The Thirtieth Anniversary Of Women's Federation for World Peace

Cheongshim World Peace Center in Gyeonggi Province, South Korea

I want to express my deepest heartfelt congratulations to WFWP for thirty years of promoting peace for all humanity and our beloved planet Earth. I wish you the happiest thirtieth anniversary, WFWP, and to our beloved founder and inspiration, True Mother, our Mother of Peace, Chukadulimnida! Kamsahamnida! Saranghamnida!

It is my greatest honor to serve and work with WFWPI towards realizing this glorious peace legacy set forth by my beloved parents. I have also had the distinct privilege to work with our global network of WFWP leaders, chapter members and amazing volunteers who have moved my heart with their amazing work.

On all levels of this movement is an inherited passion for peace and sincere loving hearts that sees all 7.8 billion people as "one family under God." Serving the world with a familial heart and knowing the sacred value of all our beloved global brothers and sisters of our human family and our precious Mother Earth has definitively furthered this dream of peace on earth.

My mother's movement, WFWP, as my father said, is the key to world peace, and the collective "loving power of women that will save the world," is saving the world.

To highlight a few of our distinguished projects, WFWP chapters contributed to the UN's sustainable development goals by creating schools and training programs for children and women in under-served areas. Economic assistance through micro-loans have been especially helpful for entrepreneurial women. Free medical clinics have served remote villages, and nutritional support, AIDS-prevention programs and other efforts have helped thousands of people. Educational programs for stable family relationships, as well as preparation for marriage and parenthood seminars have been held around the world. WFWP has been a strong participant in the UN Commission on the Status of Women in New York City, promoting loving families as the foundation for world peace.

The project closest to my own heart is Giving for Good International, launched in the spring of 2020. This program utilizes what is called "circular fashion," by reusing, recycling and repurposing clothing and textiles to keep them from going into landfills. In this way, Giving for Good is contributing to the protection of our precious Mother Earth. People have been mistreating the environment because of ignorance and insensitivity, but we can -- and we must -- stop it.

My beloved mother has spoken often about the necessity of restoring the world to the pristine condition in which God created it in the beginning. Giving for Good has organized very effective fundraising efforts which have brought in more than a quarter of a million US dollars to support humanitarian and environmental causes across the globe.

My eternal gratitude goes to my beloved parents, whose example and words of inspiration have changed lives in every part of the world. Their total dedication to the dream of world peace is bearing fruit today. I want to thank each and every person who has contributed to the work of WFWP over the years because you have worked faithfully to bring this dream into reality. We must combine our strengths and access our tools of persuasion, perseverance, education and, most of all, loving hearts of service. When we all pull together as one human family, recognizing our common Creator, the Heavenly Parent, we can bring about peace in this world.

I thank you all who have joined in the cause so far and I welcome all future peacemakers to enlist and join in our future efforts! I know we are going to see even greater success for peace in the future and beyond.

Thank you very much. Once again to True Parents and WFWP, Chukadulimnida! Kamsahamnida! Saranghamnida!
