How was Jesus born? Jesus differs from other religious leaders. In other words, if you come through the lineage that Satan accuses, you can never become a good father. Jesus came as a good father. What is the position of that? It's a model of Adam made by God, and Eve was created, so if a man completes it, the woman can go through it. In the process of saving the mother of mankind, it was the crucifixion that died because it failed to fulfill its purpose. What was the result of this? Even though a good father, the foundation of salvation, came, he drove him away, was crucified, and killed him. You have to realize this. So, no matter how deeply you are sinful, when you really know that you killed Jesus, your Father, you have to repent. I can't help but regret it. When everyone knows of Jesus' true position, we must repent to receive forgiveness of past sins with tears. There, for the first time, Manmin can reconnect to Jesus. That way, there is a way to salvation. The Bible teaches it.

Olive trees and stone olive trees are different. Cut off the stone olive tree. I have to cut it out. You must cut off your roots and the whole, cut off all the lineages born of sin, and receive one olive tree root, receive the true sprout of Jesus, and attach it. It is God's providence that he will return to heaven like Jesus from there, be loved by God, and put the same fruit in ten days. So in order to get through that process, we have to stand in the negative position and go on the path of return. It has to be cut off because it is pedigree different from that of fallen humans.

Where did the fall come from? I have made a pedigree relationship with love as the center. From birth, Jesus must establish the standard of complete restoration. It's there that Jesus is different from other religions. If it is said that the inner condition has been fulfilled in some way, Cain and Abel brothers fight in Adam and Eve, Esau and Jacob are twins, and a younger brother is in charge of the older brother. Since Satan's child was first born, the first child must be removed and the second child must take over. So starting from the twins the brothers fight, so will fight in the stomach. Perez and Sarah are born to Tamar. I have to get back in my stomach. So I tied the red string in my hand first, and I pushed it and Perez was born. He cannot be born a perfect son of God unless he fights in the womb and overcomes the conditions of Satan's accusation. The so-called re-take the position going back to the stomach raise the standard of victory there, and through the descendants inherited the ancestral traditions mainly based on its history, Jesus came the will. So, in the days when Jesus was young, Satan could not accuse him. Only through those conditions of indemnity, Satan can accuse him of Jesus in his womb. Jesus was outside the right to accuse.

One person who came from such a position is Jesus. That is why there was no other than Jesus who was born after passing through this historical process. With this in mind, all humanity within the sphere we meet must be restored. To do that, we have to completely separate ourselves from society. Thus, we have to set the condition that we are dedicated to God. Such is the purpose of religion. So, at the end, one's own conscience and heart, which are at the center of the nation, society or family, are fighting. This should eventually take over itself. It is not power by yourself. You cannot return to God unless you push the power of your flesh and soul with your father's heart and heart of love, and set the standard of winning victory. This has been a central problem that many religions have been trying to achieve in history up to now.
