On September 14, 1995, fifty thousand representatives from 53 countries gathered in the Tokyo Dome for a rally to celebrate the third anniversary of the founding of the Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP).

True Mother spoke, as did former U.S. President George H. W. Bush.

Mr. Bush, along with former first lady Barbara Bush, accompanied True Mother on a historic five-city tour which focused on building bridges of friendship between the Japanese and American people.

The Bushes were inspired to do so as a result of their participation in the WFWP-sponsored "Sisterhood Ceremonies," which brought together women from Japan and the United States in a demonstration of friendship on the fiftieth anniversary of the end of World War II.
