

Capital HPHC: Support Our Ukrainian Family!

Claude Aubert and Achille Acolatse
February 24, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our Ukrainian brothers and sisters need our support! Because of the threat of war in Ukraine, young members and a majority of blessed families living in Kyiv (capital of Ukraine) left the city in mid-February to find refuge in safer locations. Some are in Poland; some are close to the Polish border, as in a village near Lviv.

Our brothers and sisters need our help. They departed Kyiv in a hurry, taking almost nothing with them. Now they face the humblest living conditions. It is unclear when and whether they can return to Kyiv.

As a former missionary to Ukraine (1991–1993), I have stayed in touch with many Ukrainian brothers and sisters. I have received a request for help from one leader whom I know well from my missionary time and whom I trust completely.

She is a wonderful Russian sister, her husband is Ukrainian, and together they have three children. Her fervent desire is to take care of all Ukrainian brothers and sisters.

Please consider donating if you can. We have set up a GiveSendGo account Here:

If you prefer you may donate via Zelle or PayPal to Yurii Solomakha (yusolo400@gmail.com). This brother has been designated as a reliable conduit for sending funds directly to our Ukrainian Family.

Using Zelle and PayPal will ensure that the entire donation amount goes directly to Ukraine; GiveSendGo will get a small percentage of each donation.

Thank you for your generosity and Thank you for your prayers!

Sincerely,
