

“DIALOGUE: RECONCILIATION FOR PEACE”

Report by Elena Chirulli, CARP Italy

The eighth interreligious appointment promoted by the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community in collaboration with the FFWPU Padua, CARP Italy and a large interreligious group that welcomes representatives of various faiths from the Paduan territory took place on Sunday 29 August. The event, entitled "Dialogue:

reconciliation for Peace", saw the participation of about ninety people who followed the meeting live. After the welcome message from Angelo Chirulli, who presented the Holy Community as an umbrella under which all religions can unite in respect and sharing, the speeches of various religious representatives and the world of associations followed. The speakers were: Father Gaetano Montesor Rector of the Comboni Missionaries, Renata De Matteis Bahá'í Community, Don Luigi Piccolo Director of the Diocesan Office for the Pastoral Care of Ecumenism and Interreligious Dialogue and Parish Priest of St. Joseph Church, Antonio Ciacciarelli representative for the FFWPU, Prof. Miriam Jaskierowicz Arman President of the Academy for the Development of the Voice, Judaism and Kabbalah, Ambassador of Peace and representative for Orthodox Judaism, Davide Chirulli of the CARP Italy national committee, Maria Gabriella Mieli Vice president of the Women's Federation for World Peace - Italy, the Sammasati Buddhist Center of Padua. Food for thought with musical interludes, enhanced the theme of peace by placing the emphasis on building a more peaceful society oriented towards the common good. A dialogue that has seen religion as an instrument of social transformation and a meeting place. A path of growth for a new maturation and knowledge of oneself and the other.
