Ryazan, Russia - "Family is the school of love" was the main message at a UPF celebration of the United Nations International Day of Families.

The meeting on May 13, 2022, was held at Library No. 5 in the city of Ryazan. The participants were 30 students at school No. 21.

Through games, songs and poems the young participants came to understand the unique and important role of each generation in the family.

After the meeting, some participants stayed on to tidy up the flower bed next to a nearby church.
