

Costa Rica's First Blessing Festival for the Re-Dedication of Marriage Took Place

Oscar Mario Barquero
December 11, 2018

On November 11, the first blessing festival for the re-dedication of Marriage took place in FFWPU center. And 30 couples participated, together with blessed families and members who joined to bring their guests.

37 couples have participated in the ceremony for the fulfillment of heavenly tribal messiah in Costa Rica. We started in November of this year.

On December 16th, the second festival of the blessing for the re-dedication of Marriage took place, for 8 couples.

All the participants were very moved and happy to have their participation, and they want to continue knowing more to invite their relatives or friends.

