The WAR on Masculinity

July 25, 2021

We have a presentation today. Last week, it was the General Inspector's birthday, folks! We'd like to present this picture to him. Kook J- Hyung if you could come down here, we have a picture. Happy Birthday! Happy Birthday, General Inspector! Praise God! He does so much of course for the ministry and everything!

Today, we are in John Chapter 1, which is very famous. There's so much depth there; it's unbelievable. There's such deep power in that scripture. We'll get into the Word first, and then we're going to continue off of last week's study about the different scholars and the 10 Stages of Genocide and especially the Struggle Sessions which communists always bring. We'll continue on that. But first let's get into:

John Chapter 1:1- 39

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.2 The same was in the beginning with God.3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.18 No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. Whatsayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples ;36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

So we let's jump back to the beginning here; this is very powerful. We can see the episode with John the Baptist. It's interesting because the Disciples of Christ, we know they were shaking in their faith constantly; there was a massive pressure. It doesn't matter how many followers you have on Instagram, Facebook, etc; remember Jesus only had 12 followers, okay folks. Don't feel discouraged if you got like five subscribers or whatever; it doesn't matter. Jesus only had 12 followers on his Instagram channel!

If you sleep on guard duty, you die!

What's interesting is that in the current time with the Roman legion, the Roman army, if you were doing guard duty at night and you fell asleep the punishment would be death. You would die; you would be killed. If you were a soldier and had to do guard duty of some watchtower or of some special politician or bureaucrat or Caesar -let alone Caesar my goodness - you would be killed if you fell asleep. Kook J-hyung was making this point the other week; I thought it was a very powerful point. You'd be killed. See, we don't have that context when we're talking about this period. That was the punishment: if you fell asleep doing guard duty for the ruler -it could have been Pontius Pilate or it could have been of Caesar - my goodness you are in big trouble if you fall asleep.

Even the Disciples of Christ, they started falling asleep while Christ was praying in the Garden of Gethsemane. This is a crime because he's the Caesar of Caesars; he's the king of the Caesars. Jesus is the King of all Caesars, of all kings of the world, etc. And these guys have fallen asleep! You see; that's a crime punishable by death for a regular Roman soldier.

Of course Paul called people in the Body of Christ, soldiers of God; you understand? Ephesians Chapter 6 is all about what? "Put on the full armor of God," which was going after the Roman soldier's accoutrements like, "the helmet of salvation or the breastplate of righteousness, the belt of truth, the feet shot with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace, the shield of faith, the sword of the spirit." All these things were reminiscent of the armor that the Roman soldier would use. Of course they also had a spear in addition to the distomosmachaira or the double-edged sword.

But the point is: if you were in the Legion, in the Army, you were doing guard duty and you were negligent on that, you would be killed. So think about that in terms of the Disciples following Christ. They were constantly being shaken.

We could see even at the end, everybody's running away,

-"Do you know Jesus?"

"No no, I don't know him; I don't know him"

They're shaking with fear because they know they're going to die; that the state will be after them.

So you can see the disciples in terms of their faith, in their attendance to Christ as the King of kings. I mean he is the King of the Caesar of the contemporary time of Judea and of the Roman period. Jesus is the King of Caesar! Are you with me, folks? But you could see how shaking the disciples were; not even of the standard of a normal Roman infantryman, normal Roman foot soldier. That's their level of attendance to Christ!

The spirit of the martyr

Of course later on, they repented and God used them after the Resurrection, and many of them died. They had to give themselves up, and they had to martyr themselves. They had to make the commitment that, "Yes, we must live and die for the King of kings."

This is interesting because this is what in Christian history was known as the "spirit of the martyr", the spirit of transcending death through Christ. I have this T-shirt on today that says, "Death, where is thy sting? Grave, where is thy victory?" because Christ has overcome the grave and the death. Thus he gives us power when we know him and we come into his family; he gives us power over death. That doesn't mean we won't be scared sometimes, it doesn't mean we won't feel trepidation or hesitation; it doesn't mean we won't have anxiety and stuff like that, but it means that we won't be ruled by them. Amen! We won't be ruled by them! Our faith and that relationship with Christ give us power to overcome that, because no longer are we relying on just our feelings or our anxiousness or the situation around us, whatever that situation may be.

Sexual revolution vs. sex in marriage

So we are in a very interesting period of time in America because as President Trump came out yesterday, two hour speech, looked great, talking very strongly, and of course admitting -I think probably for the first time admitting- on national TV, that we are in the midst of a communist revolution here in America, folks. That's a bad deal because we know that on the political spectrum, Communism is political Satanism; it is the apparatus of Satan that brings in all the most demonic forms of evil and wickedness.

When did America fall? When did it start collapsing? Well, we were having a discussion at the round table the other day, and I think it was Kook Jin Nim who said, "Roe v Wade." Roe v Wade, that's when America started dying, because you codified into law the killing of children; the murdering of children became codified by law and protected.

But how did America get to that point? We talked about that as well. What happened to America that they got to the point in 1973 when Roe v Wade is passed? How do they get to that point? Right before then, you saw of course what? The sexual revolution, and this gets back to the fact that when a nation falls sexually, everything else starts to degrade.

We talked about how God through marriage, de-sexualizes all other relationships, because sexuality is preserved for the confines of marriage. It's the blessing of marriage, and it's supposed to be productive and powerful and meant to be a strong binding agent for the whole family, to create a strong family, etc. Anything outside of that becomes very destructive. That's why previous to the current generation after the sexual revolution, etc; you had no generation of Christians that were saying to their kids, "Okay, just date, sleep around." No! In the Bible it's called fornication, and we see that in Scripture very clearly, "fornicators will not inherit the kingdom of God; neither idolaters nor liars," etc.

So the traditional Judeo-Christian morals of keeping yourself before marriage and being loyal to your husband or your spouse, this is a central pillar sociologically, when we're looking at the desexualization of civilization. So there's only one place where human beings can exercise sexuality; that is to be in marriage, and that's where it's healthy, productive; it strengthens the husband and wife, and it is of course a good role model example for the next generation of kids to want and desire also to have that proper relationship, when they see that their parents are black- belt level at it, in terms of their relationship in marriage. Hey, the kids they're inspired; they want to get it too. They want to go and get blessed and married as well- a high percentage at least.

And what does it do? It de-sexualizes relationships with other men, other women- people of the same gender. It desexualizes relationships with animals! You know in Leviticus Chapter 18 where it says

"homosexuality is an abomination," it condemns bestiality as an abomination as well. So actually God is protecting the animals from these licentious people. As they descend into sexual sin, bestiality is along that rollercoaster ride on the descent into hell.

Of course in the end, people don't just stop at the beasts and the animals they go for the children, folks, and that's why pedophilia is always at the center of Satanism; the core of the satanic rituals and the satanic culture is to get your children. That's why you had the San Francisco choir singing about how they're coming after your children. They're telling you to your face, laughing at the patriots, laughing at Christians saying, "You can't do anything about it. There's nothing you're going to be able to do about it; we're coming for your children, etc."

So you have this type of degradation. It's very sad. When you look at their eyes they're totally empty, they've sold their soul to Satan. They have no true joy. Their joy is preying on the next generation of young people who are malleable and able to be formed, and then pull them to this culture of licentiousness and depravity.

Sexual revolution & women

But you see, as America took part in the sexual revolution, at the same time women were told "marriage is death bed, marriage is slavery. You don't need to have a man; you can do everything by yourself. Everything a man can do, you can do as well." That kind of came back to bite you, because now you got the transgender women taking up all your sports, and that's a problem. You've been told all these things when you're not built like that. Neither man nor woman is built to be alone; you're not supposed to be doing everything by yourself.

There's this one lady, she's some kind of a power lifter, she's some kind of CEO, she runs her own business; she's single. But she's telling all these young women, "Honey, I'm not meant to do all this alone; I mean it's burning me out doing this all alone. I bought into these lies of 'oh woman can do everything; you don't need a man. A man is just a useless appendage; he's there to try to pull you down'."

So the only man that you can actually have then is a man who is feminine or a beta male; but no woman is attracted to that because biologically that's not how God made you. Women are not attracted to men that are like their children. Are you with me, folks? They're certainly not sexually attracted to them.

So God, being an alpha male and a Father, stands in war with His people. I mean that's about as alpha as you can get. Jesus making the whip to get ready to beat up the money changers; for six hours making your own beautiful braided scourge with knives in the end, ready to whip these people; this is not a weak man, okay. Jesus who realized he had to go the way of the cross and then says, "Okay, I'm going to lay down my life; I'm going to die so these people can be free." It's the heart of any warrior, any veteran or people who go out fight for their country in war; this is the same type of heart.

So from that sexual revolution women have been told lies and men have been told lies, lies, lies, lies: "women can do everything alone; they can do everything by themselves."

But in 2011 the major universities of sociological studies did studies on happiness, and they found that the most miserable human being in America and in the Western world, guess who that is? It is a career woman, single, unmarried, 42 years of age. Because reality is now catching up to her, "Oh, but I was promised at 30 if I get the in vitro" -which costs about ten thousand dollars per session and you can do multiple sessions to freeze the eggs, and of course there's already a 35 to 40% chance of immediate death and those eggs will not survive. So this lie, "oh we have the technology, we have in vitro; we have all these things." It's tens of thousands of dollars and it's not even guaranteed that those eggs will be viable because past the age of 35 almost 50% plus of the women's eggs are now abnormal. Did you know that? They're not healthy.

The healthy eggs are at the peak when the women are in their teens and go up to the twenties. By the age of thirty, 90% of the eggs have died. By the time you're forty, now 97% of the eggs have died, and at the same time now the majority of the eggs are abnormal, with a massive increase in Down syndrome. They have statistics on it.

Lauren Southern just did a piece on that a couple of days ago. She shows you the statistics in terms of actual numbers, of a woman who's 25 years old and the chance of getting Down syndrome baby, and a woman who is 35 and the chances. It's a ginormous difference. Go check out her video on that! But these are all scientific facts, all scientific facts. You can't change them; this is how God made it.

So when we are young, God wants us to be filled with wisdom. He wants us to study the Word. He wants us to be around responsible mature elder people that we can learn from and also learn from their mistakes and learn from their life experience and understand the value of learning how to invest and properly plan early, not late. And of course avoiding the lies that are told in order to control women, to separate families and separate marriages.

In the end, the women were told these lies through the sexual revolution, through feminism etc; they're now more miserable because now they're alone and they're angry they're alone. And now they've developed all these "masculine" traits like assertiveness and going out making their own businesses. That's fine; women can do that. But it's not going to make you more attractive to high-tier males, because high-tier males already have the success, they already have the business; they have salaries over $500,000. Having male qualities is not going to make you more attractive. They don't want a quarrelsome fighting situation at home; they want peace when they come home. They want peace, peace, peace; no fighting. And of course high-tier males that are making above $500,000, they are fit etc, highly desirable men.

By the way when they do population studies of current America and the current Western world, 20% of the males get all the women; 20%! You have all the women trying to get 20% of the males. So they're all telling each other, "Oh, I'm going to get that man one day. He's going to be happy, he's going to be tall, he's going to be handsome, he's going to be physically strong, he's going to be protective, he's going to be loyal; he's going to have lots of money." You're living in Disneyland, because all the other women in the population are chasing those men. And they may be more beautiful than you.

There are many beautiful women; he has all these options. Why would he choose a quarrelsome beautiful woman, when he could choose a beautiful woman that will not quarrel with him every freaking day of the week, and be offended and triggered by everything he says? Why would he choose that? He's got tons of options. You see what I'm saying, folks? They've been told so many lies, and of course that has led to dysfunction, and even to the desire not to get married.

A direct assault against God

The statistics show that in the 1950s, more than 85% of young people said they believed in God and particularly Jesus; that they were Christians. Now the statistics have come out: less than 50% of the young millennials say that they're Christians; that they believe in Jesus. This society is radically transforming, folks; radically.

Once you get rid of the God of the Bible that's stopped pedophilia, stopped child trafficking, stopped homosexuality, the slippery slope towards sexual licentiousness begins. The byproduct of that is what? When a society becomes sexually licentious what happens? Are children produced or not? Yes, they are produced because these people are having sex with everybody: men, women, beasts, etc. Everything is sexualized. So what happens? Are there more unwanted children? Yes! What happens when there are more unwanted children? What big market is starting to be produced? Killing the babies; the abortion! There is a direct link between America passing Roe v Wade, killing the children, and the sexual degradation of society.

In chapter two of the Divine Principle, it is explained how Satan targeted Eve to tell her lies in order to make her come with him instead of being loyal to her husband. Amen!

On the national level that's the same thing. The feminists were funded by the Rockefeller and Carnegie Foundations; big socialists by the way. Carnegie was a devout socialist; he openly said, "I'm socialist." These people are open socialists; they have billions of dollars. Most of the early mothers of feminism were all being funded by the Rockefeller group, the Carnegie Foundation. They were doing that because they wanted to increase the tax base, they wanted to double the taxes. That's what they say; that's what they kind of admit to.

But more than that: they're doing it to separate men and women. You can see that now further along the slope of degradation after 60 years of this lunacy, when we now have children being taught they can choose their gender; the genders don't even matter anymore. Which is what? It's a direct assault against God, because God created man, male and female, and God created them in His image. He created them, and He created them for different roles too. They're equal in value and love, but they have different roles, different skills; different abilities. God created those things.

The idea that you can just choose a gender, that there are 72 genders, what is this? This is total assault on the idea that human beings are made in the image of God or a Divine Creator. It's saying, "No! You're the author of your gender; you're the author of your fundamental identity." Even though in your DNA, every single cell of your three trillion plus cells in your body is male, you can still be the author of your gender and say that you identify as a female; even though 3,000 physical cells are screaming at you saying, "You idiot, you're wrong!" It doesn't matter what they say. They're racist cells, they're white supremacist cells, and they are homophobic cells. They were not educated through the department of education cells! I mean it's ridiculous, but this whole thing is to tear down the fundamental fabric and the idea...

Remember ideas are very important; they really matter. They have serious consequences. That's why Father identified Communism as political Satanism and as Satan running this whole army. Because those ideas really matter! It's not just another opinion that you learn in schools; not just that when you go to college you have five times more the rate of atheists per capita compared to civilization, so you are surrounded in a hive of atheists, the majority of whom are leaning severe left.

No conservative professors

www.onenewsnow.com/education/2018/05/05/39-of-colleges-have-0-republican-professors

In fact, do you know this? 40% of universities in America do not have one conservative teacher, not one; not even one conservative professor in 40% of universities! You're talking about brainwashing camp! Not even one teacher! Not even one conservative teacher! Okay, the 60% may have one; may have the ceremonial rabbi, you know some person that they parade around, "that's our ceremonial conservative minority that we have here, so that we don't fall into the statistic of having no conservative professors," but heavily dominated towards Socialism, Communism, political Satanism.

That's why these young kids, paying for their own debt going into hundreds of thousand dollars in debt, starting off as slaves because remember any king that's raising his family will say, "Stay out of debt, children." He will tell his children, "stay out of debt, build real assets, build networks; have gold, have silver, have land." He's going to be teaching those kids that. But he's going to be teaching the slaves, "No, no, go into debt, borrow lots of money; play around." This is what he's going to tell the servants and the slaves so that they are constantly dependent on the system. Are you with me, folks?

We have 39% of colleges that have zero Republican professors; zero! So these places have become indoctrination camps, and of course they're sex clubs as well, because they're inviting and allowing the kids to go rampant, "Go, enjoy yourself; go party, go, go, go!" That's what college kids do!

Well, not the ones with a real head! The ones with a real head, they're trying to get somewhere, they're trying to look forward; they're trying to invest. If they're going to go to college, they're maybe doing an engineer degree; maybe they're going to be a doctor, maybe they'll be a lawyer, etc. So they're going to be seeing that as an investment; they're not here to play. Are you with me, folks?

"Why do you go to college?" The kids say, "I don't know; everybody else was going."

- "Okay, everybody else was going; jumping off the cliff of debt, $50,000 to $200,000 in debt and you're 18 years old! How do you ever plan to pay that back? How long is it going to take? Do you know anybody? Have you talked to people in your neighborhood? You can meet them; they're s 40 - 50 years old and still paying college debt". It's as easy as just going to walk around talking to people instead of playing video games all day and watching dramas. You just go talk to people and you can see, "oh, you have a student loan debt. Are you still paying that off?" They're 40 -50 years old and they're still paying that off. You're going to be tied to a bank, working for the bank for twenty or thirty years.

Harvard's class on K-pop studies

And if you've done a useless degree like this or that studies; usually things with "something studies" is pretty useless. If it's science, technology, if it's engineering that can be helpful; you need those for your career, you can do that. But if it's women's studies, if it's transgender studies; if it's K-pop studies!

www.armymagazine.co/single-post/harvard-case-study-review-big-hit-entertainment-and-blockbuster-band-bts-k-pop-goes-global

Oh my gosh! Harvard had a class on K-pop! You're going to pay $50, 000 to take that class! Oh my goodness, the young people are that stupid. They're going to Harvard, so you would think they have more of a brain, but they're taking a K-pop class. I mean they had a K-pop class, folks; a K-pop class! I mean this is the height of idiocy.

The point is: if they can get you to dig your own grave, jump off your own cliff, do it for them, you've already acquiesced, folks. The war has already been won and that's the sad part about America: America has taken this, hook, line and sinker.

R- & K-types

r Unstable environment, density independent	K Stable environment, density dependent interactions small size of organism	large size of organism energy used to make each individual is low	energy used to make each individual is high many offspring are produced	few offspring are produced early maturity	late maturity, often after a prolonged period of parental care
short life expectancy	long life expectancy
each individual reproduces only once	individuals can reproduce more than once in their lifetime
type III survivorship pattern in which most of the individuals die within a short time but a few live much longer	type I or II survivorship pattern in which most individuals live to near the maximum life span

Where does it start from? It starts with the degradation of morals. When you become sexually licentious as a culture, you don't care about your kids as much; because now you're moving from K-type gene selection species, to r-type gene selection species. Those species, as we saw in those different genetic studies, are species like rats, rodents, bunny rabbits; they're r-type animals. Those r-type animals, coming from the rate that they are able to reproduce at, reproduce a lot more. They have very short nursing periods, they have very low investment into the children, and those animals are very promiscuous, very, very promiscuous.

K-type

Lions, on the other hand, are K-type animals; they have many less babies. It's harder to have lion babies and once they have lion babies they have to set up elaborate prides and systems and fortifications; basically move in groups to protect that baby because the preciousness of that baby is so high. Are you with me, folks?

When a civilization goes through harder work; they have to pioneer, they have to do this and that, they move towards the K-type spectrum, because nobody's giving them anything. They have to survive; they have to be like lions. They have to protect their youth because if you don't have youth you die; you become extinct as a population. Remember, values are not only belief systems; belief systems also impact your decisions. The way you behave also impacts your genetics, which is called the field of epigenetics; even your decisions start changing your genetics.

From K to r-types

So, when a civilization goes through hardships it goes to K-type but when it moves to prosperity it starts moving to r-type; instead of being more like the lion, it becomes more like the rabbit or the rat. Are you with me, folks? Maybe the sexual revolution wanted to make everybody into a rabbit, make them very licentious, make them have lots of licentious, adulterous relationships; have them produce babies and then kill them. But at some point they also want you to become rats.

This is of course the whole thing with the Covid situation; it's all about breaking down the bonds of neighborhoods. "Love God, love your neighbor" was a Commandment. Now you should hate God, you should believe God is a mythology. You should believe that all the values that come from God are ridiculous, traditional and outdated, and that we're the modern world, we're the new hope and we're the educated. That our parents are stupid and they're un-intellectual, because they didn't study under Marxists professors while going $200,000 plus in debt and living basically twenty years out of life trying to pay that up, working at Starbucks or McDonald's.

If you say that pathway is stupid, "you're racist, you're misogynist, you want to oppress women, you want to make them into slaves, you want to sell them into jihad," or this kind of ridiculousness! It's just over the top crazy!

As a society starts degrading in that way and you become an r-type society, you now have serious problems. All the immorality will result in the market of abortion being magnified, because all these unwanted pregnancies will happen; people having sex, unwanted pregnancies happen. Imagine a culture that is now starting to hate the pregnancies; they're starting to hate the children. They're starting to hate their own selves, because in the end your children are you! Are you with me, folks? Your children are you and your spouse; they are literally you! You get to the point where you literally, existentially hate yourself; you hate your future children.

You can't have it both ways

You believe in the pipe dream of, "Oh yes, it's better for women to become more masculine, because they'll be independent and strong." But then they also want a superior man who makes more. And all the women are also chasing after 20% of those men, who then have all the options, so they can just play that field like spray and prey; they can just play that field. So in the end, you can't get the man you want. You worked all this way to develop masculine traits, believing that you can finally get the man you want, but he's being hunted by 80% of the population. He has options, so he's not going to deal with somebody who thinks they know everything and is quarrelsome, and wants to argue all the time; he's not going to deal with that because he's got tons of options, and he's got beautiful women lining the road for him.

This is a problem then in the end, because they followed a lie; they were promised that Prince Charming was going to be there, but he's not there, "Disneyland promised Prince Charming is going to be there if I build up my masculine trait and if I become more like a man." But men are not looking for a man, they're looking for a woman; men are not looking for a man, or a woman who acts like a man. That's usually called "butch" or that's usually called "nasty," and the men don't like that.

It's like if the girls see a guy and he's acting like a girl, they're usually like, "okay, I'll be friends but no dating, okay." Why? Because instinctively you know this man will not protect you. He'll be saying, "Honey, we're in the land of equal opportunity; when a robber comes in, go shoot him with the gun. Honey, I'll wait here for you. Well, you want equality; go get the man! I totally believe in your empowerment, I totally believe in you; just go shoot him. I'll be waiting right here."

So you can't say, "I want chivalry; I want men to open doors for me, and pay for my dates and restaurants and all. But I will be like a slut; I will dress provocative. I will be licentious; I will post pictures of my butt on Instagram." You can't do that! If you want a traditional man who will have traditional values, he'll want a traditional woman! Hello! But they're not taught this; they're just taught, "You can be a slut, and you can get a chivalrous traditional man who will protect you and die for you." No, you can't if you are behaving that way, because men are very territorial with their spouse, and that's how God made it. We're supposed to be territorial because it's one key one lock; we're supposed to be territorial about it.

It's a crazy man, an evil demonic beta male that says, "Oh, honey, oh you want to sleep around. I'll let you sleep around, so I'll sleep around too. We'll do coupling." This is a wicked evil man that has lost all sense of manhood! Manhood is territorial. We are the lions in the pride; we have to protect our territory. That doesn't mean just our wife. It also means our family, it also means our neighborhood; it also means our values. You see what I'm saying? There's a lot to do in that territory. Are you with me, folks?

So you can have it both ways! You can't have men that will be chivalrous, they'll be traditional, they'll be strong, they'll not be living in fear; they will make tons of money, they will take lots of risk and be your slave! No! It's not going to work. At the same time you want somebody superior to you; somebody who will lift you up and teach you. If you don't know much in business, he can raise you up there. If you don't know much about working out, he can raise you up there! You can't have it all!

You can't have a beta male who's also superior to you in a lot of things, that you can look up to in some respect and you feel like you're growing under him; you can't have it both ways! Very, very hard! You can of course opt for the beta male who will be a servant to you, and maybe that's where you have to be; he will be your servant, but you'll probably be unattracted to him. He'll probably say, "Oh yes dear, oh yes! What do you want? Oh yes, okay; I'll do that. I just finished that chore; what else would you like? I'm here for you to empower you. I'm here." Okay, fine! If you want you can get him or get a robot! But you're not going to get a top quality man; you're not going to get a strong man.

No, because strong men are focused on doing things that are taking risk, building things, fulfilling goals, getting things done, bringing home the bacon etc. They're focused on that; focused, focused. And they work in tribes and networks to do better at that. You see what I'm saying? There's a whole culture.

So you can't have it both ways; you can't play this game both ways! You can't be told that you're running this race and if you develop more masculine traits, you're going to appeal to more attractive males! No! I don't know whom you're talking to; probably you're talking to your girlfriends, but if you talk to any man who's speaking honestly and not scared about political correctness, he will tell you, "Wrong, I'm not looking for that! I want peace at home. I want somebody to balance me out. I want somebody that says, 'Spend more time at home!' I want somebody who balances me out. I don't want somebody who is like me, who is just as competitive as me, who's just as assertive as me; just as opinionated as me. I'm not going to deal with that."

And high quality males will have tons of options; they'll be able to choose from a fast line of beautiful women, all with different personalities. Why would he choose one that is always going to quarrel? As Proverbs say, "It's better to live in a corner room than to live with a quarrelsome wife." (Proverbs 21:9) Literally! Why would a man choose that? No man in his right mind in the top tier will ever choose that, never; because they have options.

So they'll be told lies, lies, lies, lies, and lies,

"You'll be happier alone." No, you won't; it's not true.

"You'll be happy without a man." No, you won't; God didn't make you like that.

"You'll be happy if you can choose your gender, if you can choose a career; if you can be compete with men in the marketplace, building a company." If you can do that, fine. But it won't make you happy, because those things, you can't take with you. You still come back to an empty apartment, you still come back to an empty room, you still come back crying to your girlfriends about how lonely you are; you're still going to do the same stuff. You're not going to have the deep intimacy that God has prepared for you, if you don't see relationships as investment.

We are built for relationships

From a young age we have to be learning this: males, we're not just supposed to choose beautiful women; that's a temptation of a devil. The Bible talks about seductresses. Males are very visual so Satan will tempt them with beautiful women, but beautiful women with terrible values. Maybe you can get along in the beginning but after ten years, twenty years, they raised children and grandchildren, and now you are different; you're enemies. You see what I'm saying? So the devil will tempt the young men to just choose the hot girl, but it doesn't mean that the hot girl has good values, that she stands on the right side of civilization, and whether or not she's on Godism side. She could be beautiful but she could be totally on Satanism side, and that the gap will just grow and grow and grow as you pursue on.

On the other side girls are taught, "No, you don't need a man. Men are trying to control you; they're trying to dominate you. If you build masculine traits you're going to be able to get the top alpha tier men." No you're not, that's a total lie; as we discussed a billion times right now, total lie.

And that's why in the western world the most unhappy person is the career woman, single, unmarried, 42 year old, because they've invested twenty years of their lives to build their business, building this and that. Okay, fine, that's great; so now you got a lot of money that you can spend on this and that. But really, are you truly a materialist? Do you just believe in material goods, or do you believe that just paper money is your value? Do you believe that is what's going to bring you happiness? You don't consider relationships as important in that equation? You don't care about making all that money, and come back home to an empty apartment with nobody there?

That may be young and trendy when you're 22 years old and you can do it for a couple of years, but you have to start absorbing all the burdens of life by yourself. You have to start absorbing all the difficulties, the tribulations, the sufferings of life that come upon everybody; you have to absorb them all alone with nobody to really trust in. Friends are one level, but a spouse is a totally different level, totally different level; that's the most intimate.

But if the civilization can break those relationships up and make them, as we saw in that Scripture in Luke, based on mammon, on money, on power, on this and that; on these things that are like clouds, vapor, you can't grab them. They just flee away the more you chase them, the more you want, the more you think you need, the more your desire expands; you can never find fulfillment with these things.

But God has built us for what? For relationships; the final relationship is between us and Him. That's why we're built.

We're built so:

- *we can give and receive love with Him, so
- *we can have a true identity,
- *we can have a noble purpose,
- *we can live for something greater than ourselves,
- *we can live for His Will and His calling.

School brainwashing

We are not built to just be running around seeking material things. That's what animals do; animals run around seeking material things, food, sustenance, sex, all these kinds of things. This is how animals behave; animals do these things.

That's why this whole teaching on evolution of the young people, "You are an ape, you are an ape; in evolution you are an evolved biped. You know you're just an evolved advanced biped"; this whole teaching is about making you believe from a young age that you are a beast. It's not about relationships but it's about acquiescence. Because if you believe in the state, if you believe in the apparatus of government, if you believe in these things, they'll take care of you; they'll nurture you, they will help you as they do with any other animal as they farm you.

And it's much easier for you to start accepting, "Oh, maybe I have to do this; oh, I have these animal instincts so I have to behave this way"; much easier for you to think, "I don't really have a normal purpose or a noble cause"; much easier for you to think that you're just a speck of dust flying through outer space with no real purpose; easier to fall into nihilism, easier to fall into emptiness, easier to fall into despair. And if you are into despair, if you are a nihilist, then you will be weaker. You will not be able to have any fortitude against tyranny, against evil, against wickedness; you will not have any strength to stand up against dictators and tyrants. You will have no power for that, you have no time for that; you're just stuck in constant anxiety and despair.

This department of education is a serious problem because it's done this through many decades of brainwashing children, pulling them early through evolution and away from God, pulling them now very early in sex- education, hyper-sexualizing them very quickly.

Oh, my gosh, I don't want to say it but this was so ridiculous: they're using these textbooks for five-year-old children. The parents are bringing this up at the school board meetings across the country; they're reading in the textbook statements about teaching children what anal sex is- at five years old! And then the school board meeting officials they're saying, "Excuse me, don't use that kind of language there." Hello! Don't use the language amongst adults at a school board meeting, but you can teach five-year-old children about that! How does that make any sense? How does that make any sense? It's ridiculous; it's total predatory!

Anyway, the point is: it's all about breaking down the morals. Now you get kids that are brainwashed in this from five years old! Think about it, folks: what kind of values are they going to have?

*Of course they're going to think that the church is this traditional oppressive thing that doesn't let you have sex with whatever you want;

*of course they're going to think it's so backward to be married;

*of course they're going to think it's so backward to have children;

*of course they're going to think it's so backward to believe in biology, and that males and females are different;

*it's so backward that you can't choose your gender;
 *it's so backward, xx and xy chromosomes.

This is what you become. Think about the training from five years old; ten years, fifteen years of that constant, constant teaching. Then you go to college at your own debt, hundreds of thousand dollars in debt, and you're taught the same thing; especially the higher the level of colleges you go to, the more indoctrination you are receiving.

North Korean defector, Park Yeonmi

www.insider.com/north-korea-defector-says-columbia-university-reminded-her-kim-regime-2021-6

Park Yeonmi who is a North Korean defector and she's a quite famous New York Times best-selling author, she's like 27 and she had to sell herself into prostitution to free her mom to get out of communist China. She could eventually come to America and study at Colombia University and she tells in her memoirs and her testimony that when she's at Columbia all the teachers -all the teachers- are talking to them about white supremacy.

So she's in a music class which was mandatory for under -graduate students; she's in the music class, folks, this is music, music class, and the teacher asks everybody,

-"How many students in the class have a problem with studying Western music?"

Every student in the music class raises their hand! Yeonmi Park is the only one- she's North Korean - she's the only one who doesn't raise her hand, and they're like,

-"Why didn't you raise your hand? Why don't you feel ...?" And she's like,

"Well, I just think the music is beautiful." And they're like,

-"But don't you know it's made on this patriarchy of white supremacy? Don't you know that Bach and Beethoven are made on this patriarchal medieval, misogynist view?" And the teacher's going on and on about this. And Park Yeonmi says,

"No, no, I just think it's really beautiful and it's very complex music, and it's composed quite well."

-"No, no, no, no, you are brainwashed, Park Yeonmi; North Korean girl, you are brainwashed!"

She was telling the North Korean girl, Park Yeonmi, that she was brainwashed!

You understand what I'm saying, folks? This is how crazy it is! And she attested to this: North Korean schools- and China is the same- they have pictures on the walls, folks, of Americans getting killed. Do you understand? Bayoneting Americans, killing them; cutting their heads off, "Death to America! Kill those American bastards!" They had pictures of that in elementary school, folks. Do you understand? China is the same way in some areas. Park Yeonmi is saying that in Colombia University it's even worse than North Korea, even though she didn't go to college there.

But the point is: she went to the public school system until she was 14-15, and she said that it's worse in America because everything is about the white man; everything is about patriarchal white supremacy, even when you're studying art. She said, "Imagine in North Korea if we were studying Korean folk music, and our teacher was saying, 'do you know how evil the Korean folk artists are? They are under the patriarchy of Confucianism!'" You would never encounter that in Korea!"

But yet here, it's supposed to be the epicenter of the Western world, the epicenter of freedom and you have at the highest levels of "education": "music class is racist!" Math now is racist! Did you hear this? Math is the white man's way to keep Blacks and minorities down; even though Asians are better than you in math on average. "It's your secret way to keep us all oppressed, white man!" Are you with me, folks? This is crazy; this is crazy! So Park Yeonmi, this North Korean defector is saying, "It's lunacy!"

American Democratic Socialism

How can people believe this? How can young people who are supposed to be taught critical thinking and they have all these freedoms, how can they be giving themselves over to Marxism and thinking positively about Socialism? How can you think that? Do you not understand that Socialism actually has had grips over nations, and has always evolved into more centralization of government which becomes Communism, and Communism has led to 220 million plus dead in the 20th century alone? There's no Christian crusade that even came close! Even the jihadis, they don't even come close to that and they're very bad.

But this is acceptable, and young millennials should think that this is trendy and cool and, "If we do it the American way, if we do American Democratic Socialism with our American people, well it's not going to turn out like Fidel Castro." So they were told in Cuba! They have video of Fidel Castro coming out while he's doing the Communist Revolution there, saying, "This is not Socialism, Communism; we denounce Marxism." He's openly denouncing Marxism while implementing Marxism and saying, "This is democratic Socialism."

They're using that word to fool the young people and the population, "Oh no, these are our Cuban leaders," or, "these are our American leaders. They're not going to lead us into Socialism and Communism." Which means the centralization of government, the monopoly of government on everything; the monopoly of government on everything, whether it be forced property ownership, whether it be markets- anything! It's going to be monopolized by government. "No, no, that's not going to be used in a bad way if we call it democratic Socialism, and if we call Communism democratic Communism!" You see? That's the ultimate safeguard against genocide. That's how powerful believing in your liberal professors is!

But Fidel Castro used the same tactic. He talked about it not as Socialism; he said, "We denounce Socialism, we denounce Communism, we denounce Marxism, and we are pursuing democratic Socialism." Doesn't that sound familiar to some of our Congress people? These commies that have gotten into power, they're speaking the exact same way. They're implementing censorship, track and tracing rules, and forced vaccination mandates that are coming down the pipe. Europe is already starting; in France you can't do daily activities; you won't be able to go to the grocery store.

Remember this, folks? Remember when they promised 15 days? We're going on two years now. Remember when they promised, "Oh, no no, of course you'll have a choice." Vaccine mandates are beginning now in Europe; they're beginning in Germany, they're beginning in France. And not only that! It's tied to more centralization power, so you have now vaccine passports which will be a new ID card, and there will be a type of apartheid in the country: people who are vaxxed, people who are unvaxxed. If you're unvaxxed now you are a second-class citizen; you can't go along your daily business. Even in America right now, and we hear it all the time even on the local level, people are being kicked off the police force; they're being kicked off their company roster if they don't get the vaccine.

How is this not going towards political Satanism, folks? How is this not going towards North Korea? You have the apparatus of brainwashing in media and department of education; you now already have the apparatus of the ministry of health, which is coming in of course to make you more unhealthy. You have these things which have tactical power. Now the department of agriculture has SWAT teams. What do they need SWAT teams for? Why does the department of agriculture have SWAT teams? Why should they have any tactical power?

Critical Race Theory in the military

Meanwhile at the same time, you have the military pushing CRT into the military; the same liberal orthodoxy that you find in the Ivy League, General Milley and all these people trying to push that now into the military, teaching this to our military men and women.

If government becomes tyrannical and commands them to go kill the population, those people are going to be the ones that have to carry the orders out. Of course the military has to fight opponents worldwide: it has to fight ISIS; it has to fight Al-Qaeda, etc.

We have all these dangerous groups all around us trying to kill America, yelling, "Death to America! Americans are bastards! Die America!" all across the world and you're telling us that it's important that our military has training where they wear high heels!!! Folks, I'm not joking. I'm telling you, it's real. Military men especially Special Forces guys had to wear high heels to understand the different movements, whether it be transgenderism or feminism or patriarchy. This is all crazy conditioning, folks. How does that help them at all to be more effective?

(Showing article) "US Army cadets forced to walk in red high heels for a feminist event!" How does that have anything to do with fighting ISIS and knowing how to kick down doors and clearing buildings? How does that have anything to do with that? You understand? That is a laughing stock to the world, folks. What do you think China is doing when they see this? Do you understand? They're literally building up robots; their troops are like robots. They're brainwashed robots that will kill, kill, kill, kill, kill, kill; kill. What do you think they're doing when they see this? The fact that this is even allowed is ridiculous; it's ridiculous, it's absurdity!

It is that liberal orthodoxy, that Socialism, Marxism, pouring in, seeping into the real branches of might. If you have a generation of young cadets that are going in and they've been brainwashed like this: they've been brainwashed through college, they've been brainwashed through the public education, and now they're brainwashed even more in the military; how are they not going to become like the Nazi forces? How are they not?

Especially when the commander- usurper-in- chief is saying, "The largest threat to America is the white Trump domestic terrorist; the white domestic terrorist." What do you mean by that, chief- usurper- in- chief sleepy Joe? Well, he means basically any Trump supporter that owns a gun! Because they don't want to ban your AR-15 only; they also want to go to your 9 mil. They don't want you to have a pistol, because "you can do everything with a shotgun." That's what sleepy Joe says. Trust in sleepy Joe; he knows the best way forward! Are you with me, folks?

Rural school board meeting

This is extremely dangerous. We are already plummeting off this cliff, and the tentacles of this apparatus of brainwashing and documentation is penetrating to the rural areas now; even to the rural areas. We had to go to a school board meeting. A lot of our parents came out and stood up against the CRT that they're trying to bring right here, in Delaware River Valley, to our local schools. Trying to bring CRT Marxist racism, which teaches young white kids that they are internally racist and internally white supremacist; and that they just don't know it. They go through programs, at least not the theoretical version. But what the teachers push on the ground is more hardcore versions of this, in the form of exercises - which are now appearing across the country- where if you're white you have to take one step back, and minorities have to take one step forward.

How is this helping with math? How is this helping with biology? How is this helping with running a business, owning a business, making money, building a good relationship with your future wife and future husband, building good relations with your children? How is that helping at all, folks? It's not! And this will always happen with the apparatus of government education. It always becomes a system for the justification of the centralized government; whether it be in China, whether it be in North Korea, whether it be in America.

The best way to deal with that is of course to ban the department of education- which would be great. (Applause) Because then you would have schools that actually have to teach kids something and those kids would actually have to accomplish something, and their levels would go up. And the parents would be able to communicate about it, just like they do on any product or service that they buy, whether it's insurance or whether it's a hat. We would just use social media to communicate, "Hey, this school has a 85% graduation rate, 85% rate of going into this or that business, into this or that field; has 85% chance of STEM graduates," whatever the case would be. You would see those stats, and you'd say, "Oh I want to invest in my children there." Instead of giving the monopoly to the Beast which then can teach them whatever it wants: teach them how to masturbate at five years old, and to have anal sex at six.

Are you crazy, folks? You're going to destroy people's lives, destroy their lives. This is a type of North Korean Stasi -type Communism that is coming in, and that is here.

The process of pacification

We talked about it last week because people don't understand struggle sessions so well in the West. You have to understand, folks, Western people also have done behavioral studies on shame. We're from a Judeo-Christian framework and most Westerners, whether they realize it or not, they're culturally Christian. Meaning that they agree generally with the tenants of human rights and that people have intrinsic value; that they should be protected, that they shouldn't be oppressed, etc. They generally agree with those Christian values.

But Westerners are not impermeable to social pressure. Just look at Covid! Look at how many people acquiesced, totally against science, totally against what the actual facts were: 99.7% chance of survival. Yet the panic, yet the hysteria, yet the buying into the mainstream media; yet they believe Brian Stelter on CNN. It's crazy town! Even Republicans getting this experimental shot which is a gene manipulator, and it doesn't have ingredients' list! Even an animal, maybe even an orangutan, would say no to that. I mean that's how far we've degraded. But look at how easily people acquiesced.

Of course you understand the Covid thing; everything about this was a test. How much can we pressure test America? How many millions of the population will acquiesce? How many will do whatever we tell them without thinking, without any critical consciousness, without trying to research and trying to find different views? How many will just acquiesce?

You know what they've done? Half of the country has been vaxxed. What kind of result is that? You know what that's showing to these global Satanists? It's telling them, "These Americans will go along with anything. We just told them to get jabbed with an unknown chemical substance of which we will not produce the ingredients' list; foreign substance that you don't even know what is in there. And just because we told you to do it and we scared you about grandpa and grandma with a 99.97% chance of survival rate on average, and especially the Delta variant with 99.95% chance of survival, you will buy into the hysteria, you'll buy into the craziness and you will take an unknown experimental chemical cocktail which does not even have an ingredients' list; just because some idiots in some offices told you to do it!"

That's the level of Americans now; that's how brainwashed and animal-like they've become! And they've shown, the test they've seen it; they have the numbers. They saw how many went along with these unscientific shots, not backed up with real research. Why don't people just say, "Hey, you know what? I'm just going to wait on that. You know what I mean? I'm going to wait. I'm going to see what happens?" But of course that was not enough, so they had to pressure the companies, and make everybody only shop at Walmart, and Walmart went with the program that, "you have to get vaxxed, otherwise you can't work there," and all this kind of stuff. That's how they force you to do it, folks; they use the different levels of pressure to get you to comply to do whatever they command.

This is what we see in North Korea, this is what we see in China, folks; China! The level of obedience of the American person as a country, it was not as we thought. We were confident, "Oh no, we're Americans; we won't take this. We're critical thinkers." But you saw it with your own eyes. You saw people that you thought were critical thinkers, and they're like,

"Yeah, you know, I just got it."

-Why did you get it?

"I don't know. My doctor said it was good, you know."

-Well, did you read up on any of the potential side effect? Did you read the EU health commissioner that spoke out against it, and said that this should not be allowed in the public? I mean did you read any of these major Nobel Peace prize-winning virologists that came out talking about this? Have you looked at it?

"No, no, I didn't. I just saw it on the news and they said it was free, so I got it."

-What are you talking about, Dude? Are you alive? What are you thinking?

It's incredible how unthinking we've become as a civilization.

But this is the process of pacification; it's the process of making the population obey every order. You see folks, and even some of you doubted it when we told you this: when they promised you the 15, some of you believed in the 15; maybe not you in this Sanctuary. I'm saying in America people believed, "Okay, it's just going to be 15 days; we'll slow the curve." We're now on the second year and still you want to believe these pathological liars; people who are actually hiring actors in CBS news filming them going through fake vaccinations all in front of the hospital buildings. They were caught red-handed, and America saw it! We went along with it!

"Wear your mask!"

- Oh yes Sir! I don't want to kill grandpa; I'll wear my mask.

"Well, you have to wear your mask while driving!"

- Okay, I'll wear it while driving. No one's in the car.

"Even on your motorcycle, if you don't wear your mask you can still spread."

I saw people on motorcycles with a mask on; with a paper diaper, the blue one.

I'm not saying this to be funny! It's crazy folks, it's crazy; it's crazy! How is this that the epicenter of the Western world is doing this, the "epicenter of freedom?" They promised two weeks. No, we're going to two years now. And they promised you one shot. But then they had a booster shot; now they have a third shot, a second booster shot. Now they got a Delta variant which they'll need another shot for. Do you see? It's not going to stop. Just as we told you: 14 days in, it's not stopping.

That's why President Trump should never have given in. He talked about that yesterday; he actually said, "I was debating the insurrection act." Well he should definitely have done that, but Milley and those guys were against it. Because they wanted to do this plan, the slide towards Communism, the final death knell in America; to kill her, destroy her, and take away every semblance of liberty, so China's system can be for everyone.

So we are in a serious time folks; a very, very, very, very, very, critical time, very serious time and I don't like to make fun of this; sometimes we have to laugh and joke at it because it is so insane. But seriously: it's a very, very, very, very, grave time for our country!

Population replacement

We will look at photos of struggle sessions done in China especially to the Tibetan people.

I am banned from going to China because I met the Dalai Lama. I was detained when I was flying through China because Father sent me to North Korea to go visit his hometown of Chongju. I was able to go to North Korea through Vladivostok, but I had to fly to China first and I was detained in the Chinese airport for six hours or something like that. They said, "You're not allowed in this country; you are a threat to this country, etc," because I met the Dalai Lama when I was studying Buddhism.

Anyway the point is: China when they take over a nation or when they take over an indigenous population in a country, they do what's called a civilizational or societal repopulation. What they'll do is: they'll start importing Chinese Communist Party supporters into Tibet if they want to take over Tibet. If they want to take over the Uyghurs Muslims in the Western region, they will give incentives to Chinese Communist Party supporters to go live there; free housing, free welfare, the universal basic income will be a little higher, etc. They're doing population replacement. Why is that important? Because in population replacement, ideas matter; people come in with different sets of values, and when they come in with that set of values and they become the majority and you control that mob, you have total power over that place.

That's why Trump was saying, "The wall, wall, wall, wall, wall," because we can't have people from 160 nations pouring in; they're coming with different values. A lot of them don't believe in human rights, a lot of them don't believe in the Bill of Rights, a lot of them don't believe in God at all, a lot of them don't believe in protecting natural rights; many of them are gangs like MS13 etc. And who knows what kind of actual terrorists, enemies of America are coming through; and of course they are coming in.

Why are the Democrats so happy with repopulating areas? Why are they sending 60,000 migrants into Tennessee? They were caught sending thousands in Tennessee? Why are they happy with bringing migrants into Texas and telling people who are leaving California, "Move to Texas?" because it's population replacement. With population replacement you can slowly start eradicating a culture, pushing them out and using "democracy" to take away their rights; to call them "racist, misogynist," "We have to make laws against you because we have to stop your hate speech. You're offensive, you're hurting people and your hate speech is killing people. People are committing suicide because of your hate speech and we have to save lives. So we must censor you, we must track and trace you; we must put you on a domestic terrorist list. We must not allow you to fly; must not allow you to get on a plane or on a bus."

That's what happens in China. Hello! If you are on a watch list in China, you cannot take the bus. If your social credit score is low, you cannot ride a bus, folks; you can't use mass transit, you can't travel out of the country. Hello! This is the reality right now in China with the Chinese Communist Party. That's what they're bringing here!

Just remember the lockdowns: they promised you 14 days! It keeps going on and on, because they've decided the country will become communist. So, population replacement will come in.

Struggle Sessions

The 10th Panchen Lama during a struggle session

That's a Tibetan Lama. They captured him and they have all these Chinese Communist Party agents around him cursing at him, "You killer; you genocider!" They accuse him of everything that they're going to do. You know it's kind of like saying "Russia, Russia, Russia collusion," for two years, billions of dollars wasted, and it turns out Hillary was the one to do the Russian deal. The devil is the same way; the devil attacks you with the very thing he's doing.

So, the Chinese communists then go to these people; for example in this photo they go to the 10th Panchen Lama, "You genocider, you're killing everybody, etc. The Chinese Communist Party, we'll free everybody; we'll have power and voice for the working class; we will give power to the people!" Okay! That's why they're going to centralize education, that's what they're going to set up Mao Zedong mobs with law enforcement powers, to be able to arrest landowners because "they are stealing from the workers." Are you with me, folks?

And not only that! But once they have the shame parties, where they do the struggle sessions in which they curse you and belittle you; then they also do what is called "flesh parties." They have the children of the landowners kill their parents! Yes!

Using school children

We talked about it last week: when the mandatory vaccine comes here and it gets pushed harder, it's not Mr. Nazi cop that's going to come in with big boots. That's not the first phase; no way. He comes later; the Nazi cops don't come first.

It's going to be an alliance of the department of health with the department of education; they're going to send little Margaret, little Isabella, five-year-old school children holding the hands of their teachers and the health workers and the volunteers, saying,

"Oh, Mrs. Anderson, we like to expel those myths that you may have heard about vaccine. People have vaccine hesitancy, so we'd like to explain something, and go through some commonly misunderstood points with you."

And the little children will be there just to look at you with their big eyes and say,

"Okay, Mrs. Anderson, thank you for doing this; thank you for saving my grandpappy."

You see what I'm saying? They're not sending Mr. Jackboot thug Nazi Stasi cop; he's not coming. No, no! They're first sending the "volunteers" with their marching orders, to get all these vaccine hesitant Trump supporting white supremacist domestic terrorists vaxxed, which basically means "conservatives." Get them vaxxed!

And they're going to bring kids; they're going to involve the kids as a social justice program. They're already doing it. It's already happening in North Carolina; they're already doing it in Philadelphia with volunteers. So, it's not even that it's coming, it's already here; it's being rolled out obviously in the liberal areas first. But it's coming, definitely, because they see higher percentages of vaccine hesitancy in rural areas. So if you are a teacher, they're going to bring your old students; if you're a parent, they're going to bring your children to shame you and to cry and plead with you,

"Daddy, please I don't want you to die! Daddy, please don't be stubborn. You say you love me, Daddy; just show me you love me please!"

"Okay honey; okay!"

Flesh parties

You understand? Of course, they're going to do that! They always involve the children: they always want to get hold of your children to shame you. In China, this was called "flesh parties." Eventually it got to the point where they had polarized the family so much, the children were willing to kill their parents, because they thought by killing their land-owning parents and redistributing that land to the workers so- to- speak, by giving it away to the government – that's what they had to do- they would be doing a great social justice and they would be the brave warriors bringing the revolution to its height and its full flourishing success.

They were totally indoctrinated, folks, and the flesh parties are the children killing the parents, and it even gets worse, because in some places they would have the parents be cooked in a stew and they would eat them to show the seriousness of the committed atheistic loyalty they had to the Party. So, these are called "flesh parties." Look it up! Killing your parents, boiling them in a vat, cooking their meat and eating them to show your allegiance to the loyalty of Mao!

See, this is what I'm saying! The West is so unready for this! Because it's more than pulling on your heartstrings; they are coming after every relationship, folks. It's not a joke. When they're doing this, you can see how devilish this is; it's real demonism cloaked in the guise of atheism and social justice, cloaked in the guise of, "helping the worker and the proletariat take back what he built, because the greedy CEO and landowner took all his wealth. The worker was the one that made everything, but the landowner is the one who stole it all." Oh, okay! Even though the man who started the business in capitalism has to risk everything; many times go into massive debt to fund his operation! The CEO takes on the most risks. The regular worker does not take on that much risk; he can always move to a different job. The CEO takes on the burden of keeping that business alive. Of course that's why CEOs have one of the highest right stress rates, and of course they have to put in 100 plus hours per week.

An insurrection?

500 people have been arrested in Jan. 6 Capitol riot by Trump supporters, Attorney General Merrick Garland says

www.cnn.com/2021/06/24/trump-capitol-riot-arrests-reach-500-attorney-general-garland-says.html

But, don't mind all those statistics, don't mind those realities! It's the proletariat, "you've been robbed by the greedy capitalist," or, "you've been robbed by the landowner." And that's what they've done: they've polarized society, they incrementally made it worse; they've heightened their rhetoric. These people should be arrested. Look, 1-6 was a peaceful protest in front of the Capitol Building. The different Feds groups tried to sabotage it, but even the people that they led into the Capitol were just walking around. And they are calling it an insurrection! That was an insurrection where people were shooting cell phone videos and saying, "Hey! Look I'm in here Sally?" That is an insurrection; with no guns? I mean it's ridiculous!

Insurrection is where the building is on fire, everybody's being killed and massacred inside; everybody's bringing guns to kill. That would be more of an insurrection. These people had iPhone, doing Facebook live, saying, "Whoa! I'm in the Capital Building, honey!" Was that stupid? Yes. But is it an insurrection? Come on! It's a misdemeanor at the very most, and these people, 500 plus Americans - Americans, Americans- they are supposed to have due process, due process! Americans are supposed to have due process! 500 Americans are currently detained in solitary confinement, because of that "insurrection" on 1-6, which was a peaceful protest. 500 Americans! Americans, folks! These are not Chinese, these are not Russians; these are not Cubans under Castro. These are Americans! They're in prison, in solitary confinement right now; right now as we speak.

So our government has already started that process of bringing the people in. And of course radicalizing that language, making it, "this is the worst thing, this is the greatest attack; this is the worst thing since Pearl Harbor. These people must be dealt with; the iron fist of the government must come upon them; the full force of the law must be brought upon them!" Are you with me, folks? This is a reckless and heightened rhetoric, which is also saying that now the Trump supporter is a domestic terrorist.

Shame sessions

So you see these types of struggle sessions happened all across the country. They set up Mao leaders in every rural area too, folks. That's what they were trying to do with the school board; they were trying to bring in an "officer of diversity and inclusion." What the heck does that mean? It's so ridiculous. But of course it's to push the agenda of the radicalization, the race war that they want, onto the schools, onto the families, and make the families who resist it seem to be terrorists, "You're domestic terrorists, you're Trump supporters; you have white racism and internalized hate for Blacks," whatever the case may be.

All this, to do what? Shame, guilt, guilt, shame, shame! To destroy the fabric of normal America, which is that we trust one another; whether we're Black, white, Asian doesn't matter. We live in America. We live in our neighborhoods, we see each other at the groceries, "hey, how are you doing?" We see each other at the gas station. There's not that kind of internal strife.

But you need to foment it; you need to put it in, institutionally, systemically. They talk about "systemic racism" right; you need to put in "systemic Marxism," using race, using class, using anti-capitalism- whatever it is you need to put in systemically.

But these shame sessions obviously will not take place like this at first. At first it's going to be, "You're bad because you're a disease spreader, you're bad because you're killing all the people with the Delta variant; you're bad because the rate of contagion is up three times." Only a minuscule amount of people worldwide have died from the Delta variant; but that doesn't matter: "the contagion is up three times, so another pandemic, another lockdown must begin."

By the way we got the report from our South Korean pastor that lockdown number four and forced vaccinations have now begun in South Korea. It's worldwide, folks! There's no way you can run; they're bringing this program worldwide.

And, remember last year in the fall, at the time when the normal cold and influenza rates would start going up as they normally do, we had no influenza and no flu deaths! Remember? All this magically mysteriously like a unicorn, disappeared? All was Covid 19! You died in a car accident, you died in suicide jumping off a building, etc; it was Covid. The flu disappeared mysteriously. When people have the symptoms of the flu, which are similar to Covid, well then all of a sudden, "Oh, the next pandemic is here; it's here, it's here. We're not out of this yet, we're not out of the weeds yet. We need your full support, America." You're not getting out. The Communist Revolution, as Trump talked about yesterday, it has begun folks; it has begun. We've been talking about it for years but it's here; it's starting.

10 Stages of Genocide

So we have to be aware how they're going to move. That's why we saw the 10 Stages of Genocide that Dr. Stanton presented to the UN and the different departments of the US government etc, talking about these things. When he studied Cambodia, when he studied Nazi Germany, when he studied any place where the communist regimes go, they move through these 10 stages of genocide. I'm not doing this to fear monger, or give you fear porn, or make you scared; that it's just history and it's just reality, because that's where it always ends up unfortunately with the communist revolutions.

We already went through the first eight: classification, symbolization, discrimination, dehumanization, organization, polarization, preparation. That's where official action to relocate people begins, and of course:

Persecution: Beginning of murders, theft, property, trial massacres.

Then you have:

Extermination: Wholesale elimination of the group. It is “extermination” and not murder because the people are not considered human. You see this is how they justify getting rid of the selected group, the targeted group. In this case it is the white conservative gun-owning Christian, Trump supporter; basically in a nutshell it's a Trump supporter. We're Asian but we support Trump so we are known as tangential white, according to critical race theory. You can even be a black Trump supporter and you will still be one of the eight phases of whiteness because you are a black traitor, so you are a black person who is using whiteness to advance yourself.

Again, step by step everything in those categorizations is being implemented; it's being taught in schools and justified with the young people, and that they are thoroughly wet with this type of craziness. So when the last stages start enrolling, they cannot see it; they just think, “Oh, bad people are being caught. That's great! Yeah that those lunatic people, they're being caught; that's great, that's wonderful,” and of course, they will not call it murder, and they will never call it genocide. Just like they never call what they're doing Marxism, Socialism, Communism; they always call it Democratic Socialism. Remember folks, North Korea is called the Democratic Republic of Korea; that's North Korea!

Of course, they always put that “Democratic” word on top of it. The devil doesn't tell you that he uses another name for what he's doing. This process happens in every totalitarian populist state that has used force on their people - which is almost every centralized government in the 20th century, and that's why you have the biggest deaths' count in the history of mankind.

Remember there were 220 million people dead by government- that's called democide- outside of warfare, folks; that's not including the World Wars, that's including no wars. It's only when governments decided that they were going to target specific groups in their country and then eradicate them. I'm not including wars when I say 220 million. That's outside of war, in times of peace, when governments targeted people in their own population for separation, classification, polarization, preparation, persecution and extermination. Folks, you understand what that means, right?

So we know that in America, that target, that classification, that polarization, that preparation have already been done; they are already moving along that path, and of course they're moving with the Covid variant to push all this along. If they're able to get through the Americans, and especially the American patriotic God-fearing gun owner, if they're able to get through that final bulwark, it's the last line, folks; it's literally the final line before world Communism is real.

Australia is already announcing their next lockdown, and forced vaccinations are coming down the pipeline in Asia, Europe, etc. Of course it's coming here, folks; of course it's coming here! Of course it's coming here! I don't like to tell people that; I wish it would just last 15 days and we all could go back to our normal lives. But no, no, no, folks; the trigger has been pulled, the decision has been made: political Satanism for the whole world!

Alexander Solzhenitsyn - If people had just resisted

Now, that being said I don't want you to go home right now; you got to listen to the final word here. Because, look at the American Revolution! The British had their biggest empire in the world, and this may sound like cliché but it's not. America was not just by itself when it was fighting the British; it had international support. Several European countries that were against the British also supported America in its independence.

Look worldwide! Look at Hong Kong; look at France where the law enforcement has literally become the Nazis. The people are now protesting, throwing back the canisters of tear gas; these French patriots whom we thought were all gone, they're starting to come out. Look at different countries like South Africa, which is exploding; yes, on the surface it's going to civil war.

But again patriotism is rising and this is not just like a national patriotism. This is a patriotism that's connected to an ideology that's connected to liberty, and that liberty has to be defended and that it comes from God. This philosophy is a very important starting point for any constitution and that's why in our Constitution we have that, but a lot of countries don't have that starting point. And you see when the people are now rising up, resisting this tyranny especially with the Covid, even leftists- even leftists- especially the ones that are vegans and vegetarians, into health like crazy, many of them don't like Covid 19. All these yoga instructors, all these vegans, quinoa eating, rabbit -food eating people, many of them are also becoming anti-vaxx; at least until more research is done. So now they're coming out and saying, "Hey I hate Trump, but now at this point I don't care; if anybody supports liberty, I'll vote for Trump." And those kinds of people are showing up on almost every feed, more and more as they push. This is an important point.

Just like Alexander Solzhenitsyn said in the Gulag Archipelago;

"If we did not cower in our apartments, if we did not just pray and just wish, 'Oh, please the jackboots are coming; we can hear them coming up the cement stairs, we can hear the echoes of their boots in the hallways. They're coming for us; they're coming for us,' and waiting and terror, 'Oh my gosh! Which door?' Bam, bam, bam; waiting for the pounding on the metal doors. And then the break-ins, and then the SWAT teams going in, and the shouts and the screams and just listening to that in terror from our own room and apartment! If we appreciated freedom enough, we would have all gone into the hallways" they didn't have any weapons- "we would have all gone into the hallways, we would have picked up fire extinguishers, shovels, pitchforks, anything and resisted them. And if we resisted them, the wretched machine of Stalin's totalitarianism could not have moved forward and it would have been halted in its track."

Remember this? I showed you that passage in the Gulag Archipelago which he wrote about. If people had just resisted, if they had just resisted and said no, even though they didn't have anything, the communists could not have defeated the spirit of the people; the spirit!

And that's what it's all about! It's about dehumanizing you, killing your morale, making you believe that it's impossible to fight back; that it's just such a massive apparatus worldwide that is coming for you, that you have no chance, and that everybody will be killed.

Those in Christ vs. the Left

But that's the power of those who are in Christ; you see we know that this body is not the end. We're not like the atheists who believe that when this expires, they expire. You see, we know that there is eternal life after death for those in Christ. We know that he's overcome the grave, and that we have a spirit and a soul that extends beyond life.

So the worst thing they can do is to kill the body as Paul said, "But fear the one who can throw the soul into hell"; that's what Scripture says. We have the power through God, to transcend the fear and the terror, the anxiety.

In the worst case scenario the biggest Trump Card they have is "we'll kill you!" That's their biggest Trump Card. But if you've transcended the fact that they can use that Trump Card, if you no longer fear dying, and if you feel that standing up to these wicked, wicked, demonic Satanists is an honor that you've been given before God, that power cannot be beat, folks!

I got to tell you something: they don't have anybody on their team that has that spirit. Everybody's there for money; everybody's there to rape, pillage and plunder a nation to make the billions. None of them is there for the noble high ground, none of them is there for the noble aim; none of them is there for a moral crusade and moral cause. That's why they have to make up these fake moral crusades and these fake social justice crusades against the boogeyman white man. It doesn't exist and everybody knows it, because in normal day life in America, white people, black people, Asian people, we all get along. (Applause) We all hang out at the supermarket, we go to the corner drugstore, "Hey Joe, how're you doing? Hey, how're you doing?" and we all get along.

See, that's what they want to break down. They want the kids in the schools to start seeing only race, race, race, race, race! No, no, in America every adult has experienced that you can have a friend that's a Pakistani, an Iranian; you can have a friend that's a Nigerian. You know what I'm saying? We're from all these different countries, and we're all united by the fact that we're grateful to be here. Any of us from the hellish communist hellholes, we know how grateful we are to live here and to have this type of freedom, like Park Yeonmi, the North Korean defector. And that common sense of "My gosh! We are so blessed to live here," that binds us as one people; binds us in one spirit, of one accord, of one heart.

What does a Left have? What do they have? Even with their massive apparatus, even with their massive buildings, even with their massive government structures and bureaucracies and departments, what do they have? They have none of that. All they have is, "if you don't do it, you're going to be fired; if you don't do it, you won't get that promotion; if you don't do this, we're going to take away your pension!" See, all they have in the den of thieves - there is no honor in a den of thieves- all they have is the empty materialism that is at the end of that dead-end tunnel of Marxism.

The indomitable spirit of the Christian martyrs

They don't have anybody that will be willing to risk their lives, go against all odds to fight and resist evil; they don't have that. But you know what the patriots and the people who understand liberty and freedom, and those who understand God have? We may not have materials or material powers but we have an indomitable spirit that's given to us by God: a spirit that does not fear death. That is the spirit of the Christian martyr.

The Christian martyrs walked into the lion's den. They said,

"Send me; I'll go!"

-They said, "Reject the name of Jesus!"

They said, "No!"

- "Cut his head off!"

They said, "I'm next; cut my head off too. Jesus is Lord!"

-Bam! "Go ahead cut it."

The next person lines up: "Cut my head off too!"

You see? And after they kept on cutting these heads off, even the executors started saying,

"What are we doing? What in the world are we doing? These people are not bad!"

Do you see what I'm saying? And now something happens where they start going,

"Wait a minute I don't want to keep cutting these heads off. You better stop making me cut these heads off. I'm not going to cut these heads off! Oh, you're going to try to kill me now? Oh, you're going to try to kill me? I'm going to kill you!" You see what I'm saying? Then the whole apparatus turns on itself.

It's important at these critical times that people get into the bravery that God has within us, because it's scary, it's a dangerous situation; very dangerous groups using this ideology can wreak massive havoc and massive deaths. And even in the best case scenario, if certain states break off like Texas, Tennessee, Florida; if they break off with Louisiana and Alabama etc, and America is split, it's not over, because of course they will send in the Chicoms to the UN, calling on the international community for a humanitarian crisis of white supremacist domestic terrorists in America, "We need to stop them; they're destroying the international order and destroying peace!" You understand, folks? They will bring the Chicoms here.

We will stand in that epic contest of liberty and we will be victorious with God

So either way, it seems bad! All odds are against the patriot, all odds are against the normal shop maker and the butcher and the taxi cab driver. All odds are against them, but guess what? It was the same way in the Revolutionary War. It was the citizen soldier who was the butcher, who was the restaurant owner, who was a shopkeeper; they were the ones that joined the fight. And it wasn't easy, because there were many times when the Revolutionary forces would lose and the morale would collapse. So they had to rely on something that would amplify their spirit towards the noble aim of victory against the tyrants.

It is the same thing in this epic international battle against Communism! We have to also see the reality that the encroachment of freedom in the West is bad. Yes, that's true. But also in people worldwide, the screaming for liberty is getting louder; it's getting more cacophonous, it's getting bigger. The more they push, the bigger the resistance worldwide. It will not only be Spain and France, a couple of countries trying to support America; it will be every country that is shouting for freedom, "We don't want this Covid anymore; we don't want this totalitarianism!" "Do you see what I'm saying, folks"

So we must understand the flip side of that. The only the real power that the good side has is the ability through God to overcome death, to not take away their Trump Card. It's like the Founding Fathers said, "I'm happy that it is happening in my generation and not my grandchildren's." What are they saying? "I overcome death! You can kill me ten thousand times over; I'm going to fight you." That's what they're saying. Because all they have is the card, "We'll kill you; we will kill you. I will kill your family, I will kill your children; I will kill you." That's all they have.

If we as a collective country, as a group of 80 million plus patriots, all collectively say, "Not on my watch; don't tread on me! Molon labe! Come and get it! We are not going down on this watch. I'm happy that it's my generation not my grandchildren's and we will stand up to you and defeat you and we will face you in the epic contest of liberty!" (Applause)

Ah! See, if that happens, that's a big problem. That's why they want you to just stay quiet, "don't come to the radical church, you know Sanctuary! That church is too radical! Go, go, go, go over there; just sit on the pew and don't get involved."

But imagine, folks, if the Rod of Iron Kingdom, this kind of culture was over the world; and it is. God's preparing the way; people are starting to realize, "Wow! We really need to have civilian armament. All nations need to be able to preserve their liberty and have the rod of iron; they need to have the accoutrement to preserve their own liberty because tyrants are always, always, after it."

But they cannot win because they're thieves, they're liars, they're warmongers; they're wicked pedophiles, they're Satanists, and in the end they have no moral high ground or no moral aim. It's all just for power, and power is a very empty thing.

It is not like what we have, which is the love of God, and this incredible fellowship with honorable and virtuous people, which is the heroic epic quest; God calls us to be part of His story and His narrative, so that we can stand in that contest of liberty and be victorious with Him.

Even though we may lose our lives, we still will be victorious because His Kingdom will come!
(Applause)

Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven!

Pastor Sean's prayer

Father, we thank You for this day; today You have blessed us, Lord. We thank You for the season that we are in, because yes we are surrounded by so much pain and suffering, and so much stress and anxiety and so many threats looming on the sidelines, of the wolves now coming and encroaching closer and closer. But dear God, we pray that You would infuse us with the power of Your Holy Spirit, that You would give us courage, and as You said, "Be strong and of good courage," know that You are the Living God.

We pray that we would have that spirit within us and that the mind and the body can be won against evil and against the tyrannical forces that seek to destroy not only America, but to take and rob every human soul on this planet of his freedom, of his liberty, of the gifts that God has given that person, and to bring it under the Beast.

*We resist and
 *we rebuke Satan,
 *we rebuke that Communism,
 *we rebuke political Satanism;
 *we rebuke it in the name of Jesus,
 *we rebuke it with the power of the Holy Ghost.
 We condemn it and know that it will collapse in on itself.

And as it's happening right now, the enemy's own encampments are turning on themselves and they are stabbing each other. God, we see these incredible things now, even the Democratic Communist Party are now pushing for voter ID; that is a miracle. That is Your work; You are turning the enemy on itself and You are foiling his plans.

So we thank You; we glorify You. We know that You are with us and standing with us in this epic battle and we know that the conclusion is already written. We know that Your Kingdom will come, that liberty and freedom will be preserved for all humanity, and that we will be able to overcome the fear of death and the fear of sorrow and the fear of sadness, and You will wipe those tears from our eyes, and we will live in Your presence in Your Holy Kingdom, in Your land of goodness where we can strive to be closer with You for eternity!

We thank You God. We pray that You would bless the patriots in this country, and that You would keep the worldwide revolutions happening so that everybody may know that this is the season to resist and to stand up to the tyrants.

We give You the praise, we give You the honor, we give You the glory, all those gathered here in Your Kingship, and we pray. Amen! Amen! Aju!
 All right folks, let's all rise and give Him the glory!
