April 23, 2017

We held a heavenly tribal messiah blessing workshop during on Easter in Accra on April 23rd, 2017.

The week was marked by Tribal Messiah Blessing workshops with participation of some already married couples in Dodowa and also in Elubo (in western region of Ghana). On Sunday 16th April, two already married couples were blessed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Tegah at Dodowa. On Wednesday 19th April, twenty-one already married couples were blessed in a Community after Dodomaz. The same day, president of FFWPU Ghana, who was on a visit to Elubo, officiated the blessing of an already married couple in our church in Elubo.

We also had a seven-day Divine principle workshop from April 15th to 22, 2017 at Dodowa with three participants. In Accra, on April 18th, 2017, fifteen members (both new and old) had prayer meeting and Divine principle lectures at our center in Pokuase near Accra. On April 23rd, 2017 16 blessed wives held a meeting for a new beginning for WFWP-Ghana activities.

Finally, on Sunday 23rd April, after the Sunday service, we had an education program for the Blessing candidates. This program began last week with ten participants and this we week we had nine participants which included one second generation, one already married couple and seven matching candidates.
