Reflections

MA. Susan Paming
Blessed Family Member
Lung Cancer Warrior

There were times in our life when we were filled with trials and obstacles. Many challenges trying us to test how deep is our faith. Sickneses, illnesses and spiritual phenomenon can be encountered. With this, we are very lucky because the Philippines conducted HJ and CheonBo event. Wherein we can liberate and bless our ancestors for we believed that the spirit world is open. These ancestors will help us spiritually if we liberate them and bless to be an absolute good ancestor. Only then, we can ask their help and work with us during mobilization and to certain circumstances wherein we need them.

Our couple is very grateful because we both liberated and blessed our ancestors vertically and now trying ourselves to complete horizontal. But a test/ obstacle in our life of faith have come to our family. This was happened when we found out that I have a cancer of the lungs. My agony started last September 20, 2022. I had a cough which I thought it was an ordinary cough. But I noticed that almost a week I still had a cough. Until such time. I decided to visit a doctor. Several checked up and medications had been given to me. Yet, still nothing had change. Our couple discussed what we were going to do. Blessing in disguised, we've come up to a place of a specialist, a Pulmonologist. I'd been through with several laboratory tests. The doctor found out through ultrasound that there was a water in my left lung and I took the prescribed medicine. And returned for follow up checkup and again no changes. We shifted for second opinion from another physician.

We traveled in Legazpi City and undergone many laboratory tests to determine the possible pain in my body. Likewise we visited the herbalist and spiritualist near our place in Legazpi City to find out what contributed for my illness, the unbearable pain at my back. We maintained deep prayer to really guide us to find the medicine either synthetic, herbal, or spiritual which may help and cure my situation. We always prayed to Heavenly Father, Heavenly Parent, True Parents and Hyo Jin Nim, and to our absolute good ancestors to guide us always on what we are going to do. I lift up everything to Him for I know He is the only way to help us on this obstacle in our life of faith. Until such time the angels brought us to a doctor who gave us guidance in terms of medical suggestions and gave us referral to a certain doctor in a Lung Center.

On the long process of laboratory, they concluded that I have a lung cancer with bone metastasis. At first, I can't accept it. I cried so much. Why it happens? My daughter still young and she needs me. Certain thoughts came to my mind but I never give up. With my deep prayer only then I accepted the fact and asking the guidance of Heavenly Father, Heavenly Parent and True Parents and brought me to a decision to undergone with a chemotherapy.

I always give thanks to Heavenly Father, Heavenly Parent and True Parents and asking the help of our absolute good ancestors in guiding me every time I have a session of chemo. Grateful and thankful also because I have spiritual great grandparent in the person of Kuya/ Sir Edgar Tanate who always offer a prayer at Cheon Shim Won and ask the help of medical angels. My spiritual parents, Kuya Melki and Mother Mariflor Gavaran, Ate Glo Bastol, Kuya Rey Sale, all brothers and sisters and my family who are my prayer warriors, always praying for my complete healing. Additional inspiration coming from my titas and friends who always visited and pray for me. Supports me spiritually and always give some advice for the success of my healing process.

A spiritual phenomenon happened when the 3 big men appeared on my dream like a big white light and touch me and they smiled. In return I smiled also and trying to talk to them. After I dreamed them, day by day my condition getting better. I always feel their presence and help me for my healing process.

I really feel the presence of the spirit world in helping me for the improvement of my health condition. While on my healing process I change my diet and lifestyle with a deep spiritual way of life. Overcoming finances through the help of my co teachers, family and friends. Truly God is our greatest provider. He used people in helping us to sustain my medical expenses.

And these give me a strong determination to fight and win for this battle. Inspired me to move on and go on forward because I still have mission to fulfill. Strive harder to be in a good shape physically and spiritually.

And now I am a cancer warrior soon to be a cancer survivor. All of these blessings and gratitude I offer everything to HF and HP. Obstacles and trials we will surpass because of our faith and my strong determination to win this fight.

Alex Basabe - CheonBo Victor

My name is Alex Basabe and my wife is Kazue Abe. We belong to 1275 couples in 1989. We have 3 children, Junsang, Shin-il and Darren. We started doing Ancestor Liberation in 1997 in Korea. And because of financial difficulty we slowly did it until we finished it in 2020.

After we finished our Ancestor Liberation and Blessing, we felt so many changes not only in our lives but in our mission. We felt that the result of our Heavenly Tribal Messiah activities is not just because of our effort but with the support of spirit world. We are grateful to brothers and sisters who supported us even when some doubted our intention. We felt so much power and inspiration and met people we never thought could help us make a breakthrough in mission. Indeed how can this all happened with just our human power? We never thought of becoming a CheonBo couple but it is with great joy that we can even help other brothers and sisters to become CheonBo couples themselves.

After finishing our 430 Ancestor Liberation and Blessing, we also started doing Collateral Liberation not only for our relatives but for other people who have lived exemplary lives. So we started researching for people whom we can liberate and bless. It doesn't matter what their profession is, but we particularly choose people who sacrificed their lives for a greater cause.

We liberated many Filipino heroes who fought and died for the Korean war. Without even knowing it, they fought to defend the Fatherland from communist aggression and later pave the way for the mission of True Parents. But I was particularly touched by Former President Elpidio Quirino, who despite the foreign aggressor's killing his wife, children, relatives and many countrymen, chose to issue a Presidential pardon to hundreds of prisoners of war and let them go home unharmed. That unselfish love is so touching. To set aside personal feelings for the sake of a greater purpose is something not many people can do. He was also the President who sent 1400 Filipino soldiers to Korea in 1950. The same goes to Former President Manuel Quezon who saved 1200 Jews from Holocaust in 1939 and welcome them to Philippines when the rest of the world chose not to. I think these people deserved to be liberated and blessed because of their efforts for our country.

We are truly grateful that this are all happening in our time. Such opportunity, time and grace is made available to us in the time of True Parents. Right here we are given the chance to liberate and bless as many people as we can. We can be part of the healing of tremendous agony and pain of our ancestors. We are given the chance to change and redirect history.

I felt ashamed of myself for not doing much for Heavenly Parent and True Parents when many people who came before me - risked their lives so that we can have a better life and better world. I hope that with these lessons in mind, I can determine more to work for God's providence.

Thank you.
