Kingdom Rod of Iron 15
Rev. Hyung Jin Moon
Sanctuary Church, Newfoundland, PA

Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 15, folks. We are in Luke 4. We passed through Matthew, we passed through Mark, now we're in Luke 4. This, of course, everybody knows. This is a very famous one everybody knows. If you have to know a Kingdom passage, you have to know Luke 4:43. This is a critical, critical passage, cause it shows the reason Jesus was sent, okay. It shows the biblical reason. Jesus himself said, that's the reason why I'm sent. I will bring you right here.

Okay, so that's a very important Scripture to memorize, to meditate upon, etc. You know, when you have love and compassion in your heart, those who are fallen, and those who are lost, and those who are on their way in a separation from God; and, that's why we talk to people. That's why we want to bring them to Christ, because we have love and compassion in our heart. We suffer with them, because we know we were once that way, too. You know, we're sinners, too. We're saved by Grace; so, we have love and compassion in our heart, so when we reach out, we feel that compassion, we feel that love given by the Holy Spirit in our hearts, to reach out to people, to talk to them, to reach out to the lost, to reach out to those who don't know Christ at all, you know, etc. That's not just you doing that. That's the Holy Spirit working inside of you to minister through you, and to bring people to Christ, and to bring people to salvation, okay. So, you got to be aware, you have to be aware and sensitive to the prompting of the Holy Ghost and the Holy Spirit that works inside in everyone of us.

So, it's very important to understand Christ's reason for coming. He came again. Like he said, he's got to preach the Kingdom of God to other cities, also. You'll also see that in Matthew 24. He talked about it again, that when the Kingdom of God is preached unto the nations as a testament to all nations, then the end shall come, right?

Luke 4: 38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. 39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

We can see here that Christ is rebuking and attacking this.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases bought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. 41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

So, the devils were angry, cause they knew who he was. They knew Christ, and who he was. They knew his presence. They could feel the force, okay.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them. 43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

So, you got to be open to the prompting of God's heart upon you. You got to be sensitive to God's moves, and the Holy Spirit dwelling with you. The compassion and love that God puts into your heart, okay. If you see somebody, and you see, "Oh man, I go to talk to that person." You got to talk to a coworker, whatever. Somebody you know, or this or that, and God is prompting you, you got to have faith, have faith. Okay, you may not be able to articulate everything like a perfect orator like Mark Roberson. A little on him later; but, you'll be able. God says, He will give you the words to say. So, you have trust, have faith. Be yourself, be yourself. Be yourself. Let that love of Christ come out of you. Let the compassion of Christ come out of you, for those who are lost, and those are descending in Sheol, which means to Hell.

There's a whole study, a nice study done by a nice Internet minister talking about unlearning the lies. Unlearning the lies is his whole program; but, one of those is about Hell. We've inherited a lot of pagan notions about Hell, a lot of pagan notions. It's quite surprising. You'll find it quite surprising. What normal Christians believe about Hell is quite surprising, and quite unbiblical, and quite pagan. It's a whole other study. I'm not going to get into that today, alright. The point is, these people are going to get lost, they're going to be separated from God; and, so when we have that stern compassion inside to talk to them, to speak with them, to share the Gospel, to share with them about them Kingdom, yes, we may be mocked, we may be scorned, but God says to have faith. Be strong. It's says to be bold. Be bold and of good courage, okay.

So, this is a natural thing. When you feel that stimulation inside, you got to be sensitive to God's calling, and His prompting. I think, the really deadly arts really teach us this. You know, BJJ and MMA, in real combat arts, you have to be sensitive to your opponent. You have to really feel, you have to feel your opponent, you know, not because you have direct contact with him; but, I'm talking about when you get into rarefied arts, like firearm arts.

Man, I'm feeling like I'm seeing this whole world that I didn't realize in the firearm arts martial arts. Wow! There's like this, you have to have this incredible balance of tremendous aggressive energy. At the same time, super, super calm control. I mean, it's got to be like both these extremes have got to be there. You got to be ready to sprint at top speed, run for cover, all these things. You got to be able to move, and put a bad guy down quickly; but, you have to also at the same time have very, very good control of your little finger. You know, you're pulling that little thing. So, your whole body is tensing up, cause you're sprinting, and all of a sudden you have to shoot like daintily, precisely, and you have to squeeze that so gently; otherwise, you're going to go all over the place. So, it's amazing the more nuance I'm getting from understanding the firearm martial arts. It's like it's this incredible combination of keeping the aggressive nature that you need of defeating the bad people; but, at the same time, keeping total control of your mind, and your particularly your little fingers, your little fingers. You got to keep control of each tiny little nodules, you know. Your little fingers, right? It's like, that's it. It's your trigger finger. It's like so critical. You pull that, the whole thing goes off. You're not even hitting the bad guy. So, it's like, I would say, it's such a rarefied art. It's such a nuanced art; and, the more deeper I get into it, of course, oh my goodness. Go inertia, it's amazing. More on that later. Let's into this a little more, this Scripture here.

But, as you can see, Christ is chasing out evil. As you can see, one-third of his ministry is in fighting. One-third of his ministry is in fighting. He's fighting demons. He's fighting the principalities and powers. He's fighting the forces behind people who become evil. One-third of Christ's ministry, one-third of his life's ministry was fighting. He had to fight these demons. He's fighting these demons, he's fighting these principalities and powers, which are not only of flesh and blood, but of principalities and powers; but, they'll use flesh and blood to get what they want, right?

So, we can see him here, Look at this? He stands over, look at that? He's strong. For someone who is possessed and encumbered by spirit of whatever the spirit is upon them. And he stands strong and tall. He doesn't grovel at the knees, he doesn't try to suck on her toes, or something. He's strong. He stands up strong above it. He stands above that person; and, look at that? He rebukes the fever; he chastises the fever, okay. Rebuke is not like, "Excuse me, Mr. Demon. Can you come out of there? Excuse me. Excuse me. Yes, why don't you come out of there now. Come out, come out. Come out, come out, wherever you are." No, it's like, "Get out of there, you Demon." He's rebuking the demon. He's rebuking the Devil, okay.

So, Christ is there standing strong, aggressive and powerful, rebuking the devil; and, of course, he's healing these people. He's healing society. He's healing, he's bringing the Kingdom healing there; but, it's there with tremendous power. But, it's there with tremendous authority; and, also with tremendous confidence. Remember, like in conceal carry, you have to be confident. You have to run things through your mind. You have to be confident. That doesn't mean glorify yourself. You shouldn't be gloating. "Oh, I am perfect. I am God. I have force." No! That's delusion. That's not confidence, okay?

Confidence comes with proper training. Confidence comes by putting yourself in as close as you can to real world applications, you know. Confidence comes through that; but, you have to be confident. In the end, you can go through all that training; but, you still just, doubt, doubt, doubt, always, you may freeze. You got to be confident in the moment.

And, you see Christ there. Also, look at this here? Another person sick with divers diseases was brought on to him. He laid his hands on everyone of them, and healed them. You know, you stand and rebuke. That's in the verbal realm. He also laid on his hands, and he made it manifest physically. He transferred physical power into them. Transferred power from himself into them, into the people; and, then chased out the demons.

That's really what happened on a society level. On a societal level with Peace Police/ Peace Militia. Everybody who is training, and through this Blessing which Father gave us through Peace Police/ Peace Militia that is an armed citizenry. You are being trained, you are being passed on authority, passed on power. You are receiving power from your good Christ-like Instructors. It doesn't mean they're perfect, and they're flawless. It doesn't mean that; but, they have the right mindset of the motto of Kingdom of God of the Peace Police/ Peace Militia: Love God/love your neighbor. They have the right principle, the right seriousness for training, etc. You are literally being passed on power. Literally being passed on power, and depending on diverse ages, etc, it doesn't matter. There's many levels of training you can do to prepare yourself, not only for your safety, your own self-defense for your family, etc, but for the society at large, okay.

So, you can see, wherever the Kingdom of the Gospel is preached, and wherever Christ's Gospel is manifest, not only verbal teaching, but also there's a touch and infusing of physical power from Christ to the people. Wow! That's why Peace Police/Peace Militia is not just a mindset, it's something for neighborhoods and communities training together in the motto of Love God/Love your neighbor, transferring physically power from one generation to the next, teaching them the ethics of power, the ethics of force. How to not become a tyrant and authoritarian. To learn how to empower people as your life mission. To be as Christ is, right? Not for your own bad-assery, for your own glory, or for you to look cool; and, we want our kids to look cool, because that attracts other brain-dead young people, who just want to be cool, okay.

So, it's good. We want you guys looking cool and bad-ass and all that; but, again, don't let it get to your head. Understanding, that's one thing. That's one thing to reach out towards other kids, who may be brain-dead, and who just want to look cool; but, they may start that way, but they won't end up that way. They may start that way, but, "Oh man, I want to be like Bruce Lee and everything;" but, I was like that, too, when I was a little kid. I want to be like Bruce Lee. That's why I study GKD. Like Bruce Lee, you know. I loved Bruce Lee, you know what I mean; and, so I wanted to train like that. So, I wanted to learn his martial art. That's why I got connected to BJJ, Kali Eskrima, all that kind of stuff, because he focused on real combat arts.

So, the young people are like that, of course, it is important that you looked strong and fit and beautiful and powerful, and all those kinds of things. It is important. It's important. That is important, especially for the next generation, because they're going to relate to those things. They're going to look up to those things, right? That's their level. That's where they're at. You can't change that. You can't do anything about it. That's where they're at. You have to accept that reality. That's how it is. So, okay.

So, in the end, it's not about us. It's not about our egos. It's not about ourselves. It's about loving God, learning how to love God, and the community of people that are serious about keeping the Kingdom safe. Keeping their families safe and empowered keeping their daughters safe and empowered, their sons safe and empowered, and of course protecting their neighbor, loving thy neighbor, as you love thyself.

First thing you do when you get burned on a hot scolding pan is, you protect yourself. First thing you do when you stub your toe is, you start rubbing it. You try to bring healing to that pain. You try and protect yourself. The first thing you do when you see a lion is, you may freeze, or you may run. You're trying to protect yourself. Love your neighbor, as you love yourself, doesn't mean you're perfect, doesn't mean you're flawless. We may freeze, we may be killed; but, it means that we are mentally thinking about it. Most people are not even thinking about it, let alone training for it, because it's all about probabilities; and, it's all about making perfect, or improving probability, right?

I heard one guy, an Instructor, he was saying. "When I was a young man, I used to think, you know, I used to believe that," I'm going to make the impossible possible, because that's what all the marketing companies used to think. Nike, you know, they have their little advertising commercial, "Make the impossible possible." You know, use Adidas or Nike. You'll be able to break all the records, and... That's what all the brain-dead young kids believe. But, he said, "No, when I was younger, I used to think that, "Make the impossible possible." Then I realized, that's ridiculous. You're never gonna make the impossible possible, because the Bible said, he didn't say this. The Bible said, with God all things are possible, not with you. Not with you. Not with with you. With God. With God, all things are possible; but, what he said, "Don't aim to make the impossible possible, aim to make the possible probable, because if you can make the possible probable, and you can bring that to higher and higher probability, then, where everybody else is freezing, where everybody else can't do anything about it, you are doing something about it." Isn't that interesting?

But, you can see, wherever Christ goes, and this is on the macro level, when we look at this on the national level, on the Kingdom level, we're talking about the Kingdom of God, the Gospel culture, the Gospel of the Kingdom culture, the gift of the Peace Police/ Peace Militia, of armed citizenry, of good good people having power, what happens? It gets rid of demons. It makes demons scared. It make them angry. It makes them know that they cannot terrorize people without consequence. Do you see what I mean?

So, we usually imagine Jesus as this kind of, you know, floating around in a white cloud. "Oh, and he's so gentle. He's so soft; and, he has beautiful white skin. Beautiful blue eyes. Beautiful blue eyes." That's Jesus right there, okay. No, the spirit of Jesus, alright, you know how he's depicted in the Catholic Church. Oh, he's a little beta male. He's hugging a little lamb. "Oh, yes, my baby lamb." Hey, I'm not saying Jesus can't do that. He loves all animals. I'm sure God loves all animals. Look at Father. He loved animals, okay; but, he's not going to be like that in a fight. You can see, he's rebuking the devils right here in Luke 4. He's rebuking the sickness, rebuking the illness. He's going after, charging after, chasing after, and destroying it; and, so we're fighting that type of demon. Look at that? Look at that?

I was going to show you a scene from a video game, Diablo, which is the Devil. Some of these young bums even know what game I'm talking about. I saw some smiles come up. That's why I want to show it, because its like porn to them. As soon as they see it, there brain shuts off. "Oh, a video game. I need to play now." That's why I didn't want to show the dang video, cause I know what's going on in their brain. Dang gone it! Okay. But look, the Spirit of God chases after them. Chases after, and rebukes the demon, with strength and authority and power. He stood up to the sicknesses. He stood up to the illnesses. He stood up to what was scourging society.

Now, you take that to the macro level. That requires good antibodies who are like Christ. The Bible says, "Be ye perfect, as your God is perfect." (Matthew 5:48) Be like Christ. The body of society is like a big body; and, inside you have antibodies, which is to fight off diseases. If you have these diseases that come in and attack the body, then the antibodies say go, go, go, go, go; and, they start at that local level, but they also get sent in from behind sometimes, but they start right there. In that same neighborhood, it's that little cell system of the body that starts fighting the disease right there, wherever it is. You got to start, you got to hit it, you got to fight the bad viruses right where it begins, right?

So, just like that, people as well, you have to just understand this is a spiritual battle, a spiritual battle. One thing that is so powerful, when we go to the NRA, because we've been around fighters, and MMA fighters, and BJJ guys all my whole life; so, these guys are obviously, they're beasts, they're animals, when you talk about what? Empty hand combat. They're tough, tough, though; but, most of them have not killed people. You can't kill your opponent in the end, in these events. You have to stop. The referee comes in, the safety; although, I believe one guy dies, but it's very rare, even in MMA. It's very rare, okay.

So, it's a tough community, a very tough community, that in an ambiance community, empty hand martial arts, their respected. One thing I felt, when I went to the NRA Show, because its different from Shot Show. It's not industry B to B kind of thing. It's really normal NRA members. You meet NRA folks from everywhere; and, it's much cooler, cause you can buy stuff, you can get cool gear, and this kind of stuff; so, it's much cooler than Shot Show, but I think Shot Show is better for businesses. Anyways, the point is, you see this community is totally different, cause all the veterans who fought, the combat veterans who fought in wars, they're in that community. They're real killers in there in that community. I'm not talking about people who can kill; I'm talking about people, who are real killers; but, they're not killers for evil, they're killers for good. They killed bad guys.

It's a totally different level of person. You feel it in that community. You feel it. There's a totally different level, cause in that community, anybody can kill you. You can't disrespect an old grandpa. You can't disrespect an old grandma. You can't disrespect somebody because of race or color, or because they're a man or woman, cause everybody in that community has made the mental commitment, and mental determination, that if they have to shoot to protect the people they love, they would do it, and kill. They would shoot to kill. And, of course, many in that community have already done it; so, it's not a joke. It's not a joke. And that's why the government, of course, targets the NRA and these gun owner people, cause they are literally the most dangerous force on Earth. It's a totally different level community. Totally different community. You are literally commenturating with the good guy killers of society, the toughest people on the planet.

It's very interesting. It's very, very interesting to experience that; but, you understand that's the difference. This little girl here, a lot of these young girls, young boys at a young age, they get sucked into Manga, they get sucked into Paganism. Most Manga is based on Paganism, You young kids know that, right? Most Manga is based on Paganism and self-worship. You have this special power. Oh, you're gonna be the one. You're gonna be the one with all the super powers. You're going to be the hero. It's all about self worship about you, which is the reason why if you watch it, if you go into that world, you become more depressed, more wacky. You end up dying your hair blue and become a lesbian. I means it's ridiculous, okay, cause you live in an alternate reality. You live in another land. Your not living in reality. You never got your ashtray beat. You never got choked out. You never experienced reality. You're living in fake land. That's why you love it so much, because it becomes a comfort, and your poor, and it becomes your addiction; and, it becomes your little safe space, and your a hero.

Why is that so important? How about other people's lives be more important, huh? You may die. The reality is, even though you make a determination to fight somebody, even though they're going to kill other people, you may die in that encounter; so, you may not be the hero that you think you're going to be. You know, everybody holding you on their shoulders going, "Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!" You may be dead in a conflict, you may be dead; but, you'd still be a hero. Do you see what I'm saying? See, the level, the difference you have to be? Because, in the gun community, you're talking about real power and force, you are talking about. You're not playing around. You're not playing around; and, you cannot take with out armor, you cannot take shots to the body forever, right, like you can? Even if you do hard, nasty combat arts, you can take shots. You can take shots. You can absorb a lot. Not when you're dealing with this level.

So, it's a totally different level. It's like literally, it's like walking around with Samurai Mushashis all around; but, they're just modern day Mushashis. Mushashi, how many fights did he have? He had like 400 fights, something like that. Is that right? I can't remember. Anyway, it's like you have those type of veterans sitting there.

Even Chief. You guys see him, he's old. You guys think, "Oh, he's just an old grandpa." He has 500 confirmed kills, you understand? That guy has killed a lot of Commies. He's not a joke. And, I'm not glorifying killing, or anything. I'm showing you the mindset of these people. They're willing to put down evil if it arises. They'll never harm a fly. They'll never harm a law abiding citizen. They'll never harm their neighbor; but, if somebody tries to harm them, they will die to kill that person, and their not a joke.

This is not like your Leftist Peace Ambassadors. Your Leftist Peace Ambassadors that go and say, "Oh, yes, I welcome you to my party." These are serious people. Do you see what I'm saying, with tremendous honor code. You talk about people who are like Samurai class. They've been in war. They've been killing people, bad people. They've been fighting demons and devils, forces, you know, that are animated by evil, like ISIS and radical Islam, etc.

So, we know that the Devil, and this is sort of a Manga interpretation of that; but, we know the Devil is targeting people who are vulnerable, right? (picture shown, with a demon behind a girl.) Just like predators. They'll target the weak, they'll target the vulnerable. If you have in your heart, the young people training, if you have in your heart the desire, you know, all you have it; but, many of you don't recognize it, or some of you do; but, at least you're honest about it. You have a desire when your young to be a hero. You want to be worshiped, whether you recognize it or not. You may come to Church, and say, "Yeah, they're experiencing during these video games," and if they have this stayed power, some spiritual force promises them, "Start doing this. Start doing that. Ooh, look at this? This is cool. This is bad-ass. This is cool. This is power. Pursue that. Sell your soul to me. I'll give you power." You can get sucked into that very quick. I'm telling you, the BJJ community, look. Even in the BJJ community, I have warned you kids about it. You will have Instructors that are not aware of this, because they do have a glue, I'm a sinner. Yes, I know. I'm saved by Christ,"

Inside, you want to be that movie star hero. I'm saying, that's something that's natural, that's normal; and, if it's stimulated right, it can be used in a great way; but, say you will prey upon those people. You know you have that feeling, and you're not aware of it, you are even more vulnerable, you are even more weak, because you can't recognize that you have it, that means you're weak. It means, you are already vulnerable. You're super vulnerable to some type of evil force promising you power.

As you can see, this little soy-boy, these little video game boys playing video games all the time going, "Oh yeah! I can beat all of you. I so bad-ass;" and, then so, they get this desire for lust, and having this power that physical power over other people, physically. Empty-hand-wise, they do. It's a real power. Completely dominating control breaking and strangling. Real power.

But, a lot of them, some of the Instructors, without them even knowing, they think it's cool. They think it's just getting into Goth, incorporating elements of Paganism, incorporating religious elements into the training, so that the kids get exposed to these pentagrams, these upside down symbols, and start associating them with secret knowledge, or knowledge that will make you powerful, knowledge that will make you defeat everybody else in Jiu Jitsu or MMA. Do you see what I'm saying?

It gets you connected. It becomes almost like a pseudo-religion; and, I'm saying, you really can't exclude that, because even Peace Police/ Peace Militia you're learning Science. In terms of the arts that you're learning, but at the same time, it's centered on Christ; so, in that sense, it's a pseudo-religion, but for the good side. It's not centered on Satan. It's not centered on your power. It's not centered on you gaining power at whatever cost. That's Satanism. It's centered on the Christian understanding on knowing that you can't be trusted. No person can be trusted with the absolute power. That's right deeply embedded in the Cheon Il Guk Constitution. Even the King of the nation doesn't have absolute power, you understand? It's the corruptibility of man that's so central to Christian doctrine, which is so important when you're dealing with power; and, that's why Peace Police/ Peace Militia can only exist in a culture and constitution that preserves the fundamental Christian culture of Christ, which is Love God/ Love your neighbor. It's not going to survive in Islam. It's not going to survive in Buddhism, which is more of a pantheistic world view, where everybody can actually become gods, or enlightened beings. Actually, what they say is greater than gods.

So, it's hard. So, when I step back and look at the whole mixed martial arts community, the BJJ community, you see it. You'll see. You'll see that. You'll see that creeping in; and, you have to be careful of that, because ideas matter greatly. These influence how your spirit goes. They influence your trajectory. They influence your core values. You start wearing Nogi stuff with upside down pentagrams, and thinking you have super powers, because you got this; and, you just think it's a joke, and it's fun, I can't believe it. I told you this before. This good guy, brown belt. They do it. They're making all this gear. I know he's not a Satanist; but, they do it. They're making gears with kind of like a joke with Satanist pentagrams on, cause he's saying he has this secret power. Come to his dojo. Come on! That's ridiculous.

Or, Eddy Bravo, the 10th Planet guy, with their weed, and they're into Satanism. Some of them. I don't think Eddie Bravo is; but, it's like a weird culture. You got to be able to separate those things out. In the Peace Police/ Peace Militia culture, it's not about winning metals, and about winning accolades, and people praising you, and say, "Dam, you're so bad-ass, you're so cool." I know all you young people want that. It's natural. it's normal; but, you have to be scared of that, you have to be aware of that. Don't let that dominate you. That is absolutely the spirit of Satan inside of you, trying to tempt you. That is not what the Peace Police/ Peace Militia's about. It's about loving God/ loving your neighbor. Loving the civilization of Christ. Loving people. It's protecting the Kingdom, okay.

And, you can still go on to win metals, and win competitions, etc; but, your purpose is spiritual, your purpose is eternal. It's not temporal. It's not just for you, and your glory. It's an eternal purpose, which will last beyond you, and goes on forever. That's why it's an honor code, cause it's greater than you; and, that's why it's awesome. You are tapping into something way greater than you, cause if you know the reality, right, we're not that great. Individuals are not necessarily that great. Even when Jesus was praised, you are good, he said, "Only the Father is good."

But, you can see, people who are maybe they are physically weak, or they're scared inside. They're scared to train with strong people, you can see they're in this weak mode, spiritually; so, the spirit of evil can come to them, and tempt them. "Hey, I'll give you an easy shortcut to power. You give me this, I'll give you that easy shortcut to power;" and, weak children will take it, and they'll get into all sorts of crazy stuff. Slitting wrists, blood letting, Satanism, you name it. They get into that stuff. Drugs, hallucinations, hallucinogens, you name it. For what? For the quest of power. Then, what are you becoming? You're becoming that devil. You are just becoming empty flesh; but, that thing is amblimating you. It is not the spirit of God. It is not the spirit of love and power and a sound mind. It's the spirit of Satan inside of you; so, you got to be careful.

This is why the Peace Police/ Peace Militia, when you train with the King, you are going to learn this stuff. You're not just learning martial arts. You're learning about the Cosmic things, too. I'm not going to let you run away from it. Just like if you keep screw up on the mats, you keep mucking things up, and getting beat up, then I'm going to tell you, don't do it that way. Stop putting your knee there; or, stop putting that there. That's not going to work, right? In the same way, we have this fight going on inside our spirit, too. That's where the Devil comes in, and he harasses, he make sick, he tries to find vulnerable openings and holes to come in to destroy you, especially as you taste power, and you taste strength, and you feel like you're getting better. I know it's coupled with bouts of depression, and you feel like you're not improving at all. I understand. I've been through it all, too. I'm mean, in that realm, I've been through that. No, I haven't been through it all.

So, it is important to guard your heart, guard your spirit, guard your soul. What does the Bible say? Guard your hearing, and guard your speaking, guard your seeing. Guard your heart. That's what the Bible says. We're suppose to guard our heart, guard our senses, because unseen forces, unseen intelligence, unseen supernatural intelligence can try to influence us, whether that be through other people, social media, groups, collective thinking, you name it. In-group preferences, you name it, can influence you towards evil. It's not a simple thing learning how to deal with power.

So, if you think about it, so you see that weak girl, easy to be tempted by power. "Little weak girl, trust in me. I will give you power," Right? The little weak girl, "Oh, remember all those bullies, and all those girls that beat you up, and did that to you? Remember all that? You give your soul to me, and you will have power over them." Look, it happens like that. And, it doesn't mean they hear this in their actual voice. They may get influenced. They may see girls they think are tough, that are into Goth, and into black makeup and black lip makeup, and, Yeah! I so cool and bad-ass. Ooh, I have no problem killing for power." That's the way the signals are selling, right? Sending.

"I'm not Christian. I don't have any of your Christian morality. I wear black lipstick, and wear Goth clothing, right?" That's basically what they're saying. "I'm not Christian." That's what they're saying, right? "I don't have any of your Christian morality. I'm not trying to protect people. I'm here for myself. I'm here for power; and, I'll get whatever which way." And, you'll see. There's actually communities like that, that do marketing on the Internet. They do marketing through movies; and, try to suck you in there. Believe in that cult, in that ideology; and, without you knowing it, you're literally becoming a Satanist. Without you know it, you think you're becoming bad-ass and powerful, because you wear Goth clothing, and wear black makeup. You're a diluted freak. That's what you are. You're diluted, you weak, you're incompetent, and you're trying to get supernatural power from the evil source. Do you see the problem?

You don't want to become that. People were trained in the honor code, and in real culture of Knights or Samurai, the honor code is so critical, because look at this type of weak girl, or it could be a boy, too; but, look at this? A weak girl, who may want power at a young age. They're weak, and boys when they're young, they're weak. They want power. They want to overpower people. This kind of lust for power then metastasizes into an actual ideology. What I'm trying to say, you follow our ideology, I'll give you that power. That's why they get into Socialism, Engels and Marx, and evil demons, because they promise you power. Look how weak they are, though.

You can see ANTIFA. This soulless eye sockets. They almost have like metaphysical maggots crawling out of their eyes. They're so weak. They're so pathetic and incompetent; but, they have to believe in this ridiculous, self-serving demonic ideologies to feel that they're in some kind of group, and some kind of in-group. That I made it. I finally arrived. You're a diluted idiot.

But, they will target those kind of weak people, who are addicted to video games, who are addicted to fantasyland, who are addicted to Manga, who are addicted to Korean dramas, or dramas in general, who are addicted to porn. They will target those people, because they know you have some something that you really love, and you're addicted to, and control you with it. They're searching for pockets of weakness in your spirit, in your heart, in your mind.

YouTube 1:22:27

Now, look at these ladies? They've been trained. These are actual lady fighters, okay. (Picture of real women warriors who have been military trained.) These are actual ladies on the ground in Iraq and Afghanistan. Actual fighters, warriors. Now, they're in a different code of honor. They're not weak. Now, they're weaker than the normal man; but, the force multipliers like the rifle, they can kill men, okay; but, think about the training they had to go through to become strong women like this. They had to go through lots of training, lots of crying, a lot of pain, a lot of getting beat up. This is a different type of girl, than this type of girl. (Picture of girl with evil spirit behind her.) See the difference?

This is literally between not training, and culture which doesn't have Peace Police/ Peace Militia. That's so easy for the Devil to do. This is a culture that has Peace Police/ Peace Militia, and kids grow up like that. Kids grow up like that. You see that?

(Another picture with a multipurpose rifle,) That's an actual fighter, and actual lady fighter in I think Syria? I'm not sure. The American forces are training some Middle Eastern forces. These are actual girls from the ground. They've already made in their mind the commitment that they may die. Now, all you girls who are training under the King, you're training in the Peace Police/ Peace Militia, that I'm teaching you these days the deadly arts, have you made the commitment in your mind like that lady? Are you still wallowing in your own self narcissism, and your desire to be some glorified Hollywood hero? Give me a break. You know its a fantasy anyways. You experience it everytime you get your booty whooped. These girls have decided that they're gonna die if they have to, to die for their country. They made the commitment. They've probably done it. They probably fought and killed ISIS members, too. It's a totally different spirit world when you compare these kind of people with the gun community folks. That's why, when you deal with the gun community, you really deal with respect, folks. These are not people that played around. They're not playing around. They're not doing sports. These are people that have killed, will kill, have the determination to kill bad people.

(Another picture of women shooters.) I show girls here, because usually, you know Satan targets Eve. Target the girls; and, that's why it's amazing, that's why we have a big community of girls here that are becoming really tough here, really strong mentally. They're not perfect, but they're getting stronger. They'll look back at their training. Two years ago, they were complete weak dissonant, selfish, self-absorbed narcissists; and, they may have little remnants of that still, okay.

I know you all are not perfect. I'm not perfect, okay. The point is, you've changed a lot without you knowing it, cause you come into a culture, you come into a different world. You received different training, different education that you'll never learn in public schools, and government controlled schools, and Marxist controlled schools. You will never learn it, because they want you weak, incompetent, and dumb-down, and that's how they keep you under control.

But, girls at a young age will be able to handle technology, able to handle tools. They'll be able to handle force multipliers. They be able to handle bad guys. They'll all be knowledgeable, all be knowledgeable about it. They'll all be knowledgeable about it.

YouTube 1:26:59 to 1:28:47 (Girl puts down a potential shooter with one hand)

So, you may have bad buys in the Kingdom, which the Bible says in Revelation 20, that the bad guys are still existing; Satan gathers them from the ends of the Earth as many as the sands of the sea; so, they're still bad guys, but watch what happens? And, it doesn't mean you'll be dressing in camo all day, okay. You're not in a uniform all day long. You can look totally normal wearing jeans and pink sweater, or whatever, and having a cute little white hand bag with matching shoes. I know your handbag's got to match your shoes. I'm no fool. I know it. Boys don't know that. They don't know that the handbag, the girl's handbag's got to match their shoes. How you not know that? How do you not know that? See the boys, they don't carry a purse, they don't carry handbags; so, they don't know. They just, you know, they sometimes have brown shoes on with a black bag. Boys will do that, right? My goodness. The King ain't no fool, okay. I know your shoes got to match your handbag.

Video plays called, "Happy Armed Mother's Day by UncleSamsMisguidedChildren.com, because our Mommies protect their babies, and other babies, too. Our Mommies help save babies. So, this bozo tries to come up a pull on these women with children, and this mommy with a handbag puts him down in one second. Now. I don't care if that guy was the top MMA fighter in the world. He had a gun; she put him down really quick. She did it with one hand, cause under stress, a lot of these videos show that under stress, even though you trained a lot, you come out with one hand. This is actually put out by Eddie Bravo. Eddie Bravo is a 10th Planet Instructor. Very famous in the Jiu Jitsu community. He retreated now to My Instagram.

That is the difference. All those children and ladies were under the threat of death by that lunatic, who decided to just roll up on them, and just pick on all these White women with children, because he thought they're weak; but, one of the girls with a white handbag. Did you see her handbag? How many saw her handbag? She had a white handbag. Go ahead, return the clip. Let's see. She's dressing nice. She's got jeans, she's got those worn out jeans. You know, people pay for those wornout jeans. She's got a pick shirt on. She's got a white beige handbag, okay. Are her shoes matching her handbag? Oh, they're matching. Do you see that? See, they're matching her handbag, okay. And she put him down.

Now, she's not the most fit. She doesn't look like Gwyneth Paltrow, or whatever, but she's a prepared woman. Because she's a prepared woman, she's a beautiful woman, she's a powerful woman, and she's a woman that saved all those children's and all those women's lives. While everybody was running away gathering their kids, "Oh, my gosh! Oh, my gosh!" That woman stopped the bad guy in less than three seconds, cause she understands how to use technology. She understands how to use what the ancients considered magic. Right? All these Satanists, and all these power cult people, they're into, "Ah, we want magical powers." That was the old religions of the past that used magical powers, and studies Astronomy and Mathematics, and you know, slight-of-hand to trick people, so they would worship them.

Now, you live in a society where the normal person can literally have what the ancients would consider magical power by understanding technology, and understanding the gifts of technology that come through freedom that God has given to us; and, she put that bad guy down fast, and she saved all those kids, and she didn't think twice to say, "Ooh, am I going to do it or not, am I going to do it or not?" She just did it, cause she had to stop the bad guy. That's a heroic young woman right there.

This is, I tweeted somebody, it was on Instagram. I wrote something about Peace Police/ Peace Militia. Something like that. That's Peace Police/ Peace Militia right there. That guy tried to screw up other people's lives, decided to role up on people and point guns and kill babies, or whatever the heck he was going to do, and he gets put down. He gets the consequence; and, that will happen at every corner that bad guy's do stupid stuff. The odds are against them. Do you see? So, when the odds are against them, they can't terrorize good people. They can't bully good people. They can't have force above them, or authority above them. They will always have to be subservient to the good people, because the good people will have power.

You know, it's like, if you walk into the NRA Show, there's a hundred thousand people. There's no metal detectors. Everybody has a gun. Everybody in that building has a gun, right? Isn't that right, Lowell? You can see it. If you carry, you know how things print. You can see. You can see. If you look closely, you can see. Everybody in that building, if you do something stupid, to kill you. That's a really good check on everybody. See how healthy that is? That's such a good check? You get some idiot who's high on himself on some drugs on self-narcissism and delusion, and they're into Manga video games and porn, whatever, drama, whatever it is, and they want to hurt other people for their own benefit, they're gong to be put down so fast, it's ridiculous. They pull out a Rod of Iron, and try to harm somebody, they're going to get a thousand Rod of Irons pointing right at them. There just going to see fire descending from Heaven. There not even going to see just empty barrels, because there going to see, cause the video gets cut off. That's how they see it in Korean. The video gets shut off. The film gets shut off.

I mean, you feel that. When you go, next year, it's going to be in Indianapolis, and maybe I'll bring the Ninjas. All you guys come, and help us run the booth there. Maybe will do a Rod of Iron Ministry booth there. Fund raising. Let's see if we can do it. I don't know if they'll let religious ministries; but, there's no ministries there. None. I can't believe it. It's ridiculous. No ministries there preaching the Word of God at the NRA. They're the people who love God, and they're willing to put down their lives to protect people the most. Wow! What a tremendous huge niche and opening that's sitting right there. My Lord have mercy. So, we're going to be down there preaching the Kingdom. We're going to be next year in Indianapolis. Have a little booth. We got tons of cool gear, putting that out. Kingdom Crest stuff. All that stuff.

Maybe I'm looking to make a new video. 10 Things that may shock you about the Kingdom of God, right. Something like that, that plays and replays, so you can see it over time. You know, you'll see, when you get into that environment, you're like literally walking around living Samurai; and, you can't mooshi anybody. You can't look down on anybody. You may see this fat dude walking around, he's big and fat, you may be able to run faster than him, but you can't outrun a bullet.

So, what does this do? It teaches young people to respect old people. That's what it teaches them. When old people are disarmed, then young people are thinking that they can just pick on them, and even in the worse case, try to attack them; but, when an armed society is here, even the old Samurai are deadly, so you have to still respect. You have to show that respect. It's a respectful society. Do you understand?

Obviously, this thug did not respect those ladies. He thought, all these girls, there gonna be wimps, and there gonna be easy pickens, and he's going to be able to get a lot of money that night, and go party and drink and do drugs, or whatever he wants to do. No! That one lady with the pick shirt, the tore up jeans, and the white shoes matching her white bag put him down. You see that? You can't succeed. You can't succeed in the Kingdom, cause you don't know who the Ninjas are. They may look like normal people, they may look totally dressed down.

(Back to the slide with the demon on her back)

Okay, go to the next slide boys. Let's skip over the Colion Noir. Totally different girl than this type of girl. See the difference, spiritually? See the spiritual difference? You see the spiritual difference? Which one are you? Which one are you? You're probably that. Do you see what I'm saying? Now, you can be pulled out of that, as long as you have faith, work hard, you love people, and you put in the time. You train. You become stronger. It doesn't mean you become invincible. You'll never be invincible. You see, you'll never get hot headed like that, or ignorant like that, but you know that you're increasing probability towards your side. The Spirit of God is growing within you.

YouTube 1:36:50

Go ahead. Play Colion Noir. We'll play that real quick. This man is now the face of the NRA. Incredible. NRA's changing bigtime, folks. Big time.

(This is a video about inner-city questions about whether people, like the elderly, can own a weapon to protect themselves. This video has an internal look about questions of Privileged people having guns, and not allowing other not to have guns, like Blacks and elderly, and women's rights to own a gun.)

So, there's Colion Noir. He is the new face of the NRA. He's the most popular NRAer. He's not actually an official spokesperson. He's a Commentator, okay. But anyways, the point is, he is now the new face of the NRA. The NRA's changed. When we went this time, and even Lowell said, It's not a country club anymore. It doesn't look like a country club. You walked in there, and it's only White folk; and, there's nothing wrong with White people; but, it's like the minorities, they were never made to believe that they were not included in this. They were made to believe that you can't have these, you know, weapons, the Democratic Plantation runners, you know what I mean? The Democratic Al Sharpton's and Jesse Jackson, these guys, teaching, "Oh, no, no, no. You can't do that. Let's pull Black crime down by getting rid of the guns;" while, Colion says, "Are you kidding me." Of course, this is what you get all the time.

So, when we went there this time, whoa! The demographics changed completely. There's so many young people there. Young people in their twenties, thirties. Young people. Twenties. The Millennials that are there. There are now, there is a big population of Black folks that are there now, that are young, too. Younger, do you see what I'm saying?

There's Asians that are there. There's Asians. In the Shot Show, there are Asians. There's companies; but, in the NRA Show there is Asians there, right. For example, we bumped into all these superstars.

This is Hank Strange. He got his YouTube Channel shut down. He's a Black African-American, you know, gun enthusiast. Just teaching about guns, and safety, and all those kinds of things; and, they shut him down. They shut his YouTube Channel down. We ran into him. We ran into his crew.

This is Charissa. She's a military, a military girl. I think, she's a Medic; but, she's also a model, but she's bringing a lot of young girls to see themselves in a different light. You can still be strong, you can still understand technology, you can still have power with the Rod of Iron; but, still you can be beautiful, you can be a mom. She's pregnant. She's in a faithful marriage. You know what I'm saying? A different role model than this simple Hollywood slutty adulterous, breaking their marriage every five days, and getting remarried to some, you know, zombie, bozo, Hollywood, cinematic Director. I mean, give me a break. I took my two babies with me this time.

Active Self Protection John Correia, folks. You see his videos a lot, right? We bumped into John Correia over there; and, you see that little prankster monkeying around in the back? That's John Lovell. He is a deadly man. Don't let his smile, and his nice looks deceive you. This man has killed a lot of bad guys. He's an Army Ranger Special Forces. I said, "Hey, man! We love to have you up in PA training us a little bit." He said, "I go wherever the schedule shows." He says he's open to it. Nice folks. Oh man. Gosh, incredible quality. By the way, he's an incredibly high level Christian Apologist. He knows Apology very well. Very well. He's made videos against Post Modernism and Relativism, etc, and talking about Christianity; so, he is open with his face. Faith and face, and also his Warrior Poet Society, General Jesus, the greatest warrior poet. Tremendous lover of God. Awesome man.

So, this is a Korean, folks, Last Line of Defense. He's powerful on YouTube. Thousands of views. Hundreds of thousands, millions of views. Half Korean guy out of Colorado. Bumped into him. Took a picture with him, he said, "You're one of the tall Koreans, aren't ya?" I said, "Hey, we exist." You know what I'm saying. We exist. I thought he was big. I thought he was my size, you know, when see him in the videos, and stuff like that. Nice young guy, which does really good reviews. Very nice in the gun community. He's a citizen. He's not a military guy. He's a citizen sheepdog, okay. He trains. He trains in the firearm arts, martial arts for being a sheepdog. Good guy. Good young man. Mike.

Tony Semenat. This guy was a Marine. That dude is a monster. Monster! That dude is a freak athlete, too. You do not want to get into a physical confrontation with this man, you understand? Don't be diluted. This man can dead lift 800 lbs. He can flip up tires, he can jump. He has an incredible jump for his size. Unbelievable athleticism. Ridiculous. But he's a big dude man. I'm pretty big, too. Over 200 lbs. I'm pretty big too for a normal person; but, that guy makes me look like a string bean, soy bean, or something like that. I don't play no video games; but, he make me look like a soy-boy. Tony Semenat.

This is a hero out of Southerland Springs, TX, who was the good guy with the AR-15, who the bad guy with the AR-15 that shot up and killed 40 plus people. This is the good guy. This is the hero. That's Johnny. Anyways, we're getting in contact with him. He gave me his number, etc. I said, "Hey, I want an interview, man. You're a hero." He just was walking. We were talking, waiting for somebody. Wait for the girls; and, we're just walking and talking, and I see this dude. I said, "Oh, I know that guy. I said, wait a minute. Come here. I know this guy." He's got this big longhorn TX tattoo on his neck. Good ole rodeo boy. His Mama raised him right, because he did the right thing. He stopped that bad guy with an AR. That's why you need the AR, because the bad guys use AR; and, this is the good guy, young man, along with another good citizen pulled out their AR, and just killed that man, that crazy lunatic, who should have, by the way, should have been caught by the police and FBI, because he was on psychotropics, and he was outside the AR system. He fell through the cracks, and he was psychologically categorized as deranged. They should have absolutely had him under lock and key.

We saw the girls at the NRA. Amy Robbins and Style Me Tactical. Nice young ladies, who are doing there thing, and they're models. Amy Robbins' a model; but, she's also one of the cohosts on Colion Noir. They're stepping up their game like crazy. They have to be able to market themselves to the young people. They got to look cool to young people, cause the young people get so easily brainwashed into Socialism, Communism, because the stupid Hollywood stars are paid big, big bucks, and funded by George Soros, in order so that, and also work with the CIA in some different propaganda movies. It's like North Korea does movies, and Korea has control over their cinematic artistry in their countries, right? Totalitarian regimes always want control of movies, cinema, things like that, always, cause they'll use it as propaganda, just like Hollywood.

There with Jade Struck. She's a young lady. She's deadly. Deadly. She's so good. She's training under world champion Taran Butler; and Taran Tactical. She's ridiculous with firearms. She shreds the courses. I mean, she is not a joke. She can defeat anybody here. She's ridiculous. This is her Master and Instructor. He's a world champion free gunner, Taran Butler. We got to go train with them, when we're in California next time.

And, Mr. Ted Nugent. He's of course the face of the NRA; and, he appeals to all the hunters, and all wonderful patriots out there, etc; but, again he didn't appeal to the minorities as much as Colion Noir, who's now become more famous than him, who now become the face for the NRA. It's incredible. It's incredible.

Man, I'm so grateful, because everyone was say, "Oh, is the King going to wear the bullet crown?" I'm so happy I didn't were the bullet crown this time, cause not everybody knows us, yet, right? But, A&E is doing something on us. BBC, New York Times, all of them did something; and, now the Washington Post is coming out with something on us in May. By next year, everybody will have seen the bullet crown; so, next year, when I'm wearing the bullet crown walking through the NRA Show, and maybe some of you Ninjas who are married also can wear the bullet crowns, too, and walk through their with me; then, "Oh, I know those guys. Those guys. They're the Gun Church, the AR-15 Church. Yeah!" They'll know you by then. So, it is good, it's good that God didn't prompt me to wear the Ammo Crown this year; but, if we have the boost there next year, etc, then the time is. God is preparing such an amazing group of peoples. They're getting ready. Incredible. Incredible.

These are the people that are completely inline with understanding the real bottomline, bottomline of civilization. They're not diluted. They understand how important it is that the people have the right to keep and bear arms. Absolutely essential; and, as Colion Noir says all the time, "If technology improves, and we have plasma guns, and photon guns, we want that, too. Okay. We want it, too, because we have to have the same amount of force and/or more than any centralized power.

And, of course, there you go with the Pew Pew Man himself. Pew Pew living, Pew Pew life, Mr. Colion Noir. Bam! Super star. Oh my goodness; and, it was amazing. God was setting it up. All we did was walk by faith, walk by faith. Lisa and Lowell were just following me around. Let's give them a big round of applause. I wore them out. I feel sorry for them, because they don't know which way. It's like, which way is he going to turn. I got to keep following this guy around. Following him around.

Following him around. I know how that is. I did it to the Lord. You know what I'm saying? I did for Father. I know exactly how that is. I understand your pain; but, you saw the miracles.

We just run around the corner, and boom! We're just talking to these Navy Seal guys over here, and getting pictures with Navy Seal guy, and a Green Beret here, and we're waiting in line to play this NRA, not a video game, but it's a trainer, a trainer can use with video technology to train; and, we may get one of these for the Church, too, so we can train with the Ninjas, and stuff like that. It's a pretty good system. Anyways, we're waiting in line to get in that, and then I see this young black man standing over there, with four white guys surrounding him. They looked like soy-boys, you know, they had their little classes on with flannel shirts. "Oh, yes, that's a great idea. Great," you know. And then I see a little small black man over there, you know, a black guy over there. I was saying, "Who's that? I'm looking at this hand movements. "Hey, I recognize those hand movements. I thinks that's Colion Noir." So, I walk over to the corner, and walked around him, and I said, "Hey!" And the four men and his Producer, they looked at me. "Yes, can we help you?" "Hey, let me get a picture with Colion Noir." He said, "Yeah, come on it." It was amazing.

You know how hard it is? I walked around Shot Show all day long. I could not bump into any one of these stars. It's so hard to bump into these stars. God said, all we do is walk by faith, walk by faith, walk by faith. Boom! He's setting up meeting, after meeting, after meeting, after meeting. And so, we ended up taking pictures with Colion Noir, and what was even more incredible, Colion Noir gave me his number. He gave me his number. I'm not going to exploit it. I'm not going to use it a lot. You know what I mean? I'm waiting, just waiting. I'm not going to call him, yet. I'm waiting, just waiting, you know. We're not desperate anyways. We know we are standing in God's Providence. We know in His Spirit. We know we are standing with Christ. We know that the Kingdom is coming; but, amazing. Incredible. Unbelievable, folks.

Ah, what's that last one? So, not only that happened, but then incredible, the Holy Ghost works in all other ways in all other Sanctuary patriots. We're talking to other people in their location; so, we get a call from Burgi, or we get an email from Burgi Hutcherson down there in North Carolina. Give a shout out to Burgi Hutcherson down there. She says, "Oh, we got somebody who may want to talk to you guys. Go ahead. Pay that clip.

YouTube 1:52:19

(It's a speech by Mark Robertson from Greensboro, NC. He lived in Greensboro all his life. He spoke extemporaneously about being the majority. He spoke about the rights of people, who get blamed for all these shootings on the majority. This was about the Second Amendment, and our rights. He said he was there to stand up for the law abiding citizens of the community. He said, the criminals are not going to turn in there guns, if one is asked to turn in their guns. Who is going to suffer? The people. I will suffer? So, he said, he's going to complain like the "Left Wing Loonies." He said, the AR-15 is a semi automatic rifle not fit for combat. "Anybody who goes into combat with one of those is a fool.")

Mr. Mark Robertson. That video went viral. Millions of views. He's a superstar now. NRA should absolutely hire him. He came and spoke at the NRA Convention; so, he was there, and he will be on The King's Report on Tuesday, folks. He'll be joining us on Tuesday.

Also, Monday, we got this young man, Maj Toure; and, of course, Lisa hooked up with them. I didn't see him; but, Lisa bumped into them. These are the Black Guns Matter, folks, out of North Philly; and, they are changing the urban neighborhoods, they're changing the inner-city. They are empowering black folk and minorities in the inner-cities to know that they have a Second Amendment right. They are getting educated on the safe handling of firearms, and be able to protect themselves from the criminal element and the criminal gangs that are ransacking their cities. This young man is, right here:

(Bio on screen) Maj Toure is a Solutionary Hip Hip artist turned 2nd Amendment activist from North Philly. His following began after he was featured on the cover of the Philadelphia Weekly as "the Prophet of Philadelphia." He founded the Black Guns Matter movement in 2015 and tours across the country providing 2nd Amendment education and information to urban communities. Maj has been featured in the New York Times, etc, etc.

He's going to be on the show tomorrow, folks. He'll be joining us for the third hour. Good young man, good young man. He's helping to empower. He's a Hip Hop artist. He's trendy. He's cool. He'll meet a lot of young people who will connect with him, because he's got skill; but, he's empowering young people. He's empowering those urban communities to know their rights, and to defend themselves against evil. Do you understand? These are good folks, folks.

See, in the Kingdom, it's a totally different civilization. See, this is a community that you all didn't know, right? We didn't know this community. This community is like the bedrock. They're the ones that if the government becomes so tyrannical, they will pick up arms and fight them, you understand.

So, these Leftists, and the Kwaks, and these Paks, and these Kims always try to do the Peace Ambassadors to these Leftists, because they want to get into George Soros' pockets. They're allying with evil, allying with the Luciferians, Satanists and Communists; but, of course, these are the people that would understand Father. His hunting lifestyle, his outdoor lifestyle, his fishing lifestyle, his entire focus on telling key educationists, training young people in martial arts early, training them in survival and, he didn't call it bushcraft, but training them in survival skills, and fishing and hunting, and stuff like this. Firearms use.

This is the real Father that wants to protect civilization, not just morally posture, pretending he's some fake Vatican Jesus. This is a real father, who wants to protect real people, real boys and real girls, and real men and real women. You understand? He's a real father; and, these are the people that understand that. They can understand the spirit of that, you understand?

They don't have the spirit of the demons that Jesus had to cast out in Luke 4 you saw. They don't have the spirit of oppression that gets to you, oppresses you first, then gets you comfortable with the oppression, then makes share that suffering with everyone else, and then sacrifice power, so that you can then feel good, and get off on this shared suffering, which you created this Hell on Earth. They been created believing in Pol Pot, and Communism, and Mao Zedong. Ridiculous!

It's like this evil wicked spiral, which the devils are trying to suck you into; but, these folks, there into a totally different spirit. It doesn't mean they're perfect. It doesn't mean they're flawless. It doesn't mean we agree with everything they do or say; but, they are standing in the spirit, standing in the correct Spirit of God.

They want to empower people. They don't want predators to win. They want bad guys to be put down, if they try to do evil; so, in that sense, they're good. They're sheepdog. Maj will be with us tomorrow.

It's a whole new culture, folks. Whole new culture; and, of course, now the whole world is going to get to know our community. They're getting to know the 2nd King, they're getting the three Kingships, what that's all about. Slowly, slowly, people are starting. It's way faster than I thought. All these different media, large companies trying to slam us. All that does is just push out the knowledge of the Kingdom further. Then the people can check for themselves what we're saying, and guess what? If normal law abiding citizens hear what we're saying, they're gonna probably agree eighty-five to ninety percent in what we're saying, and realize we're not crazy. We're not lunatics. If we're lunatics, then George Washington was a lunatic. If we're lunatics, then Thomas Jefferson was a lunatic; but, of course, they do believe that. They do believe that.

So, the tides are changing, and God is moving. We hope everyone can join us tomorrow at the event with Paul Mango. I hope we get the proper government in, Governor in, so he can support freedom, sovereignty, and Cheon Il Guk culture more in this area. He's the only one that stood up with us on The King's Report, spiritually, and of course, he's the only one that you can see on that checklist that's supporting all the correct Kingdom Principles, and of course, it's a fight. It's a fight.

Let's look at Cheon Seong Gyeong 72. SOS, come on up.

God is the first to follow, absolutely, the laws He has established regarding justice and the public good because they are in keeping with heavenly principles.

You see this? Remember what Mark Roberson was talking about? He was talking about law abiding citizens. They're law abiding citizens. Why? Because God also obeys laws that He made. God is a law abiding citizen. Did you know that? God is a law abiding citizen. Well, He's the Creator, okay; but, He's the law abiding Creator. He abides by mercy, He abides by law. He abides by the Principles, Principles of Heaven; and, those who are law abiding we are in the Spirit of God. We are Spirit of Christ. Doesn't mean we're flawless; but, we're in the same spirit. We have a good nature.

After God, then all people are to follow, and then the universe. There is no alternative direction. Such is the ideal standard of man's creation.

And you will see how the Satanists twist this. They'll put evil up at the top, so that you have to climb this pyramid of evil; and, the higher you go, the more wicked things, the more seditious and nasty things you have to do, so they can get it on camera, and blackmail you all the way to your grave, where you'll be sent, and burn in Hell. This is a fight, folks, and it's a fight between Kingdoms, bloodlines, and you know it's a Cosmic battle. We're all involved in this. Wow!

Alright, let's all rise up. Give God all the glory. He's moving in a powerful way. Let's stand with Him at this time; and, let's offer Him all the praise, glory and honor. SOS, take it away. Amen-Aju!
