

Peace Road 2019 Kranjska Gora (Slovenia) - Pontebba (Italy), June 15. 2019
by Alfred Waldmann, Austria

Start in Kranjska Gora with participants from three countries: Slovenia, Austria and Italy.

Kick off at the market place in Kranjska Gora with the Mayor, Mr. Janez Horvath giving a welcome speech in three languages and receiving the Holy wine.

Along the 40 km route surrounded by the Julian Alps were two reststops with opportunity of connecting among the different participants and receiving refreshments.

The bike route was leading on the railway track, built during the time of the Austrian Hungarian Monarchy. This area was also the sight of severe battles during World War I.

Arrival in Pontebbawith singing and sharing. Here a Slovenian song.

The Mayor of Pontebba, Ivan Buzzi, receiving the Ambassador for Peace Certificate from Vittorio Juliano, Roberto Tona and Megumi Tona and the Holy Wine.

The Peace Road event ended in a harmonious atmosphere between the 60 participants and the promise to do it a third time in the year 2020.