

Lighting 1,000 lamps in Swoyambyo, Nepal in honor of Father Moon's life

Hyung Jin Moon
September 9, 2012

Today, Sept. 9 in Kathmandu, Nepal, 1,000 oil lamps were lit in honor of Father Moon's life. Venerable Khenpo Sangye Kalsang, Principal and Director of the Buddha Dharma Center in Swoyambyo, held a very special ceremony at one of the oldest and most famous Buddhist Temples in Nepal. The ceremony of lighting 1,000 lamps, chanting and prayers were conducted in greatest respect of Father Moon's interreligious activities and education throughout the world.

The program back cover of Nepal's recently concluded International Leadership Conference was placed on the Buddhist altar in Swoyambyo, Nepal. During the ILC in Kathmandu, Sept. 1-2, Father Moon's autobiography—in Nepalese—was launched.

Sincerely,

Unification Church
World Mission Headquarters