Who made you KING?

Nov 21, 2021

Today we are in Romans chapter 4. Let's read it together!

Romans 4: 1-25

1 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? 2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. 3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, 7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. 10 How was it then reckoned? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: 15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: 20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; 24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; 25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

That's chapter 4 of the Book of Romans. Now there are incredible issues to discuss here: one of course, is being brought to salvation through faith. Foundation of faith is absolutely critical; it is the place in which we can have a meeting with God. We accept God and He can give us the gift of the Holy Spirit, and we can through belief in Him have what the Principle talks about as spiritual salvation, and you can go to heaven.

That faith is critical but of course we know as well that, "faith without works is dead." So after faith, God desires to use us as His hands and feet; as the Scripture says we become the Body of Christ and we become like His hands and feet. We become different parts of God's body so- to -speak; not literally, but parts of His body that He's using as instruments of His peace, and to affect His Will. That's why of course the Lord taught us to pray, "THY Kingdom come, THY will be done on earth as it is in heaven." Not my kingdom, not my will, but THY Kingdom and THY Will be done. Amen!

Now it's interesting because Romans 4 is talking about Abraham. Remember, in the Near Eastern world, it was a different type of world. The context is tribes. There are warring factions. It is a place that's surrounded by other hostile tribes, hostile nations, hostile lands, hostile armies, etc. And the people of God are a tribe; a tribe bound together by of course Abraham and the practice of ritual circumcision, etc. That's the context; this is the tribal context.

But think about it in terms of Abraham's concept: he gets this incredible blessing from God. He's told he will be the father of nations, that his children will be as many as the sands of the sea and the stars in heaven. He is promised that from his seed, from him -he will be the first and from him - nations will come. This is very incredible, because you think about it in terms of Abraham's perspective: he was a big landowner, he was a big businessman so -to -speak, but still it's very hard for a normal person to believe that "yes. I will be the father to nations." It's very hard to believe that. Even in the modern world, in the modern context, we're always told, "No, no, you can't have those lofty identities of yourself. In fact, it will be the educated class; it will be the intelligentsia that will define the narrative for you. In fact, they're going to prepare all the technology for you for the future, and they will lead us into the next stage."

Metaverse

This is what Zuckerberg is calling Metaverse with virtual altered reality, etc, where they're basically putting you into utter delusion. I mean you're literally talking about illusion land, Disneyland on steroids, with these different technological devices. You're going to be walking around thinking Pokémon's jumping out of the sewer or something like that. It's insanity, but this is what they're talking about.

There are many discussions in the World Economic Forum, these international communist think tanks and organizations, where these international communists gather together and they talk and write about these things very clearly.

They talk about the narrative which they will create for humanity in the future and they speak openly about that: "We will conquer governments, we'll take over governments and we will put them under the ruling class of the most educated"; they say "the most educated; the most intelligent." They even talk about it in terms of media, and that's why they're interested in buying up media; just like any communist regime is interested in buying up propaganda arms or starting propaganda arms in order to do its propaganda pieces. They're talking about how media will play a central role and also social media; of course Zuckerberg's Metaverse and all these different platforms that they're creating, to usher in the new narrative for humanity. It's a new narrative; they say, "It's a hopeful future; one that is unlimited, boundless. You are no longer defined by reality or whether you're male or female; there are endless genders now; endless races." You know you could be a liberal white lady but you can claim to be an African - American heterosexual male.

So much so that in the Metaverse -this is what they're explaining - it's not only going onto the internet; it's being IN the internet. So you are surrounded by the new technological frameworks that they're making, the new goggles, the new phones, the new microchips, whatever they are, and they are plugging you in constantly into this artificial reality. It's not only artificiality that you are plugging into; it's altering YOUR reality. In the Metaverse you see, you can be your own god, you can be your own narrative, you can create your whole universe; it just comes from you, you, you, you, you! You can be walking down the street and you see a cloud that you don't like, well you can shoot a Pokémon or a Hadouken or something like that; you can shoot a fireball if you want. That's how much power you'll have in the Metaverse. This is supposed to entice people.

But think about it: you think about a generation of young people who have been brainwashed and been trained on video games and completely addicted. So they've been brainwashed on a three-second flicker rate, they've been brainwashed on the constant changing of the screens and the different stimuli to induce dopamine highs, etc; they've been trained on that level of stimulation from a very young age, and many of them don't want to leave. Look at somebody who does eight hours on Facebook, "man, you're addicted, bro! You got to step back from that!" We see that as problems.

Combat climate change

Imagine if somebody never could leave Facebook! In fact you're not only on Facebook; you are IN Facebook. Not on Facebook; you're in it! And you're meeting all your little friends. But your friends, they can create themselves in their own image. So if they want to be a dragon with six legs and two tails and purple dreadlocks, they can do that. You can do that; that's fine. YOU are God; YOU create your reality. The whole point of this is what?

The whole point of this - and they write about this in their academic papers - is to create a docile people which they say will help combat climate change. It will help combat climate change: a docile people that don't go out, don't travel, don't meet people face to face, don't interact with human beings, want to stay in their room or locked up closet; depressed, isolated, and in their Metaverse, flying around as Puff the Magic Dragon.

This is a hellish, hellish, hellish, dystopian narrative that they're presenting! But they say it's going to liberate humanity and it's going to save the planet and it's going to save us from destroying the planet because anthropomorphic damage to the planet is the most dangerous cause. We are ruining and wrecking the environment - even though America has the lowest carbon emissions of any superpower in the world. China has opened how many thousands of new coal and gas powered plants; illegally by the way, going against all the Paris Accords, all this kind of stupid leftist stuff.

CHINA breaks the rules all the time, but, no, they're fine! That's okay because they're the good Chinese Communist Party; you know the ones that imprison Christians and Buddhists, for reading a Bible or meditating in the park; you know just imprisons like 500 Uyghur Muslims, and organ harvest people for profit.

Oh, by the way: all the people who have been organ harvested in China, their doctors are on the state doctors' roll. So they're all governmental doctors who are organ- harvesting Christians and Buddhists, particularly Falun Gung Buddhists because they're mostly vegetarian and they have very clean livers. Apparently if you want to have a liver surgery, you have to literally have a donor within the week or within just a few days, so people are internationally ordering a liver transplant and they get it delivered to them in China that week. That means they killed somebody; that means they just whacked somebody, and took his liver out.

By the way the doctors: "Oh, but you know you have to trust the Big Pharma doctors; you have to trust those in the white jackets. They have your best interests in mind. There's no way, no way, there is any financial motivation or desire that somebody in a white jacket could have; never. If you wear a white jacket suddenly you have absolutely no financial ambition even if it's millions and millions of dollars being handed to you. No, no, no, no, no, it can't be, because he has the white jacket on. Haven't you seen the movie Harry Potter; it's just a white jacket. I haven't seen the movie Harry Potter so I'm just making that up, but you know what I'm saying.

The point is: it's a hellish narrative. And what is this hellish narrative that this Superclass is trying to create? This Superclass that is by the way, the people that want to lock down the entire world, implode the First World, collapse the First World to become the Third World, the Third World to become UTTERLY impoverished, DECIMATE millions of people's lives, decimate MILLIONS of small business and entrepreneurial endeavors. These are the same people, folks, and these are the same people that parade around, "Oh yes, we're great philanthropists."

Bill Gates who is the unelected czar of vaccinology, even though he's not even a doctor, unelected emperor of vaccines apparently, and we have to all follow what he says. By the way his father was the head of Planned Parenthood, the abortion clinics that murdered and genocided over 80 million people since 1974 in the US alone. You know that's his dad. "But you know, don't pay attention to that! You know, it doesn't matter; that's not a big thing, is it?" No, being the head of the organization that mass murders babies, that's not a big deal right? So I mean; it's incredible!

The Council for Inclusive Capitalism

But let me show you this: this is called the Council for Inclusive Capitalism.

www.inclusivecapitalism.com/our-members/?\_paged=1

Inclusive! It's nicer capitalism. Do you understand? "It's a capitalism which is gentler; it's nicer, it's more inclusive!" Gee, by golly, gee whiz! Let's see who the members are on the steering committee of this crazy body!

Okay some people you don't know; you don't know you don't know.

- ✚ Ajay Bhaga and Oliver Nate: he's from Alliance, a fund management. It's interesting: all these guys in the top, we've never heard of.
- ✚ Sharon Burrow, Greg Brown. But I guess these are the same kind of people that believe that men and women don't exist, so they could be all sorts of species of genders that we don't know. But we have a Boston consulting group; we got Visa over there; pretty uneventful people, people that we don't really hear about. But let's just keep going down. This is quite a steering committee isn't it? Bank of America!
- ✚ There's a Japanese guy there too. There's a Hiro Mizuno, a special envoy on innovative finance and sustainable investments; it's the United Nations. Oh I've heard of them! I've heard of that one! Oh the United Nations, of course that pushes Communism and allows dictators to rule it and run it, run the Security Council or things like that. You know, it just makes total sense. If you want to fight for international human rights, you SHOULD- you should put the biggest violator of international human rights on the Council! It just makes total sense! You know if you want to fight rape, you should put the top rapist on the Council. Come on; it just makes total sense. It makes absolute sense, doesn't it? This is the problem, and this is of course what the UN is doing. So the UN is in this Inclusive Capitalism as well; that's interesting.
- ✚ California state treasurer Fiona Ma, office of the California state treasury. Boy, that's weird! Why is California state treasurer on that steering committee?

Let's go down a little more; see who else. Who's that lady on the left?

- ✦ Let's see: Lynn Forester de Rothschild. OH, that's a funny name; I think I've heard that one somewhere. I think I've heard of the Rothschild group. You know the one that owns every major central bank in the world, you know the one that has trillions of dollars, you know the one that's married into the British royal family, "oh spectacular, what a surprise! Lynn is on the member steering committee!"
- ✦ Let's see: who's that guy next to Lynn over there? Rajiv: this is our friend Rajiv! Boy, what does Rajiv do? Oh, he's the president of the Rockefeller Foundation. Oh okay! You mean the Rockefellers who were friends with the Carnegies who are open socialists!
- ✦ Oh, by the way mentioning the Ford Foundation! Go down a little more; let's see if the buddies at the Ford Foundation are there. Oh, who's that black man over there: Darren Walker? He's the what? He's the president of the Ford Foundation

So these are the same organizations, monster titanic organizations, connected with the Club of Rome, connected with the British royal monarchy, the Anglo-Saxon super elite Marxists communists. These are the elites of the world. They don't want to steer the world folks, by the way; they have a steering committee because they believe they're STEERING us into the future.

Well I wonder what kind of music is playing on their beat boxes while they're steering us down. Huh? Could it be, "and I'm proud to be an American." I don't think so; it's probably (singing music from Star Wars) or something like that. I'm not a big Star Wars fan, but you know something like that. I kind of started watching Star Wars when Darth Maul began doing martial arts and I said, "Oh, that's good; now I'll watch it." Darth Maul looks like Bruce Lee.

Isn't that funny? The Ford Foundation okay! Well let's go there. Let's see what this is all connected to.

<https://www.inclusivecapitalism.com/about/>

- ❖ Oh! Who are those guys? Oh! Who's the white guy in the white clothing? (Pope Francis) Is he a doctor? Maybe he's a doctor.
- ❖ By the way, let's jump back to that list: Big Pharma Johnson & Johnson's in there. I'm not sure if Pfizer is, but Johnson & Johnson is in that steering committee as well.

So, you're talking about the world's biggest conglomerates the world's biggest corporate entities, now coming together to lead the way and lead all the economies of the world into an "incredible Inclusive Capitalism," as they call it.

Let's see what they say: "Working together to change capitalism for good!" Wow! Wow! They want to work together to change capitalism for good! And of course they could not have ANY ulterior motives you know, with all that massive, massive wealth, and all the alliances that they've created, and all the opinions that they've released into the public about the joys of Communism and Socialism; you know the utter RAPTURE of living in a socialist hellhole - I mean "heaven" - that they're going to create.

- ❖ Let's go down a little bit more, because I think I've seen the white man (Pope Francis) there in the white robes before. “Our mission is to harness the private sector to create a more inclusive sustainable and trusted economic system.” Huh? Okay.

<https://www.inclusivecapitalism.com/about/>

“The movement: Inclusive Capitalism” Let's go down; let's see how they're trying to save the world, because you know capitalism according to them, creates vast inequality, and capitalism is the reason why we're producing so much greenhouse emissions - even though it's China who's doing it, which is of course an openly communist country. But let's see what they do?

They're here to promote “a sense of responsibility within institutions and individuals to strive for the common good of humanity.” You know like the incredible philanthropists, like Warren Buffett, and these kinds of people, who says he wants to pay more taxes. He thinks he should pay more taxes; so, everybody's taxes should go up so he can pay more. He wants to pay more; he wants to be a good boy and lead the way into the future - even though he's tax exempt, okay. But he wants to come on camera and say, “Yes, I believe we should all pay a little more.” But all your organizations are tax exempt; you don't pay any taxes! Why are normal people's taxes going up? Huh!

Socialism, Communism and political Satanism

This is what people don't understand about Socialism, Communism, and political Satanism. It's not just an ideology, folks; it has real terrible, terrible, manifestations. It's been tried all over the world in every single continent. How many people have you seen in America, particularly on the Left and neocons too, but on the Left particularly, because they're very vocal over it? Bernie Sanders, AOC, the Jihad Squad etc, all those people are talking about, “Oh you know what? Socialism if it's done right...”

So, if Stalin or Hitler, if they were in charge of Germany or Russia or any of those places like Venezuela, Cuba, and North Korea; if you took out Kim Jong-un or Kim Il-sung his granddaddy and you put in Bernie SANDERS, you see, then the North Korean people would be prosperous. 100%! They'd live in utopia; they'd live in the kingdom of God. That's what they believe. In Venezuela, if they didn't put Maduro in, and they had AOC there, it would absolutely be different; absolutely be different. You know why? Because she wears eighty-thousand-dollar dresses that say, “Tax the rich!” That's why it would be different. Because she does full glam makeup with $80,000 dresses at events WITH the Superclass, and with lipstick that says, “Tax the rich.” You know that's why, we know for a fact, absolutely sure; we have total surety that if she ran a country it would be phenomenal. It would be the most prosperous nation in the world!!!

You see folks? This is always the same ridiculous claim, that “if Socialism is done properly, if WE do it; if it's democratic socialism, IF it's Inclusive Capitalism”; which means government-controlled economies, and that's no longer capitalism, that is now socialism, but that doesn't matter. Definitions don't matter, facts don't matter; it's just what they CALL it that matters! Why? Because we can create our own reality. Don't you remember that from the Metaverse? Don't you remember that?

LGBTQ

Now you have a professor at Old Dominion College and this lady says that she's a non-binary professor, which means she transcends male and female. You can't HOLD HER down with those categories! "You can't hold me down with your patriarchy!" You understand? She's NON-BINARY! She has escaped the patriarchy. Are you with me, folks? And she's on social media advocating for what she calls "MAPS" and those are Minor Attracted Persons i.e pedos, people who like raping children.

We talked about this, five years ago. Remember this? Five, seven years ago, we were talking about the LGBTQaaiaggbny6532, whatever it is now, and their agenda with the homosexual normalization, normalizing homosexuality, saying, "Oh, it's genetic; it's biological." Oh, of course it didn't pan out that way; they could not find a gay gene. Remember this whole thing in the 80s? They could not find it. So then the rhetoric changed. They were so sure, "We have a gay gene, gay gene; gay gene." You heard that all over the news every day; you were been brainwashed, "gay gene, gay gene, gay gene, gay gene. It's not their choice. Have compassion on them! Stop being so mean!"

Transgenderism

Remember how this started, and then the same program was rolled out with the transgenderism. Because the whole purpose of transgenderism is what? The whole purpose of transgenderism is not to liberate a new oppressed class of people. If you are a male and you believe you're female, and you go walk around with female clothing; that used to be called 'gender dysphoria'. That was an actual psychological illness, if you clearly have male apparatus but yet you think you're a female.

But of course, if you want the whole world to conform to that belief that's a whole other thing; if you want to use the state to force - to FORCE- and punish people for not conforming to your pronouns. This is of course the destruction of free speech and of freedom of religion, etc. This is now entering into the world of "the government will tell you what you can say and what you cannot say." Are you with me, folks? And that's a problem; that's a problem isn't it?

That's a problem for every person who is made in the image of God who has endowed upon us natural rights, inalienable rights; rights that come from the Creator, not from government. It is a problem.

So the slippery slope of normalizing homosexuality, etc, makes people say, "Have compassion. It's not their choice; it's not their fault." Remember? We heard this all the time. "It's not their FAULT!"

Then transgenderism: of course the purpose of that was to have children make adult decisions, so if they do want to do sex- reassignment surgery, they're trying to bring that age down to 12 years old, eight years old, and now in Europe without parent consent at all five years old; six years old in certain states of Europe.

That's crazy! I mean if anybody's looking at that with a rational mind or as a normal human being; I mean anybody who just has half a brain, if you look at it you just say, "That's insane!" Everybody knows a five-year-old cannot make those life-altering decisions with long-term, long, long, long, long-term consequences. Okay? You can't do it. But of course they want to make the legal framework for which young children can make legal adult decisions like literally chopping up their genitals, and having sex-reassignments surgery.

Pedophilia

Oh, so if young kids can make those types of legal decisions, you see, then they can also make other ADULT decisions like what? Whom they will be romantic and sexual with! See how that works? They created a legal framework for young babies to basically be able to make adult legal decisions.

Now, whom does that benefit? Does that benefit Joseph Rosenbaum who was a child rapist and tried to kill Kyle Rittenhouse, or does it benefit somebody like Kyle Rittenhouse? Of course it benefits Rosenbaum. If young children legally at five years old can make humongous adult decisions, they can have the legal power to make decisions and they can be acknowledged by the state as an agent of free will that can exercise dominion over their destiny; at five, six years old - that's a kindergarten student! You understand folks? A little kid! If that is possible then of course whom they want to be with is legally their right too; isn't it? That's why the UN talks about lowering the age of consent and having CHILDREN's sexual rights. They have a whole thing on their page about children's sexual rights! 10 years old!

This is the UN, folks; you know your loving UN that's on that board, that steering committee with the Vatican and the pope. Oh by the way, whoa, wasn't there something happening with the Catholic Church and children? I think I heard something like that in the news. Maybe 50% in Pennsylvania; that's what the state said, which means it's probably 80%. Are you with me, folks? It's extremely dangerous! Whom does that benefit?

Kyle Rittenhouse

By the way Kyle Rittenhouse is a free man, free man! (Applause)
(Showing his t-shirt) "No step on snake!"

But what was happening also behind the scene as Kyle Rittenhouse's case came out. They're publicizing, they're playing that for everybody to see; they want the riots. De Blasio was saying, "Oh, this is egregious. People should be protesting immediately." But Kenosha was kind of quiet yesterday, because in Kenosha if people try to kill you can shoot back; (Applause) especially if they're child rapists and felons. "Why did a 17-year old have an AR-15?" Well, why did a felon have a Glock? Huh? What about that? Huh? Why was a child rapist there on that day? Huh? By the way, we're going to try to get

Kyle Rittenhouse to the Freedom Festival next year, folks. (Applause) Pray for us on that, pray for us. Hopefully we'll get Kyle. We're reaching out.

Ghislaine Maxwell's case

But anyway, the point is: yes, justice was served for Kyle, but what's happening. That courtroom was on display; it was live and people could watch it. How come at the same time the trial of Ghislaine Maxwell is going on? She was the prostitution madam for Jeffrey Epstein, who would lure in young girls to be raped by VIPs, like Epstein and Bill Clinton etc; that whole coterie of elites. This lady's trial is going on now; it just started under the whole Kyle Rittenhouse thing. How come the court can't play that live? We should see what's going on in there. You know it's only like the leaders of the free world and stuff like that; you know I guess they're kind of uneventful, unimportant people. You know what I mean? We shouldn't see what's being revealed in those cases; what is being presented as evidence. No, no, people shouldn't be able to see that! Most people don't even know about it; they don't even know that the trial has just begun, and it happened right when Kyle's thing blew up. They had the Ghislaine Maxwell trial on the hush going through.

And the list of people that could come out of that one, folks! You know of course Epstein committed suicide with tissue paper in his maximum security prison, where all the cameras went out for a convenient three hours. It's amazing! It was a total accident. The cameras mysteriously all turned off, all 800 cameras or whatever it was, mysteriously turned off. A mysterious man walked into his cell and he was found. He had committed suicide with blankets and toilet paper, I guess. Because you know how dangerous your toilet paper is! Have you been to the bathroom lately? You understand what I'm saying? It's dangerous in there; it's dangerous okay. Very dangerous, especially if it's white toilet paper! Oh then, this is white supremacy! (Laughing) Oh, okay, okay!

So you have Epstein and you have this case going on probably with huge names that probably should be dropped, coming out of that, and of course Ghislaine Maxwell, this demoness, wicked, wicked witch, wicked demonic beast. Part of that whole apparatus is blackmail, part of the whole apparatus is weaponizing sex, just like Lucifer did in Genesis chapter 3; the first pedophile, first sex trafficker, first rapist. They use the same technique everywhere around the world, to blackmail and steal kingdoms and sovereignty.

That case is going on, but nobody knows about it and it's not open to the public. That's a really important case. Gee! I really hope Ghislaine Maxwell doesn't commit suicide by toilet paper! I really hope. Because if she did we know that would be completely non-coincidental, absolutely no coincidence whatsoever; if she mysteriously decided to go to hell. I mean that's where she's going, right?

These are the same people, folks, the same people: you know Bill Clinton was on the Pedophile Island 27 times, Hillary was there six times; you're talking about the Obamas. You're talking about all those super elites; Prince Charles and different people of the British royal family were there etc. What is the name list on that one? Bill Gates; Justice Roberts was with Epstein. What is the list that will be produced from there? Will it ever be known to the public? These are very, very dangerous; dangerous people and dangerous organizations. Why? Because they've given themselves over to Satan.

You can see, because what they push for the world is hell; it's not heaven. What they are narrating to the world, their beautiful narrative and story arc that we're all going to be part of; that we're all going to be joyfully hip- scoping and jumping away into the new transcendental Metaverse, where you can be anything you want and the sky is the limit and all reality becomes yours. "YOU create your reality!" Of course in reality you're isolated, you're depressed; you're home alone playing video games, playing in the Metaverse, addicted, completely miserable; that's the reality, right. But of course if they make everybody like that, how can you ever stand up against evil? How dare you; how dare you? Because it's just too hard.

"If you are weak, you will become evil!"

Jordan Peterson is a famous clinical psychologist and world -renowned bestseller, probably one of the top conservative psychologists; quite rare, but anyways he has his claim to fame throughout the world. Jordan Peterson said something amazing. When I heard that, I said, "My gosh, that's amazing; that's a true statement!" He was talking to John Stossel. When I was chair of the Washington Times, we had John Stossel at our event; that was the final event that we did there.

But anyway, the point is: John Stossel was doing an interview with Peterson and he was asking him about males and what is plaguing men nowadays and what is this MGTOW movement - Men Going Their Own Way. They're sick of the feminists, they're sick of the women; they're sick of the arrogant western feminists, etc. They're just going their own way. They're just going to be addicted to porn and just literally live alone and just watching porn; they're sick of women and they're not going to marry them.

So Jordan Peterson is talking to Stossel, and he says, "Yes, men have to learn how to become dangerous." Stossel said, "What? What do you mean dangerous? Isn't it dangerous to be dangerous? Are you telling that men need to learn how to be violent? What do you mean by 'dangerous'?" And he was saying, "Men have to learn how to become a force of nature. There is no moral accomplishment; there is no moral achievement in being helpless." Right, if you are weak and you're helpless, you have accomplished nothing. There's no moral energy, there's no moral virtue that requires you to be helpless. It's much harder to be very dangerous but have control over it; much harder. That would be considered a moral virtue; that is an accomplishment; to be very dangerous but have control over it. That's something that requires character, discipline, perseverance, self-reflection, etc. Those are virtues which are very praiseworthy.

So, he said, "If you're weak you will become evil." That's quite a radical statement, isn't it? He said, "If you're weak you will become evil." Why? Because if you're weak you will seek the path of least resistance for your endless desires, and if you seek the path of least resistance, you will choose evil because evil is EASY to do; it's easy. It takes no moral courage; it takes no moral discipline. All you got to do is run on somebody, whack them on the head and take their purse. It requires nothing; no accomplishment, no discipline, no virtue. It requires nothing; it's easy. The weak person is what we call beta males or beta females.

So a beta male and a beta female are claiming that their weakness is a virtue, that their helplessness is a virtue. They're claiming that because of what the Bible refers to, "The meek shall inherit the earth." Of course it's a different word. It doesn't mean 'weak'; it means 'humble'. Humble, it's different; you can be very strong and humble. Some of the most humble men I've met were combat vets, MMA fighters, Jiu-Jitsu black belts; some of the most humble people I've ever met. But you cross them the wrong way and you try to hurt somebody around them, you're going to be hurt, and you're going to be hurt badly. Okay, just saying!

Kyle Rittenhouse: he's a humble boy, a humble young man, 18- year old kid; a humble guy been thrashed into prison, thrown into prison etc, been on the media, having the media lying about him all this time. Remember that other young man, Nick Sandman, whom CNN lied about? Remember, with a Native American leftist guy yelling in his face? Remember that? I think he was a Catholic boy. But he sued CNN and he won 250 million dollars. (Applause) So Kyle should sue, sue, sue; sue, sue, sue.

But I digress: the point is: if you're weak and if you put nothing into developing your strength... which is an absolute virtue. One of the virtues of God is His strength; He's mighty. God is mighty; He's a FORMIDABLE force. Amen! He is the Creator of the universe. That is one of God's virtues, but they've got us believing through feminism, through Marxism etcetera, that males should not be formidable. You should not be strong; you should be weak, and you should obey the state. You should follow the gays and you should follow the transgenders, and just do what you're told; be a good boy. Huh?

Males in a society are always targeted by the Marxists and the communists - who by the way in the 20th century have a 220 -million death toll on their hands. If you want to take over a nation you have to castrate the men; you have to weaken the males. You must; it is absolutely necessary if you want to take over a nation. You have to feminize the men; you must. Because then there will be nobody protecting the women, there will be nobody protecting the families; there will be no resistance. It is standard operating procedure for political Satanism. Okay.

So let me ask you this question about Metaverse, where you can make your own reality. You're inside the internet 24/7. You're no longer addicted to Facebook for eight hours a day which is bad, that's unhealthy and everybody knows that, but now you're in there 24/7. They want to get young people chipped up, and get people connected in wirelessly to this ridiculous Metaverse. This is what they want to do by the way; they want to do that. They want to do it; they openly say it. If they have people doing that, you imagine the level of addiction that you're going to have; the level of unintended consequences that will emerge from that. Do you understand the level of psychological illness and spiritual death that will emerge from that? Think about it, folks! It's terrible!

And in reality now you've made the entire population placid, because your idol should be Mark Zuckerberg! That is the EPITOME of a man! Don't look at big king D. over there, 370 pound monster! No, no, he's not a man! He's a toxic male! Don't try to learn from that man how to shoot guns; don't do that! "You must learn from Zuckerberg. Oh, oh, yes, Zuckerberg with his dilating pupils, and 'oh, I will lead you into the future my pretties!'" It's crazy but that's the role models they're putting up, "He's the man that will give you the POWER; he will give you the power of the universe. You will be God!"

It's crazy, it's wicked; it's evil. These are the people that actually want real control over the economies of the world. They want control over, and enforce what you put into your body; they want control over what you can say. So if we are preaching like this, of course YouTube, Instagram they've been banning us for saying what? We promote hate speech! I am a hate preacher apparently, by the Southern Poverty Law Center; it calls me a hate preacher because I will read direct scriptures from the Bible. But of course that's what they do in Canada for example.

That Inclusive Capitalism steering committee is the institution of the "hate speech laws"; these are the same people that push for that, folks; these same people, they push for that worldwide. And that is a problem; that's a problem.

10,000 New Testament manuscripts

The point is: when they look at you who are in Christ, don't you dare say you are a king and a priest as the Bible says. How dare you say that?

How dare you believe that medieval outdated Bible with many translations and many interpolations? This is what they say, even though amongst the ten thousand existing New Testament documents, we have only five percent divergence, and guess what? You know what the divergence is? Nothing of content; nothing. Sometimes people say, "And Jesus said," and another manuscript says, "And Christ said." Oh, it's so DIFFERENT! Do you see what I'm saying? "And Jesus said: Love God. Love thy neighbor," and the other manuscript of the ten thousand New Testament manuscripts of the early centuries, says, "And Christ says." Now the academic scholars say, "Oh, wow! You see there are so many changes; there are so many differences between the scriptures." No, there are not; those are of absolutely no substance. There are no substantive theological differences between the ten thousand plus existing New Testament manuscripts.

But this is how they brainwash the kids. When one manuscript says "Jesus," and another one says "Christ," they will count that as a difference; so they say, "Well there are 846 differences between this and that." Yeah, it's either Jesus or Christ, but they're the same person. You see what I'm saying? This is how they play that game, to confuse and bamboozle a young Christian going to the academies, trusting their teachers to tell them the truth, and being stripped of their faith. And to buy into international Communism and Marxism and political Satanism, to be part of the apparatus that will usher in the "New Era."

This is not a new era; this is the ancient era that they want to go to. They want to go to the earliest ancient most fallen wicked depraved and evil civilization; you know like civilizations that kill babies, traffic children, normalize selling your CHILDREN to be temple prostitutes and be RAPED. You know stuff like that; they want to bring that back. "Pay no attention to that ridiculous New Testament text with ten thousand forgeries!" This is what they say.

What makes a king?

So the question is: What makes a king?

Let's look at the first king of England. This is interesting. Let's look at the first king of England. Most people in this world and even the global elite, they acknowledge the royal monarchs of England. Well let's see. How did they begin? Let's take a look at the first king of England.

<https://www.historyonthenet.com/who-was-the-first-king-of-england>

"Who Was the First King of England?"

The answer to this question depends on how you define "King of England." After the Roman Empire's decline, several Saxon clansmen and "kings," as well as Scandinavian invaders ruled different regions of England and Britain. The kings, who eventually evolved into the kings of the whole of England, were the kings of Wessex and were crowned by the Archbishop of Canterbury."

Do you notice that? The king was coronated as a king by the Archbishop of Canterbury, or somebody claiming Christ's authority.

So how did these people become kings? Well, they ruled over territory, and at some point they hooked up with the Archbishop of Canterbury, and said, "Hey, My Liege, Archbishop of Canterbury, I have a request for thee," or whatever, okay. Then he was crowned as king and the whole world recognized him now as being a royal family.

What is one of the longest-lived continuous monarchies in the world? It is the country of Japan: 660 AD was their first emperor, apparently who has mythological origins. Now if you know anything about Japan, the Warring Stage Period, the Shogunate Period, etc, you're talking about some crazy times, but I think they've 125 different monarchs in the emperorship of Japan or something like that.

Anyway, the point is: who made that guy a king? Hello! Who made that guy a king? It wasn't the Archbishop of Japan. No, no, it was not the Archbishop of Japan; it was not. They claim of course that they have mythological origins; that they come from the Shinto god, that they're descendants of the Shinto god. It is part of their religion.

My point is this: the satanic world the world ruled by the principalities, powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, spiritual wickedness in high places, (Ephesians 6:12), they acknowledge these "royal bloodlines". Unfortunately most of those royal bloodlines are pushing what? They're pushing international Communism; they're in support of what True Father talked about as Satan's ideology, political Satanism. They're in favor of international control, they're not for God's gifts of liberty, they're not for human rights; they're not for sovereignty.

So my question is: who makes a king? Who makes him? Well, we looked at the king of England and we also talked about the emperor of Japan, that the secular world recognize as kings.

But imagine when they first became the king how they may have felt. Are you with me, folks? "Well, I guess I'm going to be in a ceremony, and the Archbishop of Canterbury is going to pat my head, and I guess I'll be king." And then from that bloodline comes the House of Wessex. The current bloodline is different, but the monarchy of Britain begins approximately then.

So when these people say, "You have no legitimacy claiming you're kings and priests. Who gave you that authority?" Well, who gave the British family authority to be a king? Who gave that guy in Japan and his children the ability to be an emperor? You see what I'm saying, folks?

Royal priesthood

You see, you can believe they are the king of their nation or the emperor of their nation because they have been given the permission to be emperor or king. Now, "YOU normal person in faith; no, no, don't you dare, don't you dare think of yourself as royal! You better not!" The Bible talks about us as a royal priesthood. It talks about us, "And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." (Revelation 1:5-6)

No, no, don't look at Scripture! Don't mention the fact that he gives us crowns and that we become his co-heirs; that means co heirs with the King of kings. That's a big deal! But you can't believe that. "No, you are a normal plebeian, and you must only worship the house of Wessex, the house of England and Japan's emperor!" Do you see how ridiculous that claim is? It's ridiculous; it's a ridiculous claim. THEY have no more claim than anybody else. They just have a lot more assets; that's all. But is it the assets that make a king? Is it the assets that gave Abraham the promise to be the father of nations? Was it because of his head of cattle and his head of sheep that God said, "Wow, THAT man has lots of cattle and lots of sheep; he will be the father of all nations!" You understand what I'm saying, folks?

So, "How DARE you think you're a royalty? How DARE you think you're kings and priests? How dare you? How dare you treasure your bloodline and your family name? How dare you?" Oh, you see what I'm saying, folks? "How dare you get your entire tribe and clan anointed by God? How dare you do that?" You understand that's how they think. Because the normal people must be slaves and servants to them, but the Bible says something different. We were once slaves of sin, we were once servants of Satan, the father of all lies, but through Christ we become heirs to his throne; we become kings and priests of the Kingdom of God, that by the way is going to cover the whole earth.

"But how dare you believe that? You can't believe that. How dare you wear those fake five-dollar crowns? How dare you wear a bullet crown, King Bullet-head? How dare you do that?"

We got to make a t-shirt with a bullet head-crown; it will trigger those leftists.

But, you understand? Don't EVER let the devil take away what God has given you, and when God has given us kinship, royalty, sovereignty and dominion over the earth, these promises are as serious as those given to Father Abraham. And by moving away from Christianity, America's forgotten these promises, and that's why we've become weak.

Co-heir with Christ

The psychologist Jordan Peterson says the thing to do once you become weak is what? To do evil, because you will seek the path of least resistance. It takes strength to be good, it takes courage; it takes perseverance, and knowing you'll be scathed and hated and mocked and tortured. The Bible says, "You'll be even killed for my namesake." That's what Christ said. It requires fortitude and moral courage to pursue goodness. It's hard, it's hard work; it's hard training. It doesn't come easy.

That's why James is talking about, "Faith without works is dead." Not that you are saved by your works; we're not saved by our work. We're saved spiritually by our faith; coming to a love relationship with Jesus Christ. We're saved by our faith spiritually.

But then what about our royalty? What about our tribe? What about our physical bloodline? Does the Archbishop of Canterbury or the king of Wessex hold the monopoly on being a co-heir with Christ? In fact I would say they're the opposite because they're supporting systems that will MURDER millions of people across the world and strip them of their natural God-given rights, and will take away sovereignty.

"Render unto Caesar what is his!" The lefties love putting this up, don't they? What does Caesar mean, folks? What does it mean? It means king. It means king; it means emperor. In America who is king? It's the people; the people are the king. So if you render unto Caesar what is Caesar's, you must render unto the people their full constitutional rights. Any politician that goes against them or tries to diminish the Bill of Rights or the Constitution is not only acting unbiblically; he is committing a CARDINAL SIN against the Kingdom of God and the Creator of the universe, our Father who art in Heaven. (Applause)

Because the Kingdom of God Constitution and of course the American Constitution are based on the Judeo-Christian framework that our rights come from the hierarchy of God; not from the angels, not from Lucifer, not from the archangel which is government- which is to be the servant, not the master. God is our master. He's our Father from whom we receive the Blessing to, "be fruitful, multiply, have dominion and subdue the earth." Amen! He's the One from whom we receive our human rights, and that's why they should not be treaded on; that's why they should not be trampled on, because they come from Almighty God. (Showing his t-shirt) "Don't step on Snake!" (Applause)

The point is: I showed you those examples of "kings of the earth," because the world recognizes them and they see them as kings. People who were claiming to do the work of God and who were claiming to be experts in the Word of God, the Pharisees and Sadducees, what did Jesus call them? He called them, "You brood of vipers! You are of your father the devil, the father of lies!" These were purportedly religious men who knew the Torah and knew the Old Testament in and out, and they were actually TEACHERS of the Old Testament in the synagogues. Are you with me, folks? So it doesn't matter what the Pharisees say who can be king and who has their anointing.

Anointing from Almighty God

We don't get our anointing from them! We get our anointing of the royalty and priesthood of God BY ALMIGHTY GOD and by his WORD which is eternal! Amen! (Applause) That's where we get it from.

That's why when we have the Blessing of marriage and the coronation of kingship etc, during your marriage day; it's not just a marriage "till death do us part" or this kind of thing. No! King K. the First, stop believing you are just from this family. No, he who is in Christ and received the Blessing, you're ordained into kingship, and you should take that seriously.

Just like the first king of England, I'm sure he had struggles with it. I'm sure the first emperor of Japan had struggles with it, like, "Am I really a king? Is this real?" You know all this stuff, I'm sure. But you know what? For their descendants it's a big deal. And that's on Satan's side!

Imagine on God's side how important it is, for example for the children of Abraham to know that we are united with Father Abraham through faith. It's a big deal; that lineage is important. So don't let the devil come in and say, "No, you're not important; your line is not important. You're just David; you're just Chris, etcetera." You have to get on the inside of what God says about your blood lineage, about your kingdom, about your kingship.

Think about if Americans got back to that; if Christians started realizing who the real kings of the earth are, and who is called to have dominion over the earth, who is called to be formidable yet centered on love, agape love, "love God, love your neighbor," but yet be formidable; because, "Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends, (John 15:13) he who will defend his friends and his neighbor. You cannot do that from being weak. It requires the Body of Christ to be formidable, to be formidable shepherds that when the wolves see them, they cower. (Applause)

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank You for this day. We bless You; we bless Your holy name. We thank You that You have given this congregation this time of study of Your word. We thank You for all the things that You are doing across this world.

We are experiencing unprecedented evil across this globe, unprecedented wickedness, unprecedented criminality, unprecedented times, but God, You have prepared a people for such a time as this. And we thank You, dear Lord, because even though we walk in darkness, we know what the Scripture says; David wrote about it in the Psalms. He said, "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Dear God, we pray that we would be comforted by Your formidable strength, Your rod and Your staff; that You would raise us to be good kings, good priests, good queens, good evangelists, royalty of

Your family, co-heirs with You in Your Kingdom to stand and PROTECT the gifts of liberty that You have given every single person on this planet.

Dear God, it feels at times that we are facing such a HUMONGOUS opponent, such a BEHEMOTH of power, such an ALLIANCE of devils and wickedness and spiritual wickedness in high places, and at times it feels that we're helpless, that we can't do anything, that nothing that we do matters. But we must remember at those times Your word in Timothy 1:7 where You say, "I have not given you the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

We must know that the devil tries to make us live in fear so that we will focus on this fear and not focus on Your power and on Your love and on the soundness of mind that You've given us, to discern between right and wrong and to pursue the epic quest and the hero's pursuit of your Kingdom.

Dear God, we pray that You would pour out Your Holy Spirit across this world. We pray that the hearts and minds of men would be set ABLAZE by the Holy Spirit at this time; this most critical and dark hour where potentially the torch of liberty can be snuffed OUT in America, and the DANGEROUS DEATHLY reign of China and international Communism can cover the earth.

Dear God, WE are at the front lines, we are on the vanguard; we are on the battlefield RIGHT NOW at the front, leading the way as America. We pray for our country now. We pray for all Christians to throw away weakness and to pick up strength and to pick up the shield of faith and to pick up "the sword of the Spirit and the breastplate of righteousness and the helmet of salvation, the belt of truth and the feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace." And we pray that we would no longer glorify weakness, but we would remember that we are called to be formidable for Your purpose, to be a good formidable force of nature, which NO evil and NO wickedness and NO demonic civilization can feel they can run over.

Let them cower in their boots! Let them feel fear and tremble to their spines! Let them have confusion in their encampments! Confuse them and confound them, dear Lord, so that You would raise up a people that will stand to resist the devil, and as You promised he will flee.

Let us Father God, be strong at this time! Let us encourage one another, and let us always lift up Your Holy Name, giving You praise, glory and honor. In Your precious name we pray. Amen! Amen! Aju!

All right folks; let's all rise and give Him the glory!
