Protest-praying teams

We thank all the teams that are out praying and protest- praying. Let's give it up for our J- team, K- team, USA- team; all the folks that are out there on the streets, boots on the ground, praying for the President. You know, it may feel like it's repetitive or that we're not making any impact, but you know our prayers have power. Prayers have power! And when nobody is out there, and when it's the darkest time, the fact that people who are driving by can see a group of like-minded people out there praying, protesting -praying in the bitter cold, even that can light a fire in their hearts again. Are you with me, folks?

I know it feels sometimes like it's just not doing anything, going out and praying, but let me tell you: God can use faith the size of a mustard seed to move mountains and split oceans. In the same way that prayer has power, that kind of protest- prayer has power as well. We're not just praying in the closet. We're out there trying to encourage the troops, encourage the patriots.

We salute all of you, folks, who are out there. The J-team- K-team team, I believe is out there three times a day. They have different places, three times a day, every day! Many of them dropped whatever they were doing in Japan and Korea, and came here to fight for our president in our country- even though they have no voting power.

So, let's give it up for them and that spirit and heart, because that is love; that's love right there! (Applause) So, we salute you, and God bless you all, all the prayer warriors out there! It does make an impact; it does have power. And remember! We don't know all the ways God can use it, but God can use it! Amen!

About 1 Kings 7

All right, folks! Let's go to 1 Kings and chapter 7 today. This is a very interesting chapter; it's a little dare- I -say boring, because it's very detailed. It's about the construction of the Temple or Solomon's Temple, during the time of King Solomon. There are a lot of details which many people find very boring; we don't have to go into all the details.

Just to give you an overview: God anoints David to be king of Israel, to establish the kingdom. However, because of various temptations, David degrades as a king, and eventually the kings that come after David also degrade. It's always the same temptations that Satan uses, even in Solomon's life.

At this point in his life in 1 Kings Chapter 7, he is trying to build God's Temple; he's trying to do the right thing. However after this, and towards the end of the whole reign of Solomon, we see what happens. Satan uses again fornication to tempt Solomon to marry all these wives. He has a thousand wives. Now he's making "political alliances," and amassing tremendous wealth.

So King Solomon's mission and viewpoint as a king maybe begins out faithfully, trying to fulfill the wishes of David, his predecessor, but eventually what happens? Sexual temptation! The devil uses that again! Remember? The devil uses sexuality as a weapon- a weapon- to tear down and destroy good alpha male leaders who are critical for society. Without good alpha males, you have no protection against evil alpha males, right?

As in Europe, if you get rid of the Christian alpha male and make him into a beta male, and you make him hate Christianity, you make him hate honor, you make him hate integrity; you make him just want to be a video- game playing socialist, now you have no real defense for the women and children; against what? The encroachment of radical Islam that will come in, and they will bring in alpha males; but they are evil, they are wicked.

Their civilization is centered on the destruction and the rape of women and children. Literally, literally! They call it child marriages, but they're raping six-year-old children, and that's legal. So, it's a different civilization, but that's what happens when good men are destroyed.

Every socialist country, every communist 666-Beast System understands this; they understand. Every evil conqueror understands this! You have to destroy; you have to get rid of the potential threat once you take over that place. You got to get rid of the strong men that potentially could gather together and fight against that tyranny. Are you with me folks?

But again, this is happening in America and in the west, and not by military means, as it happened with Genghis Khan. After he conquered, he would kill all the military-aged men, kill them, and then of course they would marry the women. They say, "Marry," but really they're raping the women, and forcing them to be with them. That was the situation with Genghis Khan, and then of course he was spreading his empire- even though it fractured from within.

The point is- and every evil system understands this- they must destroy the alpha males!

That's why you have this whole process in the West, in Europe and particularly in America, of demonizing the man. The man is always wrong, the man is a dog, the man is just a pervert; the man is blah, blah, blah, blah, blah- always degrading the man! Because you have to get in the general psyche of the population that men are toxic. Masculinity is bad! Building muscles and learning how to fight: bad, bad, bad, bad, bad; bad stuff! Okay, bad, bad, stuff! Learning how to shoot a gun? Bad, very bad, very bad! That's so uneducated, so deplorable, so fly -over-country! Cling to your Bibles and guns! The Korean hillbillies will say "Wooahoo" to that!

But the point is: they have to get rid of the strong men in order that they can conquer the civilization. It's just a standard operating procedure for evil kingdoms and Satan's kingdom-always. So, in the end, Satan of course, even in the Garden, he's using Eve. He tells her; he grooms her to believe, "Oh! You Eve, you're not going to die if you eat that fruit! You're not going to die! You're going to become like God! You're going to become like God! You will have power like God! You can become God! "

So, Satan was feeding Eve. In the modern western countries, they are feeding them feminism from a young age -which is basically Marxism. It's Marxism; it's a doctrine. Basically if you look at what the feminists actually stand for, they stand for political values that support Marxism, communism, and socialism. They're not interested in defending conservative women! "You're only a woman if you're a leftist woman. If you're a conservative woman, we want you dead! Okay!" That's very feminist by the way. It's very, very, feminist, very consistent!

But again Satan is using that to get Eve; why? Because in the end, he's not interested in Eve; he wants to violate her, take her over, conquer her; but not even for her. It's not because he loves her so much. He actually wants what? He wants Adam's position! He wants to be the head; he wants to be the king. Are you with me folks?

So, the 666 Beast System will do it through many leveraging of power. They'll do it through the welfare state for example, and that's when they tempt the Eve figures, the women of the population. They tempt them, "Oh! No, no, no, you don't need your man! Your man is maybe unfaithful. What if he leaves you? What if he throws you away? What if he's not loyal? What if you have all these children and he leaves because of another woman?"

You see all that anxiety, all the stress, all the fear, planted into the Eve figures' hearts. And they say, "No, no! We will be there for you! We will be there for you! We will give you welfare, because you know how men are. They're toxic, they're not loyal; they're dogs, they're perverts." Are you with me folks? And by doing this then you have the Eve figures that will agree, and of course they will give their vote for this kind of system- which will then do what? Incentivize divorce!

That's what happens with the welfare state! As soon as you implement the welfare state, they put in the system where you have to what? Get rid of your husband! Divorce papers must be shown in order to receive welfare benefits. This is now the same in South Korea. Thank you very much leftist democrats! They put that system in South Korea as well. You understand? It's crazy!

But in order to receive "benefits" that are really stolen from other people- but anyways the point is- you have to show divorce papers. So then of course you see a skyrocketing of divorce, skyrocketing; an explosion of divorce happens right, and then what? Now the marriage bond, the trust bond of fidelity is broken between husband and wife. Satan intruded. He placed in the fear, he placed in the doubt; he placed in the division. Are you with me, folks?

And that's a part of the strategy to break down civilization, so it's easier to conquer. Once he gets the women off, to marry him essentially, to marry the state in the Luciferian archangelic position. Now, you see he can use that power, to then do what? Build in the whole infrastructure, which will now demonize the alpha male, will demonize the strong man; will change the superheroes from Superman to Harry Potter.

From Superman to Harry Potter

You see how they did this? They changed Superman to Harry Potter! Superman had muscles dang on it! If you are in any fighting art, you understand that a bigger man is harder to deal with. You understand? If you are in any real combat art, Brazilian jujitsu, MMA, Thai boxing, boxing, you know that dealing with a bigger man is tougher. It's just reality!

Young men, when you're young, you see a bigger man, and you feel like, "Wow! I want to be like that!" They want to take away all those heroes, all those figures that we look at, "Wow! Yeah! Batman's got muscles!" I'm not saying muscles give you superpowers, but generally a bigger person that's that fit, is going to be hard to deal with - especially with martial art technique; he is not easy to deal with.

And then, you switch him with Harry Potter! You switch him with all these "new heroes" that are based in magic, or based in some memorization of spells. It's just based in the intellect. So then it goes from men who are valued being physically strong and physically capable against evil, to then a whole new generation of men who don't value being physically strong and capable against evil. Then that new generation of men only thinks that you can get power by manipulation, by learning certain spells and learning these different ways to sneak your way up.

It encourages a culture of deception, delusion, of sneakiness and selfishness, and of course the reliance on magic- which of course is not Biblical. It's not like Harry Potter's saying, "And believe in Jesus Christ our Lord!" No! He's not doing that! He's saying, "Shimsham, shabalam!" or whatever! This is the book from some wizard university- I don't know I never saw the dang movie anyway- from Hogwarts or whatever it is.

No! It's important that young men look up to King Leonidas of Sparta that fought against the Persians! It's good that young men look up to that! You understand? It's good that young men look up to MacArthur and brave generals on the field! It's very important; very, very important! These kinds of men are examples for a younger generation of men to look up to!

Not just these little fake, little intellectuals that are post-modern Marxists, and they think they're so powerful because they're sneaky and they're part of the Deep State, and they're going to control you! Like that crazy person that Joe Biden is trying to bring into his fake cabinet! He's not the president by the way, but he made his little cabinet picks already. But, Blinken? Did you see this crazy Blinken? Austin Blinken, or something.

This guy is a crazy warmonger; he has supported every single interventionist war that we've had in the modern period! Every single one! He is so excited to just drop bombs on everybody and kill hundreds of thousands of people for no reason, other than to enrich himself. Anthony Blinken! You look at him, and he's got the soul sucked out of him. He looks like this little college professor. They all look like that.

They're all these weak men who are on power trips. They want to steal power; they want to control power, so they can feel powerful by killing. It's like a death cult, "How many wars did I start? How many people did I kill? How many poor black and brown children did I just bomb?" It just becomes this ridiculous Satanist death cult! Because these weak men have never really dealt with real men! Any of these guys, when they were young boys they probably had just privilege, privilege, the whole way through.

Young men & young women training

They didn't get punched in the face; they didn't get beat up, tossed in the ground, and choked out with broken arms. They didn't get any of that! But that training is important for any young man to do, that kind of rough and strong martial art, especially combat art training, because it changes your whole outset.

And of course as you know, our girls train as well. It changes the outset of a human being. It changes the outset of a person, and it pulls you out from delusion and into reality, realizing, "Whoa! I'm a girl! And wow, that girl can beat me up; kick my booty, like really destroy me! And then she can't even do anything to that small guy! And I thought because I'm a martial artist, I could beat up that small guy. But apparently I can't!" You see what I'm saying?

Those kinds of reality checks are very important also for girls growing up. That's why you start learning, "Wow! I need to have force multipliers! I need to learn how to have the sword of the spirit! I need to have layers of defense on my person, so I can defend against evil if I have to, and protect life!

But Hollywood wants you to believe that you can just never push yourself hard, never suffer, and then you can just show up and do your little magic, and your little Hadoukens and your little Naruto moves, and all the bad guys will flee! Give me a break! Give me a break! If you've ever walked into a mixed martial arts gym, nobody's scared of Hadoukens, okay! Nobody! They'll pick you up, toss you around, and choke you out. Please! It's just so crazy! It's so Insane! But that's what they do! They want to weaken and degrade the population.

On top of that: we always talk about it- it's like a slogan:

You can't have freedom and fornication! You can't have liberty and licentiousness!

You can't! Why? Because if the population gets into a free sex culture, by the way which the welfare system promotes... The welfare system not only promotes divorce; it promotes a free sex culture. "You can sleep with multiple men; you can sleep with multiple women- whatever the case may be- and even though you've been licentious, you've have all these children with multiple people, you will get funding from the government."

There's no moral teaching on, "Do not be licentious! Stop fornicating!" No teaching on that, whatsoever!

So what happens when a population is assaulted and attacked by this system? What happens? You have a society that moves to free sex culture, fornication culture, which then leads to what? Hedonism as their primary philosophy! Hedonism becomes the primary philosophy of that population now! Hedonism means what? The pursuit of pleasure; that's what it means! Your life becomes just seeking pleasure, so then you're no longer any higher than a beast.

Because, if you've done anything that you're proud of, maybe you built a jeep up, or you climb a mountain- what are the case maybe- if you've done anything that's tough and anything that you actually had to work for and you're proud of, you know it doesn't come through pleasure. It mostly comes through pain! Amen! It mostly comes through pain. Are you with me?

It mostly comes through pain. I use the example of the Brazilian JiuJitsu black belt, because it's the hardest black belt to get, in any combat art. You get brutalized for decades, and then you finally are awarded it, but you just get used to having to be brutalized by people, beat up constantly. It's one of the most demoralizing arts on the planet, I think! It's very rough, very rough, being an MMA fighter or something like that; it's demoralizing, brutal to train with such capable martial artists that beat you to a pulp! It's totally demoralizing!

But the point is anyways: anything that's worthwhile, you don't obtain it through pleasure! Sure, there is joy if you achieve it, but that comes on the back of all this pain. Are you with me, folks?

But if you have a population that can't deal with pain anymore; any little pain they're triggered, any little pain they need a safe space, any little pain and little discomfort, it's, "Ahhhhhh!" Temper tantrum time, howling therapy, as they got to do that in the universities, you know, when President Trump got elected! Howling therapy! Did you hear about this? Oh, my gosh! The extent of the lunacy! It just does not end, folks! It is ridiculous!

But if you want to weaken a population, you just toss free sex culture on it! The Chinese government, when they did the Marxist Revolution through China, you know Mao Zedong through the state, funded the opening of nightclubs, to promote drugs, addictive substance, different types of drugs- alcohol is very addictive as well. Drugs, alcohol and what? Sex! It was promoted by the state; the state paid for it, folks, because it's a part of the takeover system. Are you with me?

In order to take down a moral Christian hard-working population, you have to put in this operating system and you've got to degrade it. You've got to make them into hedonists. If they're hedonistic, they're going to be so weak, always seeking pleasure; not willing to do anything hard, let alone fight for their country and risk their lives to fight against a tyrannical government. Give me a break ! "I'll never do that! That's just way too hard, okay! Like, I may die then! Oh my gosh! Like, what are you talking about? I need a Frappuccino, like now, okay!" You see what I am saying? It's ridiculous. Are you with me, folks?

But you need to do that! When the population becomes hedonist, what happens? They will 100% support socialism and communism. That's how they sell it to you, "Oh! We'll give you this free; we'll give you that free! You don't have to work for it; you just relax. You'll get a universal basic income. You can sit at home, play video games all you want; you get paid for that!" You understand? You see that, folks? That's how it's introduced; that's how it's always sold.

Take away the will of the people to compete, and to work hard, and to produce something that will benefit! Take it all away! Introduce licentiousness! Introduce the philosophy of hedonism- just pleasure- seeking animals! Then you'll stay in your cage! You'll give up all your freedoms!

Do you know that in a prison you get free food! You get free health care in a prison; you get free lighting and housing in a prison! Did you know that? In prison you get all that free stuff, but you're not free, are you? In North Korea, you get your free universal basic income for five dollars a month; it starts at a thousand and goes down to five! You get your free health care.

You may have to wait ten years for it, you know; you probably die on the waiting list as they do in Canada. You get your free housing and shelter; you get your free little hovel that you can live in, government housing, your little 10 by 10 "luxury mansion!" You understand? Prisons also have free welfare, folks! Prisons also have free health care, don't they? Prisons also have free housing and shelter, don't they?

But you have something that's very important to the human spirit and that God giveth, that they don't have, and that is liberty!

So, you look at the corona lunacy, you look at the Chi-com virus, you look at this ridiculous thing that's been placed on the world, and of course they locked down the world. We've become an open-air prison! South Korea is on their second lockdown; California's on the second lockdown.

Cancel thanksgiving! Cancel Christmas! Cancel the holidays! Cancel seeing another person's face for Christ's sake! My gosh! You know how much information we transmit by just looking at somebody's face and communicating with them? There's a lot of information transmitted! That's human interaction! That's important!

In Britain, when the Chi-com virus started, remember they were saying, "Husbands and wives must mask themselves in the home," and the British government banned what? They banned sex! Oh! my gosh! Do you understand what I'm saying? It's insanity, the level of government intrusion!

But it's all about getting you used to living in a prison, because people forget that in a prison you still got free health care, you still got universal basic income, you got a little support from the government; you got your little housing and lighting, TV, HBO, cable TV- whatever it is- libraries. You've got all that!

America

But, you don't have one critical thing, one critical thing: you don't have freedom!

So, look at this! Is America becoming a more free society, or are we becoming more of a prison? The second lockdown is coming through; states are now saying, "You're going to be tested." You've got to understand: checkpoints on major bridges going into New York City! You understand this, folks?

Waiting lines on government- endorsed grocery stores! It sounds a lot like North Korea, doesn't it? It sounds a lot like Venezuela. We're getting a taste of socialism, "Where's your permit? Did you get your vaccine check?" The Irish lawmakers have come out already and said, "We will require you to have vaccine papers to ride a plane!" That's already happening in Europe, folks! You don't think it's going to happen here? Oh! Well, you didn't think lockdown #1 would happen here, did you? You didn't think you'd see empty shelves in America, did you? You didn't think they'd be talking about a forced vaccine, did you? Are you with me, folks? Wow! Crazy town! Crazy town!

So, again, this is the operating system of Satan! Satan's system must include these things, because in the end, he's supposed to be the servant. He's supposed to be the servant to Adam and Eve; he's supposed to serve Adam and Eve. God did not give Satan the inheritance of the kingdom. He said, "Be fruitful, multiply, have dominion, subdue the earth!" Not to Lucifer! He gave that gift of inheritance to Adam and Eve, his children.

This is why you see anybody who supports that archangelic Luciferian 666 -Beast globalism, international Marxists- you name it- they hate the idea that people can think they have sovereignty. They just detest it; they just call that, "Your religion! Your despicable religion! How dare you think you are sovereign peoples that cannot be controlled by the ruling class? How dare you wear those crazy crowns, you cult members? You're wearing crowns of sovereignty; you're evil, wicked! You're in a cult; you're in a gun cult! Your pastor is brainwashing you!" Blah, blah, blah,! Yeah! We've heard that in the New York Times for forty years, okay.

And then on top of that, they have to deal with a population of peoples that are responsibly armed; that will not bully people, but if there's bad bullies coming into town, trying to destroy and ravage and rape and pillage and plunder, well they will be destroyed! That's the role of what a king has to do! King Solomon had that role, but what did he do? He fell into what? Did he fall towards liberty, or did he fall towards licentiousness? Ah! Ah! You see: he fell towards licentiousness.

So, let's take a look -at least at a couple of verses here- because it is quite dense, and there's a lot of measurements and lengths of pillars and ornaments. It's kind of a dense chapter in that sense, but, let's take a look at the first couple of verses here!

1 King 7: 1-5

7 But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house<sup>2</sup> He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

<sup>3</sup> And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row. <sup>4</sup> And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks. <sup>5</sup> And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

Okay! You get the picture of what this chapter is about? It goes on like this. Now Solomon is charged to build the Temple that is a picture of what? A return of humanity, back to where? The Garden of Eden where they dwelt with God, and they had relations with God in an uninterrupted manner! So, the Temple kind of represents that, symbolically, for the peoples. It's kind of a take back to the Garden.

That's why you have all this garden imagery, for example, on the pillars. There are different fruit trees, and there are different things that are carved into it, like persimmons and pomegranate etc, because the people would go to the Temple and they would leave the sort of secular world or space, and they would enter into a space where they would remember that relationship with God. Amen!

That's the whole kind of purpose of it; even though the Bible says we are the bricks of God's Temple. The Bible calls us living stones. So we are the living stones because God doesn't reside in an edifice, okay, but He resides in the hearts and minds and the souls of men! Amen! We are the living stones, so wherever the body of Christ goes, that's where the Temple goes.

But at that time of providence, God ordered them to make a symbolic representation of what? The return back to the Garden, and the restored relationship of humanity and God, to get back to that time when we were free; to get back to that time when we could relate with Almighty Creator, not through layers of bureaucracy and government. Are you with me, folks? Get back to that time when we were sovereign peoples, get back to that time when we had freedom and responsibility, get back to that time of the Garden. Are you with me, folks? That is the kind of representation of the Temple!

Now you look at America's founding history! What did the Founding Framers do? They built the Temple here too, but it wasn't of brick and stone. You know what the temple was? The Temple was America! The temple was America! The Temple, the ideal of getting back! You have liberty or licentiousness: which way did the Founding Fathers go? They went towards liberty; they didn't go towards licentiousness. Licentiousness will lead us to what? Hedonism, which will lead us to what? Socialism and communism! Are you with me folks? There is a direct connection! You get a population licentious, it will vote; it will want to move towards socialism to support pleasure seeking! You see how that works? It's a guaranteed process; guaranteed!

So our Founding Fathers were here: liberty is here, licentiousness is there. They went towards what? They went towards liberty because they saw what licentiousness did in the European kingdoms. They saw the over- powering governments that would rule over the people and live as a super- class. They saw where that licentiousness goes to. So, they didn't want to become those kinds of leaders. They said, "Hey! That's bad! That's evil! That's towards Satan! We don't want to go towards that. We want to go towards liberty!"

What was their intention? Their intention was very much like King Solomon's here, to create a physical place- a physical place. America, it's a physical place, right! It's a physical place where we can experience something like the Garden, where we are not servants of the state, but where each American citizen is a king. Have you ever heard of the Castle Doctrine? Any of you gun people, you all know. According to the Castle Doctrine, you're a king in your home; you can defend that home or, well, the "castle!"

I don't know if the Founding Fathers ever quoted Revelation chapter 1 and verse 5, but I quote it all the time, and you see that's where God clearly makes the believer a king and a priest.

<sup>5</sup> And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, <sup>6</sup> And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father;

That idea is radical and it's dangerous to socialism, communism and political Satanism! The idea that the normal person can be a king! No! You have to be born from a certain satanic bloodline, and you have to be born from this or that family or the Rothschilds or the British crown etc. Then you can be acknowledged as a king.

No! The Bible says no! Those who are in God, in Christ, can become kings and priests! That means the normal man, the fly-over country; that means the blue-collar worker; that means the deplorable; that means the person that they hate can become a sovereign and a king! Holy shmita! That's bad! That's bad for the Luciferians! You understand? That's really bad! That's bad news! That's bad news time! You understand? You're in a dangerous cult; you must leave immediately before you get brainwashed! Quickly run for the hills!

Dangerous! Dangerous! That idea is dangerous, folks, extremely dangerous! Look at the left, look at Biden! He's bringing Hillary back! The Satanist high priestess, he's bringing her back into power! Or he wants to; because he thinks he's the president! He also thinks he's been in the center for 180 years! But that's okay!

Oh, my goodness! Bringing back John Kerry! John Kerry! Somebody who actually paid billions of dollars to the Iranian empire so they could become stronger, to fund our enemies, arm them with nuclear power! That sounds like a great idea; it sounds like a fantastic idea! Let's bring that guy back, who almost set the whole globe on fire! Let's bring him back, and he'll be great for foreign policy!

Oh, my gosh! He's a Skull and Bones member too! Skull and Bones member; Satanist Skull and Bones member! Look at his face! He looks like Skeletor! All the life has been sucked out of his eyes. How sunken can your eyes get? I've never seen anything like that!

But these are the people they want to bring back! This is a super class they want to bring back! John Kerry is not impacted, because he's got the Heinz ketchup money through his wife! He's not impacted with the lockdowns; he's not impacted if the Middle East is on fire and Israel gets burned down and blown up to smithereens! He's not impacted by that; he's going to make money of that! He's not impacted if China is trying to devastate the entire world, and America dies and is de-industrialized again! He has no problem with that; he likes flying to Europe in his private jet, meanwhile lecturing you about climate change! Are you with me, folks? These people are crazy; they're certified crazy!

And this is the type of demons they want to bring back into power to sit over everybody in the planet! You understand what kind of existential crisis this is, folks? It's unreal!

Look at the values these people stand for: killing babies in the womb, post birth! That means the baby is born, and "they keep it comfortable for a little while and then they decide with the doctor..." That's what Northam said in Virginia! He's evil! He's an evil white-supremacist liberal; why? Because abortion adversely affects the minority population the most: 54% of black children are killed before they ever have a chance at life - these abortion clinics being strategically placed by Margaret Sanger, a leftist radical white supremacist, an actual white supremacist. They call Trump a white supremacist! They have actual white supremacists that set up their systems of killing black people! Do you understand?

And they call Trump supporters that are white, white-supremacist! I mean it's insane! It's like a robber robbing your house, and calling you the robber! Or it's like a rapist raping somebody saying, "You're raping me!" What the hell? What planet are you living on? Do you understand how they invert that? Crazy, folks! Crazy! This is the type of civilization they're trying to bring in!

The left, do they lean towards liberty, or do they lean towards licentiousness? What do they want to push on your kids? The UN wants to reduce the age of consent to being 10 years old! They want to bring transgenderism, where a five-year-old child can make adult decisions to chop their genitals off, and take hormone therapy, which will devastate their body. A five-year-old child! When that kid has legal right to do that, well he has legal rights for every adult decision then. You see how they create the legal framework for pedophilia to come in? This is not towards liberty; this is toward licentiousness, folks!

Because in order to maintain real liberty and freedom, you have to have a disciplined civilization! That's what the Founding Fathers said. You need to have morals for a free republic, because an immoral, a hedonistic population will always choose what? Communism, folks! They'll always choose the bribe, they'll always choose socialism; they always will choose that!

That's why sexual revolutions are always weaponized by all the major tyrants of the world: Mao Zedong, Pol Pot, Stalin in Russia! They use sexual revolutions. What do they say" "We free you from the tradition of religion! Now, have sex with anything! Have sex with beasts! Have sex with everybody! Yeah, just enjoy sex!" That creates a hedonistic culture, an immoral culture which will 100 % vote for socialism and communism.

See how that works? There's a process these demons understand. They have this inner hidden knowledge; they understand how this works. Why? Because they're communicating with Satan through the séances and the little black magic; all the little things that some of the lower people think are jokes. But the top level people, they're serious about this; they're serious about this stuff.

These people represent a culture that is antithetical, that is an antithesis, that is antinomian, that is totally diametrically opposed, cannot coexist with a civilization that wants to preserve freedom! A free culture must be disciplined!

Now notice what happens when you have the institution of marriage where sexuality can burgeon and blossom as God intended it to; what does that do? In a population what does that do? It desexualizes -it desexualizes- other relationships out of marriage! Do you see how it works? So, sexuality has a place; God made it for marriage. But what happens with Christian morality, with marriage covenant morality? It desexualizes other relationships. So you can focus on working and getting things done, and not being a horny toad in your office or everywhere else. Are you with me, folks?

So, the person who is in a covenant, in a marriage situation, ethically speaking with God and the promise, with a husband and wife, they now are desexualizing other human relationships. They're not seeing other people as human sexual partners -at least they're not supposed to. They're minimizing that as a population. You see how it works?

So, then those relationships, whether it be business, whether it be entrepreneurial, whether they be service -based -whatever the case may be - , they become professional and not sexual. So marriage protects; it allows for the burgeoning of human sexuality in marriage between husband and wife. It allows that outlet of productivity which will then bring children and through a strong husband-and-wife relationship, will build a great atmosphere for children. Eleven times less child abuse in a mommy and daddy home compared to a single mother home with a boyfriend- the most dangerous by far in terms of child abuse and molestation etc

And it will provide the framework to desexualize other human relationships, so those other human relationships can be productive for the sake of the nation, in different ways: whether it be business, whether it be economy, whether it be entrepreneurial, whether it be education, or whatever the case may be.

But if you sexualize every relationship, including with beasts and animals... God says in Leviticus that homosexuality is an abomination. He even talks about bestiality as an abomination as well, "Don't touch those dogs, don't touch those cows; don't touch them pigs, don't touch them sheep!" You understand? You know there's a problem: like in Afghanistan I've heard, seriously, they're having sex with the sheep on the farm. I'm not joking!

Because the other gods of the different cultures don't say, "That's wicked!". God uses the most damning language- the abomination language -against homosexuality, against bestiality, against pedophilia. The God of the Bible is distinct from the other ancient deities; He makes a radical and ethical stance that is unique in the ancient world.

But you look at this modern culture! They're not bringing anything new; they're bringing the ancient stuff back, the evil stuff. You think socialism/communism is new? Satan was the first socialist/communist. He was operating for power; his whole purpose was power. His whole purpose wasn't loving God. His mission as the servant of God was to love God and to obey God because he loved him, not to steal his children's inheritance and to make himself the king of the universe -the "prince of the air" so- to- speak.

Isn't that interesting? The Bible refers to Satan as "the prince of the air," and if you look at how the big- tech companies and how the information is spread; it's spread through the air waves - air waves. That's how they spread misinformation; they spread things that separate you from God. They spread porno; they spread all the licentious stuff to separate you from your wife or your husband. You know what I am saying? It says, "Air waves." This is interesting how the Bible talks about, "The prince of the air." What's that about? But look at now! All that communication is happening through the airwaves. That's interesting; that's interesting, isn't it? Yeah! It's interesting! Are you with me, folks?

President Trump is not perfect, but he represents a repost; he represents a “no!” He represents the statement “no!” to the encroachment of this evil culture. Does that mean he's God? No! Of course not! But he is a representative symbol of somebody saying “no!” That's what the Rod of Iron is as well.

The Rod of Iron is a symbol, with the bullet crown, what is that? The symbol of a “no!” The Rod of Iron is the symbol of a “no!” to tyrants. The Second Amendment is the symbol of a “no!” It's the right to say “no!” to the tyrants! Isn't that interesting? We have to have the right and the power to be able to say “no!” to evil. Is that true?

What does the left want to do? They want to take away the power to say and to mean “no!” They want to implode the borders; they want to let the radical jihadists come in, utilizing people who are really impoverished by socialist- style governments. They want to bring a radical licentious culture that is trying to normalize pedophilia, and have your children being dated by 60- year old men. They want to bring that in! They want to bring the culture of killing babies in the womb until now, out of the womb! When will enough be enough? It'll never be enough. Are you with me, folks?

These are dangerous psychopathic pathological Satans that are trying to rule this world. And President Trump stands as that “no!” King Cyrus may not have known God well. In fact he was the head of the Persian empire of pagan radical sex- trafficking kingdom! But God used him to protect Israel.

At least President Trump accepts the God of the Bible, and accepts Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior! That's a huge, huge, thing! Are you with me, folks? He's asking for prayer; he's got prayer. Lately, people have been laying hands on him, praying for the President all the time. He has surrendered himself to Christ and his culture, right!

Matthew 6: 33 “Seek ye first the kingdom and his righteousness and all things shall be added unto you.” Amen!

He may not be perfect, but he's seeking God's kingdom and his righteousness. He's saying “no!” to pedophile predators, who want to kill off 90% of the population on earth, so they can enjoy the fruits of the earth. Wicked; wicked! He is saying “no!” Just think a week ago, folks, how grim and how dark it was! Oh my gosh! America was in a dark hour! Even a week ago! Oh Lord! How many people felt that spiritually? It was a dark hour, you know, before the legal teams actually started coming out and President Trump was gone - he's like in a cave or something. And it's like day after day of Biden now coming out and declaring. “I'm the president-elect!” The day before he said, “We have to be patient with the process, and we must allow everything to proceed according to the Constitution." The next day he comes out, "I'm president-elect!" What happened to the patience of the process, huh? These people are crazy!

Then you had all the media coming up, "He's president-elect! How dare you say he is not! How dare you?" Remember Pompeo made that little slip: "The transition to the next Trump administration will be smooth!" Their hair lit on fire, you understand? Their hair lit on fire! They were so angry! "What will you tell the world leaders that have called to congratulate Biden, Mr. Pompeo? What will you tell Macron and all these crazy left-wing socialists that are calling you?" "You called the wrong number, fool!" Oh Lord!

Crazy! Remember how they were trying to guilt shame? "What will you do? How dare you go against Fox News? We've declared him the victor, and AP has declared him the victor! We decide!" Then the New York Times came out and said, "Yes! The media does declare who is the winner!" Remember these articles that the New York Times produced? This is ridiculous!

But it was dark! It was dark! It was dark! There was no hope! I mean we were out there protest-praying, all our J-team- K- team folks, out there praying, especially during that time when Trump was quiet, when the legal team was just preparing and when we were just hearing about the Kraken, we were just hearing about what they were going to do.

And everybody was saying, "Well, do they really have any evidence? I don't think they have any evidence!" They were talking all this kind of stuff! Boy it was depressing! The teams were out there praying. We got so many people coming up, stopping and saying, "I am losing hope, but seeing you guys out here protest-praying gives me hope again, and I realize it's not over yet. It's not over yet until God says it's over!" We had so many people come out and say that, out of their trucks, out of their vans, out of their cars etc... They would just stop on the road and say, "Man! I lost hope! I honestly lost hope!"

And look at what happened! Lord, have mercy! It's amazing! Again Pennsylvania the microcosm is turning the tide! Unbelievable, folks! The Trump legal team was here on Wednesday at the amazing press conference - kind of not press conference, but you know the presentation of the evidence and expert witnesses etc- Amazing! Amazing! Gettysburg Pennsylvania!

I think Mira made a nice video- he made a nice video- Like in the civil war, there was a high watermark. He was talking about that; that's a good analogy. It was like a high water mark. Lincoln was losing, losing, losing; then Gettysburg "bam" turned it around!

And it's almost like that! Oh, my goodness! We were losing, losing, losing! We were feeling so depressed, "President Trump's not going to make it!" And Biden's getting in and all the celebrities are saying, "Yeah! Biden!" And all the world leaders saying, "Biden," calling him, "Congratulations!"

And then Gettysburg happens, and everybody's out there praying a fervent prayer. There's a small group of people just trying to pray for the people inside, praying for the electors, praying for those people to have courage- a small group! But something happened on that day! Something happened to the atmosphere! When that got released, that bravery of the two senators! All the federal judges on the local level, they didn't want to even open up the courts for them; that's why they did it in a hotel, because they were getting blocked from doing it in the court of law! It's ridiculous! These people are crazy!

That's why it was in a hotel, and everybody's out there praying at the hotel, and everybody's out there waving flags and protesting et cetera. Protest prayer is what it is! We're doing protest prayers! We're not praying in a closet; we are protest praying," Boots on the ground! Stand up against the enemy! Resist, resist, the devil and he will flee!" And praise the Lord Almighty!

Boy, the affidavits came out! It started turning the tide. Now President Trump's legal team has another one set in Arizona for Monday! Another explosion like that will happen! Now of course, the legislation said they have decided they're not going to certify, because there's just potentially too much evidence for fraud. So now in Pennsylvania, they said, "We're not going to certify this." And now in PA, they're talking about the legislature turning around, following the lead of the two senators that did that whole TV conference.

Now Pennsylvania is saying, "You know what we're going to do? We're going to take back the power to appoint electors to the legislature again! We're not going to give that to the governor or the secretary of state!" Hallelujah! Praise God! They can do that because that's within their constitutional power. They don't need the governor's approval on that; it's in their constitutional powers already! Bam! Oh, my goodness! Crazy! So, the tide is turning now; something in the atmosphere is turning.

So it's an exciting time, folks! Remember, don't be dismayed! Don't be dissuaded! Don't be dispirited! Don't be demoralized! That's what they want you to do, so you don't want to fight!

Oh, remember! Oh, remember! Christians, the pre-trib! "You're going to be all whisked away. You're going to be driving a car; you're going to evaporate into heaven. You know, you don't have to fight! Don't fight! Don't fight!"

There's going to be no tribulation, nothing! You'll have to resist!

"Just go along with your world; go along with your business! Keep donating to the state and giving your money to the state forcefully! Give it, give it; give it! You'll all be whisked away! Don't worry! You'll be saved! Jesus is coming back; don't worry!"

No, there's no tribulation for Christians! It's ridiculous! "Submit yourselves unto God! Resist, resist; resist the devil, and he will flee!" That is the order of God. "Stand up against unrighteousness" is what the Scripture says! "Judge righteous judgment," is what the Scripture says! They don't say, "Sit back and wait, driving your car, watching TV and you'll be whisked away while your microwave dinner gets cold."

Lord, have mercy! Give me a break! It's time, folks! It's crazy time, but it's time! Let us pray!

Pastor Sean's Prayer:

Father, we thank You for this beautiful day, and the Word that You're able to put within us. Father, we thank You for the study of 1 Kings and King Solomon and the building of the Temple to return back to the Garden of Eden.

Father, we want to be able to return back to the Garden, where we can be free and Your children, and we can have sovereignty and we can inherit the earth; not for our sake, not because we're greedy, but so that we can shepherd it, in the poinmaino rule that You have inherited and given to us.

God, raise up righteousness within our hearts! Raise up the Holy Spirit within our hearts, holiness, purity, fidelity etc, all the virtues that are essential to keep a nation and a world free. We pray that all those in the body of Christ would turn from the culture of licentiousness, and would turn towards the culture of liberty, as Galatians chapter 5 says, "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free!"

We thank You, God, that we are no longer slaves, no longer servants to the devil, no longer servants to sin, no longer slaves to his licentiousness and his kingdom, but we are now freed from his grasp, from his web, from his weapons of war that are aimed at us, and You have turned the fiery dart of the enemy to go against his own self.

Thank You, God, for the salvation and the gift of grace You've given us! Even though we were sinners, you loved us and approached us and ran after us and saved us from our own sin, and from our own weakness, so that we could be righteous in You, and stand with You on the battle line against evil in this animated contest of liberty, at this epic moment in history, and in this time that all people will be activated to stand up against this wicked wave of evil and Marxism and Satanism that is pouring in! Let us be brave at this time!

Be with our President and be with America to protect and poinmaino shepherd the world towards Your kingdom.

We give You all the praise, glory and honor, with all the folks that are gathered here today, offering up praise and prayer, and we pray in Your precious name. Amen! Amen!

All right folks, let's all rise and give glory to God! Amen!
