

2019.01.06 ~ Sunday Service ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Moon ~ Newfoundland, PA 18445

2019 is going to be a crazy year, It's going to be pretty crazy year. You know, we're getting through preparing for the Rod of Iron Festival right now, and the 2019 calendar is coming up. You can pre-Order at christkingdomgospel.com. There's Father in the fields hunting pheasants with a 12 gauge shotgun. I remember walking in the fields with him in the island of Jajudo when I was young; and I remember how fast he was. The birds come up and boom! He drop them so fast. So, then I realized, my Daddy is... You better not mess around. It's good for a young son to know that, you know. You don't mess with Daddy. Very important lesson, okay?

But 2019 is going to be pretty crazy, folks. We have the Rod of Iron Festival coming up. That is amazing how God is moving so quickly with that, and how He's just supernaturally organizing people. I can't tell you too much, I can't say too much, but the supernatural organizing the exact blessed people that need to come on board to make this happen in a mighty way. So, I just want to give thanks to God that all those kind of people that have been lined up, and they're so blessed, and they been working together with us opening up the avenues, okay? That's all I'm gonna say for that. It's just a tremendous miracle.

Also, how's our lobby look, folks? Does the lobby look gorgeous or what? I mean, it's getting there. The Queen, of course, has made the beautiful forty foot mural with over a thousand pieces of wood geometrically cut. You've seen it as you walk in. It's a beautiful piece, okay. Also, the wall on the side where the stone is, that wall was done by Misha Panzer and her team. Let's have them stand up. Come on. Where's your team? Christine. These young ladies designed it and made it beautiful, gorgeous. Is that wall beautiful or what, folks? Isn't it gorgeous? Very nice job. Very nice job, ladies. Very nice job.

And, of course, Maryann is working on her wall over there. It looks like nothing's happening, but she's actually working on it in the small sanctuary. Kimyo is on this wall here with the sort of digital fade wall that you see. She's gotten a little under the weather in the last couple of weeks, but she's gonna be moving forward with that, okay, so look forward to those things. Oh, we got the boys, too. We got Williams, we got Mira and Sun Ho. They're working on the tables, okay, that will be coming in, so everybody can enjoy those beautiful tables as well, okay?

So, we have wonderful teams, and we have young people that are very talented and building skills as well. A lot of them never dealt with this type of medium like cutting wood, you know, power saws and those kind of dangerous stuff so it's been a good experience. I saw Misha and Christine out there, and they come at night and do it, and they were out there using the big chop saw, probably the first time in their lives, right? Right, they never used that kind of medium before, so they are unlocking epigenetics while they're working with this new medium, but beautiful pieces are coming out, so you can see the spirit is changing, you know, and then how the Sanctuary looks.

How does everybody enjoy the bathrooms? The bathrooms look beautiful? Okay! Very good. Robert Carvell and the team here is fixing the lights, so we no longer have lights that are out, and so it's an ongoing thing; but, you can see how much renovation and renewal has come. So, we're very blessed, very grateful for all the folks and all the teams that have been working on those beautifying projects.

Now, it's very interesting, you can see how shocking some of this stuff is. Somebody mentioned during the announcements how the world is going toward Paganism and goddess worship, these kinds of things. God warns us against this very clearly in the Bible. That's why doing the Rhemas, staying very close to the Word is so important, so important. That's why every single one of the Holy Spirit University classes have to be Bible based. You have to have context of Scripture, okay, because if you don't you'll start getting sucked away by the different views, whether you realize it or not, okay? It's very important.

No Sunday school? Sunday School, you guys can go. There's Sunday School. Okay, thank you Sunday School teachers. Bless you guys. Are they having Sunday School outside? (Yes) Oh, nice. Nice! Man, I wish I had that when I was young. Lord have mercy!

What were we talking about? Paganism. Excuse me. I'm still a little dizzy from the sinus, okay. But, how the world is moving towards this kind of Paganism and things like that. You can see the organization of the Family Fed that is suing me. They're suing me for using the mark, which my father designed and gave to me. I mean, it's like ridiculous. You can see where they're going; and, of course, we knew, they're going toward Paganism. They're totally adopting the Leftist agenda of Feminism, Socialism, Communism. Even Father his whole life stood against the evils of Communism, Socialism, Feminism, all that he stood against this his entire life; but, because of the Fall of the Han Mother, they just embrace that whole world.

Do you guys have the pictures? Look at this. Look at these pictures. This is at their Summer Camp, or whatever, their camp that they had. This is their Winter Camp; and, this is the T-shirt that they produced. Everybody was wearing a T-shirt saying, "demigods" on it, as if they're demigods. Look at that?

So, it's so sad, because you know, they may be well meaning people, but of course they're getting sucked up into the whole liberal, you know, Communist agenda, the One World Government agenda. They don't know, but they are now coming totally on Satan's side. They're completely embracing, self-worship and idol worship, you know, think that their gods. "Oh, it's so empowering. We have shirts that say demigods." Okay, so this is a symbol of what they believe. We would never make a shirt, never make a shirt that says, "demigods" on it, where young people are celebrating that they're basically gonna be, you know, bossing God around. Come on! I mean, it's absurd. There's no Church in their right mind that would ever make a shirt like that. Come on!

But, you can see what happens when you leave God, when you leave Christ. Of course, there's this angry feminist hatred towards men and towards the Father God and towards Jesus, because he's a man. They just adopted the wickedness of the these demonic women who have created, you know, this war on healthy and honorable men. It's amazing. And the Queen is preparing for her Queen Bee program on Youtube in Korean; but, they're going to be attacking Feminism very hard and show the history of it.

There's this woman. I'm sure you heard of her. Debbie Freidan. Is that her name. Betty Friedan. What a wicked witch. Wicked demon. Demoness. I mean, such a wicked witch. Here she is. She has quote, right? She had this whole concept in the 1960s about this clique moment; and, all you women, all you girls who are in this room, whether you know it or not, you're brainwashed by her to some degree.

Now, there's different levels, because a lot of you are awake, okay? But, the normal girl growing up in the West now is brainwashed by this kind of wicked woman.

So, she's sowing the seeds of discontent. What did she write? She wrote in sixties, she wrote this piece which became a huge hit in the pop culture. She wrote that there's this clique moment that women all across suburbia, okay, driving their kids to soccer games, doing laundry, cooking food for their husband, you know, and at some moment they have a clique moment where they say, "Is this all that there is to life? I'm just a chauffeur to these kids, I'm just a slave to this husband, slaving away doing laundry and cooking?" Now, how many girls, you girls are definitely being hit by this all the time. Resentful, discontented attitude, which of course will make you a terrible person.

But, the point is, this woman wrote a whole article about this. Tried to pull out the seeds of discontent within women, and basically tried to make them... The answer is what? The answer is, "the Government will save you." That was the answer. This is about Feminists. They're Marxists in pink panties. That's all they are. It's just Socialism is pink panties. Feminism is nothing special. Their answer is the State, a centralized power, which is ridiculous. That's the most dangerous. That's like giving power to the Mafia, okay? That's giving power. It's like marrying a crime syndicate. It's the most dangerous thing; but, anyways this is how they suck women in.

And, she wrote this in like Vogue Magazine, or some magazine or something; but, she wanted to make these women angry. Then she creates this lie saying, "Oh, if you're working in the workplace, you're going to be thrilled. You're going to be pursuing your dreams." You know, as if working in the workplace is not filled with chores, filled with chores. You're not committing home chores when you are working in the workplace? Filled with chores. Every day is a chore. Are you kidding?

And, by the way, if you feel like a chauffeur, and you feel like you're just attending to these children, you're chauffeuring them back and forth to school, you're a terrible Mom. You're a horrible Mom. Why? Because, it's showing that you're not engaged with your children. You're just driving them around like a braindead person. You're just driving them around without any engagement in unlocking their epigenetics, or speaking with them, conversing with them so they understand deeper things. You know, when we were talking with our kids about Philosophy when they were nine years old. You know what I'm saying? Talking, you know with them. The Queen did Bible Study with them, you know. They're older now. We were talking with them about high level stuff with my young boys. I used to talk to them at a very young age. Kids can digest things very quickly.

But, if you just feel like a chauffeur, like I'm just cooking food for these mouths that endlessly eat. How much do these children eat? Where does it all go? Money in the mouth. Money in the mouth. Where does it all go? And, then they want... do you see what I'm saying?

But, if you feel that way you're not an engaged parent. You're not engaging with your children. You're not helping to raise the next civilization, because engaged parents don't feel that way. The car ride for them is a great place. It's like an office. The car ride is a place where you can engage your children. You can talk to them about strong issues, deep issues. Do you know what I mean?

So, this kind of thing is so critical, you know; but, I mean, it's horrible how this one woman, you know this group of women, this small group of ladies, who by the way, many of them get married at the end. They say that marriage is the death bed. It's slavery, right? And, then they get married twenty, thirty years later. They just screw up the whole generation of women's lives, Gloria Steinem, etc; and, they actually have kids, too. Did she have kids? I think she had kids. Thank God she did not have kids. Thank God she don't have kids.

But, seriously folks, but this is why you have a most angry, unhappy generation of women ever. They're angry, they're bitter, they're resentful, they're hateful. They've been trained to be this way, unfortunately. Those are attitudes that will make you miserable in life. They've been trained to fail. Are you with me? It's very, very sad.

But again, these wicked women, and for example, this one woman, Margaret Sanger, right? This one woman starts the Planned Parenthood to eradicate Black people in the Black neighborhoods. Now, she's murdered over 54 million. Million. Million children. This one woman got that passed, and of course gets government funding. Outrageous. Outrageous, folks. You see that? So, this few handful of these wicked, wicked women brainwashed the girls out of marriage, For example: Marriage is such a good deal for you girls. Holy shmita. I mean, the wise women know.

But, if you're willing to live forty, fifty years of your life alone, you have all these Feminist young girls, "You don't want to get married. Just live your life doing, you know, this or that." Once your eggs dry up and wither and die, you can't have no children, okay? Every year, they start drying up. You only have a limited supply. Are you with me? And, by the time you reach forty, then you have to live alone for the next forty, fifty years of your life. Oh, you have friends, I have friends, sure; but, you're don't have friends that you can count on. And remember, your body is going to get weaker and weaker. You're going to get more sick, you're going to fall apart physically. If you don't have somebody there that's by your side that is honorable and loyal to you, that's why choosing honorable men is so important. All men are not the same, Amen? They're not all the same. There's a big difference between honorable men and dishonorable men, honorable women and dishonorable women. There's a big difference, a very big difference.

And that's why the Scripture leads us to transformation. The Scripture leads us to transcend stuff like this. This is very sad, cause these young people have been brainwashed into failure. They're being brainwashed into narcissism, into idolatry. They're being brainwashed into self-worship and they will be so unhappy because of that. It's so unsatisfying to worship yourself. It's so unsatisfying, cause you know it's the biggest lie on the planet. You have to pretend like your a god, and they are pretending they are demigods, right?

But, they know how pathetic they are, they know how selfish they are, they know how petty they are, etc, and they have to put on the fakeness. Do you understand? It's a real hell hole. It's a terrible hell hole. It's horrible. It's much more free to understand our life in Christ and be free, because we know I'm not comparing myself because I'm holier than you. We know that we are sinners, but I'm saved by His grace, His mercy, His love. It's so frayn to know that. It's so frayn. It's so frayn to know that. You're free to be like him, and to pursue him, to grow closer in him. Are you with me?

But, this is of course very sad. It brings pain to God's heart to see this, because I'm sure they may be well meaning people, whatever the case may be; but, again they're being sucked into Political Satanism. And, this is of course if you follow those wolves, you end up in a place of Judgment, even though you had good intentions. It doesn't matter. You still end up in the place of Judgment. When the Shepherd comes to punish the wolves, well, then those who follow the wolves will also get punished. Are you with me?

Decisions have consequences folks. They have consequences. It's very important. I mean, you feel a lot of women you deal with on a daily basis, you know, you'll feel that; but, these kinds of teachings of Feminism, they're pervasive in the culture that actually try and get on the inside. They try to say, "Oh, you're unhappy. Oh, you're suffering so much." You see what I'm saying?

When you're living in the most blessed country of the world, you have an honorable husband by your side who's not cheating or committing adultery, you know what I'm saying? You got children, you know, with different case scenarios, but you're alive. Your heart beat is still kicking, going strong; and, if you think about it, there's so much to be grateful about, but the Devil tries to sow those seeds of discontent.

Let me ask you a question, ladies. Answer honestly: When you talk to boys and girls, is it harder to make girls feel discontented or boys discontented? Which one's easier? Huh? Which one's easier? It's easier to make girls to feel discontented, right, cause if you play with their emotions just a little bit, you can get them to feel real down. "Oh, yeah, that's really true. My life is so terrible." You see what I'm saying? The Devil can really get to you.

So, it's very dangerous; but, these wicked women, I mean, they brainwash, they brainwash so many girls; and, this is repeated over the airwaves. They're just, you know, slamming, you know just trying to steal their heart. The Bible doesn't tell us to do that. It tells us to come into God's presence with praise and thanksgiving. (Psalm 95:2) What does that mean?

That means keep like a daily what Psychologist talk about a gratitude journal. If you just think of three things you're grateful for everyday, your life changes. This is even if you don't believe in God, okay? I mean, this is even for atheists. If you think about three things for which your grateful every day, your life changes. Everything starts changing. This is like proven by Psychologists. At U Penn, it's called Positive Psychology. It's the number one course at Harvard. Three things of gratitude every day. Whenever you feel down, you just think of three things you're grateful for, and your life will change. Completely change.

But, of course, it's something that Christians know they're supposed to do. You're supposed to thank God for everything. You know, we're not supposed to lean on our own understanding. "Acknowledge in all your ways, and He will set you path straight." (Proverbs 3:6) We know. We're supposed to practice this constantly, cause the Devil's trying to get us into these spirals. "Oh, I'm so poor, I'm so... you know." Get into these negative spirals, the hell cycle in marriage, right? "Oh, my husband is so his or that. Oh, my wife is this or that. Oh, he never understands me. Oh, she's always ignores me, blah, blah, blah." The hell cycle. Are you with me? So Satan knows how to tear you up from the inside; and, so it's very important to know how to fight him and have your spiritual combatives on at the same time. Are you with me?

That's a very interesting thing; but, that Friedan woman, she's sneaky. She really made it personal, you know. To all these Moms who are trying to take care of their children, they are actually trying to do the honorable thing. They're trying to take care of their children the best they can, okay?

They say the first five years are the most formative years of your children. If you're working in that time, stop working. Don't work. Let your husband provide. Don't work. Keep those five years free for your child. There's nothing more important than your child, girls. Nothing. No stupid little Master's Degree, no stupid little job that you're working to click all these thing into a computer, whatever it is. Doing Customer Service, whatever, none of this is important. Your child is the key. Five years, at least. I mean, you give five years to go study and get a Master's Degree. Why won't you do that for your child? This is reality. It's created a generation of selfish women, selfish women.

Out of your whole life's span, ninety-five, hundred years, why would you choose the exact five years that you need to invest in that life in that next generation of civilization? Why would you choose to want to go back to school or want to do work at that exact time of the five years that you need for that child?

Do you know that if you give up your children – These are studies – twenty hours a week, if you give that child up to daycare, it's like the children have the same symptoms, the same symptoms as if they had maternal abandonment. That means like they were thrown away. If you give your children up to twenty hours of daycare a week, which is not a lot if you think about it, right? It's like four hours a day from Monday to Friday. People don't think that's a lot, right? If you give your children four hours a day from Monday to Friday, they have the same symptoms of depression, of anxiety, of non-attachment to their parents, they have the same symptoms as if you threw them out. Are you with me, folks?

And the first five years are critical. How many people know this? Parents who have older children, you know. If you don't invest that first five years strong, and get those kids to trust you, you have a whole life of suffering, because they're going to be reeling from that lack of attachment they had. I mean, for young couples who are about to have kids or something like that, you must understand this. Do not screw up your life. Do not screw up your life because if you're having children, this is very important. All you young people, too, you're getting ready to get Blessed, get married, and you're becoming high level people, so it's so critical. You have to understand how important you are, not in a self-worship way, but how important you are for the maintenance of civilization, because it's high level people, high quality people like yourself that you are going to be that produce high quality children in the next generation. Are you with me, young people? Im not saying this to give you a big head or something like that. I know how much you guys have grown. You know what I'm saying? Very important. Very, very important.

You know, in our case, we couldn't be with them all the time, right? We were serving Father, running around; but, what we did with our children, we kept the days. Every week, one day, one child on a date with their parents. Full attention for that child. Full. I'm telling you, if I didn't have that with my kids, I would have no individual relationship with them. Seriously. And, they would never have confirmation through the years of their development that their parents actually appreciate them. They would never know; but, every time, every week, we did this day. We do that. Basically, we had a date with one of them, and we do training on that day. They say three things they were grateful about Mommy, three things they were grateful about Daddy, Mommy says three things they were grateful about that child, I would say three things I was grateful about that child, and that active act of number one creating attitude of praise and thanksgiving, of thanksgiving. That attitude is so important to that atmosphere, and to those individual relationships; and, then through the years you can see them grow, right? How important was those days for you boys and girls, right? You guys, right? It's so important.

If I did do that with my children, and really, the Dad has to take ownership of this, you know, because if the Dad is against this, you know, it's pretty hard to do. It's very important that fathers, when you young fathers, you future young fathers right here, it's very important that you guys take ownership of this. This is your Kingship, you understand? It's not something you play around with. Are you with me, young men?

You don't play around with this. It's like this. It doesn't matter how much you water the seed, if you're not putting the seed in the proper soil. If you're throwing them in styrofoam, you can water all you want, it's not gonna grow. Are you with me? And, you have put that plant in. You got to plant that seed in the proper soil. You got first couple of years, where you really have to watch them. At a certain stage where they get there roots in and honker down, then they're big trees, yeah, there's much less maintenance, are you with me? But, when they're in that first five years, boy, that's... You know, five to ten years, those formative years, that's critical. That's where of course the archangel comes in, the government comes, and tries to take your children from you. They try to convince women, "Your children are not important. You can pursue your dreams. It's all about you." It's not about a life. Somebody who is a living embodiment of you. You're just taught to be selfish. Don't think about this child, although it's slavery, as though going to work, working in Dunkin' Donuts or Customer Service is some kind of thrilling exercise every day. Give me a break.

"Yes, yes, hello. Thank you for calling Adaptergen Insurance. Yes..." You're telling me that's more important than raising your child? You're telling me that's more important than raising your child? Give me a break. It's ridiculous. They try to scabble the young people to get their priorities messed up; so, then they position them for failure. They can't have God's people succeeding. They can't have people being in powerful marriages, tremendous joy and happiness overflowing with in their marriage that's pouring out like rivers to other people, inspiring people to come to the Gospel, you know what I mean? They can't have that. Are you with me?

You know, Christian families that are powerful Daddies and Mommies with their children, you know, that have high level parenting, you know. We're not just like releasing stress on the children, nagging them out of existence, this kind of stuff. This is not how you raise a little plant, right? You want to raise a pine tree, right? But, when you plant that pine tree, that little pine nut, it's so sensitive you know, while it's growing, you just nag it, try to over water it, or try to over... You're going to kill it. How many know what I'm talking about? You're going to kill it.

So, it is very important that you young people understand this. It's preparing for marriage, children. This is the most exciting part of your life, trust me. It's the best part of your life. You've been lied to by the world saying, this is the worst part of your life. Screw you, if you believe that, cause you are going to be screwed by the world, okay? It's a total lie. It's the best part of your life. Getting married, having children, raising them, being awesome parents. This is the best part of your life. Are you with me?

This is the best. There is nothing more enriching than this. There's no dream. There's no little project that you can do that will be more enriching than raising high level people that you call your children; and, every day you see them grow and do incredible things, you feel the joy every single day, because you made that investment. You have left a legacy with them. Trustworthy, high level people that are growing into beautiful, powerful trees. Are you with me?

So, these Betty, Debbie Friedans and these... Oh, my goodness! They just try. They destroy people's lives. If you listen to the wrong advice, right, you will fail. Is that true? Right? Girls, when you're training, boys, when you're training, if I giving you wrong advice about certain, you know, chokes, arm locks or whatever in Jiu Jitsu, they're not going to work. Is that true? They're not going to work, and they are not going to be successful for you, right? But, if you have proper and good instruction, you know, points that need to be fixed. This is your problem and this is your problem here, and then you can realize, oh wow, that's why I'm getting defeated. Are you with me? You see what I'm saying?

Bad advice kills, folks. Kills. And there is so much bad advice out there that it's hunting you, especially young people. It's hunting you banking on the fact that you're a narcissist, you're selfish, and the fact that you're self-absorbed, etc. They're banking on that fact; and the more you fail, the more they succeed. Why? Because a failed person is easier to control, easier to put into debt slavery, easier to have as a population group. Are you with me?

Satan loves that. It's so very sad. You can take that picture down, guys (Picture of Second Gen in demigod T-shirts) I don't want to see that no more, okay? Gosh, what's so sad, would you ever wear a shirt that said demigods and you're pretending to be a demigod? Give me a break. What a heretical shirt message. God! Oh my Lord have mercy. And, it's not like ... They're Roman demigods. I mean, geez. Their little picture, there's a guy and a girl, and they're like, yeah, they got a Roman spear and a Roman shield on. Hello! Are you kidding me. You're putting as your model the Pagan Roman Pantheon? Come on! This is very sad, very sad; but, that is what happens when you leave Christ, folks.

Now interesting, I got to ask Brother Lowell here to give his testimony. It's amazing. It's an amazing testimony, and it fits right here with our Rhema today. But, let's go to the Book of Joshua, Chapter 21. This may be a little cumbersome to read and a little repetitive, okay. Joshua 21.

Now remember, who is Joshua young people? Who is Joshua, huh? Who is Joshua? Be quiet. Don't tell them. If you are older, don't tell them. Who is Joshua? What was that? Who is Joshua? Okay, now remember, Joshua is the Successor to Moses.

Now, remember when the twelve spies to see the land of Canaan; and, there were the ten spies who gave a negative report? "Oh, we're never going to succeed. They're giants in there. We're never gonna conquer the land. We're never going to defeat them." But, there were two guys that said, "We can do it." Remember that? Who was that? That was Joshua and Caleb, right? So, now you remember who Joshua was. He was very important; and he's the one who is able to conquer Canaan, right? So, after Moses dies, he's able to conquer Canaan, okay? Look what happens after they conquer Canaan. Let's go to there right now. Joshua 21. It's kind of a long Chapter, but it's repetitive, as you guys will see what happens. Oh Lord. I just lost it. There we go, alright. So, let's see if the Tech Team brought that up and let's read together here:

Joshua 21:1 Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; 2 And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle. 3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the Lord, these cities and their suburbs.

And it goes on. Let's pause right there. The whole idea of owning the land, okay, this is an idea that comes from God, folks. Are we talking about private property and sovereignty and people should have the right to own land and to have the right to private property and protect private property and protection of private property? This is a God given thing. Okay? It's not the state or some power that allows us to own the Earth. It's God. Are you with me?

Now, there's some new age religion that say, "Oh, you're terrible. You Christians are crazy. How can you own the Earth? She's a goddess, she's mother earth. You can't own your mother." This kind of stuff, okay. Come on. How many heard this one? Okay!

So, they're anatomizing the Earth, when clearly it is not a human being. Now, it has many ecosystems, it has many multiplicities of different organism that are working together to create ecosystems, etc; but, it's not this goddess that, you know, we're walking on. You know what I'm saying?

They even try to go as far, they say, "Walk, tread softly on the Earth. Don't step on your mother harshly. You know, just tread lightly." But, think about that, if you don't have contact with the Word of God, these ideas just start seeping in. They just sound nice. "Oh, that's so sweet. Yes, I want to be more gentle to the Earth." Pretty soon they got you talking, "Mother Earth, I worship you." You know what I'm saying? Within about six months they got you worshiping Mother Earth. Mother Earth is not a biblical term, okay. This is a Gaia theory, new age, you know, religion. It's Animism, an ancient form of religion. Animism. Unfortunately, this is the problem with all these forms of religion. Animism and all this kind of thing dehumanizes people. You know, the different animal spirits and the rock spirits and this and that. It degrades the value of human life.

And so, what do you see when you go to any of these ancient traditions that have years and years, hundreds of years and generations to gestate with this Philosophy? Well, they always end up in human sacrifice, because you degraded the value of the human so much. You know, you kill animals and eat them, yet they're sacred. Are you with me? So, what's the problem of killing a child? Are you with me? It dehumanizes, dehumanizes.

Now, let's look at the Bible that humanizes man. It shows that human beings are the apex of God's Creation. We're not just some haphazard organism. Are you with me? That just through the process of evolution developed. We are the apex of His Creation.

So, there's a huge emphasis on human life and its value, okay, which is the foundation for what? Human rights. Human beings have to have so type of inherent value, so there have to have some kind of rights that need protected. Are you with me?

So, it's such an important thing; but, this kind of Animism, this idea that you can't own the Earth, I mean, I'm telling young people all the time – You guys are what, sixteen? Fourteen. They're already thinking about how are they going to, number one, not go into debt, right boys. Not go into debt. And two, your preparing for marriage. Of course, what? You become landowners. You're owners.

It used to be that way. I mean, you're sixteen, twenty years old, and you'd be a landowner. You wouldn't be in debt. You'd learn all these skills from your Daddy and Grandpa, whether it be hunting or farming, whatever it is. You'd be ready to run the farm.

Lowell was running his farm at fourteen years old. At fourteen, Lowell was running an entire farm by himself. A big farm. His Daddy ... At fourteen. Who's fourteen here? Like Shin Joon's Age. At that age, he running a huge farm that is the production for the family. At fourteen, he was doing that. That's why he knows how to do everything. Are you with me?

That used to be the case. You used to be empowered, the young people they would be empowered. They learned how to be owners, and they learn how to be entrepreneurs from a young age, and the learn how to run the family business from a young age. You know what I mean? They learn these things, and yes, some of the training was tough, but business is tough. Daddy was toughing you up, you know.

I mean, he was toughing Lowell up working the whole farm. The pigs, cows, everything. He had the whole nine yards. A fourteen year old, so his Dad could trust him. He was gone for a couple of months, is that right? All Summer long. So for three months, you ran the farm that was your family's livelihood. Fourteen. Think about that, folks. That's unthinkable in the modern millennial period. Man, you got kids that are 28 years old, they are still five year old children. They still have not grown up. They still need their safe space, and they still need their crying room. Are you with me? My God, have mercy!

But, that's how it used to be. So, these young people, you guys you have such a blessing, because you're thinking. At least you're seeing things clear. Staying out of debt, creating assets, building networks and, you know, be humble and respecting other people, working hard. These kinds of things. This is amazing. Building their little tiny homes. They're starting to build their tiny homes in preparation for their nest. I mean, that's amazing. And, they are preparing to become land owners. I'm not saying they're perfect or anything, but the point is they are being taught reality instead of in schools, where you are taught fantasyland. They're taught safe spaces. They're taught that if anybody offends you with any word, you report to the Principle, and the government will come in a punish them for you. I mean, it's like, it's crazy. You know what I mean?

It's like, when you fall down in the play yard and get a little boo-boo, go to the nurse. The nurse will take care of you. You know what I mean? The nurse's office. Oh my gosh. Come on! What about some duck tape in the back of your bag, you know what I'm saying? Duck tape is one of the best bandages, by the way. Okay?

So, it's incredible. It's amazing. The brainwashing, and the position the children for failure. Proper parenting is critical, because you're trying to position your child for the maximum success; and, the success is not defined like Arnold Schwarzenegger's trying to define it, as how famous you are and how much money you make. That's not success. Look at him. He's a loser. Arnold Schwarzenegger, look at this guy. His family life is a wreck. It's an utter wreck. He had sex with his nanny. He had a child out of wedlock with his nanny. He's got these children, you know what I'm saying? His family life is a wreck; but, yet he's on a viral video going around YouTube saying, "Oh, need to pursue blah, blah, blah, blah, you know, fame and success is how much money you make and... Come on! Look how unhappy they are? Look at how failed they are in their relationships with his wife, with his children. Terrible, terrible! Why would you if you... like the Bible says, "What would it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul" (Matthew 16:26, Mark 8:36) Success is not how famous you get. That's not success. Are you with me?

There's so much more to success than that, cause you can't buy high level relationships. You can't buy these things, you know. You can't buy children who respect you and honor you. God, that's so... That's worth more than gold. Come on! That continues to pay you for generations. Are you with me? Come on! The people are just so brainwashed. These people are lying, Schwarzenegger is lying to the young people. He's positioning them for failure. Are you with me?

There's nothing in your life that's going to give you more contentment and satisfaction. Obviously, with your relationship with God, your spouse and your children. Nothing is going to come close. You, being a high level spouse, and you being a high level parent and child. Boy, there's nothing that brings you more contentment in your life. Nothing. Isn't that true, Parents? There's nothing.

On the flip side, it could give you the greatest grief. So, you could be a billionaire, but your family and your kids hate you, and they are doing everything they can to go against you. Everything you say, they do the opposite like the Chunguri. it means the toad in Korean folklore. He always does the opposite of what he's told to do. The toad. So, if your children are toads, you know how stressful and painful that is. They purposely try to dig into you, under your fingernails. With everything you say is bad, they try and do it. Dig under your eyelids, you know, with a scalpels. Basically, that's what they're trying to do. They become wicked; and, you know how painful that is, right? And, that could last decades. That could haunt you. They actually may find joy in haunting you and make your life miserable, because it gives them a sense of revenge and, you know, this kind of petty revenge. A thrill. Are you with me?

But, think of your life without that? Think of your life without that? Oh my goodness, right! What a relief. What a tremendous burden liberated off you. You know what I'm saying? Parents, if you have kids, I'm not trying to depress you or anything. I'm just trying to warn the young people when they have kids, okay? So, just understand where my heart is at. I'm not trying to condemn anybody here alright, cause I know everybody's trying. The First Generation, you sacrificed a lot. You sacrificed a lot. Okay?

But, God is positioning the younger generation to be in a position, where they can understand these things early and be positioned for success, you know, Godly success in the key areas that are critical. How many lawyers are there? How many, you know, businessmen? They're super wealthy, but their marriages are falling apart, right? The wife is cheating on them, cause she's trying to seek thrills with these other playboys, or something like that. Come on! Are you with me? And, you don't think that effects the businessman? You don't think that effects his productivity? His life is unraveling. Are you with me? It's so critical.

It's so critical, high level spouses. You know, this game, it's the most precious, powerful Godly game that God gives us. To be high level husbands, wives parents. it's a tremendous adventure. You guys like video games. This is better than any video game. Are you with me? This is better than any video game, cause it's alive, and everything's on the line. You know what I'm saying?

It's not a video game. You lose, you die, you just reset it, and you can come back to life again. Everything is on the line. You screw this up early, you're going to be paying for it for the rest of your life. No reset button; and, of course, they're no guarantees. People have free will, so there's no guarantees, and we understand that; but, there is probability. Do you understand that? God does give probability.

Do, when we lean on His ways and behave virtuously in pursuing, you know, this is what Aristotle talked about as utimania. The highest level of happiness that a person can seek. The Greek word is utemania. The highest level of joy that we can seek; and, what is that? It's the practice of virtue. It's the practice of what Plato, his master, talked about in platonic ideals. The pursuing virtue of these tangible abstract things that we pursue. This is the greatest happiness, okay, because that's what makes you greater than any animal.

You can do abstractions in your mind, right? You can imagine the Universe. You can, you know, if you're an engineer, you can imagine a bridge or building, which no primate or orangutan or dolphin... You know, they talk about brain size. Dolphins have bigger brains than humans. Give me a break! They're not imagining bridges and tunnels and the Universe. Are you with me? Come on! Give me a Break! "Whales have bigger brains than humans." Well, they're one hundred times bigger than a human being, number one.

But, you have the ability to abstract and to think about deep, profound things. To actually consume and ponder the Universe, which I know it seems so wacky, but it's like huge. That's hunters, they may not think about it like that; but, when they get out into the field, and they're out waiting for that buck, somehow they're feeling this connection with the Universe. They may not explain it like I'm explaining it. Platonic virtue, you know, and pursuing Utemania. They're not explaining it like that; but, they're experiencing this utemania, like perceiving the Universe. I'm part of this huge ecosystem, and a buck is going to come down this road, and I'm gonna be the hunter that catches him, and be part of this cycle of life that preserves this ecosystem. You see what I'm saying? You think about it, how many hunters we got here? We got a lot of hunters here. Yeah, you're reflecting on this large abstraction, which is almost like you are doing Philosophy, but you're thinking about this bigger picture of which you are involved in, and that brings you some level of joy, doesn't it? You're sitting out there enduring the cold, the bitter rains, whatever it is, and you're waiting for this animal to come. Sometimes, this animal doesn't even come down. Most of the time, the animal doesn't even come down the road. Most of the time, you're sitting there, and you go home. Cold, cold and with no buck. Is that true, hunters? Come on! You know it's true.

But, you gone out there. You were a part of something massive, and something that was created by God, and some ecosystem that is beyond you, even though you may not thought about it in these terms. You actually are filling the thrill of being part of this abstraction that you can comprehend. I guarantee you, Mr. Buck running down the highway in, you know, in the little trails, he's not thinking about the ecosystem. Mrs. Doe is not thinking about the Universe, and the rain that gets precipitated on the ground and gets recycled in the clouds and, you know, the cycle of patterns and the seasons, and the different predators and the pre-species. Mr. Buck and Mrs. Doe are not thinking about that. They're thinking about the wintergreen that they want to eat. They're thinking about grass. That's what they're thinking about, okay? They're worse than weed heads. They're thinking about grass all the time, you understand? Are you with me?

So, you have to understand the highest levels of thinkers in all of human history, they placed it as the pursuit of virtue, the pursuit of these abstract ideals as the highest purpose, as the most satisfying thing.

Now, you young people, you probably think, "Ah, what does Aristotle know, what does Plato know? They're already dead." Well, you're going to be dead, too, number one. Number two, you actually experienced it, you young people who do training. You experience it. When you're training hard, you're training hard; but look, you're in your mind, you're abstracting yourself, and imagining what you can become, and how high level you can become. An Ape cannot do that, you understand?

You're imagining five, six years, if I keep training like this, I'm going to be tapping people out and trapping their arms and limbs, and you know, that wonderful feeling you get when you get somebody's back and you locked up their arm, and this arm is locked up, and it's just their chin versus your one hand neck. How many of you guys, you've seen me and Master JoJo do that to you guys all the time, and you say, "I wish I can do that," Is that true or not? And, you will be able to do that as you keep training. Completely locked up. You did experience that. Ted, you did experience that; but, you young people have experienced that, too.

Look at that. When you're thinking about the future, five, six years, if I keep training, I'm gonna be way better. See that's an abstraction. You see what I'm saying? You actually do it. You never reflected on it, but it actually motivates you. Is that true? Is that true?

Right, if you think about it, “Oh, I’m gonna be better if I actually keep training like this.” There’s no guarantee. You may die in between. Who knows. You may be in a car accident. You see what I’m saying? But, you have the ability to abstract and to think and see the future. Are you with me? There is nothing on the planet in the Universe that can do that, that we know of. Nothing! Nothing can do that. There is not one organism in the entire Universe that can do that. Somehow, you have that ability. Are you with me? It’s pretty crazy. It’s pretty mind boggling.

So, whether or not you realize that young people, you actually use abstraction a lot, and you’re deeply satisfied with abstraction. Like when Ted, he’s imagining in his mind, “Oh, I got to get Shin Man. I got to tap Shin Man.” Is that true? Yeah, he’s admitting it. I got to tap Shin Man, and he actually tapped Shin Pal the other day. Is that true? And so, he was so happy. I know when he was going back home, he told his Mom, and the whole car ride she heard about it. “I tapped Shin Pal. I tapped Shin Pal.” Mariana, is that true? I knew it. See, I could read their mind. I could read his mind, okay? That’s his older sister. She admits it. I know he going home the whole ride he’s thinking about it. It’s on his lips. The whole time, the whole two weeks he’s thinking about, “Oh, what if I do this? What if I do that? I’m gonna get Shin Man. Has Ted beat you up, Sonny. Has Ted beat you up. When his back gets better, I’m gonna choke him like this.” See. What are you doing. You’re abstracting, do you understand? Right?

He use to waist his time with video games. I’m sure he still does, but anyway, but less time with it. And now, he’s thinking about training, he’s thinking about, you know, studying, okay?

But, think about it, he’s thinking, “If I do this, it may work on Shin Man, because he does this, he does that.” Right? So, he’s having this joy in abstracting; and, then if that happens, he’s actually able to catch Shin Man and defeat him. The level of joy that he will experience is, “Wow!” He won’t show it in the class. He’d be like, “Ah, no, no. They’re just taking it light;” but, I know as soon as he gets in that car, he’s doing back flips in the car. He’s telling Mariana, his elder sister, “Mariana, did you see what happened? Did you see?” Oh Lord. You see what I’m saying? Okay, but that’s what happened. You’re abstracting. You don’t realize it, bu you’re doing, you’re using the super power that God has only given humankind. Only given humankind. We’re the only ones that can create like God, because we’re given the ability of abstraction. Isn’t that incredible? And, it’s interesting, as we have children, the children too, it’s set within their code. They also are gifted this through our spouses, having created children.

So, if you’re an engaged parent, you’re helping those children release and unlock these different levels of understanding, things like that, as they’re growing, so you are engaged. If you feel like a chauffeur, if you feel like a maid, if you feel like a house cleaner or a slave, you’re doing parenting wrong. You’re doing it at a low level. You’re just being a utilitarian parent. You’re not raising a generation. Are you with me?

If that’s how you feel, your parenting is low level. You got to upgrade your parenting, because parenting is the most exciting thing, it’s the most enriching thing, cause you’re raising the next generation of Kings and Queens. It’s the most exciting thing. Absolutely by far the most exciting thing in life. Parenting with a spouses and family. That’s why God gave us the nuclear life. You’re so blessed, you guys, before you have kids...(some breakage in the feed) Incredible. They're like individual trees, you know. They're different trees.

In our family, Shin Pal is one tree, Shin Man is one tree, Good Man is one tree, Shin Joon is one tree. You can't just see them as a lump. Are you with me? You have to water each see, and then that tree grows into a tree one day that will bear fruit. Are you with me?

A lot of parents make the mistake of just doing family time, which is great; but, I'm sorry, it's been proven by psychology, proven, children remember the one on one time they have with their parents by far the most. More than any family time you ever had with them. The children will remember the one on one time they had with you the most. The problem is, most parents, when they are having one on one time with their kids are nagging the crap out of them; so, if you've done that, you're in a bad situation, so you can see as your children grow, those years of nagging at them and creating a basis for their one on one time of being nagging, it's gonna kill them. It's going to kill your relationship with them very hard. Is that true?

I mean, just think in your own life, when do you remember time with your parents the most? You remember one on one time. If your Mom was a constant nagger, if she nagged you for everything, well, as soon as you think of your Mom, immediately, you'll have a gut reaction feeling. "Ahh, she nags me all the time. Everything I do, she never is happy." You see what I'm saying? You're gonna have this gut reaction. It's going to be so deep in your belly, it's hard to get that out, cause a Mom unthinkingly just nag, nag, nag, cause she wants to release emotions, and didn't be mature with her emotions. So, what happens to that child? That child then for the rest of their life, whenever they think about Mom, their gut reaction is, "Ooh! Whatever I do, I never can please her." Are you with me?

So, Moms, you have a lot of power, lots of power. It's very important for the Queens to be in charge of their emotional content, cause you can quickly destroy the atmosphere in your home and make it into a sour place, right? Even your husband, who basically comes home, and he's like, "Okay, let's see what's going on today?" if there's a nagging woman in the home. Right? He's like, "Okay, here's my next challenge. I don't know if I want to go to work today. What am I going to hear about today, huh?" You don't want to create that type of environment that positioning for failure, folks. Are you with me? Is that true or not? Come on! It's true, right? But, we have to be accountable of for our actions; and, being emotionally mature is very important.

You think your kids will forgive you, that when you blast out, lash out, and whip them, and beat them? They're going to remember every single time you did it. They're going to hold it against you the rest of your life, folks. You think that being immature is going to give you a pass. No, because children are empiricists. They're not going to see what you say, they're going to see what you do, just like you are. You are also an empiricist, even though you don't admit it, right?

Somehow, we have this crazy idea that, "Oh, my children will understand." No they won't. They're sometimes your greatest Judges and greatest critiquers, which is the reason why you have to have deep trust with them, and a relationship with them, that you understand that you have a deep connection with them, so they understand the inner motives of everything you do, cause they're not going to give you the benefit of the doubt. How many know that's true? You parents with older kids, yeah, you all know. You all know. Is this speaking to somebody today? Lord have mercy!

I don't want you to get depress now, okay, cause God always has a plan; but, we also want to alert some of the younger, you know, spouses, you know, that are preparing to have children, so they know. It's important, very, very important, you know.

I heard this incredible lady. She's in the military. She said in the military now, they're recruiting single mothers; and, you know, it's the Xena Warrior Age. Xena, Xena single mom, hey! Are military's just stronger with single moms and all these kids on welfare. It's terrible. But, this is what she was saying about the military. They recruiting, cause now the Army is almost becoming like a welfare state. It's something that they don't want to talk about; but, the woman was exposing it. She was saying, they're literally saying, come in the Army. We'll give you this benefit and that benefit. They're recruiting. They don't only want the women to marry the State, they want them to marry the Army now. I mean, instead of trying to solve all the chaos in the Middle East all the time, how about let's solve the chaos in husbands' and wives' relationships, huh, huh? We spend trillions of dollars taking over countries so Halliburton can get wealthy, and Dick Cheney can make billions of dollars. Come on! So, the CIA can run the drug trade in Afghanistan. Come on! It's ridiculous what our government is up to. It's so corrupt.

But, they're do this in the Army and she was exposing this and saying this is a terrible issue, because she was just saying that she was like a 150 pounds. At her strongest she could maybe lift 200 pounds; but, some of the guys in the Army, they're 250 pounds. If they're dead, they're shot out, they're died, they're bleeding out, you have to drag that man off the battlefield. How can a 150 pound woman, that is still a strong woman at 150 pounds, and you know, can dead lift 200 pounds, that's still a strong woman. I mean, that's not a normal woman. The normal woman is so weak, it's ridiculous, I mean physically; but, that's a strong woman. Is that true? Right? But, even she said there was no way I could drag that man out. There's no way I could drag that guy out.

She was exposing how she was getting sensitivity training. That men and women, there's no difference between men and women. Come on! The Army is teaching this? Come on! That's a joke, folks. It's becoming a brainwashing, a welfare state. That's not what it's supposed to be, you know. You know, the military is not supposed to be worrying about, you know, this or that, you know, lactation. They're supposed to be spilling another type of bodily liquid, you know what I'm saying? Are you with me? They're supposed to be a killing machine against our enemies, you know. They are supposed to be spilling a different type of blood, not breast milk. Are you with me?

So, this is the state of where the US is going, and the women are also, she was saying, are getting brainwashed. All the women who were in the military were telling her, "Hey honey. Oh, you just had your baby. You're going to be back and working in six months, I mean six weeks. Six weeks." You know, you take a break from baby and get back to work, as if she's evil for wanting to raise her child; so, the woman was saying, “No, no, no. I’m not going to come back in six weeks. I’m stopping working.” Strong woman. This is a real woman, okay. She said, “No, cause there’s nothing more important than raising the next life that has come from this; and, all the women in the military were like, “Oh!” As if you were raising your children that you are some kind of failed woman. You can never succeed in the market place. That’s why you just chose the easy road of being a Mom.” Are you with me? This is how they make women feel. Is that true, girls?

If you say, “I’m going to take care of my children,” other women will make you feel, “Oh, it’s because you have no capabilities. That’s really why; but, I’m not going to say that to you, but, I’m kinda going to make you feel that way. That’s a total guilt/ shaming trip. It’s a cult. They’re telling you that raising your child, which will be the seat of joy for you, if you do it right, pride and joy and honor. If you do it wrong, then you have a very small window. You have a five to ten year window. That's all you got. That's all you got, cause after that all the studies show the children get set in their ways.

If they're not able to develop those attachments to you early on, like really deep attachments, then you're just throwing them out to day care six hours, eight hours a day. Oh, my gosh! That's if the same symptoms as if you totally abandoned them. Isn't that shocking? But, parents are not taught this at all; and, so thus they feel, "Oh, the teens came." I know the teens, too. My children, they all went through the teens. The teens were the greatest time. Teens, we have no problem with teens. The teens, the problem with teens, the problems are coming five, ten years before the teens. That's the problem.

The problem in the nobility to be attached to the parents. The nobility is to trust the parents. The parents are basically abandoning the children all the time, and the children know it. They know that Mommy's got to go to work. They know that work is more important to you than them, even though you explained to them, "Oh, no. Mommy is pursuing her dreams." No, children are empiricists. They know that you love your things more than me, even though you try to brag how much you love us. Children know. They know. Girls, you can't fool them. You cannot fool your kids. No amount of explain, "Oh, you know, I'm a teacher, I'm a this or that." No amount of explaining will do it. They know you chose your lusts and not them. They know it, and they will make you pay. Think about it when you were a child. You knew too, right? You know.

So, it's very important, it's very important, folks, very critical. I mean, think about it. Like the Han Mother did this. It's terrible that she's my Mommy. It's terrible that she did this. She made a huge apostasy, a huge heresy. She stole all the foundation that Father inherited to me; but, it's not surprising when I think of my own mother, even though she was at home, I never once got a meal made by her. Never once. Never made me scrambled eggs, Spam, bacon, whatever it is. Not one meal. Not one meal. Mommy didn't make me one meal. I never had no fried rice, you know, some omelet; and, all I can remember is, she is watching TV and Korean dramas. Addicted to the Korean dramas, which is of course Gateway to Satan's romantic world.

That's how he gets the women. He gets the men through pornos; he gets the women through women pornos, because that's romantic dramas; so, basically she was addicted to pornography. So, all I can remember, all the time, whenever she was in the home, when they were home in the back – Father's speaking downstairs, whatever – she's always there watching TV. So, what I knew, she loves her romantic dramas more than me. So, it wasn't a huge, now that I think about it, it was not like a huge surprise.

She loved her desires, her fulfillment, her pleasure more than her children, which is the reason why she did such a terrible, terrible thing, unfortunately, which is of course, destroying her. I told her it would, cause I actually loved her. I cared for her. Are you with me? It's very sad. Very sad.

Now, what I remember about Father, when he had time, Father used to come to, when we were raising Shin Pal, we had a room right next to Father's room. He's used to come when no one's in the home. He would come into the room to spend time with his grandson. Shin Pal doesn't remember, cause he was less than one year old. Father used to come in the room, spend hours there. Just hanging out watching his grandchild, and just hanging in just talking with us. He would do that regularly, whenever Father had time. He would walk to see how Shin Pal was doing, I'm his youngest son, and as the youngest son's first son. So, this is like my baby, baby, baby, baby, baby's baby. The love of... I mean, that's what Father used to do. In his free time, he used to come and you know, see how the kids are. He liked to do that. He was curious about your children, and he was curious about you. People don't know that about Father.

It was either Shin Pal or Shin Man. When Shin Man came back from the hospital, Father dressed up. He wore a suit. He went into his room, put on a suit, so that when Shin Man, when we brought him back from the hospital, he could take a picture and look nice for this guy. He didn't just stay in his pajamas, or something like that. He actually, "Oh, they're coming back from the hospital? Let me go in a put on my suit." I mean, I remember these things. I remember, while I was young, and I used to just barge into my parent's room, cause it's just fun. It's fun to barge in and get their reaction. "Wow! What are you doing?" Oh, the barging in the room. This kind of thing. It's hilarious, it's fun. I used to just barge in; and, Father loved it when I did that. He loved it. It thought it was the most hilarious thing. He thought it was the most fun thing. I mean, that's the kind of father was. He was so, in that way, he was so loving. I remember those things with him. Father taught me Calligraphy as well, Brush Calligraphy. But again, folks, kids remember. You young couples, kids remember. They remember.

How many Moms had a hard time with the first son? How many Moms had a hard time with the first son? Ah, you see, I told you. You're not special. Emo's daughter's trying to say, "Lift your hand up, lift your hand up. She's saying, "Stop lifting my hand up, child." "Lift your hand up. Come on." Oh Lord have mercy! Oh! Cause that first son is a mystery for Mom's; and, they just can't get it. "Why is this child so violent? This child's got ADHD. He needs to be medicated." They just don't understand, that's how boys are.

Hey, this is a nice strategy. "I just going to nag the crap out of him every time he does something." Okay, then you're going to pay. You're gonna pay. The rest of your life, you're gonna pay. If that's your strategy, Moms, you Moms, if that's your strategy, you are going to pay. I guarantee you are going to pay for it the rest of your life. You're going to pay for it. Don't that's a terrible strategy. Terrible, terrible strategy. Terrible, cause one day that son will be bigger than you, and one day he will not be scared of your physical threats. How many have seen this in your kids a lot? Grandmothers...?

But, one day, the boy is going to get muscles. He's no longer going to be scared of a woman yelling at him, but he's probably honored, but he's not going to beat you up or something. He'll probably leave. He'll be so ready to leave by the time he's eighteen. "I'm so out of here." If you did parenting right, your kids don't want to leave after they're eighteen, because they feel the safety, the protection that they have in the home. You almost like have to force them out. "Come on! Come out!" You see what I'm saying?

But, there are kids, by the time they are eighteen, they had it up to here with their Moms. They want to kill there Mom, literally, but they're not going to do that; so, they just want to get the heck out of there. But, why would you want to create that kind of relationship with your child? You're going to pay for it for so many decades. Are you with me?

Why not take a Godly strategy. Instead of whenever you can feel you can dominate him, just dominate him and make him feel guilty, and just pour out your emotions on him for hours and hours, oh my gosh! This kills men, it kills them; and, if you learned those habits with your children, you may just do that to your husband, and that's going to kill your husband. Now husbands, don't say amen now, don't say Amen.

But, that habit is a bad habit with men in general. Nagging men is a horrible thing, cause if men do that to each other, at some point there's going to be a physical fight. Isn't that true men? Come on. But, since it's a girl, you can't just beat on her, so you'll eat it for a couple of years, a decade, maybe; but, at some point, they're gonna blow. She's not taking a proper strategy in dealing with a human being. You're treating him like a slave and a child. Are you with me, girls?

You got to take a Godly strategy. Why not when you see him, this is a Godly man, this is a Godly child? The Queen, when she has to do stuff with the kids, when they were in their teens, okay, and now the boys are bigger than her, then she used to beat them with vacuum cleaners when she was young. She was a Korean Mom. She would whoop them with anything that she could grab nearby. You understand what I'm saying? But, I told her, "Mommy, that's not going to work when they're all big, you know; and, I'm going to train them in combat arts, so that's not going to work. That's not going to be productive."

So, I had a totally different system with them. I trained so many kids in sports, in martial arts and stuff like that; so, I knew, "Come on! That's not going to work." It's so easy to deal with. It's not a big issue. I mean, my kids, I never had to whoop them, because I give them, we gave them the warnings. They get three warnings. If they keep pushing, then they sit on the toilet, they get a break, cause you know, come on. I mean, we're training with grown men, strangling them and this kind of stuff. I say, "Come on child, come on!" Of course you could beat up a child. Come on! But, if you use that, if you do it that way, at some point it's going to become very counter productive.

Now, up to a certain age, they need to understand about it, up to the age of about five. Spare the rod, you spoil the child. (Proverbs 13:24) But after a certain time where they're able to process this information, to think, to use their brain, just beating them for stuff doesn't work, folks, and it creates tremendous resentment. Is that true?

Now, my boys, when I'm training them, they know that Daddy could kill them at any moment. I mean, I got, you know, that their lives are in my hand when I'm training them. Is that true? I could strangle them at any time. They know they're completely trapped when they're fighting Daddy; but, I never had to use that when they're little children. Come on! You use that on grown men. Are you with me? When we were training our kids, we didn't train them like that, cause at some point they're going to start training with Daddy, and they're going to start learning, you know, and Whoa! They realized, I had reserve, I had the power to physically beat them and dominate them, physically. I had the power, but I didn't use it. I had reserve. I didn't use it because I don't want to and I don't need to do that against them. It's not the context of training. Are you with me?

Now, once I start training them, and they get older, in the context of combat arts, now I have to give them some reality; but, they know, at this age, they know I'm doing that to make them stronger, right? So, when they raise their kids, they're gonna do that, too. I may have to remind them every once in a while, but they're gonna do that.

It's so critical, folks. Kingship is about, we're talking about land, ownership of land; but, who for generations will hold that land? It's what God was preparing with Canaan when he captured Canaan. He's putting all the Israelites out there and He's saying, "You're Generations have to protect this land. What did the Israelites do, folks? They got in there, and said, "Wee, we got the land. Yeah." Party, party, party, party, party. They didn't build the Temple, they didn't center everything on God, and within one generation, they started collapsing from the inside. They had so much bounty, they fell into hedonism, and they did not raise the next generation to be fearful of God, to obey His Commandments, and to have a real relationship with Him; and, Canaan, the Promised Land was taken from them. They lost it.

It's the same thing. Now, I know, it's today's life, folks, I know day to day life doesn't feel like an Epic Lord of the Rings spiritual battle; but, look at the day to day life of the Israelites once they got into Canaan with Joshua. They became decadent, they started falling away from God, they started enjoy the luxuries of the whole conquered land that they had and their kids became spoiled, they became basically Commies and Socialists. They believed, you know, that they just deserved it, and they destroyed it. Are you with me? They just enjoyed the bounty, instead of training the next generation to be ready for the attack of the Devil, which eventually he did come in a destroyed their bounty.

So, sovereignty is apart of it, its of course ownership of land, but also sovereignty is about who will preserve that land that you own through the generations. Are you going to get taken over by traitorous children who hate you and want everything to do to destroy an erase your name; then, your sovereignty is done, folks? Are you with me?

Is that the legacy taken over by treacherous children, who just wanted money and destroy your Kingdom Are you with me? Or, understanding that sovereignty includes the investment. Nothing more important? By the time you're on your deathbed, they're not going to be, "Oh, I really glad I got that Masters degree in Animal Sciences, which I never got to use, while I abandoned my child." You're not going to say that on your deathbed, when your children are not there, not present, at your deathbed, because they hate you, because you abandoned them. Are you with me?

But, it was your Animal Science degree, you know, you had to get that. You had to get it. You just had to prove to the other girls that, yeah, you're smart or whatever it is. The computers. Whatever it is. Most girls don't go into stems. They go into Women Studies, or some ridiculous fields. Come on! You're not gonna do that on your deathbed. You are going to regret that you abandoned your children, and that they feel abandoned, and that they hate you. That's what you'll regret. I guarantee you, you'll regret that the most.

Now, we have some young newly married couples here. I'm not just saying this to freak you guys out, I'm telling you this, so you know the playing field and you're realistic. Are you with me? You know that you're under attack. Satan put the Israelites under attack. When they succeeded and took the Promised Land, he still came in; but, he didn't go through the gates. He went in through the heart, through the emotions, he went in. You see, he had the bounty, they had the victory, they had the success, but they had the land and the Devil came in and he made the parents just play around and party and abandoned their children, and not raise them, not train them to be warriors and protect their civilization, and protect the Promised Land, and protect the Kingdom. They didn't train them.

Are you young people starting to understand why your training is so important, huh? Cause training is not only about you. It goes way beyond you. It's much greater. You have to use your abstraction, which you all use; but, you're not aware you use it, but you have to use the abstraction. Power is here. It's so important, cause you're learning how to be defenders of the Kingdom. Your children must also learn that. You can't get lazy from one generation to another. Freedom and tyranny is on the razor's edge in every generation. It's on the razor's edge. All it takes is one generation to make it a tyranny. Are you with me? And then millions of lives die because of that generation.

Now. Do you get all perfect children? No, but you get the majority of the young people that have an honor code, and that are honorable, and that will defend the Kingdom. As long as you have the majority, you still have a powerful force going interdenominationally.

Now, when the majority of the young people get taken by the Devil to the popular culture, Hollywood, pornos, addictive things, games, romantic dramas, whatever it may be, now you're losing civilization. Now, you're losing civilization; and, when you'll feel this in America, cause we're losing America and what it used to be, it's getting taken over by Commies and Socialists and Cultural Marxists. It's getting taken over with people who hate the Founding Fathers and hate freedom. They want centralized bureaucracies and control, right?

So, there's an existential against and pain that everybody feels, but nobody talks about, but feel it. That's why they voted for Trump. That's why we all working for Trump, alright, cause the civilization was on the line. There's a new civilization trying to ally with Radical Islam coming in, in the guise of Leftism and the Left and nice little polities, both. They're Communists. They're Political Satanists funded by the real Satanists of the world, animated by Satan; and, they are bringing in, the civilization, that will replace the heritage and the blood, sweat and tears that the brave men in the 1700s shed their blood, gave their lives to give us that freedom. Are you with me, folks?

We all feel it, cause our civilization is at stake. It's a serious, serious battle. This is exactly what were seeing Joshua here. They conquered, but in one generation it gets soured quickly, quickly, it becomes corrupted, quickly becomes corrupted; and, from the next generation, it starts destroy itself. That's how fast it can go.

So, your victory impact and protects the Kingdom. Your powerful marriages, your powerful, incredible, you know, abundant, potent relationship with your spouse, that incredible energy that everybody in the world is seeking, is searching for; but, they're seeking it in ephemeral ways, but, they're all desiring love, they're all desiring the deep intimacy that God gives us through husband and wife. The victory that's there. Your victory there will provide a stronger environment for your children to be victorious and Godly. Your victory there with your children, then comes the victory to God's Kingdom, God'd society.

"Oh, but my family, it's kind of torn apart. My kids are this way or that way, but the parents are still Godly, you see; so, all is not lost. If the children go haywire, if they go with Satanists, and then the parents go Satanist, then your gonna lose; but, if the children go Satanists, but the parents remain Godly, God can still use that parent. He can still use them. He will find a way to continue the legacy. Are you with me?"

So, I'm not here, if you have problems, you have issues with your children, don't see that as a condemnation on you. Children, or not, God will continue to find a way. It would be great if it was our children that inherits that legacy; but, either way, God will see His Kingdom Come, Amen? (Amen!)

It would be best if we could have that victory with our spouse, with our children, so that they have that power. They can experience the Kingdom. You know, like my little boys, they like crave having their day. There day. So each child, once a week, we have a date with them, okay? They are like waiting. You don't think they're waiting, cause, you know, whatever their free time, they want to play their video games, blah, blah, blah, this kind of thing. These young kids. But, they're waiting. They want to have the time with their parents. They're waiting for Bible Study. If Mommy could not do Bible Study after Sunday Service, the younger kids will go, "Mommy, how come we didn't do Bible Study?" cause Bible Study is where they can basically spend one on one time with Mommy in the context of God, you know with God's Word there; but, basically it's a time where they can speak with her, talk with her and get encouraged. They actually, they love it. Is that true, my boys? Yeah, you like it. I know. Daddy knows you love it.

I mean, they love it. Even though they get older, Just the going on in their day, like one of our kids, we do that practice, where we say three things for which I'm grateful. Three things about Mom, three things which make me grateful about Dad. Three things about you. I mean, Mommy says three things, and Daddy says three things about you for being grateful. It feeds their soul. We needed to do that one time with our kids, and they held that. They held it. They held, even though we did it hundreds of times. One day, we didn't that, right? They held that on. "You do the three day gratitudes. One time. Are you with me?"

That's how much they yearn for it. I mean, as parents, we understand. They're longing for that, cause think about it: In a normal day with your kids, you're not really encouraging them. You see them. You're not really telling them, seriously, why you are grateful that has put them in your life, right? Daily chores, daily jobs. "Hey, how come you didn't do that? Why is the room so messy? Why are the DVDs out like this? Blah, blah, blah ..." This is what goes on in daily life. It's not, "Hey Honey, come down here and sit here and say things of gratitude toward one another. That's probably never happening in many homes? Is that true?"

That of course is the problem, then, because as you know, people forget very, very, very quickly. Our kids forget very quickly. We may now the reasons why we're grateful for them. But if they don't hear it, they don't know. They don't know. And of course, the best time to do it for the younger parents is when they're young. Start this as they are younger, and when they get a little bit older, you're doing it as they're growing. The level of trust you can develop with them is so profound. So profound, so profound. If you try to do it later on in their life, it's much harder. Much harder. I know that's hard to hear, for it's way harder. Way harder. It's hard to come back after a tree has not grown. It's hard to come back fifteen years later and try and make it grow. Are you with me?

It's really hard. It's really hard. I'm not going to say it's impossible. With God, all things are possible; but, what I'm saying, the probability is very small. It's much smaller. Then, if you started early, then you would have a much larger probability. Much larger probability.

So these young boys, they're learning techniques for fighting. This is also techniques to fight against the Devil in your family. These are fighting techniques, too, because the Devil will try and get into you and seed those seeds of discontent in your children. The Devil will try to make your children bitter against you. The Public Schools will help them do it. The Day Care Centers will help them do it. The Psychologist will help them do it. They got a lot of friends and allies to make them hate you.

There are wicked women out there like Freaky Friedan telling all these generation of girls, "Oh, you're going to have the clique moment, where you realize, "I'm jut the chauffeur. I'm just a maid. I'm jut a servant, slave to this marriage. I'm so much more than this. (Boo, hoo!...)" My life is so much more than this, you understand? This is how they get you. They're lying to you. They're tricking you in the Devil's lair. You know when you go to work, "I'm empowering you. I'm gonna go to work and dynamite the job. Yeah, I'm gonna work. Yeah!!"

You know you're at work complaining all day long about how much you hate work. How so repetitive. You do the same things over and over, and over and over. You do the same meanings over and over. Great job. That's why you gave up defending your child. You're positioning yourself for failure. When you're about to die, how many things in Customer Service or doing Insurance Sales for Aetna, it ain't gonna matter. Are you with me? It's not gonna matter,

But, he gets in. So you can have women in there twenty, thirty, forty, fifty, as soon as they have children, they start buying this lie; and, even though they come to Sunday Service, you know, you're not going to hear this at other Churches. The Socialist Churches won't talk about any of this stuff. They're not going to warn you in advance.

So, you're there on your deathbed, and who have you believed? Wicked witch, who have screwed up their own lives and millions of other woman's lives. Unhappy, they're bitter, resentful, hateful people' and, of course, by following their example and their words, you have destroyed the relation with your children. It brings grief to you every single day of your ever existence.

So, it's so critical to be successful early. Early. You young people become not only high level fighters, but you become spiritual fighters, too; so, you can protect your wife, and your family, and your children, you understand. That saying, you have fighting levels on multiple dimensions. Multi-dimensional skills. Do you understand what I'm saying? Boys! Huh, do you understand what I'm saying?

Not only good fighters in physical, but also good fighters in the spiritual, too. You got to be good fighters in the spirit, boys, because you're going to have to lead your homes. You get a recharge, you come to the service, you come to the community. You get a recharge, but still on a day to day, you're going to have to lead the home. You're the head of the home. Your family's gonna be relying on you for that spiritual guidance. Are you with me, boys? Huh?

Very important, and you're capable of doing it. You can do it. You just have to know the right things, right? When you guys didn't know how to fight before, it doesn't matter what you believe. You just go and get your booty whooped, True? Right? But after you learned proper fighting, then you don't get your booty whooped as easily by someone who's untrained. Is that true?

Now, you can dominate people who untrained, right? I mean, you guys have to experience that. In the same way, you have to get proper instruction cause you are capable of doing it. God has given you the faculties to do it, but if you are believing the wrong things, you will position your family for failure. Critical, critical part of sovereignty, cause it is the continuation of sovereignty. It makes no difference if Satan gets it in half a generation. All this work for God's side to gain it, and then Satan gets it through the kids. It's the Trojan Horse. He can destroy your civilization with your kids. Is that true? I mean, that's what happened in the Book of Joshua that we studied today.

So 2019, again, to be aware of these things. If you're not in this exact vicinity and you cannot get your kids into this training, get them in training in different arts that are making them responsible that are giving them a reality check, you know. Training them in ethics. Get them to a firearms class. I'm going to take my children, the kids in the home, we're all going to do NRA training, level one with Nick. We're going to open up for our community, too; but, he wants groups of ten; so, small groups. We're going to start the training. Even my small kids, my youngest son, they're going to attend it. I want them to know about firearm safety. They know, but I want them to learn, you know, from Nick. A former Green Beret, a SWAT team leader, etc.

Just being in the presence of honorable men. Many, in the material, they'll probably learn. They'll learn from their Daddy. They'll learn; but, just they're in contact with other other honorable men. Are you with me? And that fortifies their part in the warrior brotherhood, and they realized that their actions have consequences, and they're held accountable to other honorable men or their teachers as well; so, of course, we'll prepare that for everybody, you know; and your kids, too, going in and learn different levels of training.

But, even something like that. That's so critical for the Kingdom culture. The sheepdog culture and shepherding culture. You know, if you can't do the daily training like we do with the kids, the young people, they're younger; so, they can do rigorous physical fighting. I'll tell you, if you can't do that, they can always do NRA courses. You can do shooting training. You can do things that are appropriate for her age level. Be part of the culture of the Shepherd.

Now, this then reinforces the value of high level Shepherd into your children that is not only coming from you, it's coming from other high level Instructors that they're getting access and exposure to, which helps reinforce those ethics and values within them; and, trust me, they learn from Daddy, that's one thing, and an ex Green Beret, the level of seriousness goes up a little bit. Are you with me?

Especially, when he explains the law and how much time you'll spend in prison, if you access this power incorrectly. It has a lot of weight and authority with a Green Beret and the SWAT team leader. Is that true? Is that true, young people? Then, all you boys need to get the training, and girls; but, to have these kind of people we're so blessed. God has prepared these young people, these kind of folks. The fact that you have access to these kind and folks, God, what a huge blessing. Do you get this kind of instruction from an ex-Green Beret, ex-SWAT team leader. Do you understand what I'm, saying? Dang! I mean, that is such a tremendous gift, so we'll prepare that for everybody to get that type of training.

In sovereignty, we have to, you know, this is one part of sovereignty, and this is the part if the government that wasn't always invading in two peoples interaction, and making waves into people's interaction and making waves for people to become irresponsible. People would hold each other accountable. You had an honor code. Your reputation was on the line. Your honor is on the line. The bad decisions that people make, the government always comes in and bails them out, and that's how they win votes. Right, the Bad decisions that people make, government always comes in and bails them out, and that's how they win votes.

If you made horrible deciesions, and you slept through a lot of men, you destroyed your marriage, and you just pursue your own lustfulness and linentiousness, your own narcissism your whole life, don't worry. We'll come in and will pay for it. Vote for Mr. Democrat, you know, in four years. Just click the button. That's all you have to do. Fair trade is a nice trade. Screw up your life. We'll pay for it. Just vote Democrat. Will take care of it.

So, a lot of woman take the bait. That's why women, double on average, compared to men, will vote Democrat. Two times more, single women, cause they allow you , they allow you to use government intervention and force to make you not pay for your bad decision, but in a true free land, in the a kingdom of God where there's free interaction, there's sovereignty, there's responsibility and accountability and interaction, but still there's freedom.

If you act irresponsibly, if you make bad decisions, you're going to pay for something. You're going to pay for those bad decisions. There's going to be consequences. You're not just going to get a bail out. If you want help, you're going to have to ask for help and to repent and be repentful, and convince people that you are willing to change. There's no money that's gonna be dropped in from heaven, while you're going to make all the responsible choices, and destroy your families and your children. There's not going to be a Welfare State or some bit government throwing down money to get your vote. Are you wil me?

It's not going to be there; so, that natural human interaction of being accountable to one another – mean what you say, say what you mean. Do what you say you are going to do to the best of your ability. If you can't do it, repent and apologize. You know, be a somewhat mature person. You're going to do fine. You're going to do great, cause people in the Kingdom of God, they loving, they're forgiving, you know, as long as they believe the person's sincere, and they're really are repenting of their sin. You know how many Christians are going to help that person? Come on! This is where the real welfare become, if not from the Church; but, it doesn't, you know, just drop from the sky of Government, from the god of Government after he's forcefully stolen in from the population through the gun, through the force. Know that the communities that will provide welfare will make sure that you are repentful, that you sincerely understand the bad decisions that you made. If you hurt people in those bad decisions, you go and apologize. You're going to do fine. You're going to do great. You do steps of maturity; so, as you grow, people will invest in you, and pray for you and actually financially contribute to your bitterness for your betterment, whatever. This is how welfare is done in a natural free setting.

Welfare is done to the goodness of the heart of people. Sincerely trying to change those who are broken hearted, made bad decisions, but don't want to change. There's always hope, but the person has to be willing to change. Amen! Unlike the government dole, which endlessly just pours out until the run out of other people's money or stop robbing the population. Once it comes out, you know, it's done. All the bad decisions, you get paid for by the government, which creates an irresponsible society, an immoral society, and a decadent, decadent, destructive society. Isn't that interesting how this works? Very interesting.

When the government cannot intrude and invade on human interaction, people tend to be good. There good qualities are encouraged, and their tendency towards darkness is suppressed, naturally, because they will see what will happen to you if you follow those dark desires. There's many examples of what will happen, cause there's no bailouts from the government. If you want to be a mob boss, if you want to rob people, you can just join the political class nowadays. Right?

You can't. There's not going to be that kind of protection. There's no cabal to rule over them, or the Mafia, which we call political officials, especially in the cities, ooh, bad! I mean the local area's aren't much better, but the cities, oh my gosh! Are you kidding me? Philadelphia! New York City! Uh-uh! Come on folks! I mean you're talking about demons, demons running that place. Cuomo? Give me a break! He's the most unamerican, unpatriotic, traitorous, treacherous person ever parading himself as some kind of super hero, running Gotham City. Give me a break. What a pathetic, treasonous traitor; but, this is what you get once you circulate power and let the Archangel take over. Allow, you know, the women leave the honorable men. They marry the State; the State exploits the women. Weaponizes them against men to preserve their power, and destroy the family. Scary stuff!

So, let us not become those who are interested in sovereignty, but we don't take the responsibility of sovereignty. Just like the Children of Israel: God gave them the Promised Land, but they lost it, they lost it. They lost it. They didn't take seriously the civilization that God gave them to protect, and they just fell into hedonism and partied; and, they lost the mentality of the Shepherd and the Defender. They lost it.

Remember folks, when he was making them build the wall. He had them have the sword on their hip, he made them wear it, even when they're building. He said, during the whole process, you got to be worried. You got to defend this Kingdom that I'm going to help you reconquer and rebuild; and, then as soon as they get the bounty, they lose the defender mindset. They lose the warrior mindset and they become little hedonists. They screw up everything. They become Commies and Socialists is what they basically become.

So, let's say you're in a situation, where your kids are in a situation, where your stuff, or maybe they don't want to hear anything about the Kingdom of God, whatever the case may be, well then, seed into a child that is searching Jesus. Sponsor a child who wants to come from overseas and train with us. Do that for your child as a condition. If your child won't do it, we'll sponsor another child that's craving to come and be part of the Kingdom. Are you with me?

Who knows what God will do with that. You help seed into another person to become a defender of Christ's Kingdom. Maybe your children don't want to do it for any reason. Maybe years of whatever situation had been there, but look there's a whole new generation of young people that God is raising up. In Africa, in South America, in you know, Asia, and they want to come, and they want to come to the only place they can come and train, and understand that. There are countries that cannot do this kind of training. They can't own, you know, AR-15s for them to defend their counties.

You know, we want to help all the nations to get 2nd Amendment minds, second Amendment people, Second Amendment defenders for their nations, too. Look, it's going to have at least start with people thinking about the Second Amendment in South Korea, in wherever, the country of Japan. Wherever it is to make the change. If you're not even thinking about it, you're never going to get it. Are you with me?

There's always something we can do to help make the seed grow. You have difficulty, or whatever the situation with your kids, and whatever you do, it never bears any fruit, and you're just, and you hit a wall, hit a wall, hit a wall. Hey, maybe God is saying just don't hyper focus on them now. Give them space and seed into another child, maybe across the world, and is thirsty, thirsty to be trained, and to become a Shepherd. How knows. That child that you seed into may be the child that transforms your... I don't know. You'll never know. You'll never know how God will work. Ya' never know how God will work.

We have all sorts of kids who want to come to Sanctuary Academy. They want to get training, They want to be prepared for marriage. They want to understand the dangers of Feminism. We want them to understand the dangers of Communism and Marxism and Political Satanism. They want to understand the biblical world view of why Christ Coheirs must be Rod of Iron Kingdom Shepherds. They want to understand.

Well, if you're in a situation where you're running, and to where it dead ends with your children, then seed into another child. Help another child to be different, cause the more we have, the more defenders we have, the critical mass we have, the weak-minded start falling. Are you with me?

And, you know, when your children get brainwashed into Leftist. they're just basically being brainwashed in becoming the weak-minded. That's all, becoming conformists to Marxism. That's all they're being trained to do. So, as long as you have a critical mass of people that show a better way, they'll follow it, cause you gave to be relatively weak-minded to become Marxists anyways, and the Commies. You have to be relatively immoral, and relatively want to steal stuff to become a Marxist in the first place. Are you with me? You can't really be an ethical, honorable person. To become a Marxist, you usually have a hard time if you're honorable. Are you with me, folks?

So, our sovereignty is critical. You know, in understanding Kingship is critical, but let us not forget – We got to also seed this into the next generation. We got to create the next generation of defenders; otherwise, it dies with us, just like it did in the Promised Land.

Brother Lowell, real quick, can you share your testimony, real quick, on that incredible experience that you had? Go ahead, go ahead. SOS, come on up. SOS, come on up. Brother Lowell, he has an amazing testimony. Go ahead:

Brother King Lowell Ellanson:

Um, yeah! I want to share a little story of something that happened about the weekend before Christmas, so that was like three weeks ago, and as we know, we know that that King's deepest concern is that the Rod of Iron Festival will really seed what he's just saying right now. It's succeed the idea of freedom, and it's gonna seed the idea of personal sovereignty around the world. Through this event, we're going to get the worldwide media. We know the media is coming, and so this preparation is so important; so, about the middle of November Kook Jin Nim began to get really serious about preparing the property, cause it's going to take place right there at KAHK Arms, right? And, where the coming six hundred yard range is, that's wilderness. It's actually wilderness. The trees have been cut, but right now, it's wilderness. So, there's a lot of work to prepare that, that ground, where the site is going to be, where the shooting will take place. It's on a mountainside, and so, we have to fill up this mountainside with dirt.

So, Kook Jin Nim's vision was: There's this big hill. Right next to that area, we're going to take the material from that area, we're going to bring it down, and we've already filled a distance from the floor to the ceiling, about a good 15 feet. Tons and tons of rock and material. And, the hill we're breaking down, it's layers of rock and clay. And, Kook Jin Nim, we want everybody to know how much he has taken responsibility. He's been out there almost everyday for the last six weeks running a rock breaking machine on an excavator, breaking the rock, moving it around. He's supporting, not just from a distance, but with his own sweat and his time. He's been there until dark almost every day, since Thanksgiving, okay? So, I wanted to share something that did happen, though, a couple of weeks ago.

So, we're nearing the end of the first phase, which is moving all this tonnage of material. And, I've been working on Saturday night. This was the Saturday night before Christmas, and at the end of the day, I was getting dark and I shut off the Caterpillar. I've been using a Bulldozer. I shut it off, and I was walking out to our utility vehicle to leave this site, and I heard Father's voice coming really strongly, as if he was standing right next to me. "You should do a reporting Prayer and tell God how it's going. And so I said, oh yeah! Okay.

So, I walked up to the top of the pile where the building is being put in the sand. Just the day before, Kook Jin Nim was sharing with me, exactly his vision, how the whole layout should be; so, I had it fresh in my mind. So, as I was reporting to God, where we were starting from, where we're at right now, and what we're going to do; and, I saw over here, this was going to be a parking lot, and elevating the soil here; so, I was doing this very simple reporting prayer to God, and when I finished, I had this amazing feeling like, God, it wasn't Father at this point. It was God standing right next to me. It's as if I was as if I was walking and talking with God; and, I was starting the sixty, seventy yards back to the utility thinking, What do you do? God is right there; so, I wanted to talk to God more, and I said, "Oh, Heavenly Father..."

I just started talking about the things the King has been sharing with us, explaining about the Providence, and I said, "God, You prophesied about the coming of the Rod of Iron in Psalms. Two thousand years ago, you prophesied in John the Revelator, and how is it that you see it now? It's taking place right here, right here from this site, you're prophetic word is going to go around the world?"

And, I was talking like that. And, then I said, God, what does it feel, the down trodden and the oppressed, your children who've been oppressed who can find their way of liberation;" and, when I said that, just like a wave or Spirit hit me, and I started to weep, this incredible weeping. As I was walking, I just got hunched over, and I was crying God's weeping anguish at how much His children are suffering in those places like China, you know, and where those ISIS are cutting off the Christian's heads. All of this. God hears those prayers every day, right? This weeping came over me, and so, I was just crying,

Now, it was almost dark. I was just walking up to where the utility vehicle was; and, I was getting in it to drive it back; and, then that Spirit of Weeping left, and my mind was really clear and bright; and, I heard God's voice again say that you're on Holy Ground. You need to bow here on this ground. So, I was walking in the mud, but I went down to my left knee, and it was almost dark; and, as I was kneeling, I could see that there was a big stone there. Instead of getting in the mud, I could see there was a stone left me, and my right knee was on another stone, and there was another right ahead, where exactly where my head went to bow, and so I put my head on the stone; and, I was with different emotions at this point, but during clarity, was just saying, "Thank you, God. Thank you. Thank you, Thank you that you prepared everything, for now your dreams can finally come true." I was praying like that.

And then maybe after 30 seconds, I stood up, and I was going to walk and just leave, and I heard another voice from God. He said, "You need to go and pick up some rocks and some clay from the site. God back to the site." So, I got a couple of containers out of the utility vehicle, and went in the back and picked up some broken stone and some clay; and He said, "Bring this back and give it to the King, and the King can put it in the Palace. He should bring it to the Palace for the Rock is Christ. The Rock is Christ and the clay is mankind; and, the Rock and the clay are coming together now. It's the material for the Kingdom."

So, I did that. I got the material and gave it to the King the next morning at Church; and, so God is alive; and, so let's really pray. Make this happen. It's going to happen. God has been working on this for two thousand years and longer, so anyways -- Praise God.

Thank you, brother Lowell. Thank you. What a beautiful testimony. He had an amazing experience. That was incredible. Yeah, he brought the clay and the rocks, and you know the world wide media is coming folks, so, they may be quite shocked. They may see thousands of people with AK47s and AR15s, you know, just expressing and celebrating freedom; and, as go politically, Paris is on fire, and people are screaming and crying out, crying out to be delivered from the hands of the oppressed -- The Bilderberg Group, the Davos Group, the Rothschilds, George Soros, Communists, Satanists. People in their heart are crying out across the world.

Brexit, you know -- France is exploding. All these nations are under tremendous duress. Spain. Brazil. In Brazil, Bolsonaro has said that he is going to bring Second Amendment rights to the Brazilians, folks. Isn't that incredible? Isn't that incredible? If I, if we said to you three years ago that there's gonna be a worldwide revolution for the Second Amendment, through the Rod of Iron Kingdom, think about that?

And, did you know, Bolsonaro, I have the picture. I posted it. He's with Renzo Gracie. I under the Renzo Gracie line as well. Two of the Gracie brothers are with President Bolsonaro. President Bolsonaro in Brazil is wearing a Desert Eagle T-Shirt. How could you make that up? We got to have him on the King's Report.

But, he had a Desert Eagle T-Shirt on. The Desert Eagle, which of course is owned by Kook Jin Nim, and it said, I'm ready! That's what it said on his T-Shirt. I posted it on Instagram and the Gracie brothers were right next to him. The Gracie brothers, and all the Brazilian Jiu Jitsu community are one hundred percent behind Bolsonaro, because they hate the corruption in Brazil. Many of these people worked hard, hard, hard, so they earned their stripes, they earned their belts. Do you know what I mean?

My gosh! Who would ever believe? He said the Brazilians now must have an equal playing field to the gangs and the Crypts and the Bloods, whatever. The gangs bangers down there, the normal citizens must have an equal playing field. Then Brazil is now going to start pushing forward for citizens being able to own and have arms to defend themselves. That's incredible, folks. That's incredible. That's spiritual. That's spiritual.

See! So this revolution is now happening. And France is yearning for it, England is yearning for it, cause they know the bottomline, in the negotiation of violence, they all know, in the end, the bottomline is who is in control of force, right? Who will have sovereignty? Will the free government professionals and the huge banks that rob and rape countries, or will it be the normal citizens, who are not psychopaths and they are not predatory. They want to be just left alone.

So, we are in tremendous times; and, so the rock and the clay and everything, Lowell experiencing that in that visitation that he had with God in the wilderness like that, I think is a tremendous harbinger; so, please pray for the Rod of Iron Kingdom Festival that will be happening. Pray for us. Pray for all the brothers and sisters and revolutions that are happening around the world. People are getting empowered to realize their identity is not an animal, or an evolutionary primate, or whatever the stupid publicist will tell you. It's not that. It's a child of God, the coheir with Christ that's the inheritor of the Kingdom of God.

And when Christians can understand that, they will start getting their spiritual power back. They'll start escaping the Socialist Christianity that has taken over this world, and is teaching people to be sheep ready for the slaughter, and not raising up people to be lions like Proverbs 28 says, "The wicked flee though none pursue. The righteous will be as bold as a lion." This is important. Very important in this final hour.

Alright folks, let's pray today. Every eye closed, every head bowed in this place. We want to pray for you, especially if you are dealing with a serious ailment, especially if you're dealing with physical pain, we want to have blessings be poured upon you. We want to lay hands upon you today; and of course, if you have never given your life to Christ, this is your time, this is your day to be set free from all the lies of the Devil, and to be free, free in Christ, free in him to actualize your true potential, your true identity, and become all you can be in the Kingdom of God. If you fit anyone of these criteria, we want to pray for you today. We want to be with you. We want to invite all our brothers and sisters from around the world with fervent prayer with miracles and healings from all across the world. We're seeing just last week, we have testimonies from some of our brothers and sisters in Japan that were here last week, and they experienced this. One sister said she physically felt evil spirits leave her body. Leave her body. In truth, one of the sisters was crying on the floor. She was screaming, shouting, if you were here last week, you saw. You felt that she had the Spirit of fear, the spirit of oppression that was upon her; and, those spirits left. They left, why everybody was laying hands upon her, and everybody was placing up holy hands to pray for the sick, and to pray for those who are infirmed, and under the spirit of oppression. That sister gave a wonderful testimony expressing those things; so, we always believe, that is through Christ that we will always be set free. From Galatians 5:1 says, "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free." Stand firm, stand up, steadfast, but do not be encumbered on entangled by the yoke of slavery. The Devil always wants to enslave us, and to put us into the cycles of defeat. But, God wills for us to be inheritors of the Kingdom, coKings, coheirs with Him in the Kingdom of God. So, if you fit anyone of those categories, if you are dealing with major ailment, we want to pray for you today. If you never given your life to Christ, please come up for the alter call after this explanation.

Let's all rise. Give all who needs prayer a big round of applause in advance, and if you need prayer, please come to the front. SOS, come on up, and let's pray together. I'm going to invite everybody across the internal landscape who is joining us online, this is your time to also be involved in everybody else's life. If you also need prayer, please come down. Please come down, please come down, if you have not given your life to Christ, we invite you to do that right know. Make sure that you're sure, that your sure, that you've been saved; and, you know that you will not end up in a place of suffering, where lives Satan. There's only one way. One way to the Father. That's with Jesus, the Son. If you need that assurety in your life, please come up. Today is your day. It's your day. It's your day. Anybody else who is also dealing with infirmity, or you're dealing with physical pain, we want you to come down.

We want to ask all the young people. We want to ask these boys to come here. Young boys, come up on stage here; and, I'm going to have these guys pray for you, and pray for you with their youthful spirit. Young boys, come. Frontline, come. Come, come. Over there, too. Come on. Come on here. Come on. So, if you need a miracle in your physical, and you're battling some type of physical pain, please come down. We're going to be laying hands of you. We'll pray for you, and we'll believe for you, even though you've given up, where not gonna give up. We're not gonna let one person go early. We're gonna let God decide when you are going; so, even though you've given up, and you want to go, we not going to let you go. Are you with me?

We're going to believe in what God has, until the very last minute, until He calls us home, we are going to do His will on Earth. Amen?

Those who are dealing with physical issues, please come on this side. I'd like you to come on this side, so we can pray for you, specifically. Physical issues, comes on this side. I'm going to have the young people lay hands on you as well.

Well, spiritual issues, any other things, come on this side. Physical issues, come on this side, okay? Spiritual issues, come on this side.

Let's all first pray together, so we're in the right spirit, in the right mindset. Let's first give our life to Christ. Make sure we done that as a first stepping stone in our walk with Christ. Let's all pray together. Let's all raise our hands together, so we are giving honor to God from which our blessings come. Come pray with me together...

Father, we come to you, I come to you, in the powerful name of your son Jesus. Father, you said in your Word that if I make Jesus the Lord of my life, if I believe that he's been raised from the dead, that I will be saved. So, Father, right now, I declare that Jesus is my Lord and Savior, and that I believe that he's been raised from the dead, and I believe in your Word that says, I am saved, I turn my back on sin, I turn my back on the world, and I run to you, Jesus. Come into my heart. Take out the stony heart, and put in a heart of flesh. Cleanse me, fill me, renew me, change me, let me never be the same again. I give my life to you, Jesus. I hand it over to you. I surrender to you. I trust in you. Thank you for what you've done for me, thank you for giving your life for me, thank you for shedding your blood for me, thank you for dying for me, and thank you that you prepared the Kingdom for me. Let me desire your Kingdom. Put in the desire for the Kingdom of God in my heart. Put in the desire in my heart to desire your Second Coming, and I desire your will to be done. I thank you once again for all that you've done, and for the new life that I've been given now. I will be changed forever and ever. Amen! In Jesus Name! Hallelujah! Thank you God!

Let's give it up for God. If you need prayer for your physical body, physical body, we wants you to come on stage here. Come on! Physical body, physical body, come. We're going to ask God to use the young people, today. To give their youthful energy to you. Not that they're going to lose energy, or anything like that. Not that they're going to become old, or something like that; but, that they are praying for you fervent heart. The prayers of the righteous will be heard. Prayers of the righteous will be heard. Do you believe that? A prayer for the righteous will be heard, okay? Prayers of the righteous will be heard. Hallelujah!

Everybody that is joining us online, or in the Sanctuary right now, lift up holy hands. You brothers and sisters right here, point them right here. Boys, come...

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. 5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities. 6 And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. 7 The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. 8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses. 9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name. 10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. 11 And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it. 12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. 13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with her suburbs, 14 And Jattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs, 15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs, 16 And Ain with her suburbs, and Juttah with her suburbs, and Bethshemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes. 17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba with her suburbs, 18 Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs; four cities. 19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs. 20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. 21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Bethhoron with her suburbs; four cities. 23 And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with her suburbs, Gibbethon with her suburbs, 24 Aijalon with her suburbs, Gathrimmon with her suburbs; four cities. 25 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gathrimmon with her suburbs; two cities. 26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath that remained. 27 And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beeshterah with her suburbs; two cities. 28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Dabareh with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, Engannim with her suburbs; four cities. 30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs; four cities. 32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammothdor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities. 33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs. 34 And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities. 36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs; four cities. 38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all. 40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities. 41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs. 42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities. 43 And the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. 44 And the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand. 45 There failed not ought of any good thing which the Lord had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.
