

Russia's Baikal and Kola Peninsula International Educational Programs

Yuriy Gavrilin
August 3, 2018

Kola Peninsula Ecological and Educational Program (Russia, July 08 – August 04, 2018)

It started on July 8, 2018. Twenty-one young people participate in the program. They are from Russia, Japan, and Belarus. The most of them are the 2 generation.

Program includes Divine Principle workshop, lectures, fundraising, hiking, recreation zone improvement in national reserve. First part of program is in the Saint Petersburg and Leningradskaya region. The second part is in the Kola Peninsula itself, Russia national reserve. Kola program will finish on August 4.

Baikal Summer Educational program (July 02 – August 25, 2018)

Baikal program started on July 2 and will finish on August 25, 2018. There are 21 participants of the program.

They are from Russia, Kazakhstan, Japan, and Georgia. Second Generation teenagers are also among participants. Lectures, fundraising, hiking, recreation zone improvement around Lake Baikal, DP lecture practice are the parts of the whole project.

Mr. Corley, Regional President, visited project place, spoke to participants, and joined their work.