Matching dresses! I asked In Jin Nim what everyone wants to know, about True Mother and herself wearing matching dresses when they had their meeting in Hawaii last week! Did Mother buy it for her? And she said no, that's the funny thing, she bought her dress in New York and Mother bought hers somewhere else and it was totally coincidence!

When Mother called her down for lunch she couldn't see what Mother was wearing under her sweater, but as In Jin Nim was getting her food she felt Mother's eyes on her back and wondered if maybe there was something on her dress? But as she sat down, Mother showed under her sweater and said "We're wearing the same dress!" Mother joked that it was probably Father choosing clothes for them as he liked to do. Although In Jin Nim would try to explain to Father that there is value in a family wearing different clothes, Father liked to dress them all the same sometimes... — with Tatiana Moon and Hak Ja Han.

In Jin Nim reported that True Mother has approved In Jin Nim's work with i-Home Church.
