

2018.03.04 ~ Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 7 ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Moon ~ Newfoundland, PA 18445

Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 7. Boy, it's been a crazy week, a crazy week; but, of course, we're going back to our study here, and we know our Kingdom Scriptures. We know that Christ, himself, referred to the Gospel as the Gospel of the Kingdom. That's what he referred to it. He, himself, referred to the Gospel, the Euaggelion, the Gospel of the Kingdom.

So, that means that his whole teaching, you can even see it here in Luke 4:43 And he said unto them, I must preach (I must, must, must, must preach) the Kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent. That is the reason I am sent.

So, this is the reason why Jesus was sent, of course, to preach the Gospel, which was the Kingdom of God, okay. That's how he defined it. He defined it that way.

We consider that in Matthew 4:23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

You've seen these quotes many times. Again, in Mark 1:14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the KINGDOM of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

The Gospel of what? The Gospel of the Kingdom of God. So, if Christ's message was the Gospel of the Kingdom, it was very important to him – the Kingdom of God. It was the crux of his Gospel. The Euaggelion, the good news all over the world.

Matthew 24:14 And this Gospel of the KINGDOM shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

And the liberals live to try and silence and censor us, and to try to bring shame and misfortune upon us. They actually ended up spreading the Gospel of the Kingdom worldwide. No website against us will prosper. Wow! Wow, wow! Those bozos, they're just salivating thinking, this is fantastic. They're going to die after we cover this; and, they just spread it worldwide. And now, we're getting calls from all over the world saying, "Hey, I'm interested in you guys. What are you guys doing? Can we bring our ARs on Sunday?" Oh Lord have mercy.

It's interesting, because we had a lot of ruckus from the libtards and the Democratic racists that live here that we know from this area; and, they were screaming, trying to do their little protest. Behind the scenes, all these Conservatives, okay, calling us behind the scenes. We support you 100%. Even that day, we're going to close our gate; but, that's because we don't want all this media come into our gated homes. You know, our property back there. It's like, "I support you guys 100%."

We got people on that day saying, "Hey, I'm here for the event. We brought our ARs." We said, this is more like an internal event. Come back on Sunday. "Can we bring our ARs then?" It's so funny. People are definitely... It really divides the sheep and the goats. You have Conservatives in the area who talk about, "Oh, yeah! I stand for the Second Amendment. I stand for religious freedom; and, I stand for this or that." But, this has exposed the neocons in this area, and it's exposed those who really, truly are supporters of the right to self-defense.

So, it's amazing. It's amazing what this has done; and, we didn't just plan this. We were planning this six months before; and, God gave a revelation, very strong, that we had to bring the Kings and Queens. That means the accoutrements of the biblical Kings and Queens, or the coheirs with Christ, Romans 8:17, which is what? The Crowns in Revelation 3:11, Let no man take thy Crown, and the Rod of Iron, which of course will see right on the next slide.

Psalm 2:8 Ask of Me, and I will give you the nation for your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for your possessions. 9 You shall break them with a Rod of Iron; you shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.

So here, we have of course, the different Scriptures that talk God will give you the nations for your inheritance. The ends of the earth for your possession. You shall break them with a Rod of Iron. He says here as well, those who overcome. He who overcomes, he shall rule them with a Rod of Iron.

Revelation 2:27 AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE VESSELS OF THE POTTER ARE BROKEN TO PIECES, as I also have received authority from My Father;

Revelation 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with the Rod of Iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

It amazing that the Rod of Iron as being the AR, or a weapon that is to defend an actual territory. There's some liars who tell you that a shotgun is best to defend your property. Well, if you live in a 100 square foot little thing, maybe, like the Commies want to put you in. They want to put you in all the same colored, the same size hundred square foot little one room bedrooms, with a bath; and, they want to ban how many kids you have. You're only aloud to have one kid in China for example.

You go to North Korea for example in the countryside. The buildings all look exactly the same; and, everybody gets housing, but you live in this one-hundred-foot square apartment. A tiny little thing, okay.

Now, for our Kings and Queens, if you have even more than half an acre, one acre, you can't defend that with a shotgun, effectively, against people. You can't. I mean, even if you put slugs in it, you got seven shots. The AR is such a superior weapon, it's ridiculous; and, it can go out to two hundred yards easy. Easy, easy, easy. And, if you have forty acres, fifty acres, a hundred acres, how are you going to defend that with a shotgun? Good luck, when your enemies can come in with an AR15. No way, no way.

The things that they fear the most is actual Kings and Queens, decentralized citizen armament of the use of force, and families that actually stay intact. When by chance some bozos and criminals and crazies try to attack your family, your whole family becomes an army. It becomes a little army that they have to fight, right?

And so, they hate that. They hate the fact that good people will have that kind of Rod of Iron power to smash the potter's vessel, just to demolish it, because it's no match. Is a potter's vessel a match for the AR15 or a Rod of Iron? Give me a break. You saw what happen when I shot that potter's vessel up. You saw that, right? Did you see it broken into shivers? Oh yes, you did. Did you see that?

And, we know that the book of Revelation end times. It could only happen in the modern day, where we have all this technology, one world government, all this kind of thing, which we instituted behind the scenes. One world government already exists. It already exists. The US under the net of TPP, NAFTA. We're all under international trade law anyways. We're already under international law governed by the UN. We're already under a one world government. We just have to seal it and make it formalized. We're all under it, essentially, still. Okay.

But again, they know this has to happen in modern times. It has to happen in a time, where there is the potential for modern technology. There has to be a potential, where something can happen in one place in the world, and everyone around the world, people can hear about it, because in the Bible for example, earthquakes come in diverse places; but, they're seen and felt everywhere, which means, through modern technology, we can hear of an earthquake happening in Singapore or London, or whatever, right?

So, they know the liptards and the totalitarians, if the citizens are able to have this type of weaponry at their disposal, because they know most of the citizens are not psychopathic or sociopathic. They're actually good people. They don't want to exploit people. They don't want to have excitement in oppressing people. They're not vampiric. They're not psychopathic. They just want to live their life, you know, run their business and succeed, and have barbeques with their family, and go to movies, etc. They just want to live a good life, right?

These are the people who live a good life, because when these people have the right of the use of force, okay, and have dominion over the use of force, the evildoers must fear them. What is it the founding fathers said? Government should always fear the people. When that's flipped, and people fear the government, is when tyranny will come, right? Something along those lines, paraphrasing; but, the founding fathers said, the government must always fear the people; and, if they will not fear, look at this, in Korea, right? What is it, are UC channel, they all know. It had a big conservative rally. 1.5 million people did a rally in Seoul? It's not even getting covered on the news, because of the state-run media; and, it's now become a Communist, it's now become a Socialist state. The Commies now in South Korea have control. Education, health care, military, media, everything. I mean, they didn't even show this on the TV that 1.5 million people, including a lot of Christians by the way, gathered to protest the Socialist, Communist government of Moon Jae-In. That's how much they got control there.

So, if you're down there in Taegu or something, you don't even know what happened in Seoul. You don't know that 1.5 million people gathered there. It was a blackout, a total blackout. Yet, if some Commies like 3 or 10 Commies do a candle light vigil on the street, that's going to be reported nationwide. It's a joke. 1.5 million Asians gathered in Seoul, and hardly reported it. It was a blackout, right? Because it's totally state run, totally state controlled, totally archangel controlled. They get to control the narrative, they get to control the story, they get to control news, they get to control reality, they get to control information, they get to control your mind; and, when they control your mind, you cannot, you cannot be a sovereign. Like Leesa said in her wonderful video, plantations are gun-free zones, and gun-free zones are plantations.

The Rod of Iron is an absolutely essential accoutrement for the Kingdom of God on Earth, because God's intention was to make the Kingdom of God on Earth. That was his intention. His intention was to make the Kingdom of God on Earth. That's why we're supposed to pray, Thy Kingdom come, they will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven; and, every Christian, who study prophecy knows, that in the last days, God's Kingdom in Heaven will become a physical Kingdom on Earth. It will not be a celestial Kingdom. After the first resurrection, not the second. The saints will rise up, and they will live in the Kingdom with Christ, physically. Physically. I mean, this is standard Christian theology, you understand; but, the state-run church has become so unbelievably Socialist run. They don't want Christians to even think about a Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. They just want you to think a celestial Kingdom. Only a celestial Kingdom. Only a celestial Kingdom. Only a celestial Kingdom. Don't get involved politically. Don't even have a voice. Just listen to the mind control. Just listen to CNN. Just take in the fake statistics and all that, you name it.

And, that's why they freak out, when the Rod of Iron was released to the whole world. Who knew. Did anyone of you know. You heard me preach about this for months and months; but, did anyone of you know that this was spread worldwide this fast. This only happens by the power of the Holy Ghost, and our True Father in Heaven, everybody. Not by me, not by you. We didn't do that. The power of God, and the power of His will, and His Kingdom that is coming. Dang! They can't stop it. They tried to stop it by smearing it, and they ended up spreading it. Oh, my gosh! The wicked. Their own aims are used against them. Wow!

Revelation 19:15 And out of his mouth comes a sharp sword, that with it he should strike down the nations, and He shall rule them with a Rod of Iron: and he treads the winepress of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

See, Jesus defined his Gospel as the Gospel of the Kingdom; then, how did he describe that Gospel, how it's going to be ruled? He described to himself that it's going to be ruled with the Rod of Iron. That's Jesus' own description of the Kingdom of how it's going to be ruled. I did not make that up. We just received the revelation to connect those together; but, we didn't make that up. It's right there in the Bible. It's right there in the Bible, when Christ describes his Kingdom, it is the Kingdom of the rule of the Rod of Iron.

Now, there are Scriptures that say, and they will beat their swords into plowshares and all this kind of thing; but, that's all still under the auspices of the of the Rod of Iron. Do, you see what's happening? All that means that in the Kingdom, there's going to be, you know, people are going to have a lot of entrepreneurship. You're going to be able.... You don't have to invest all your things from your armament. You'll be able to do other things. Have successful agriculture. Have successful private property. You name it. But, the rule will be, the overarching rule of the Kingdom in the Scripture is going to be the Rod of Iron.

Isn't that interesting? Many Christian Churches, they're teaching that when the Kingdom of God comes, all evil will be eradicated from the Earth. That's so unbiblical, it's ridiculous. First of all, it's saying that you won't have free will anymore in the Kingdom of God if it comes to Earth. You'll be robots. I mean, every generation for a thousand years will be robots. There will be no free will is what it says; and, I showed you in the Scripture, look at this. In Ezekiel 38 and 39, there's a whole discussion about the war of Gog and Magog; and, some biblical prophecy teachers believe that's going to be in Turkey. Some people think it's North Korea, okay. That's irrelevant. Ezekiel 38 and 39 is talking about the war of Gog and Magog. Then, the second time that appears in the Bible is Revelation 20. That's the only time the war of God and Magog appears in the New Testament. The only time, okay. And, it's unimportant to talk about the war of Gog and Magog that many prophecy speakers teach about, because it happens after the thousand-year reign of Christ; so, it's going to happen a long time later. It's not going to happen before tribulation. It's not going to happen before Christ comes. It's right in the Bible. Watch:

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. 7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog, and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Now, Revelation 20:6. This is the one I point to a lot. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection, and shall part in the second death, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ and shall reign – rule is the word there for a thousand years, okay.

So, they rule with him for a thousand years. Look, verse 7 And when the thousand years are over, they're expired. Do you hear that? When a thousand years are done, then what happens, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and he shall go out a deceive the nations, which are the four corners of the Earth. Gog and Magog will gather them for battle, the numbers of who is as he sands of the sea. Now, that's crazy. That's crazy, because all these Christian Bible prophecy preachers are teaching that Jesus is going to be on Earth, and all of the evil is going to be eradicated; but, if that's the case, how can Satan come, and how can he come and deceive all the nations, if all the evil, all the ignorance is gathered away and everybody knows the truth of Christ?

The Bible shows that is not the case. The shows that the people will still be open for deception, just like they were in the Garden of Eden, just like they were in Paradise. They still have free will. Free will is the thing, it is the thing that allows people to choose evil. That's why you need the Rod of Iron. Does that make sense?

You see, even in the Kingdom, all these fake preachers teaching about in the Kingdom, there's going to be no evil. Everybody's going to be loving one another. There's going to be no more fighting, all this kind of stuff. Well, then how after a thousand years are all these nations are going to be deceived; and, then they're going to follow Satan?

And then, after they're going to follow Satan, they're going to gather. He's going to battle, the number as if the sands on the sea; so, there's going to be a lot of them, okay, and then they're going to wage war on Jesus in Jerusalem, okay. Now, do you see the problem there? What happened to all the in the Kingdom of God on Earth? There's going to be perfection. There's going to be no sin. There's going to be no ignorance. Everybody's to know God. Whatever with that. Do you see what I mean?

Free will. In God's Kingdom, free will is still there, because God is the same yesterday, and today, and forever. (Hebrews 13:8) The God of the Bible gives humanity free will, because He wants a love-partner. He wants somebody who can be speaking love to Him, not a freakin' robot, which somebody that obeys commands, like AI, okay. He doesn't want an AI sex doll. That's not what God is craving, okay. He wants a partner, alright?

He's not into Google and Facebook and social media, all that type of crap, okay. He wants a human being, a person, who is made in His image, okay, to be His object of love.

So, that's why free will is so essential. With free will, you can choose to love God. You can't choose to love somebody, if you don't have free will. It's a fake love. If it's just programmed to love you, then it's just programmed to do all those things like a thing. It's fake.

So, we can see that even in the book of Revelation, this is the only mention of the word Gog and Magog in the New Testament that's what? That it proves my point. That it proves my point. There's still free will. There's still people that get deceived; and, it says, there's as many as the sands of the sea. Do you see what I'm saying? There's still free will. There's still the potential for evil in the Kingdom of God. That's why you need the rule of the Rod of Iron. Do you understand? You need the rule of the Rod of Iron. It obviously makes sense why God governs and rules with the Rod of Iron, and his coheirs governs with it, because there's still crazies that will buy into Satanism, they'll buy into Political Satanism. They'll buy into Marxism. They'll buy into, you know, leftist lunatic ideologies. They will buy into that; and, over a period of a thousand years, they will start preparing for the period of the coming of Satan. They will start preparing for the revolution against the Kingdom of God; and, there's going to be a fight.

It's not going to last long; but, there's going to be a fight. They'll be cast down into hell; but there's still going to be a fight. You see what I'm saying? But, wait a minute, how's that happening, if all evil is gone, and everything is just love? How is that happening then? You see what I'm saying?

God is the same yesterday, and today, and forever. There's still free will in the Kingdom of God; but, the dominion of the use of force is reversed now. Now, the good people have the dominion of the use of force through the Rod of Iron, and not the centralized, demonic Satanists and Political Satanists. That's the huge difference. That's why the world has peace for a thousand years. That's why there's sovereignty and power there.

But, you see, the more we study, the more we go into the Rod of Iron Kingdom, which is, by the way, how Christ defines his own Kingdom, we can see that all the teachings that a lot of these state-run pastors and priests of the Catholic Church are teaching, it's completely unbiblical. Trying to strip people of free will. They're trying to say the Kingdom is going to be some celestial thing, where everything is perfect; then, how is this going to happen? How is Satan going to deceive everybody? How is he going to gather everybody from the sands of the Earth try to attack and destroy the Kingdom? How is that going to happen? I thought it was perfect. I thought everybody couldn't deceive anymore. Do you see what I'm saying?

Revelation 20:9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

You see, they're coming and encompassing the beloved city Jerusalem. The New Jerusalem descends from heaven. It descends from heaven. Look at this? All these Political Satanists with Satan, okay, even after a thousand-year millennial rule, they encompass the camp. They're ready to strike. Now watch:

And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. There was some firepower that came down and took them out; so, we know, not only the rule of the Rod of Iron how God described, but we know how the Rod of Iron is characterized by the power of fire. It has the power of fire. A very powerful force, which can shatter the potter's vessel and break into shivers, but it has power of fire to what? Devour them. Destroy evil.

So, we know the Rod of Iron is not a little back-scratcher, or some kind of massager, or something like that. It's not an accoutrement of like, you know, you tie onto your purse or backpack. It is something of devastating power; but, at the same time, we know that Christ himself will not only have it, but also his coheirs in Romans 8:17, his coheirs will have it as well. Not only suffering with him, but even his inheritance with glory; and, we both see in Revelation 2 and Psalm 2, that these people will overcome and do the will, do the works of my father. They will inherit. They will rule the nations with the Rod of Iron. So, obviously, we see Scriptures, where Christ himself rules with the Rod of Iron, but at the same time, his coheirs have the Rod of Iron as well.

Look, I'm not making this up, folks. It just the Body of Christ, and these televangelists, and these preachers that are paid that are state run, and the people that teach liberation theology. They have a program to do that, that make you cultural Marxist; while, you think you're being Christian, and not armed. You will be actual sovereigns, and being in his Kingdom; and understand you have the right of territory and of self-defense given to you by Almighty God.

Revelation 20:10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

So, it doesn't end well for Satan. He's a bozo, he's a dummy; just like it doesn't end well for CNN or MSNBC or ABC, whatever. All these people trying to attack us, to smear us as these crazy lunatics; but, they end up spreading the Rod of Iron to everybody. They're spreading the Crowns and the Rod of Iron to everybody. All corners.

Now, folks, the Gospel of the Kingdom of the Rod of Iron and the Crown has been spread to all the Earth; and, as Matthew 24:14 says, "And then the end shall come." Satan's kingdoms are done. Boy, can you imagine starting, getting people from around the world, and Christian say, "You know what? We're in the end times," which most of the Evangelists believe we are in, and saying, "You know what? This is the end time;" and, we must stand in our sovereignty with the Rod of Iron. My gosh! That would be worse than a Trump revolution. That would be the worst nightmare of Diane Feinstein and what is it? Maxine Waters, and Pelosi and Obama. They would literally, literally, literally soil their britches, because they still think President Bush is in office. That's Pelosi for you, okay.

Unbelievable! Now, let's go back real quick to Mr. Pratt. Larry Pratt, he was just with us last week. I can't believe it; but, as soon as he got back to Virginia, he was the Alex Jones Show like almost every day. They're doing a marathon, because they're being censored, and they're being shut down by Google falsely blamed for all these kinds of things, you name it; but, there's Mr. Pratt, what a man of God, folks.

Wasn't he amazing. Let's thank Mr. Pratt. What an amazing hero for the Second Amendment and for human rights worldwide. Let's play this clip.

(Alex Jones asks Larry Pratt questions. He supports Gunowners of America. Gunowners of America and the NRA as similar organizations. Mr. Pratt was asking people to contact the White House about the freedom of the Second Amendment. It should not be compromised.)

That's Larry Pratt. Larry Pratt on Info Wars. He's been on two times; but, this is because President Trump's in his natural style. He negotiates. He tries to say, he gives you what you want. He does this. He tries to do this in his book; but, saying that, you know, he's going to basically agree with the gun grabbers like Diane Feinstein, He was saying in a news conference, he wants to take the guns first; and, then due process later. Totally nuts, okay. Totally nuts.

He sounded like literally like Nancy Pelosi; but, again, we have to understand, this is one of his styles and techniques in negotiating. He even writes about it in "the Art of Deal." He writes about letting your opponent win. It sounds like you're sympathetic towards them, and allow them to think that you taking on their side; and, then of course, you come back with a harder side. You come with what you want in a stronger fashion, okay. So, people are freaking out about this, and gun ownership should be freaking out about this, because he's talking real radical, when he talks about he wants to get rid of due process. That's literally getting rid of the whole Bill of Rights, okay.

But, again, he has a certain negotiating style. He's proven it with DACA; he's proven it with Obamacare. He's proven this style and tactics that he utilizes; and, then he gets positive news from the Left, and the Leftist lunatics, because he said those things. Whoa! It's surreal. CNN wrote, "It's surreal. President Trump is supporting gun control." And, he gets the Conservatives all freaking out; but, by doing that, then he's able to turn it around. The Conservatives can feel, "Ah! Okay!" Goodness, they can actually build their trust with him; and, the Leftist lunatics, they just howl and cry like banshees that they are, okay.

So, Trump definitely has made a tremendous ruckus, especially after this thing. When Mr. Larry Pratt was here just with us last week, and we had a Trump Thank You Dinner, it was amazing, because at that dinner... Ted O'Grady, didn't he do a good job at MCing? Didn't he do a great job? Did you see him? He was declaring strong. He was like, "...and Sun Myung Moon, the Lord of the Second Advent, and his Heir and Successor, the Second King of Cheon Il Guk." Right?

And, we had all these people. We had all these disciples there as well. More local people wanted to come, but God Bless the Japanese brothers and sisters, and the Korean brothers and sisters. They bought up so fast. I mean, local people couldn't attend. They actually did want to attend; but, he was declaring so hard, right? I didn't know he was going to declare that hard, because he knows it was an outside event, or something like that. And, so the medias there; but, he was hardcore; and, so I was worried. Oh boy, Mr. Larry Pratt's going to come up, and he's going to say, "I didn't know what I got myself into; but, I'm happy to be here." I thought he'd say something. Something a little to save his face, you know what I mean? You know what I mean?

Now, if the Speaker, sometimes, if they're caught off guard, they say, "Oh, this is interesting. Okay." You know, something like that, alright? Kind of save their public face, or whatever; but, he didn't do that at all. He just went right into it as if, you know, he just went right into it as if he was just like those "Black robe Preachers" with guns during the Revolution. This was so important like the Black Robe Preachers. He just started talking about Black Robe Preachers.

And, then in the meeting, the meeting earlier, he was telling my brother basically, I have a Black Robe Preacher talking about the citizens needing to be armed; and, they were talking about being able to stand up against unrighteousness. But, I was so impressed with Larry. Did Mr. Larry Pratt have a great time, or what? He had a great time. We had lunch with him afterwards. He said, he had a fantastic time, he had a great time; and, he started referring to his own rifle, because somebody made him a little cake with a little Rod of Iron on top of it, and he started referring to his rifle as the Rod of Iron. So, we're so thankful for Mr. Pratt. I'm not only saying it. Mr. Pratt and the GOA, they are the true gun lobby in all of America, and really the world, because America's the last place to have, legally, the right to bear arms.

So, Mr. Pratt, it's unbelievable that God is using him in such a mighty way. Of course, connected, playing such a John the Baptist role, and just being able to push forward to not only support Trump, but also let everybody know that their God given rights to bear arms doesn't come from government, it comes from God; and, so we are so blessed to of course to know Mr. Pratt, and of course to have him here with us. We want him back. We want him back to come visit with us, again. I already miss Mr. Pratt, already. I miss Larry already. I already miss him.

But, as you can see, the more we delve into this, the more you can see common ideas of the Kingdom of God on Earth that the Body of Christ has been teaching is completely false. It's completely wrong. When we look at Christ his own way, he describes his own Kingdom, we see him explaining it completely different, okay.

Matthew 21:42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. 44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. 45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. 46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

There's also Matthew 21:43 Therefore, I say unto you, The Kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

He's talking to the Jewish people. He's talking to the Pharisees, actually that were "the Jewish Overlords." And, of course, at the same time, whomsoever shall fall on this stone. This is the stone, the cornerstone, which the builders rejected, and become the head of the corner. This is the Lord's doing. And, whomever shall fall on this stone, it shall be broken, on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him into powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees, etc, they perceived that he spake of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him as a prophet.

You see, Christ message of the Kingdom brought tremendous comfort to the normal folks. Matthew 5 says, "Blessed he who is poor in spirit for they shall inherit the Kingdom of God." The poor in spirit. The people who have always been oppressed. The people who have always been the slaves, always been the serfs, the people who have always been under the ruling elite. Never had they the powers or rights of sovereignty, and of Kingship or royalty. That's only been for a select few in the history of mankind. Only for a select few; but, in the Kingdom of God, it's when the good folks, the majority who are not psychopaths or sociopaths, the majority of the folks who are not coheirs with Christ, they're the ones who have the gifts of royalty. They're the ones who have the power of the Rod of Iron to stop evil where it starts. That is from criminal minds, from evil people doing evil intent, etc, you name it. I mean, look at these real statistics, okay. These are the real numbers right here. We'll look at them. Zoom in right here.

Guns save more lives than they take. They prevent more injuries than they inflict. Did you know that? There's about, according to the CDC, you can see right here. According the CDC, there's about 30,000 gun deaths; and, that's including suicides, okay.

If you take away the guns by people committing suicide by jumping off the bridge or stabbing themselves in the heart. Korea and Japan have the highest rate in the world. They have no guns; so, they just do it by jumping off a bridge, okay. So, if you take out the suicide rates for guns, because suicidal people will do it with other things, right. If you took that out, the gun deaths in America are about 12 to 14,000, okay; but, how many lives are saved? How many deaths taken by guns, by firearms? Low-end, about 500, 000, according to the CDC, the CDC Council on safety. The Safety Council. The National Safety Council is the organization. The National Safety Council of the CDC. On the low end, 500,000 people are killed by guns. On the high end, 3 million people. Law abiding people and their children. Single moms, you name it are saved by the presence of a firearm. The presence of a firearm is saved every year 3 million people. The mainstream media can't have you look at these statistics that are actually done by the CDC, the government itself; and, under Hillary Clinton, under Clinton, he wanted to defame the gunowners, and say that more guns equal more crime, so he issued a statement. He issued a whole study. They spent hundreds of thousands of dollars to do research. What did the research find? The research found that 1.5 million people are saved by guns; and, this was under Bill Clinton, which is the reason why they didn't publish it, because they didn't like the results of the data. But, even the Leftist studies they paid for, of course, using our taxpayer money, showed that more people's lives are saved by guns than was taken by them. Isn't that incredible? You see the difference between 12,000 and 1.5 million. 1.5 million lives saved every year, because normal citizens like you and me, who are not psychopathic, who don't want to oppress people, who don't want to exploit other people, who can defend themselves.

Let's zoom in here, because it's hard to see. Guns are used more than 2.5 million times a year in self-defense. Law abiding citizens, who defend themselves, as many as 2.5 million times every year, or about 6,850 times a day. This means that firearms are used more than 80 times more often to protect the lives of honest citizens than to take lives.

Let's go to number two. Over 2.5 million times citizens use their guns to defend themselves every year. The overwhelming majority merely brandish their gun or fire a warning shot to scare off the attackers. Less than 8% of the time, a citizen will kill or wound his/her attacker. Did you hear that? So, only 8% of the time a citizen will kill or wound his attacker. 92% of the time, it stops, simply by the presence of the firearm. Just by the presence. The fact that the presence of the Rod of Iron is there in Christ's own description of Kingdom. Just by its presence, it evokes fear in the predator class. Do you see what I'm saying? The national statistics show the real evidence, you see. Science is also on the side of the Kingdom of God.

Okay, let's go to number three. As many as 200,000 women use a gun every year to defend themselves against sexual abuse, okay. So, you talk about the feminist movement trying to disarm women, talking about they hate guns. They're Socialist, Marxist pieces of trash. It's what Stefan Molyneux calls the feminist movement, "Socialists in panties." That's what they are. They want women to be disarmed, powerless and slaves. They don't want women to hear about the 200,000 women who stopped sexual abuse by having a dang Rod of Iron. Shoot that fool.

Even then, Clinton researcher concede that 1.5 million times, and this is Clinton. Anti-gun Clinton's own study. You understand, folks? Anti-gun Clinton's own study showed that 1.5 million times people had used guns to save lives. According to Clinton's Justice Department, as many as 1.5 million cases of self-defense each year. The National Institute of Justice published this figure in 1997 as part of "Guns in America" -- a study which was authored by noted anti-gun criminologists Philip Cook and Jens Ludwig.

These are people who hate you because you own guns. These are people who want to disarm you, so they can cackle that Diane Feinstein rubbing their hands together like the 'Wicked Witch of the West' saying, "Finally, you are my slaves." You understand. These are people who hate you, but yet, even their own studies, their own studies show 1.5 million people's lives are saved because of the Rod of Iron. They are so pathetic. That's why CNN never will cover these realities.

Armed citizen kill more crooks than do police. Citizens shoot and kill at least twice as many criminals as police do every year (1,527 to 606) and readers of Newsweek learned that only 2 percent of civilian shootings involved an innocent person mistakenly identified as a criminal. The error rate for the police, however, was 11 percent, more than five times as high. What? It shows that law abiding citizens are very competent with their firearms in identifying the bad guy. Actually, more competent than the cops. Oh

Lord. Oh, my Gosh! I mean, we love law enforcement and stuff like that, but these are the statistics, okay. These are just the numbers.

Handguns are the weapons of choice for self-defense. Citizens use handguns to protect themselves over 1.9 million times a year. Many of these self-defense handguns could be labeled as "Saturday Night Specials." Okay, like Leesa says, like "little revolvers."

Now, look at this. Concealed carry laws help reduce crime. Nationwide: one-half million self-defense uses. Every year as many as one-half million citizens defend themselves with firearms away from home. Away from home. Did you hear that? Concealed carry laws are dropping crime rates across the country. A comprehensive national study in 1996 that violent crime fell after states made it legal to carry concealed firearms. The results of the study showed.

States which passed concealed carry laws reduced their murder rate by 8.5%, rapes by 5%, aggravated assaults by 7% and robbery 3%, and if those states not having adopted such laws in 1992, then approximately 1,570 murders, 4, 177 rapes, 60,000 aggravated assaults, and over 11,000 robberies would have been avoided yearly.

Vermont, one of the safest five states in the country. In Vermont, citizens can carry a firearm without getting permission, paying a fee, or without going through any kind of government imposed waiting period. And yet for ten years in a row, Vermont has remained one of the top five, safest states in the Union. Having receiving the safest state award three times.

Florida" concealed carry helps slash the murder rates in the state. In the fifteen years following the passage of Florida's concealed carry law in 1987, over 800,000 permits to carry firearms were issued to people in the state. FBI reports show that the homicide rate in Florida, which in 1987 was much higher than the national average, fell 52% during that 15-year period – thus putting the Florida rate below the national average. 52%, because they allow Floridians to carry legally do what? The right to bear arms.

Do firearms carry result in chaos? No! Consider the case in Florida. A citizen in the Sunshine State is far more likely to be attacked by an alligator than to be attacked by a concealed carry holder. During the first 15 years that the Florida law was in effect, alligator attacks outpaced the number of crimes committed by concealed carry holders by 229 to 155 margin; and, even the 155 "crimes" committed by concealed carry permit holders are somewhat misleading as most of these infractions resulted from Floridians who accidentally carried their firearms into restricted areas, such as an airport. There you go.

Criminals avoid armed citizens. Look at this.

Kennesaw, GA: In 1982, this suburb of Atlanta passed a law requiring heads of households to keep at least one firearm in the house. The residential murder rate subsequently dropped 89% in Kennesaw, compared to the modest 10.4% drop in Georgia. 89%. They made everybody who is head of the house; so, if dad is the head of house, so dad had to own a gun in the house. And then, the single mom with three kids, the single mom has to have a gun in the house. Burglary rate dropped 89%, because it's true.

When good people have the power of the use of force, bad guys cannot succeed. They cannot succeed. They cannot succeed in stealing your money, in stealing your life, in stealing your business, in stealing your children, in stealing everything you worked for. They cannot succeed; and that's why Christ's Kingdom is ruled by the Rod of Iron.

Oh, Lord. Ten years later, in 1991, the residential burglary rate in Kennesaw was still 72% lower than it had been in 1981 from when the law was passed.

Nationwide, statistical comparisons with other countries show that burglars in the United States are far less apt to enter an occupied home than the foreign counterparts who live in countries where fewer civilians own firearms. Consider the following rates showing how often a homeowner is present when a burglar strikes.

Homeowner occupancy rate in the gun control countries of Great Britain, Canada and Netherlands, 45% average of the three countries, and homeowner occupancy rate of the US: 12.7%. That means, the burglar will enter your house while you're there, okay. In the UK, they'll break into your house, even though they know you're there, because they know you don't have a gun; but, here, only 12% of the time, they'll do that. So, 88% of the time, they won't touch your house, if they know you're there, because you probably got a gun. Do you see what I'm saying? They won't touch you, especially if they know you are there. Criminologists and Psychologists all know the criminal nature of these minds, and they are fearful of the Rod of Iron. You can look at the Science right here, which the Left hates. The Left hates Science, even they say that's the reason why they're atheists, but they hate Science.

In Orlando, Florida in 1966-1967, the media highly publicized a safety course, which showed Orlando women how to use guns. The result: Orlando's rape rate dropped 88% in 1967, whereas the rape rate remained constant in the rest of Florida. Was that because the women started believing in Socialism, and the all started believing in Progressives, and they all said, Whoop-de-doo, we all love tall men, and we hate marriage. Is that the reason why the sexual assault rate dropped? No. Because they started learning how to use the Rod of Iron, and there was an 88% drop in sexual assault. You see that?

Nationwide, in 1979, the Carter Justice Department found that of more than 32,000 attempted rapes, 32% were actually committed. But when a woman was armed with a gun or knife, only 3% of the attempted rapes were actually successful. That means, if women had a knife or a gun, a weapon of lethality, of lethal force, 97% of the time the criminal could not rape them. 97% of the time; and, yet CNN, and all these Communist want to tell you, you should have no weapons on you, when Science itself shows that a woman who is being sexually raped, the criminal cannot succeed 97% of the time, if she has a lethal weapon and she knows to use it. You see that? This is what the Left hates. The hate the Science, because the Science supports the Kingdom.

Three out of five of felons polled agree that is not going to mess around with a victim he knows is armed with a gun. Three out of five. That's 60% of the criminals say, "I'm not going to mess with them, if they have a gun.

74% of felons polled agreed that "one reason burglars avoid houses when people are at home is that they fear being shot during the crime. The baptism of the Holy Ghost and of fire is a little scary for bad guys. Do you understand? That's why good people have to be armed, folks. This is how you literally help create the Kingdom of God. Do you understand? You literally help to create a Kingdom of peace, just by the fact that you have a firearm. You have a Rod of Iron deters criminals at 88%. Incredible. Oh no, I'm sorry. At 92%. 92% were done by brandishing a weapon, or shooting a warning shot, right?

Now, this is where the studies come from, just in case the liberal lunatics want to say, "These are not reliable studies." "Well, okay, let's see where they come from, honey."

Gary Kleck and Marc Gertz, "Armed Resistance to Crimes: The Prevalence and Nature of Self-Defense With a Gun." The Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology. Northwestern University School of Law. (Fall 1995) Dr. Kleck is a professor in the school of criminology and criminal justice at Florida State University in Tallahassee. He has researched extensively and published several essays on the gun control issues. His book, "Point Blank: Gun and Violence in America" has become a widely cited source in the gun control debate. In fact, this book earned Dr. Kleck the prestigious American Society of Criminology Michael J Hindelang award for 1993. The award is given for the book published in the past two to three years that makes the most outstanding contribution to criminology. Even those who don't like the conclusion of Dr. Kleck reaches, we just cannot argue with his impeccable research and methodology. In "A Tribute to a View I have Opposed," Marvin E. Wolfgang writes that, "What troubles me is the article by Dr. Kleck and Marc Gertz. The reason I am troubled is that they have provided an almost clear-cut case of methodologically sound research in support of something I have theoretically opposed for years, namely, the use of a gun in defense against a criminal perpetrator... I have to admit, my admiration for the care and caution expressed in this article and this research. Can it be true that about two million instances occur each year in which a gun was used as a defensive measure against crime? It is hard to believe. Yes, it is hard to challenge the data collected. We do not have contrary evidence." Wolfgang, A Tribute to a View I Have Opposed, The Journal of Law and Criminology.

Wolfgang says there is no "contrary evidence." Indeed. There are more than a dozen national polls -- one of which was conducted by The Los Angeles Times -- that have found figures comparable to the Kleck-Gertz study. Even the Clinton Justice Department (through the National Institute of Justice) found there were as many as 1.5 million defensive users of firearms a year. See National Institute of Justice, "Guns in America Survey on Private Ownership and Use of Firearms." Research in Brief (May 1997)

As for Dr. Kleck, readers of his materials may be interested to know that he is a member of the ACLU, (leftist organization) Amnesty International USA, (leftist organization) and Common Cause. (leftist organization) He is not and has never been a member of or contributor to any advocacy group on either side of the gun control debate.

So again, the more the leftist lunatics try to lie, the more the evidence shows that good people with the Rod of Iron destroy criminality, the plan of cancer of rape, and the cancer of homicide, and those kinds of things, destroy it. I mean, literally bring it down to almost nil, because good people, made in the image of God, who know the difference between right and wrong, when they have that power they're resembling God's Kingdom.

When will the Messiah do when he comes? He comes as the commander, who for the first time in history, will lead the battle to regain the sovereignty, territory, and citizenry of a nation and, on that basis, take back the world of God's creation. This is the mission of the Messiah.

Alright, folks, let's all rise. SOS, come on in, and let's give God praise to His Kingdom. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven. Amen-Aju!
