UC Singles Game Night

A vibrant purple poster for 'UC Singles Game Night'. The title is written in large, pink, 8-bit style font. Below it, the date and time 'APRIL 4 | 7-9 PM EDT' are also in pink. A white text block describes the event as an online 8-bit experience. At the bottom, there are three columns for 'GENTS', 'SUPPORTERS', and 'LADIES', each with a QR code and the word 'RSVP'. The background features yellow starburst shapes, white stars, and purple concentric circles. Two dice are shown on the right side.

Hosted by the Boston Family Church & the Team

Join us for a fun and relaxed Online Game Night for Singles from the Unification Church/Movement community on Saturday, April 4th (7-9 PM EDT). This event is a great opportunity to laugh, play games, reconnect with old friends, and meet new people in a casual and welcoming space.

Our hope is that everyone leaves the evening feeling encouraged in their journey—having made new friendships and maybe even a special connection.

Tell Your Story

by Myrna Lapres

Did you know that children who know details about their family history--where their parents and grandparents grew up, how they overcame difficulties, what their hopes and dreams were as a child or teenager, where certain family traditions came from, how their parents and grandparents met, what their first car or house was like--are emotionally healthier and happier? Dr. Marshall Duke and Dr. Robyn Fivush developed the “Do You Know...?” scale, sometimes called “The 20 Questions,” that tap into different kinds of family stories. The questions were designed as a starting point for sharing family stories and the result was that knowing about one's family history gave rootedness in something bigger than themselves. The process of families sharing stories about their lives provides bedrock upon which to build our own future. The links at the bottom of this blog give more details about the research.
