Marie and children Lukas, 27 and Linnea, 26. He also has a younger brother in Japan, Yuji, also a blessed family with a Korean wife.
