In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God. Acts 1:1-3

A teacher or sovereign who follows the pattern of parental love will pursue the environment of a heavenly nation which Satan cannot invade. Since the evil one's sphere of false love cannot invade, a realm of liberation will unfold and create the heavenly kingdom on earth. CSG Book 2, Chapter 8 (213-124, 1991.1.16)

Greetings!,

In Sunday's sermon, "Kingdom Transcending Death," Hyung Jin Nim explained that even after Jesus' death, he spoke to his disciples about God's Kingdom.

Many of the Jewish religious leaders of the day feared doing anything to offend their Roman government occupiers. In this context, Jesus' powerful gospel of the kingdom caused anxiety among the Roman rulers and especially for the religious leaders who collaborated with them.

In the Garden of Eden, God gave authority to Adam and Eve, not to the more powerful and capable archangel, who was meant to be their servant. The archangel who deceived and dominated God's children is the prototype for satanic governments which have oppressed rather than serving the people.

Most modern day pastors are also fearful of speaking out against government. Sadly, many even promote government as the solution. U.S. President Lyndon Johnson's comment about American Blacks, said to Senator Richard Russell, Jr. (D-GA) regarding the Civil Rights Act of 1957,

"These Negroes, they're getting pretty uppity these days and that's a problem for us since they've got something now they never had before, the political pull to back up their uppityness. Now we've got to do something about this, we've got to give them a little something, just enough to quiet them down, not enough to make a difference."

serves as a warning to minority groups, and indeed all of us, that we should be skeptical when government representatives come promising help. When the requirement for receiving government assistance is a divorce certificate, shouldn't minorities consider the impact of such "help" on their families? Until the 1960s three quarters of African-American children were born to married parents. Now three quarters are born to parents who are NOT married. Given the ample research showing that having your married father in the home is the greatest factor in child well-being, government policies discouraging marriage should be seen as a lethal threat.

If the government were your daddy, what kind of daddy would put a male student asserting a female identity in the girl's locker room, as was done by federal fiat during the last months of the Obama administration? The intent is to break down your will to fight evil. The goal is to break down natural marriage and families, to turn children against their "outdated" parents in order to make them wards of the state. Since public schools are an arm of the federal government, teachers are forced to teach agendas they don't believe in.

Men and women of faith are called to raise up and educate their children and to call good, good, and evil, evil. Jesus said he comes with the sword of truth, to smash satanic kingdoms of this world and to establish a very different one. Followers of Christ are called to do the same.

Touched by the King of Kings

Please call me Mira. I'm 62 years old. I would like to share with you an experience I had two months ago that literally saved my life and changed my entire perspective on what life means.

I had a serious accident in November. Before the operation the doctors gave me a 50/50 chance of surviving... Please allow me to share my experience during the time I was being resuscitated. In that period of time, it was as if I were in a state of a "lucid dreaming."

I knew I was dying, so I went to visit my family in the Philippines, and other parts of the world to hug them, especially my mother and to say my goodbye for the last time. I felt like I was being driven by the wind and ended up in a place that seemed like heaven. People there wore robes of white and some with pink. Everyone there was happy, enjoying their everlasting life, both young and old. There was a clear stream of water flowing from the top of the mountain and I could smell a scent of a fresh forest. The air exuded everlasting life. It was a very beautiful place, serene and vast.

Then, I saw a person who had small eyes and who was wearing white robes. He showed me events in my life, like in a movie.
