

2018.05.20 ~ Kingdom Rod of Iron 16
Rev. Hyung Jin Moon
Sanctuary Church, Newfoundland, PA 18445

Alright folks, we in the Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 16; and, let's get into the Word today. We are Luke. We are in Luke; and, this is Chapter 6. Let's read together from Verse 19 up here.

Luke 6:19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. 20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

The Kingdom of God, see? The disciples could see. The disciples understood, that, what is the Kingdom about. They understood what the Kingdom was.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. 22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. 23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

Amen, okay. And of course, it goes on. The whole Chapter goes on; but, let's focus in on here, today. And of course, we see wherever the Kingdom Gospel is preached, and we just studied last week, Luke 4:43, Christ says himself that he must go to other cities to preach the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. Christ himself defines the Gospel, the Euaggelion, as the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. His message is a message of a Kingdom that will come, okay.

And so, again, he mentions it again here; and, wherever this Gospel is preached, look, it brings healing to those who are disenfranchised, who are sick, who are possessed by demons, spirits, etc. Wherever the Gospel is preached, the Gospel has tremendous power. It also upsets the political hierarchy of the actual world; so, you can see wherever the Gospel is preached, it destabilized the Roman hegemonic system. It started sending waves through the Pharisees, who were basically the information gathering, or intel agencies for the Roman prelates over Judea; and, that's how they got information, inside information by working with the Pharisees, who would rat people out, who were their political enemies; and, of course, Jesus was their political enemy, okay.

So, where Gospel of the Kingdom was preached, it doesn't just make everybody feel good. It brings tremendous hope to those who are the slaves of society, which the normal citizens were slaves basically, even they actually had actual categories of slaves of the normal citizens in today's world. They're living in abject poverty, okay. It's a political system just like the Left, or Fascist Right will create centralized government political power, super-ruling elite class who were maybe five percent of the population. Ninety-five percent were poor, impoverished, and under control.

You see this everywhere, right. Every Communist nation, every Socialist nation, every dictatorship, every authoritarian totalitarian culture will become like this. Inevitable. That's of course what is called Political Satanism. It provides and creates the atmosphere for actual Satanism to exist; and, you actually become ruled by real Satanists, because at the top, those people are so above the law, so into nefarious evil things, they are literally Satanists ruling over you; so, you have a scenario just like you had potentially if Hillary Clinton got in.

She was actually hanging out with real Satanists, right? John Podesta, and all those people. Marina Abramovic doing these Satanic rituals, carving pentagrams into their stomach. I mean, this is insane. This is what these crazies are into.

So, if you have that type of political system, then you will have tremendous oppression, tremendous loss of freedom, no sovereignty for the normal citizen, okay.

But, when the Gospel is preached, there's something else. There's something else that happens in that whole dynamic, because when the Gospel is being preached, and the Kingdom Gospel preached, it's showing a totally different kind of Kingdom, a Kingdom where the coheirs with Christ, (Roman 8:17) where they'll rule with Christ, (Psalm 2:8-9) that God will give us the inheritance of the world, not so we can get on, you know, ego trips, and feel all powerful like weak people, no. So that we can give glory to God, and be stewards of His land, and His Creation. Will get into that a little further.

But, you can see, wherever Christ reigned, we learned last week we covered the Scriptures, where Christ was chasing out the demons. One-third of his ministry was fighting demons fighting. One-third of his ministry is where the Savior is fighting demons. So, Jesus had a fighting centric ministry. He did a lot of fighting, okay.

Chasing out those demons, bringing bringing freedom. The Bible said, "Where the Spirit of God is, so too is liberty, or so too is freedom." (2Cor 3:17) There's freedom from the devil. Freedom from his oppression. Freedom from his depression. Freedom from his suicide. Freedom from his death. Freedom from his shackles. There's power, cause you're no longer a slave. What's that song?

(singing) I'm no longer a slave to fear. I am a child of God. Who! No longer a slave to fear, right?

So, wherever Christ goes, he is chasing out devils, chasing out demons; but, look at this? Also, virtue is coming out of him, and its being replaced in these people. Demons will be chased out, virtue is being put in. This is so important. This is very important. Demons be chased out. Virtue being put in. This is very important. Very important. That's why ethics of force, ethics of self-defense is so incredibly important, cause that's where you learn about virtue.

Oh, my gosh. Vice on HBO, there like a documentary thing. They do all sorts of wacky documentaries, but anyways, they did one on the real story in Afghanistan, where some of the Afghan leaders we were helping, they're kidnapping young boys. They're rapping them, sexually, they're rapping them, okay; and, they're trafficking these kids, and you know, the little politicians come in there, and they're lied to, and you know, Vice did very good reporting. They actually were there. They showed how the politicians being lied to. They showed the actual stories of how the kids were being raped; and, the military officers are trying to stop this on the US side; but, the Afghan side, some of them were corrupt, and into the sexual trafficking. They're not doing anything about it, okay.

What the troops are trying to do, when they're trying to train them to fight the Taliban, okay, in Afghanistan, they're trying to teach them virtue and ethics. You can see the troops on the American side, trying to teach these guys, look, you can't just kill somebody for no reason. You can't just kidnap people, and give them to your troops to rape. That's not ethical. You understand, they're trying to teach this to them; and, they're making all sorts of excuses. "Blah, blah, blah. What do want our people to do? You want them to, you know, bang their grandmother. They got to have..." That's what they're saying, with much more vulgar language than I just used.

So, they had to infuse within them, virtue, and an explanation, "Look, you can't just shoot out into the field. Don't just shoot out. Number one, you're losing, you're wasting ammo; and, number two, you don't know who you're hitting. You may be hitting a civilian." But, then the Afghan people said, "So what! They're all the same anyways." And, then they said, "No, no, no. No! They're not the same. There's combatants, non-combatants. You can't just treat them all the same. You can't just kill anything that moves." They're trying to teach these people, "You got to aim. You got make sure you see that target, when you put your site on them. You have to make sure that's a combatant." And then this angry Afghan guy holds up a fully automatic weapon, runs out breaking all the orders, runs out there and just starts spraying into the wilderness, hitting nothing, obviously, like a lunatic. And, the American troops, they're like, "Are you serious? How are you going to fight Talibans, huh." Oh, my Lord!

You chase the demons out, you chase that demon spirit out, who wants to centralize power, who wants to rule over other people, that weak, evil, pathetic, ugly spirit of Satan; but, then it has to be replaced. It can't just replaced with Sharia Law. It can't be replaced with Paganism. It has to be replaced with Christ, with Judaeo-Christian values, because that's where you learn to love God/ love your neighbor. You learn how to be patient. Not all religions are the same. The supremacy of life in the Judaeo-Christian framework is critical. People are made in the image of God. You have to as a last resort. You have to in defense of other people, that's when you can kill. Obviously, you can't murder. That's when you can kill. That's a last, last resort. But, that virtue has to come in to replace; otherwise, that evil will go out. Then it's an empty vacuum, and evil will come back in. Just like the Scripture says, "You may change, you may get his friends, and five times more may come." (Matthew 12:45)

So, look at the French Revolution. You had the Revolution started from the grass roots. They had the big Revolution, and then what happened? It got replaced Napoleon. They same old system. Just a different leader now. Look at what happened in Egypt, you know. The Arab Spring that was funded by the US government; and, this endless wars, where our kids just die, die, die, die, die.

What happened? The US came in, took out these... There all dictators over there. Some of them will lead a little more to the, you know, democratic side; some of them lead a lot more worse, okay. So, we go over there, and we take out the ones who lead to the democratic side, create this huge vacuum, and then ISIS and Muslim Brotherhood comes in. That's what happened in Egypt. Look at Libya. Look at Syria. Look at Afghanistan, Iraq, etc. It's taken over by radicals now, cause a vacuum was there. It's the spirit. Five times worse came back in; and, this is what we call Cain-type Revolutions. Dangerous, right?

In order for the Abel-type Revolution to happen, you to have all strata of society to participate together. You have to have the rich, the middle class, and the poor, altogether, working together to oust this tyranny; and, that's what happened, of course, with the American Revolution. But, of course, because of the sin of slavery, that is why America is crumbling internally, because that was a sin.

But, as you can see, when Christ heals the person on the individual level, let's take that to a nation. Well, you can't just heal it. Virtue has to come in. The ethics of good people, of goodness, must come in. The ethics of strong, willing to die, willing to put your body on the cross. Take up your cross, Jesus says, right? So, strong Alpha male, Alpha female, ready to put their lives down, yes; but, also patient, forbearing, slow to anger, have the fundamental ethic of love God/ love your neighbor. I mean, you can't just replace...

The mind is the weapon. The mind is the problem. The mind is where we have all these issues. Not the heart, the mind. All these things the Bible says, Christ says, is the first Commandment. Love God with all your heart, strength, soul, and mind. All these things are the internal side. They precede, they precede the external side. You can get tools, but if you believe in radical Jihadism, you're going to create Hell on Earth.

So, the Rod of Iron doesn't only symbolize only the weapon. The Rod of Iron symbolize the person, the King and Queen, who's with accordance with Christ with the Crown. Revelation 3, "Let no man take thy crown," because you stand together with Christ in his civilization and his culture. Love God/ love your neighbor is our life, right?

Now, they say I'm a cult leader, and they say you're all cult members, okay, because you believe in the Second Amendment, and you stand up for the US Constitution and the Kingdom of God, and you love God and love your neighbor; so, that's why you're radical, you're all radical. And, this week, what is it, Memorial Day is next week. A&E is coming out with extreme beliefs, and of course they have one segment on us; and, they are, of course, going to paint us as this extreme radical group. Thankfully, in the Internet Age, people can look for themselves; so, millions of people are going to see that, one percent of a million is 10,000 people. Say fifty million people see that. That's 50,000 people, maybe, that's one percent. Traditionally, if a hundred people heard Divine Principle, maybe 5 people would join us; so, let's say five percent.

So, let's go real low ball. Let's go really, really low ball; and, let's say one percent who see that program say, "Oh, What? What's so radical about that? I going to research what they're talking about." That's ten thousand people right there. That's fifty thousand people across the United States, who are already gunners, who already understand Castle Doctrine. I mean, the crown is not a weird thing. We already have it in American law. The Castle Doctrine that Lowell was talking about this week. The Castle Doctrine. You are a King of your castle, legally. I mean, legally. But, as Americans, we don't talk like that, because we're so anti-King, because of King George, but he was a satanic King. Jesus is King. You can't forget this. Jesus is a King. Hello!

I mean, the Christians are not taught this. They're not taught this. At least, you know, boy oh boy. I was talking Taj Toure down in Philly. Black Guns Matter CEO, and Mr. Mark Robertson. Hey, he's going to be coming down to PA in November, I believe. Man, it's powerful.

But, we were talking about Margaret Sanger, cause she was a racist eugenicist. She wanted to kill Black folk. She wanted to destroy Black babies, which is the reason Planned Parenthood kills fifty-four percent of Black folk every year. That was a racist eugenicist that targeted the Black people. Now Latino, Southeast Asia, you name it. All the minority communities with the "Women's Care." Women's Care is what they called it. No, no, Women's Health Care; but, you can't get a mammogram, you can't get a check up, you can't get a gynecological exam, you can't get none of that. All you get, basically, is an abortion, and they want to call it healthcare. It's ridiculous. But, these devils, they knew. They targeted. They targeted the innocent, they targeted the weak, the weak that were made weak by society. Why these false Kings in the satanic world.

So, we can see, wherever the Kingdom is preached, the devils flee. The demons flee. Sickness gets healed, but there's a fight. There's a fight with that demon. There's a fight with that demon spirit. It's like talking to somebody on the radical Left. It's like a demon spirit in them. They're possessed. I mean, they're saying, I'm in a cult. They're in a cult. They're not open to evidence. They're not open to logic. Everything in common is shut down, shut down, shut down, censor, censor, censor; and, the answer of course is Right-Left dichotomy. The answer is the Kingdom of God. It is the poor in spirit will inherit the Kingdom. (Matthew 5:3+) The answer is the normal citizen becomes a coheir with Christ. (Roman 8:17) Lives by Christian ethics and principles. Trains by Christian ethics and principles, and is not dis-empowered, but is made empowered to stop wickedness and evil. The Bible says, we not fight against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, and rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places. (Ephesians 6:12) So, we know that a fight our fight first is a spiritual one, and it is a mental one. That's why Jesus said, himself, in his Commandments, "Love God with all your heart, soul and mind." (Matthew 22:37) That's where the battle is.

Look at it. Look what happened this week with the Texas crazy lunatic shooter again. An internal psychopath shooting up people. Now, the tool he used was the shotgun in this one. This loony used a shotgun; so, even if they banned the assault rifles, that wouldn't help this one. This is for hunting. You hunt pheasant with this. You hunt rabbits with this shotgun. You talk about assault weapon, assault weapon. That wouldn't stop this, because that is not an assault weapon, assault rifle, which of course, the AR is not. The AR stands for Armalite Rifle. It doesn't stand for assault rifle. Get some education. Don't be ignorant; and, of course, you see more deeply into this lunatic's brain, in his mind where the battle is, where the Devil tries to come in and destroy you. The Bible says, "The Devil is like a roaring lion that seeks to kill, maim and destroy. (1Peter 5:8) Steal, I'm sorry. Steal, kill and destroy. (John 10:10)

Who are the biggest thieves on the planet? It's not even the small gangs. The biggest thieves, who rob the most amount of people is the centralized government, the politicians, is the political class. They are the biggest group of thieves on the planet. Whatever system of government you see is basically centralized government. They are the biggest Mob, the biggest Yakuza, the biggest Triad, the biggest Bloods and Crips, you call it. Whatever. That's the biggest organized Mafia; and, that's why we have a Second Amendment, because we have to deal with that with King George in London, Britain. The founding fathers of this nation, even though they were imperfect, cause Christ has come back, yet, and we still had the sin of slavery, they understood that this centralized power was evil fundamentally in you; that this would lead to oppression, evil. Totalitarianism as it happened in Europe.

So, again, this Santa Fe again, they want to blame the Rod of Iron, the want to blame the AR-15. Look at these lunatics? Look at this weak little soy-boy, little pathetic, little video game, little guppy, little pathetic devil. Oh, he thinks he's so tough. He got his back little trench coat on. He wants to be like the Italian black shirts, or the brown shirts; so, he's got his black little trench coat. This kid lives in Santa Fe, Texas. You're gonna wear a black trench coat in Santa Fe, TX as your daily outfit?

And, look at all these symbols? Remember, we talked about Symbology. We talk about Symbology a lot around here, cause Symbology is very important. It shows the inner meaning of what's going on; and, that's why Satanism is really into Symbology. When I interviewed that Mr. King, who was a former Satanist. Remember, he was talking about it; and, now he's a Catholic. I don't know why he would become Catholic. He should become at least Evangelical.

But anyways, the point is, we were talking about these things. Look at the upside down pentagram here. You got the upside down pentagram here, which is actually a Baphomet. There's another red Baphomet up there. That's like the goat head, the upside down pentagram. That's the symbol of Satan. You see that, immediately, you young kids should understand this. When you have a little Instagram, a little trending little photos of Baphomets and upside down pentagrams, it's Satanism, you dumb bums. You got to be careful. You have to have discernment. That's trying to open you up thinking it's some just kind of design, and it's cool; and, so it's okay, it's modern, it's trendy. That's to open you up to its inner philosophy trying to make you feel like you're different, you're creative, you're trying to learn something new, which in the young generations, they always get them on that. They think, "Oh, we're going to make everything new. We're gonna be the new generation." You're going to fall in the same old stupid ancient trap that every generation that went into the pit of Hell did. It's not new, it's ancient. What you're following is not new, it's ancient. It's old. You're complaining your grandpa's old. This is way older than grandpa.

They got the octopus, which is the international connected conspiracy symbol. It's all these tentacles that reach back to the main body of the octopus; so, that's the international symbol for conspiracy in these secret societies. You'll see these guys dressed up in black suits on Wall Street, or whatever. They're walking around, "Hey George. How you doing? Yeah!" You look at the lapel. They got lavan octopus on their lapel. They are in some satanic worship, sex orgies, you name it. They're in it, and involved in it. Highly likely if they're wearing that type of Symbology. I'm not saying this kid was. The higher uppers.

Anyways, this is like low level, trying to attract these kids into the evil, the worship of evil, the study of evil, the study of the worshiping of wickedness. They did a nice one. The Vice documentary did a nice documentary on the Temple of Lucifer, or Satan, one of them. They're apparently different. It's ridiculous the variations. The same thing. And, the guy was saying, "Hey, we believe in freedom. We believe in power. We believe in all these Ten Commandments that the fake God gave. Ah, it's all fake. You got to do what you got to do to get power, money, resources. This idea that it's gonna get better when you die is a lie. That's made to keep you weak." Satanists believe that you have to do whatever you can to get power now.

Ooh, see that? That sounds just like Communism. That sounds just like Socialism. Anything for power now; and, of course, the most dangerous power is centralized power. Of course, that is what all the totalitarians seek, to centralize governmental power, because they can hide behind this huge apparatus of force with millions of guns, pretend they're so good and caring; yet, they have this huge apparatus that's tax farming the people. Stealing and robbing from the people. Trapping their kids. Making them dumb down and weak, making them into complete slaves; and, this is the history and cycle of civilization throughout history since the Fall, because God gave the dominion. He said to Adam and Eve, "Be fruitful, multiply, have dominion over the Earth." (Genesis 1:28) You will be the Kings and Queens of this Earth. The Devil tricked Eve; she tricked Adam; and, they sold that whole inheritance, and their blood to the Devil.

So, look at this kid. He's into, clearly into Satanism, cause this is what I warned all these Ninjas when their training. I warned you, in these kind of fighting communities, you'll see. There's pockets of this type of occult fantasyland that seeps into the fighting community. You can see it. Some dojos, they just think it's cute, cool. They just want to be different; and, "ah, we don't want to be Christian. Were just gonna be, you know. we're going to be into weed, and you know, occult stuff."

Yeah, you may learn skill and technique there; but, you'll slowly open up towards, "Ah, it's not that bad. Ah, it's not that bad. All my guys, they wear the skull shirts. Ah, they all wear the same thing." You see, it's slow, it's slow. It's meant to be slow, do you understand? If it's too fast, you may resist it. It's meant to be slow. It's designed to be slow; so, you warm up to it, slowly. You get use to it; and, before you know it, you're wearing literal ancient satanic symbols. What kind of psyche is it? What kind of influence does that have on your mind, on your spirit, on your soul, which should gravitate towards God, and everything pure and holy. I'm not saying you're perfect. I'm not saying you're not perfect. None of us are perfect; but, we should be gravitating towards the one who is totally pure, who is righteous; but, apparently if you do that, you're weak, and the Satanist, yeah, they see that sign as weak. "Oh, you're weak. You won't do everything for power;" but, of course, that's their weakness. They'll do anything for power, and that's why they'll always back-stab each other, and kill each other, even though they get power, which is seen. Look at the Roman Emperors. Just back-stab one another. One gets the power, you just kill that one. The next one, you just kill that one. It's an endless cycle of wickedness.

But look at this whacked out boy down there in Texas, which decided to walk in on an Art class, by the way. An Art class. Hey, he didn't want to walk in on a Football class. He didn't walk in on a Wrestling class. He walked in on an Art class. Everybody's, "Oh, a beautiful painting honey. Oh, so beautiful." And the idiot came in, the lunatic came in, and he just said, "Surprise!"

This is like the same modus operandi, the same pattern every time. They're into evil. They're into Satanism. They're into like these occult arts. This kid was an atheist, even though his mom made him go to church. "I'm an atheist." Posting up things about Atheism. And all of a sudden, he's not good with girls. He's angry at all girls. You know, it's like this same kind of pattern of these lunatics, these mentally unstable people; so, then they want to go on this killing spree to prove that they're strong; and, "Look out! You going to remember me." You're going to have to kill everybody to do so. "All you girls that didn't see my true power. You're going to remember me, cause I'm going to kill everyone." Do you see this psychosis, this crazy psycho.

Video gamed out. Probably on psychotropics, which almost all of them are. Every single one, minus Texas A&M was on psychotropic meds. It's a nasty drug killing your brain, killing your moods with serotonin re uptake inhibitors. This kids are whacked out. They're video gamed, dumbed down, dumbed out. They're so whacked out from reality, that of course no women are attracted to them; so, then they get angry at the world, and they want to prove their point, so they can pretend that they're powerful. This is a problem. That's a problem.

Now, this is happening. This is happening. Now before, think about it: Before your kids even, and my kids too. I mean, the young generation, it's brainwashed into video gaming. They can't stop. It's like a drug. It's so addictive. It's designed to give you those dopamine highs, and these feedback loops, and you're just, ooh. Now, it's on internet play, where you play with other people across the world; and, once you get stuck into that world, you're living in fantasyland.

It's okay, you want to decompress. You have a hard day, you know, you have stress at your job. You want to decompress, and you play with your wife, that's okay. I mean, that's not the best; but, you know, I'll see it as better. But, you know, there's these kids that play fifteen, sixteen hours a day, five to eight hours a day. They're playing hours and hours and hours a day, completely separated from society. Isolated. Depressed. Their whole life purpose is playing is to play a game. So, dumb down, and so weak; and, then you got women watching romance dramas, and getting addicted to the romance dramas, which are designed to give you, the women and your brain function, designed to give you those dopamine highs. Just seeing romance and romance, and triangles, and oh what's gonna go on. You know what's gonna go on. You love it anyway. It's like a drug designed to do that; and, look, that adds up to so much.

Turn the volume down real low, boys. Play this thing. This is, I want to show you this, folks. This is in South Korea, okay. Look at this. This is the Olympic Stadium in South Korea, okay. The Olympic Stadium. Now, in order for you to actually be a sports athlete before, you had to be athletic, you had to work hard, you had to practice your craft, you had to practice your art, and you actually had to be physical good, okay. That's all throughout micro evolutionary, you know, processes; and, that's why naturally we celebrate men who are strong. Men who are strong. We actually celebrate them. You know, high level boxers, high level kick boxers, high level martial artists. You know, we celebrate them. Women, too. Women who are strong. We celebrate them, because it's that kind of strength, and that kind of hard work that's gotten us to be stronger than lions and bears and tigers, etc.

Now, they have this whole genre of new sports. It's called, "E-Sports;" and, people are going jammed-packed into the stadium to watch a video game. Do you understand? This is called E-Sports. And, this is the largest stadium in Korea, the Seoul Olympic Stadium. Seoul Olympic Stadium, do you understand? Forty thousand plus addict game children and grownups descend to the World Championships. Did you know there's a World Championship? World Championship of Video Gaming, and the top prize is like fifteen million dollars; so, there's money in this.

So, you have all the groupies, all the, you know, the girls that want to party with these boys. They're eating ramen noodles all day, and playing video games, cause they may win the world championship of, you know, fifteen million dollars. I mean, if you watch the whole thing through, it literally looks like a dystopian movie. It looks fake. It looks like a fake movie that someone is making to talk about the future dystopian future. A future dystopia that he's trying to warn people about.

But think, look at all these weak beta males and beta females. Look at them. They're like string beans. They don't look like they ever got, you know, you could literally bicep curl them. I'm not even that huge. I thought I could probably bicep curl some of those Korean kids. Lift them with one hand. Ridiculous!

I mean, there's like 40,000 of them coming to the World Championships of Video Games. Do you understand? This is a fake reality. Hello! Do these kids understand this? This is fake. This is completely separated from reality. Do you understand this?

When we train MMA, when we do BJJ, that's not fake. You're going to get your neck choked off, or your arm broke, or your legs snapped. Do you understand? You play stuff like this, you are living in delusional land.

Now, all of you, let's pretend, all of you are totalitarian, and you're a total control freak. You want to centralize government, you want to control the population, and you see a population this. Whoop, what do think now? You see a population like this. All these soy-boys, all these kids who can't even do a push up. There idea of mental fortitude is beating a rhinoceros monster in the game land.

And look at this? They have a huge concert. They have bands for some to play. I mean, this is big money. Big money. It's designed that way. It's designed this way folks. The Roman system of control was predicated on bread and circus. You control food, you control the circus or entertainment, you control the population. That's why Marxist doctrine trains the Left. Trains people who want to control population, to control media, to control celebrities and Hollywood. In our country, it would be Hollywood. Control celebrity, control media, control TV, control news. Of course, control education. Make it government schools. We could brainwash kids at a young age to be pro-state, to never question the state.

So, look at these boys. I mean, look at these boys. I mean, they're being paraded around as heroes. Anyone of these kids here could whoop them right now. Even these kids. These are trained just so little. All thee boys right here. Before they came as a boy, they looked better after three months. They could whoop those kids in a second, in one second. This is a joke.

And, you got these groupies, these girls bikinis. Oh, my God. Pick me, pick me. Braindead. Wow! So, it looks like, it literally looks like some kind of fake movie that they're kind of making up to make fun of a future dystopian war. This is happen folks. It's here. It's here.

Now Moms, before you go off, and just try to behead your sons because of the video game, look, if they have video game technology, you can't take that away completely, the iPhones, the Internet, and all this stuff; but, honestly, if they're addicted, if they're getting addicted to this stuff, and they're playing five, six, seven hours a day, then you may have a problem.

Look at them. They're watching a video game. Do you understand? They are not even watching an actual sporting event, where you can marvel at the potential of human potential. They're watching a video game. There's literally a blue man right there. I don't know. Is that Psy undercover or something like that? That looks like the Korean rapper. What's that Gangnam style?

This is not a dystopian movie. This is reality folks. They have a European team. They're trying to create an American team. But, think about it, if you were evil, and I know you're not, but if you were, and you wanted to control the population, you get to pick and choose, you get to pick and choose the population. One population is training kids, you know young age, real combat martial arts, and real tournament, and real training, and another population playing video games.

Now, if you're evil, and you were a Hitlerian, Stalinist, Maoist demon possessed person, which one would you choose? Which would you choose? You know how easy to get these kids, to control. It's interesting, they have a five part series on this program in this documentary. In part number three, there's actually a Congressman. You say, how does this effect politics? There's a dang Congressman out there, a Congressman in Korea, who's supporting the gaming world. He comes out to these big things dressed up as the characters, and he's like fifty years old. He dresses up in the costumes to get all the braindead kids to vote Left, to vote Socialist, to vote Commie, to vote for a more centralized government; so, don't tell me this is not involved with politics. This is directly involved with politics. The politician will see this and laugh. They're laughing at you, cause you're so weak. Not you. I mean, you know what I mean, right? Generally. The Pop civilization, okay.

These are becoming the new heroes. That's why they want to create fake movies like Harry Potter, which make you believe that this little weak little soy-boys, they're really the strong ones; but, it's not true at all. Look at every government Mafia that organized this. They gather everything for themselves. They gather guns on their side, and they control populations, because they know they need the Alpha males.

So, the Vice reporter asked them, "So, do you believe you're an actual athlete?" And out of the five kids who won the world championship, this is the five kids, these poor, unfortunate babies, little babies, only one said, "No, I don't consider myself to be an athlete." Four of the kids said, they believe they are an athlete like Michael Jordan, or any other athlete playing any other sport. Remember, this stage is bigger than NBA Championships. I mean, think how diluted they are. This is the actual players who won the world championship. Four out of five said that they believe that they're actual athletes. Are you kidding me? If you took away Internet from them for one day, if you just EMP'd, or just shut off the power, they would go berserk insane. That's how weak they are.

They don't know how to start a fire. They don't know anything about survival. They don't know how to defend themselves. They don't know anything about self-defense. Nothing. You shut off the electricity, they can't do anything. Their little super powers are gone; but, they want to believe, they want to believe they have all these super powers. They play these games, "Oh, I'm so powerful." They're diluted. They're living in fantasyland. You're on drugs. Oh my goodness. And they have like these intro videos. They're running in slow motion. These soy-boys are running in slow motion, with CIG graphics. Oh my gosh! Oh my Lord! Even any of my white belts could break them in half. It's nuts. Oh Lord have mercy. It's so sad. I mean, this is literally what's happening to the next generation. It's designed that way folks. Don't you understand? It's designed that way.

Don't you understand? Look, it's coming out declassified that even the iPhone, Apple, had contracts with the FBI and CIA with backdoor channels into your cell phones. They have to go through government, to get government permission to create these. They have all these stupid little laws that these companies have to abide by. They get into these phones, take your data. What do you think Facebook and Google are? They're data mining companies that sell you information to advertising companies, even though that's illegal. Do you understand that? This is what's happening. This is what's happening to the next generation.

Now, while there mesmerized in video game land, thinking that they have special power and super human talent, let's see how Russia is training. Go ahead, let's play some of the Russian special forces training. Okay, so here's some Russian boys. Here's some of the Russian boys training. Now remember, this is a little more real world, okay.

Okay, now Russian boys are starting their training like this. Meanwhile soy-boys all over the world, the modern boys who believe in video games and worship like it's their god and cult, AI. What a joke. What a joke. Look at these kind of beasts that are training; and, Russia's definite not perfect, even though moving away from Soviet Union style, and going towards Christian more, but still, it's a dictatorship. But, their boys are trained a different way, folks, you understand the reality?

Let's look at some of these Chinese boys, and how their trained. The ones that the government, of course, rules over like slaves. Choose the ones that are athletic. Go ahead. Go to the next video. Let's look at some of those Chinese boys. Hmmm! You see that? Not video game land. You see. While you're in video game land thinking you're bad, bad ashtay, thinking you can destroy and conquer the world. You got real evil powers training right now.

I'm not trying to fear monger to you. I'm not to make you scared. I'm trying to give you a reality check, folks. Just like the first time you trained in real fighting arts, you get a reality check. You're going to get choked. You're going to get broke. If you have too big an ego, you're going to get hurt; and, that's what happens to societies who get taken over and brainwashed by media. Education systems have been taken over by centralized Political Satanism. They teach you soy-boy fake video land fantasy drama. It's designed to keep you poor. It's designed to keep you happy, and living in a one hundred square apartment, while the super ruling class can have armored properties, you know, all over the world.

Look at the Communist nations. I've been to North Korea, folks. They have all these white buildings. They're actually kind of grey. In the countryside, the same style. That's what they call public housing. Little cells for everybody. Everything's monitored. Everything's on CC TV. Everything's being watched. When we went to North Korea, they rigged our car, they rigged our room, everything. We couldn't say anything.

And, while were diluted in video games and entertainment, the prosperity that we all have, and the technology. Do you understand some of these tech giants, there the most wicked totalitarians on the planet. They're using technology to enslave and ensnare you. Keep you excited and entertained, so that you're weak, because you actually never be strong and build real strength. You never read your Bible. You never read Scripture. You never connect with strong men and women. You stay isolated. You stay in your room. You stay under surveillance. It's kind of like an open air prison. You know, you can move within that prison boundary; but, really, you're in prison.

Like London. London has become the most surveilled city in the world, right? Cameras on every single street corner, right? Every property. You have a little property, you have a little yard, somebody's watching you right from top. Your not free.

YouTube 1:28:30

Go ahead. Go back to those soy-boys. Go back to that World Champion of fake gaming. You can see. It's like, this is why in society, you know, when you're young if your just totally nerdy, and you're not into doing anything physical, you get made fun of, because micro-evolutionary speaking, that was a detriment to the population. If the boys were preparing to be become strong, if they're not unlocking their epigenetics, if they don't catch a bear, and they don't become strong, because there may be an attack from another tribe, epigenetically you had to be training all your men to be warriors; but, society, as we become more industrialized, more modern, and then we don't teach the men to be warriors, so then they become soy-boys, they become gamed out, braindead children like that; and, then of course, the girls are not attracted to them, because they not attracted to them just naturally, instinctually, you're not attracted to those kind of boys, alright?

But then get to a stage where they try to promote these kids as heroes, and brainwash a new generation of girls to believe that weakness is real power, or untraininess, untraininess is real power. Unpreparedness is real power. Inability to defend yourself is real power. It's the opposite of what has allowed our species to survive over the animals, the tigers, the bears, the beasts, the hyena, the wolves, and lions, etc. Total opposite. And, if you're a man, and if you're into these things, you're seen as crazy. You're seen as an extremist. You're seen as a wacko. If you believe in the Second Amendment, you're an extremist.

They call us a gun cult; and, we believe in the Second Amendment, and the empowerment of women. We don't want are women to have any trouble, if some bad guy tries to do harm to them. Ah, we're so bad cause we do that. No, we have proper brain function. We're amygdala function. We understand our proper place, and our identity with Christ, as coheirs with Christ, Kings and Queens of the Kingdom of God.

You can't just walk up to Prince Harry, with the fake Queens of England, and just start harassing them, taxing them, raping them. You can't do that. They have layers of protection around them. So, why is it wacky to the normal people to try and create those layers of protection, and allow themselves to understand themselves as valuable as well? Sovereign. A royal family. Where not slaves for this super class. Were royal family, royal family.

So, here you go. Here's little world champion video gamer. Oh, he's so cool. He has a music note earring key. It's that, it's that little sexy balance between like feminine and masculine that they're trying to brainwash the young people believe that's strong. You grabbed that thing, tear it right out of his ear off. Are you kidding me. You think dying your hair purple makes you strong, gives you super powers? Give me a break. There living in la-la land. Delusion land. Golly. It makes me so angry, because I'm sure everybody here, the people are saying, "We don't want people to be exploited. We want strong people to defend themselves against tyrants." This population cannot defend themselves against tyrants.

"We'll give you free internet service, and twenty-four hour gaming privileges, if you vote for me. Yes, yes, yes, yes." You know how easy it is to get these kids to vote for you as a Politician? "I will protect your gaming rights. I will fight for National Game Day. I will fight for twenty-four hour access to Internet. All the Congressman who want to stand against it think curfew's at 12 o'clock PM, twelve o'clock Midnight, I will cancel that curfew, so all you young people can play video games as much as you want. We'll even ship free food to your door. Just stay indoors and be healthy. Vote for me."

You know how easy this is? This is a joke. You know how easy it is to destroy this population? To take it over, and they will willingly do it. That's what's so sad. They will willingly do it. No, no, no. Not all these kids are not born weak. They're trained to be weak. They're trained to be untrained. They're trained to be exposed and vulnerable, cause they lost their father. They lost their father. They have lost their relationship with God, who is our Father. What does the Bible say? "Ready us for war, and prepare our finger for battle. That's in Psalms. (Psalm 144:1)

But, not because we want to wage war on people, because bad, bad forces have made and waged war on good. "Oh, but you say in the Kingdom of God, cause you heard it from your preacher, when the Kingdom of God when Christ returns, there's going to be a millennial period, and there's going to be no more evil.” Wrong. Read your Bible. Look at Revelation 20:7 on. You will see very clearly that even a thousand years into Christ’s reign, Satan emerges from the pit, gathers evil from all corners of the Earth, and the Bible says, as many as the sands of the sea. But, wait a minute, I thought your Pastor said, in the Kingdom of God, there’s going to be no evil. How does as many as the sands of the sea wicked evil people, how are they present? Cause God is the same today, yesterday and forever. (Hebrews 13:8) He gave free will; He’s not going to take it away. It not going to make us all turn into robots when the Kingdom of God. That way the Kingdom of God just be a big computer game that these soy-boys would probably love. Oh, my Lord. Oh, my goodness.

Look at that? Our boys in our community here, they could have become like that. Did you see that guy, that wacky kid go slow motion shouting? Did you see that? Your boys could have become like that, if they didn’t get training from the King, the 2nd King. That’s where they were going, right? Think about it. That’s were they were going. Oh, my Lord have mercy.

But, just look at the difference? Look at this population of people? They’re so dumb down and weak. There so pathetic. So shallow. So selfish. So narcissistic. So self-absorbed. So isolated. They rather play this than deal with human beings and train hard with people, and build other people up, and train their daughters, so she’ll never get raped and murdered. They’re not fathers. These boys are not trained to be fathers. They’re trained to be guppies. Menchi. Menchi. They are trained to be sardines. They’re not trained. They’re not being trained to become strong fathers. They are being trained to become menchi sardines ready to be eaten in a tin can. Oh, they’ll be happy to live in a tin can, as long as they get Internet access, and free access to games. Oh my gosh! It’s mental illness. Mental illness.

These kids don’t know what a Maple tree is. They don’t know what an Oak tree is. They don’t know what a deer tick is looks like, compared to a dog tick. There idea of going out into nature is going out to pick up ramen noodles out of their apartment building to go to the fast food shop, and they see a blade of grass, that’s nature for them. My Lord what are they thinking about?

I was thinking about a thousand years ago, there’s human beings in the open deserts, in the open fields. Compare them now to this weak new species that is emerging. It’s like a different species. It’s like an alien species. I’m not saying there’s UFOs, and this stuff like that, okay. I know A&E is going to take this Sermon, and try and twist it. But, it’s like becoming like a different species ready for the slaughter.

And, of course, that’s why they went to the different neighborhoods to target the Pastors. Margaret Sanger targeted the Pastors, because they know they have lots of influence with people to explain the Word of God, and what they do. They made the Pastors teach a Socialist, Communist message hidden in a Gospel package. Teaching you Liberation Theology in the Catholic Church, or many Protestant denominations. You should be unarmed. You should give yourself over to the State; but, in all that, you should be happy.

Well, there’s a big difference when Christ returns, cause no longer are you forced to just endure. Christ allows the coheirs with Christ to stand with him in the Kingdom. To stand up, not oppress people. What the Bible says, poimaino. And you will rule them with a Rod of Iron, shattering them into pieces like the potter’s vessel. Rule, meaning poimaino in Greek, which means what? To protect. Now, how are you going to protect, if you’re playing video games all day? How are you going to protect, when you never slept outside, and got rained on, don’t know how to create a survival shelter, and make a fire?

Protect your CBT, Core Body Temperature. Don't know how to stop somebody who is attacking you? Don't know how to use force-multiplier? What are you going to do?

You're weak, and how you say, you've become a different creation. You're made in the image of the archangel; and, you wonder why you're so depressed; and, you wonder why nobody wants to hang out with you, except other people in the same psychological delusion of video games; and, you wonder why your marriage is breaking down; and, you wonder why girls don't want to come near you.

Okay, I'm not just picking on the boys here. I don't want to just pick on the boys here. You know, girls got a lot of delusions, too. Right? Even before the girls start training, they're super diluted. They think they're so strong, because they saw videos on feminism, and Charlies Angels, and all these things talking about women are only perfect, and men are all evil. Believe that men are weak; but, then they start training, and then oh my goodness. Even this skinny little soy-boys can whoop my ass. They find that out. They get shocked. They get shocked, cause it breaks their conditioning, it breaks their delusional training that Hollywood, and feminist doctrine, and that public school has given them.

While there's populations like that, go ahead. Turn on those Russians again. Do you see the contrast? I'm doing this for you just in your mind; so, you can understand the contrast here. Now, if you're a bad guy, and you have control of these guys. You're a bad guy, right? Let's pretend you're a bad guy, but you're not, and you have control over these guys, and you see little soy-boys playing video games in these stupid stadiums, are you gonna laugh, or not gonna laugh? How easy is your job to take over that country? Is it a joke or what? It's not, okay. It's a joke. It's a total joke, right?

Now, that is the reason why in the Kingdom God gives, and defines His rule by the Rod of Iron, because for the first time in history, when God's Kingdom comes, the citizens will have the dominion of the use of force; but, that's why God blessed it with the Peace Police/ Peace Militia, which is decentralized Police Force, the decentralized military, where all the people come together, train, together, and make each other stronger, to love God and love their neighbor.

So, you become self-defenders of the nation, but also of one another; and, you will become stronger than these Russians, because why? You have the moral high ground. Not only will you physically become this strong, I mean there's obviously some variation between specimens, and people's body ability; but, generally the population will become stronger, but we have the moral high ground, because we don't want to have dominion of the use of force to oppress and enslave, but to free and liberate. To bring under the dominion of Christ, and peoples into their true place and identities as Kings and Queens in the Kingdom of God.

Now, you think about one of these Russian big boys could literally take out fifty of those soy-boys. Do you understand? Do you understand why it's so crazy? Do you understand why people who didn't understand Father when he talked about Peace Police/ Peace Militia, and training young kids in martial arts, real combat arts when they're young? And teaching them survival, and fishing, and hunting, and how to use firearms, and starting firearms manufacture company? Do you understand why a good father would do that for his nation, and his people; because he doesn't want you to be absorbed and destroyed by evil forces that are doing that right now? Training like that, cause he actually loves you, because he has a plan for you. Cause he wants you to prosper, and not to be a slave. That's the sign of a real father. That's a sign of a real God who loves us.

But, again, we've been so indoctrinated, so enslaved, so brainwashed, so dumbed down, so made pathetic, so made weak that we buy the lie of the Devil. This is not strong, this is bad; but, become video game soy-boys, and that's good. Hey. Oh, my Lord! What a con job. What a total lie they are feeding to people. Thank God for Peace Police/ Peace Militia, cause all our boys and all our girls should be strong like this; and, they won't have Vladimir Putin, and they won't have that whole Russian, and that whole Chinese evil totalitarian system. They'll be willing to protect people. They'll be self-defenders. They'll be good people, who will know how to control force, because bad guys and wolves won't use force to enslave you, which is the reason why good folks need to know the dominion over the Earth, and have dominion over the power. God said, I give you not the spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind. (2 Timothy 1:7) Good folks need to build fear into these kind of bad guys, you see.

Your not going to give them fear by playing video games. Look at those guys. You not going to give them fear by watching Korean dramas, and watching your romance novels. Your not going to give these guys fear. Your not going to ward off this type of evil by just sipping on caramel macchiatos, and go to Starbucks as your daily exercise routine. You are not going to scare these bad guys. Do you understand? Do you understand? That's why the Peace Police/ Peace Militia that Father blessed us with in the Kingdom of God is such a blessing, because from a young age our kids are taught it's normal to become stronger. When we see these folks, when I see these guys, when Francis sees these guys, we train people, nope, it doesn't look weird. It doesn't look strange. I mean, they're, you know, this is what you learn in the real arts of defense. They're using what works. Of course, this is more of a demonstration. They're doing dumb stuff, which is more show and flamboyant stuff; but, you can tell these guys are definitely training also. The real stuff.

Human with free will are God Creation, folks, which human beings can choose evil. The difference is up til now from the Fall. We were slaves to the evil ones. No way to fight back, no way. Not possible. In the Kingdom that gets reversed, the poor in spirit, those who have been oppressed, those who have been in slavery, those who have been under the fist of the rulers, become Kings and Queens; but, not so they can dominate, and have tyranny over the masses; and, we become evil, like the evil overlords; but, they can but what? Chase out demons and what? put in virtue. Remember that? Chase out demons, and put in virtue. Chase out demons; put in the virtue of Christ, the virtue of Christ's civilization. To be strong. To be willing to die. What is it? John. In the Gospel of John, Jesus talks about that. That he who loves, no greater is he who lays his life down for his fellow man, right?

These guys are training. Of course, they're under an evil system; but, in the Kingdom, good folks will be training, because they will be ready. And when their ready, because they're cowards, and don't have the moral high ground, will act stupid. If they're rash, they'll be punished hard, just like in the Book of Revelation, Chapter 20, okay.

Do you see how their brainwashing you? Do you see how their making you weak? Do you see how there trying to fool you, with these video games, and entertainment, and bread and circus, and anything free from the state. Whatever it is, it's there to fool you, and make you weak. It's not there to empower you. Who's there to empower you is your Father in Heaven, right?

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
 He leads me to green pastures beside still waters. He restores my soul.
 He leads me on a path of righteousness for His name sake.
 Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil.
 Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
 Thou prepares a table for me in the presence of my enemies.
 Thou anointed my head with oil, my cup runneth over.
 Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
 and, I shall dwell in the house of Lord forever.

Psalm 23

Do you understand, folks? Christ is one that brings the lambs to the slaughter. He paid the sacrifice. Father walked on the 10,000 crosses, not so we all could be put under totalitarian regimes in the same cyclical pattern of the people of his, so that the people of God can inherit the Earth, and truly be free. To reign with Christ, with justice, love and mercy. To stop wickedness by understanding, understanding, and having dominion of force, so bad guys can't do this to you and your children.

Alright, let's stop those videos there. Let's go to Cheon Seong Gyeong. I hope that give you a little refreshing reality check. That's, of course, why the Peace Police/ Peace Militia training, Get you 3 PM nogi. Let's go to 552

Wherever people exist, there is always some goal to attain. We are to focus on such a goal for ten, twenty, thirty, seventy years and, indeed, our entire lives. The greater our goal, the stronger our internal commitment needs to be. Unless we maintain an internal determination that surpasses the goal through the process called time, the goal will be unattainable.

And that's why Christ said, 'Love God with all your heart, soul, strength and mind.' That's the internal that must precede the external goal, right? Internal understanding, internal virtue and ethics that must precede your training of Peace Police/ Peace Militia. The ethics and the virtue must precede it. You must understand the nature of your Father, the nature of having a right mind, and having righteousness, and being a good individual. Amen.

When, in the Kingdom of God, young people, generations, understanding the true identity of the bloodline of Christ, true Royal Family, understanding their Royal duty to protect and defend other people. Satan, wicked people, wolves and demons may try, may try to do bad things; but, they will certainly not succeed.

Alright folks. Let's all rise. SOS, come on up. Let's give all the glory to God, who strengthened us. Power, righteousness and mercy, to be coheirs with Him in the Kingdom. Amen, Aju!
