Transhumanist to World Leaders: "HUMANS ARE HACKABLE ANIMALS!"

Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Here I am." So he said to him, "Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock, and bring me word." So he sent him from the Valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. And a man found him wandering in the fields. And the man asked him, "What are you seeking?" "I am seeking my brothers," he said. "Tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock." And the man said, "They have gone away, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

They saw him from afar, and before he came near to them they conspired against him to kill him. They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits. Then we will say that a fierce animal has devoured him, and we will see what will become of his dreams." But when Reuben heard it, he rescued him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life." And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him" -- that he might rescue him out of their hand to restore him to his father. So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the robe of many colors that he wore. And they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

Then they sat down to eat. And looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing gum, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers listened to him. Then Midianite traders passed by. And they drew Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. They took Joseph to Egypt. Gen 37:12-28

Hello,

Sunday's service started with a passionate prayer for America by Annastasia Theodoropolous. She also mentioned the Peoples Convoy of truckers traveling from the West to the East Coast possibly coming to Northeast Pennsylvania in March. Assistant pastor Kyle Toffey explained that the 2nd King had been interviewed on Alan Keyes' "IAMtv" show on Brighteon.com, and that it will also air on Tuesday morning's King's Report.

Our good friend Frank Scavo, who was arrested for entering the U.S. Capitol building on January 6, 2021, and sentenced to 60 days in prison, came and spoke at the beginning of the service. The U.S. Constitution affirms the freedoms given to us by God, not governments. His wife sometimes asks, "why are you standing up like this?" His answer to her was: "it's important to stand up for the truth. Otherwise, I would be nothing. That is why I am going on "vacation" for two months.

Frank explained that the Boston Tea Party was the first event of colonial patriots. There were 45 tons of tea in crates. They broke open each crate and the bags of tea and threw them into the water. It took all night. Even though many did not approve this action, it started the freedom awakening in the colonies. In the same way, we must stand up against tyranny in order to liberate our nation once again.

"Joseph's Course and this Providential Worldwide Moment" Sermon 2/13/2022

Technical difficulties interrupted the broadcast from Tennessee, so I (Richard Panzer) was asked to give the Sunday Sermon. I started with a reading from Gen 37:12-28 about Joseph's painful course of being sold into slavery by his jealous brothers and being jailed after resisting the amorous advances of Potifar's wife. Joseph must have been tempted to abandon his faith while languishing in jail for years, hearing Satan whispering, "God has abandoned you!" or "Does God even exist?"

Most, if not all of us, go through such "dark nights of the soul" where we question God's concern, activity, and presence in our lives. True Father's nearly 3 years of imprisonment in Hungnam Prison would have challenged or destroyed the faith of most people, but like Joseph, True Father emerged victorious through deep communion with God. We see this from the "Blessing of Glory" song he'd written in November 1950, soon after escaping from Hungnam prison, where he expressed the love and protection of God he felt while in prison:

*From the dark of death I awaken and rejoice to live in grace;
When the one who came to save me holds me tenderly in His embrace,
I rejoice to feel the comfort of the love
He has for me.*

Hyung Jin Nim also went through a dark time when he was fired by his mother (Hak Ja Han) from 5 different church positions in Korea in 2012, apparently for the "crimes" of not agreeing with detaching Father from life support in the hospital or with her agenda to "polish" (change) Father's words in the Cheong Seong Gyeong. Many church leaders urged him to just pretend to go along with her plans, but his conscience wouldn't allow him to do that.

Then he was sent to America to serve as president of the American church and told not to come back for 3 years. (see Yeonah Nim's testimony about this time) He started to share enthusiastically about Father's teachings about "Absolute Sex," but when the Han Mother found out she insisted that he stop giving talks about that "immediately." Several weeks later he was fired from his position and driven out of the UC.

He could have just walked away from the church and pursued an academic or some other career, but he and Yeonah Nim took their family to Lords Valley, Pennsylvania where his older brother, Kook Jin Nim, had purchased a home. When winter arrived, he spent many nights outside in the cold, praying and meditating about what Father wanted him to do. We can all be grateful that he chose to believe in True Father's anointing of him to continue his teachings and ministry.

Yeonah Nim's Testimony about the Challenging Times

For the past two years, just like Joseph and True Father, the entire world has been "imprisoned" through "Covid 19" lockdowns, that have destroyed hundreds of thousands of businesses all over the world. In many countries those who resist wearing masks or accepting the mRNA "vaccines," have been kicked out of restaurants, fired from their jobs or arrested.

People are told they must blindly accept government orders. If they speak out to express their concerns or even to share scientific studies, their social media accounts are deleted so others cannot learn from them.

Richard spoke about an eye-opening video of transhumanist Dr. Yuval Harari speaking at a conference at the World Economic Forum in 2018.

Dr. Harari explains that past dictators, as well as the Gestapo and the KGB, lacked the knowledge of biology and computing power to "hack millions of people." But soon some corporations and governments will be able to "systematically hack all the people. We must get used to the idea that we are no longer 'mysterious souls' but rather we are 'hackable animals.' Elites may gain the power to 're-engineer life itself.' This will be greatest revolution in history. Science is replacing 'natural selection' with 'intelligent design.' Not intelligent design by some god above the clouds, but our intelligent design and our intelligent clouds of Microsoft and IBM, the new driving forces of evolution. Science may allow life to break out into the inorganic realm. The age of free will is over."

All over the world the brute force of government police power has been used to force citizens to follow the dictates of the state. The people of the world have been given a choice, to comply with ever-changing, often arbitrary, state edicts or at the risk of being socially ostracized, canceled, "deplatformed," arrested, imprisoned or worse, to defend their God-given freedoms.

Canadian Truckers Speak at "Freedom Convoy"

Heavenly Father has allowed these evils to go forward so that people can be awakened to the reality of a new satanic kingdom being established, which rules by slander, by intimidation, by propaganda, by mobs, by financial control and sometimes in the middle of the night with brute force.

The good news is that patriots, believers, workers, business owners, medical doctors, scientists and others are beginning to wake up! As we can see with the "Freedom Convoy" of truckers in Canada, and also in other countries, many are standing up against tyrannical governments and saying "I WILL NOT COMPLY!"

Remembering True Father's Visits to Chung Pyung

by Miho Panzer

Every day snow is falling. The ground is completely white. A snow flake floats in the air, dancing from heaven. The earth becomes a holy ground. The lake is covered with ice. Also, the river as well. My memory is coming back now about True Father.

In 1978 True Father was living in America, but he visited Korea often. He would go first to Hamandong in Seoul and then drive for 5-6 hours on winding country roads to Chung Pyung. He would stay at a small house by the lake and sit on a square bench in the front, even in the middle of the winter when the lake was frozen solid. (I remember one day I saw the lake was so frozen that a farmer was crossing with a huge ox pulling a cart filled to the top with hay.)

When True Father woke up in the early morning, I would bring warm water heated on the fire with a towel for him to wash his face. Every morning I would say, "Abonim Annahassayeo!" and offer him the towel and warm water. Father would respond and say "Anyong" with a big smile.

There was an old man taking care of the house. He always kept a candle burning where he would pray for Abonim. He was raising a dozen chickens. When Father came, the next day he would prepare a delicious chicken soup. I was moved by his cheonsyeong offering to Father.

Father would invite him to eat a meal together by the fire. Outside the warm towel hanging to dry had become like a solid piece of wood. Every day was a challenge. I will never forget that kind of training in the cold winter.

In the spring True Father liked to go hunting for pheasants in Cheju Island further south. I remember the sound of Father shooting "pum, pum, pum" in the air and the bird falling to the ground. Father really loved to be out in nature.

Reflections on 55th True God's Day at the New Chung Pyung

A new history started with this True God's Day observance in Tennessee. Heavenly Father gave us a beautiful mountain in Thorn Hill. A few months ago, on October 14, the day True Father was released from Hung Nam prison 7 decades ago, we held a Blessing ceremony. My husband, Richard, was climbing the mountain the day before, but when approaching the top, he was stopped by the impenetrable thorn bushes. In my mind those thorn bushes represented the suffering path Jesus had to walk when he wore a crown of thorns on Golgotha.

Since that time Hyung Jin Nim has been leading many volunteers, mostly from Japan and Korea, to clear the path to reach the top of the mountain, with the first part called the "Trail of Tears." When the winter ends they will work on clearing the "Trail of Victory." After that, they will work on the "Trail of Ascension."

In the Spring, whoever loves nature and wants to meditate on the Trail of Tears, with markers depicting the early suffering in True Father's life, will be able to walk there and learn about his life. Near the trail, there is a cemetery of unmarked head stones of soldiers from the North and the South who fought during the Civil War. They paid for the sin of slavery in the USA with their own lives. That is being restored as well.

During the past several months, brothers led by our brother Joe Dispenza worked day and night to build the Welcome Center near the entrance to Chung Pyung. They were painting the inside of the building the same day we were to hold the midnight prayer of True God's Day! I thought it was a miracle that everything could be finished in time! Many brothers and sisters could really feel the Holy Spirit during this special True God's Day celebration, which for some reason was not being celebrated this year by the Family Federation in Korea.

I was wondering why the 2nd King was rushing to finish that before the Holy Day. The thought came to me that in 1951, after escaping from Hung Nam prison, True Father traveled to the South and built a cardboard hut on a hillside in Pusan. He began preaching and teaching from that hut in 1952 where he met his first disciple in South Korea, Hyun Shil Kang (whom Sanctuarrians now recognize as True Mother). Now, 70 years later the 2nd King is building the new Chung Pyung in Tennessee.

Satan stole the Korean Chung Pyung. True Father's spiritual foundation and victory have moved to America, which under the leadership of Father's anointed heir, Hyung Jin Nim, God wants to re-bless as a Christian nation and "bride of Christ." Thank you, Heavenly Father, for your guidance and protection in this tumultuous time! We are looking forward to working with the 2nd King and Queen and many new brothers and sisters to build your Kingdom on earth, as in Heaven.

Miho Panzer, 2/5/2022

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
