Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." And he rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed to Egypt and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

Then Herod, when he saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, became furious, and he sent and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that region who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had ascertained from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah: "A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more." Matthew 2:13-18

Christmas is truly the celebration of the birth of God's son, but without knowing God's purpose for sending him there cannot truly be a celebration of Christmas. I have described what could have happened externally, but think about Jesus himself. Would he have thought that he didn't need anyone else to help him rule the world as Messiah? Or would he have thought he would need a wife, in-laws, children and grandchildren so that his tradition could be passed down? Don't you think Jesus felt he needed to be exemplary in all human relations on earth and should occupy every position a human being could have-parent, grandparent, in-law-so he could set the heavenly tradition?

Many Christians think that Jesus was God Himself, so he didn't need anyone and only worked like a machine. You are so-called Moonies, whom people say are not true Christians, so you say this is not true. We Moonies are supporting a revolutionary concept; modern Christian leaders would be knocked out by what I am saying this morning. There are two major schools of thought-the conventional school of thought and the Moonies' thought. Which thought would Jesus support? After praying many hours to find out the truth about this, I think that Jesus would like my thought.

You are ordinary U.S. citizens, yet you want to become President so you can bring this nation to the side of righteousness. Wouldn't Jesus, as the Messiah, be thinking of the world kingdom which he would govern, as a parent and grandparent? One religious camp teaches that Jesus came to die, but the other teaches that Jesus was sent as Messiah to bring salvation by being the father of mankind and bringing the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. Whose Christmas celebration would God and Jesus want to attend? SMM, "The True Meaning of Christmas," December 25, 1979.

Dear

Rauci Family Lighting Chanukah candles

Hyung Jin Nim started the Sunday service by speaking about the wonderful Chanukah celebration prepared by Pastor Cook on Saturday. The holiday honors the Maccabees who repelled the despotic Seleucid Empire and cleansed the defiled Temple of pagan gods 160 years before the coming of Christ. John 10:22-23 reports that Jesus attended such a celebration.

True Father felt joy when Christian leaders, whom he viewed as the prepared chosen people, accepted him, but Korean leaders often felt jealousy. They unfortunately saw everything through the lens of politics. True Mother Kang, as a committed Christian, was different. She acted out of a love for the returned Christ and, after Father's passing, for his anointed son.

Many former leftists in the U.S. joined the UC. This came to the surface with the rebellion of the Han mother. She was not grateful. A Godly mother expresses gratitude for her husband. The Family Fed leadership used feminism as a hook for her resentment, saying things like "women can do it much better than men" and "men are so selfish," showing their contempt for Father and for masculinity in general.

When Christians suffer, they think of the suffering of Jesus on the cross. Everyone will encounter traumatic events in their lives. The life of Christ gives a valuable context through which to view suffering.

It is not healthy for a young adult man to live with his mother. He cannot learn how to be a man through a woman. He needs other men. That is why some even go into gangs. Women tend to value harmony and agreeableness, which are important, but masculine strength, competitiveness and combativeness are needed to provide for and protect God's Kingdom.

God said it's "not good" for man to be alone. Mothers may think their son needs to make a material foundation first, but delaying his independence and marriage often makes things worse, leading him to become more individualistic and dependent on his mom. Many moms underestimate their sons too much. Marriage forces you to grow.

It's important to have dominion over the words you say. As the Bible says, the tongue holds the power of life and death.

Young women should realize that you won't be in your 20s always. You will live for 40 or more years after. Focus on good men, not only those who you are immediately attracted to because of their charisma. Young men can grow and transform, especially if around good, strong men who train them. Their character and hardworking are key issues. The Amish are often looked down on for their simple lifestyle, but many of them are extremely wealthy. Don't make money your god. Keep the relationship with your spouse ahead of your desire for money.

What Level Is Your Parenting? (Sunday Service 12/22/19)

In their 40s, women may look attractive, but with 97% of their eggs dead, it is more difficult for them to have children. Yeonah Nim was wise. She had 5 children during her 20s whom she invested in and who now honor her. It's like girls who are given $1M in their teen years, but $50K withdrawn every year. By age 40 almost all of their precious reproductive resources are gone.

Men have to fight against the temptations of the succubus. Women have to resist the temptation to become a protective mother hen for sons. They can manipulate with tears. Parents, ask yourself- how am I doing on my parenting level? When in stress it's easy to unthinkingly go down to the baseline of how you were raised. Don't be an unprepared coach.

Hyung Jin Nim prepared his children for their roles in public ceremonies. It's not good for boys to have the same level of anxiety that their mothers have. Make your sons into men who the devil will be afraid of. Don't let your children manipulate you. Men need something to fight for. Remember there is no perfect time of financial security.

This is the reason why True Father said to marry young and have children when you are young. The Mormons in their 1,300 mile trek to Great Salt Lake in 1846 had to survive a brutally cold winter. Within 200 years they now own the state of Utah. Their children learn to save money for their one year missionary trip and to speak the language of their mission country.

European countries have extremely low birth rates (much less than replacement rate of 2.1 per woman) except for Muslim families which have more children per woman. Western culture brainwashes us to view children as burdens. You need to guide your children properly, to prevent satanic invasions. Spend one-on-one days with your children. Start that off with saying 3 good things about them.

The Han Mother said in public how much she loved True Father, but in private expressed a lot of anger and bitterness towards him. This put the children in an impossible position. Many Korean moms get away with acting nuts. Keep your public life and your private life as aligned as much as possible.

True Father often used scatological language, cursing the devil. Would you be prim and proper with someone invading your house? Martin Luther cursed corrupt practices of the Catholic Church with such language. Cops are trained to use dominating language to subdue criminals. But Father's translators were told to hide this. The Han mother was ashamed. Now the Family Fed is trying to set up a universal matriarchy with her as the "mother of the universe." That is why she does not support the 2nd amendment. Good luck fighting Islam with just women. In contrast, a Godly patriarchy is a good patriarchy.

If you can't confront your wife sometimes for disrespecting you, she will treat you as a child, and then be angry for you not leading. It is hard to lead if you have an out-of-control spouse. It's important for women to be able to be self-critical and not blame all on the father.
