

Who Can (and Cannot) Re-Build the Temple?

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple to the Lord, the God of Israel, they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' houses and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we worship your God as you do, and we have been sacrificing to him ever since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria who brought us here." But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses in Israel said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we alone will build to the Lord, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah and made them afraid to build⁵ and bribed counselors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. Ezra 4:1-6

We have a place to go. It is hometown. We should see our parents there and should follow their standards. We, on their behalf, should fulfill their responsibility, and by connecting them in heart and through establishing a tribe, a people, and a nation, we should guide all mankind to the true way of life and build the Kingdom of Heaven.

Did this nation become a peaceful one? Centering on Korea, did it make all mankind and the world happy? No. From now on, Korea should prepare such a path.

The path that we should walk, the path that God also goes is the path of restoration, and we must go down that path at any cost. We should meet our parents and build that nation and restore the world. This is a path that heaven and earth must go, no matter what.

When we go to our homeland, what shall we do? We should meet our parents. Even if we arrived at our homeland, if we are not connected to our parents, that is not right. Even if our parents passed away, we should be connected through them to our homeland.

However, that nation should not be centered on itself alone. On behalf of your father, you should become a person who can fulfill the duties of loyalty and filial piety with parental heart, not being afraid to go anywhere. Then, Satan will run away.

The place where heaven and earth must go, whatever it takes, is the homeland, And, once they get there they must become one. SMM, Way of Unification - Part 2, Section 3. Restoration Of Hometown And Rebuilding The Temple - Part 1

Pastor Matt Guedes speaking at Freedom, Faith, Family Coalition Prayer Breakfast

Hyung Jin Nim spoke about the successful Freedom Faith and Family Coalition prayer breakfast yesterday with Pastor Matt Guedes. The next prayer breakfast will take place on Saturday, July 13 with Mary Lohan, who is the "Voice of John," an aborted child who survived for a few hours before passing away.

He showed a video of President Trump, the first U.S. president to cross the border into North Korea to meet with Kim Jung Un, a hopeful sign for peace. He also showed a moving "Red Letters" music video about someone on death row condemned to die. By reading the "red letters" which are the words of Jesus in the Bible, and accepting those, God's just anger towards our sin is assuaged.

As we approach Independence Day this week, it's important to take care of those who bled and died for God's Kingdom and freedom. Last week he, Yeonah Nim, Kook Jin Nim and Ji-yea Nim spent time at a "Battle Fields" veterans event in Texas hosted by John "Tig" Tiegen, a "Special Ops" hero in which 6 were fighting scores of Jihadi's at a U.S. Consulate compound at Benghazi, Libya. It's important to show gratitude to those who risked their lives. The CIA and Hilary Clinton were able to see the carnage via drones, but did nothing to help the American ambassador Chris Stevens and these brave defenders.

He showed a Bible Project video on Solomon, which shows that Adam and Eve were supposed to be King and Queen to have dominion over the earth. They called True Father a "cult leader" but now many Christians such as in the Bible Project video portray Adam and Eve as a King and a Queen with sovereignty over the earth, as True Father taught many decades ago.

God's truth is not mysterious, it's real and expressed through a person, Christ. When our stories, which are otherwise full of sin "filthy as dirty rags," are connected to Christ, they become part of God's story. As shown in Ezra 4:1-6, because there was funding from Persian King Cyrus to build the temple, the wolves who were not true believers came and wanted to help build, but were rejected by Zerubbabel and other leaders. Similarly those who supported the Han Heresy will likely come claiming to have always supported True Father's anointed heir.

In Ezra 10 those who married foreign women were commanded to divorce their wives. Even Samson became weak and trusted the pagan Philistine woman Delilah. Men have euphoria after sexual intimacy with their wife. Don't be a slave. You will make her a tyrant. And she will become angry. Be a strong leader treating her with kindness, but not worshipping her.

Satan wants power but God wants children and grandchildren. Then Hyung Jin Nim spoke about the deposition and upcoming court case in 2020. He thanked all those who prayed and did conditions during the Deposition. He felt tremendous spiritual energy and support during the 15 hours of interrogation. Not like Jesus alone at Gethsemane. This will bring things to light. In the court they have to tell the truth. The deposition testimonies will remain a historical record for all time.

We don't have "members" or a marketing team. The bureaucrats during Ezra's time also tried to stop the rebuilding of the temple because they could not control it, calling the faithful builders a "dangerous community." As an example Hyung Jin Nim showed a new "cult-leader" t-shirt he was wearing.

The veteran patriots Hyung Jin Nim met in Texas love the saying, "You can vote your way into socialism, but you have to shoot your way out!" The Left likes to play class warfare to divide the righteous people from different backgrounds and possessing different talents. It's important to expose predators, of whatever class. Young people can be attracted to humanistic emotionalism, which is why they have to be trained.

He expressed appreciation for Master Chun who is 70 years old but is able to rappel down from the roof to paint the exterior walls of the palace. He has so many useful skills and gives good training to the King's children for 10 - 11 hours per day.

He invited brothers and sisters to join him to gather and pile rocks for a watch tower near True Parents' Wonjeon. Stone monuments will last thousands of years. In future decades and centuries people will hear about those who came during the time of this "wilderness." Satanic religions teach that you can earn your salvation, but Christianity teaches that it comes from God's lineage. Most important is True Father's body through which the lineage comes. However, Hyung Jin Nim doesn't want people who are not under TF's authority to build the Wonjeon. Don't separate from True Father's Kingship. If you separate from that, then your Kingship will not stand. There will always be a representative of True Father's lineage on the earth.

On no one else other than Hyung Jin Nim did True Father put his own crown and robe during the 3 anointings in Jan. 2009. Not even the Han mother. That crown stayed in Hyung Jin Nim's room on the roof of the palace. He didn't like the First floor room because it had ornate furniture, which he removed and replaced with a mat to sleep on and simple table for tea before being moved up to a room on the roof.

Perhaps the rhema in Ezra 6:5 is a harbinger that it is God will that all that was stolen will be restored back to the true owner, who was obedient to Heaven's command and preserved True Father's anointed lineage. No Kingship will stand without Christ's Kingship, so it's to each family's benefit to help True Father's lineage and Kingship now and in future generations! That will make God and True Father happy.

Statement of Purpose:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident"

1. Our nation's identity, values and freedoms are under attack. Unless we reaffirm these pillars of our Republic and pass them onto future generations, America will not be able to continue as the "land of the free."

The Freedom, Faith and Family Coalition is dedicated to returning our nation to its founding vision as expressed in the Declaration of Independence:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." Thomas Jefferson, The Declaration of Independence, Second Continental Congress, Philadelphia, PA

2. Our freedoms do not come from the generosity of government, but rather from the founders' declaration that these are "endowed by [our] Creator." Given the tendency of government to endlessly expand its power they saw the need to state specifically what the federal government SHALL NOT DO in the Bill of Rights.

At the top of the list are the first two amendments. The first forbids Congress from establishing a religion or prohibiting the free exercise of religion, or freedom of speech or of the press, or for citizens to peaceably assemble and to petition the government.

The second guarantees the right of citizens to keep and bear firearms in order to secure a "free State."

3) That these rights apply to all citizens was made clear by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King in his historic 1963 speech at the Washington Monument:

In a sense we've come to our nation's capital to cash a check. When the architects of our Republic wrote the magnificent words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to which every American was to fall heir. This note was a promise that all men—yes, black men as well as white men—would be guaranteed the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

4) As America is also threatened by family breakdown, declining marriage rates and the rise of fatherlessness, the Freedom, Faith and Family Coalition seeks to bring together men and women of good will, regardless of their racial and religious backgrounds, to strengthen families, affirm the centrality of faith in our Creator and to stand together to defend our liberties as described in the Bill of Rights and written in blood by the nation's founders and by succeeding generations.
