

World Rally for Korean Freedom at the Seoul Yeouido Square

Sunhak Institute of History

June 7, 1975

The World Rally for Korean Freedom was held on June 7, 1975, at the Seoul Yeouido Square with 1.2 million people.

Over 1,000 representatives from 60 countries around the world participated and promised to defend Korea.

Through True Father's speech, 'Korea Within the World,' he emphasized that the 'Rally for Korean Freedom is a global religious celebration which displays the resolution of the world to rise up and defend Korea's freedom to the whole world.