Reflections

Gustavo Giuliano: I think one of the issues that moved me most was the talk of Rev. Sung Jong Seo on how to make a consultation correctly. I am inspired to study and deepen this methodology and make it part of my daily life. Thanks to this preparation, the leaders can act according to the techniques of inspired consultation based on the heart of the True Parents. Now that we know this technique we can help the brothers and sisters to overcome spiritual conflicts.

Agustín Peña: For me it was very useful. In my time availability and possibility, I want to transmit to my Home Group what was learned as soon as possible with the aim of improving the vessel of love and achieving the multiplication of the Home Group “Nueva Esperanza” carrying out the task of Heavenly Tribal Messiah. My deep thanks to the organizers. Aju
