The Proclamation of The Day of Total Victory and the Holy Water Ceremony

August 16, 1985 East Garden in New York

Sunhak Institute of History

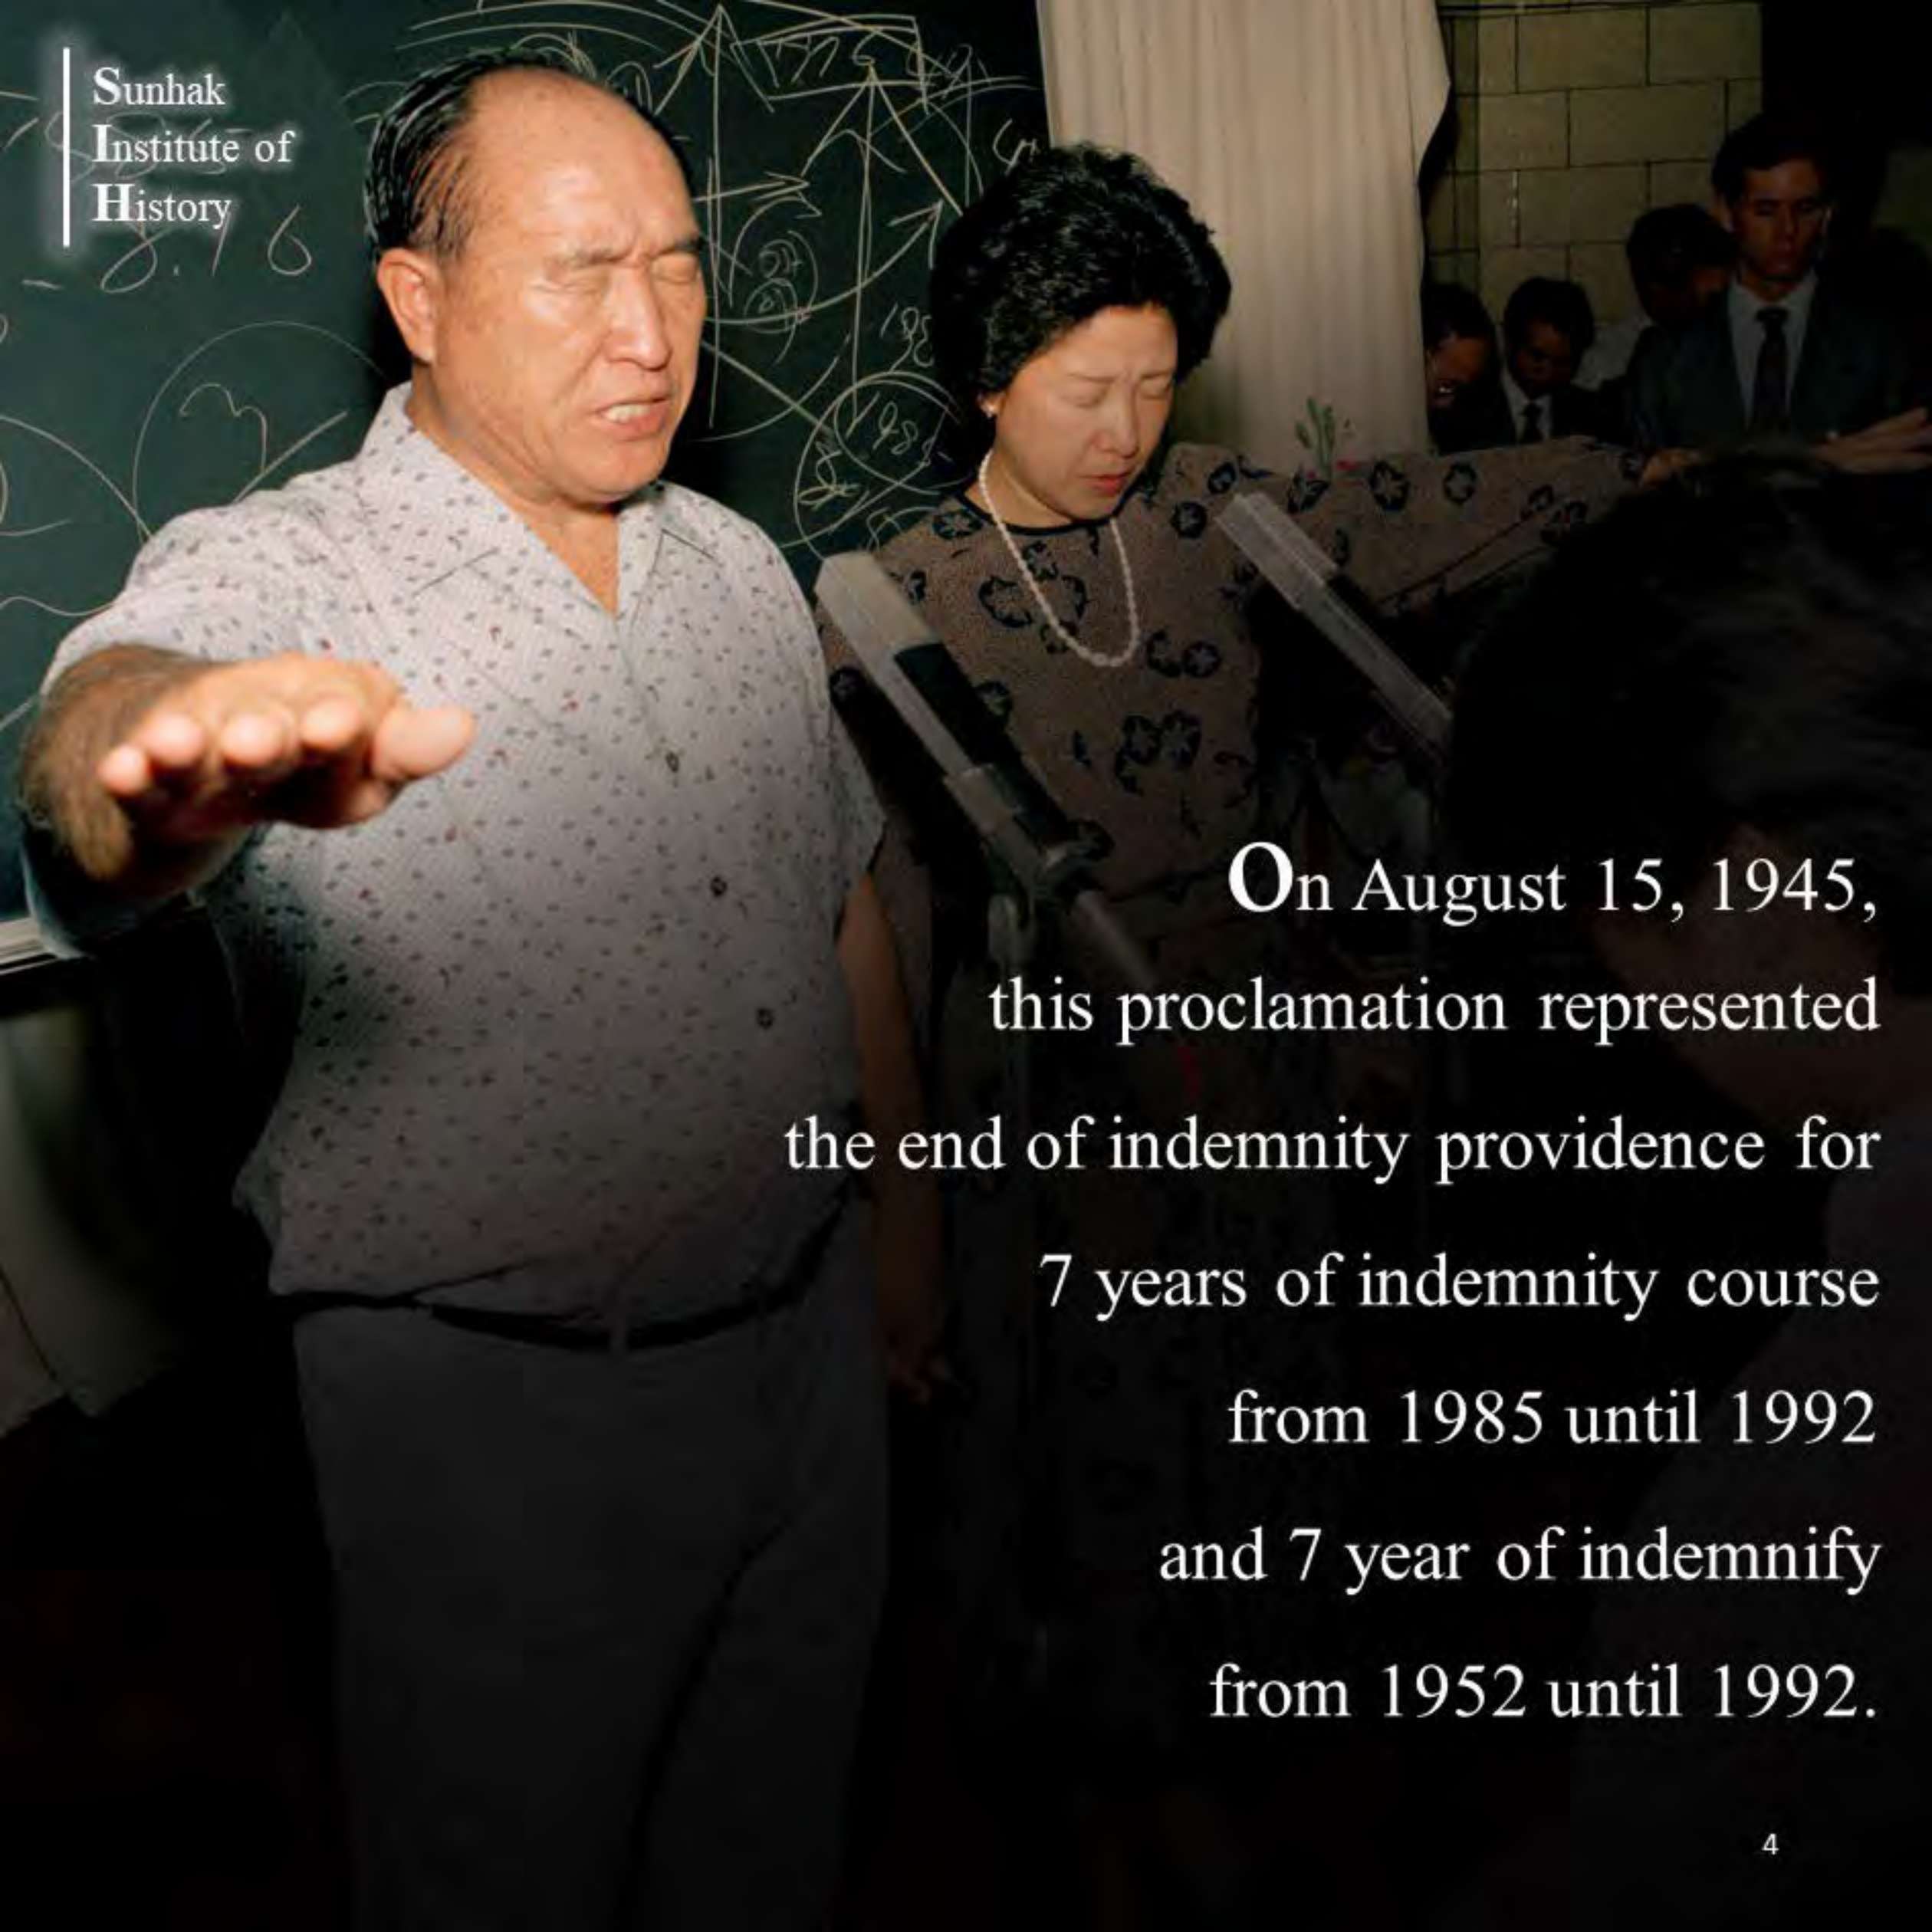

On August 16, 1985, True Parents proclaimed

“The day of Total Victory”

at East Garden in New York.

A man in a light-colored patterned short-sleeved shirt and light-colored trousers stands on the left, pointing his right arm towards a group of people. The group consists of several individuals, some in suits and some in traditional Korean attire, standing in a line. The setting appears to be an indoor event or ceremony. The background is dark, and the floor has a wooden parquet pattern.

On the next day;
August 16th when finished the 40 years in the wilderness, this world could be free from hardship the Satan's accusation with the victory of True Parents and Hyo-jin nim.

On August 15, 1945,
this proclamation represented the end of indemnity providence for 7 years of indemnity course
from 1985 until 1992
and 7 year of indemnify
from 1952 until 1992.

Through the proclamation of the day of total victory, Hyo-jin nim conducted the Holy Water Ceremony. True Parents set the original eldest and younger position with the blessed families and try to restore them through the Proclamation of the Day of Total Victory.

Following this,
True Parents support Hyo-jin nim
as the CARP president.

With this foundation, True Parents proclaimed that this is the starting point of the children era from the parent era.

This providential moment is the result of the end of The 40 years in the wilderness and from now on, The second generation's turn will come to lead this world.

On August 20, True Father conducted the Holy Water Ceremony and told the church members about the importance of The Day of Total Victory.

Today is the historical day when the Jacob and Esau of the 20th century are going to meet. What is Unification Church history? It is a history of Cain and Abel. In this case, I am Abel and you members are in Cain's position. What has happened in forty years' time? The members in Cain's position have united totally with Abel; by doing that, God can intervene -- direct dominion is now possible time.
