The Ghana Chapter of WFWP commemorated International Women's Day by holding a conference on "Character Education based on family values." It was held at Aduman Asuaba In the Eastern Region of Ghana and over 40 guests attended.

A female pastor from a small community in the suburb of Accra, Oduman Asuba, teamed up with WFWP to give character education based on family values. Mrs. Marthe Whyte, the WFWP Ghana President, also gave a lecture which was well received.
