Several thousand gathered at Cheongpyeong for the 48th True Parents Day Commemorative Service. Rev. Kwak spoke on the internal meaning of True Parent’s Day. Father believes he can live to 100 years of age! Father and Mother are as strong and clear as ever. Father was on the 7th city of a 24-city speaking tour. He will tour America after the Washington Times anniversary banquet.

Father started his speech by explaining that through the ongoing series of “Rallies to Proclaim the Beginning of the New Civilization of the Universal Peace” in Korea, True Parents advance the coming of the historical era of the settlement of the Cheon Il Guk civilization in the substantial living environment. He also advised Ambassadors for Peace to learn a lot about the True Parents “since we entered such a good era.”

When Father finished speaking and Rev. Changshik Yang went up the stage to lead cheers of Eog-Mansei, Father told him to proclaim one additional Eog-Mansei for the realization of Abel-type UN. So, Rev. Yang with thunder-like voice proclaimed four cheers of Eog-Mansei.

When an emcee was about to announce the closing of the ceremony, Father suddenly called Rev. Do-soon Lim, General Director of FFWPU-Japan and asked him to sing a song. Rev. Lim passionately sang a song “Great Korea” the lyrics of which is said to be written by Rev. Yoon-guk Moon, True Father’s granduncle.

Let us give all we have for our True Parents and for the unfolding of God’s Kingdom. Every step we take brings harvest. We are not paying for the past because the past has been atoned for and forgiven. Now we pay indemnity as a condition that directly allows God to claim things back, step by step.

This is a declaration of God’s plan for His dispensation and the direction humanity should take.

The Progress of Human History

Ladies and gentlemen, if you carefully examine the progress of human history, you will undoubtedly discover God’s resolve and the fingerprints He left as He tirelessly worked behind the scenes. We are familiar with the history of civilization, which began centering on four of the world’s great rivers. The British Empire, which dominated the four seas and wielded its might as “the empire on which the sun never sets,” passed its splendid culture on to North America. We know these facts from history. Human civilization arrived on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, where the Mediterranean peninsular cultures flourished in Greece and Rome. History continued its progress and the European continental culture emerged. This continental civilization in turn became the energy stimulating an island culture. Great Britain, to flourish in the Atlantic sphere. North American continent and soon took on the armor of democracy, which was rooted in Christianity. The United States has been a center of freedom of religion and respect for equal human rights in its struggle against communism, which sought to establish an atheistic sovereignty of evil. Through victories in the First, Second and Third World Wars, America won victory over totalitarianism and communism. However, that victory does not simply mean that America is great, and the development of human civilization did not stop there. Victory came because God had chosen and raised that nation—the United States of America as the second Israel, in accordance with His providential program, and had raised that nation to be a Christian nation south of Christianity. God worked through America to bring His providence to a great stage of fruition.

Ladies and gentlemen, it is in the present time that this issue becomes important. The development of human civilization has completed a circuit of the entire globe and has arrived at the Pacific sphere. Human history has come to a point in time in the providence at which it should reach completion and fruition through the Pacific Rim region. No force can impede the providence now. Though there were both victories and defeats during the course of indemnity under the evil sovereignty in the era before heaven, nothing could prevent the rise of the Pacific Rim era. Herein lies the reason that Heaven declared this a jubilee year.

Our Mission in the Pacific Era

Ladies and gentlemen, the arrival of this time is a great mission of God. From the perspective of the history of religions, what do you think the world would be like if Jesus had fulfilled the complete messianic mission during His lifetime on earth? Jesus came as the Savior and Messiah to save all people. He did not come just to save the people of Israel, a small nation located on a corner of the Mediterranean Sea. At that time, Rome, based at the center of the Mediterranean, was the center of human civilization. Rome was ready to rule the seas. Heaven's desire was that Jesus evangelize and rule over Rome first, in order to bring salvation to all humanity through the vehicle of Rome's brilliant civilization. Yet, Jesus died miserably on the cross, as we know all too well through the biblical record.

After thousands of years of preparation, God finally was able to send Jesus to the earth as His only son. There is no way to fathom God's heart as He anxiously watched Jesus' each and every action. Jesus' death was a tragedy that broke God's heart. It brought Him anguish even more extreme than the one He endured on the cross. From the moment Jesus was crucified, He created as the first ancestors of humankind, were lost from the Garden of Eden due to the Fall, and humankind was raised through God's Son's resurrection and ascension to heaven. However, that is beyond human comprehension. Through this course, He prepared the United States of America to serve as the center of the second Israel. As a Christian nation that includes Catholicism and Protestantism as well as the Orthodox world, the United States' mission is to bring harmony and unity to Christianity and, in the twenty-first century, fulfill the responsibility that had been the Roman Empire's, but which was not realized in Jesus' time. The responsibility, within God's providence, to bring harmony and oneness among the world's 6.5 billion people and the barriers of race and even religion.

The main attributes of true love are that it is absolute, unique, unchanging and eternal, so that whoever practices God's true love will live with God, share His happiness, and enjoy the right to participate as an equal in His work. Therefore, a life-lived for the sake of others, a life of true love, is the absolute prerequisite for entering the kingdom of heaven.

The path is wide open now for human-ity to find and establish true families.
Following God’s Providence

By Reverend Sun Myung Moon

These notes are from two addresses given on March 16 & 19, 2007 at Hayward Garden Center, IL. They are taken from a simultaneous translation. Simultaneous translation is a process of immediately translating spoken text from one language to another, usually by having two translators working side by side. The translators are usually highly skilled in their languages and are able to communicate the essence of the message. These cannot be published as definitive texts and should never be used in the future as an “official” publication on Rev. Moon’s words. However, they do provide a good idea of the “spirit” of the message.

A merica is the Elder son nation and has a central providential role at this time. What about Japan? Japan has a lot of responsibility to rectify the past history. That is why I ask so much of Japan. Japanese women are fulfilling this role for the dispensation. That is why they are sent out to the world with such sacrifice.

Please know that I have prepared to say what I am telling you. Japanese women, you like to work. That is why you are called Bion. It is “work” in Korean. The people who have sustained Japan have not been men but women. If you study history, you will see this. Japan cannot disappear. We have to understand that Japan was the nation that was ruling the Asian continent. We will absolutely fulfill the Peace Kingdom. The peaceful culture of the Pacific will go forth now for 1,000 years. Isn’t it interesting that the Secretary General of the UN is an Rn K Moon? Now everyone is hearing the “Moon” name constantly.

Japanese Cho Cheon Yun (pro North Korean). Who is with that group? How about Mindan (pro South Korean)? Many are here.

Confucianism is not so much a religion as it is a family moral teaching. What is it about the Unification Church that can bring the two together? It is not Confucianism. The way only you can unify religions or North and South Koreans is through the True Parents of Heaven and Earth. In order to protect the family, three generations must become one.

Heaven and earth, up and down: all movements are found in harmony in the creation. A cold current and a warm current are found in harmony in the ocean currents, rivers and oceans all merging.

The Japanese race is not big enough to digest the world. You really don’t know that much about it as Japanese, but that is why Japan cannot digest the world.

We have passed the formation and growth stages; we are in the completion era. It was in the time of Jesus that Rome was accepting religions. Now, in this age, I am in a position different from the time of Jesus. Let me come ready to welcome us, and it has a world-wide foundation centering on America, the true land for the future. It is a great responsibility and the responsibility built the three-gen- erational realm of the True Family. Now we are reading the mes- sages of Confucius. These are real. Because of the truth I have revealed, fulfilled and embodied, I can unify the spirit world. You see me as one person, but I am not just one person; God and the foundati ons in the spirit world are behind me.

The time has now changed. People cannot just come casu- ally and see me. No one can just walk into hoozoido without first reporting to their leader and getting approval. These are founders of the great religions crying out in the spirit world. How can this be a lie? Japan is one of the great spirit world. Don’t block God and the heavenly realm. The spirit world is absolutely real. If you understand this, your ancestors can work together to fulfill the will of God. You can have enormous support from God. The spirit world will truly respect, love and listen to the spirit world. When we are joined with the ancestors and Jesus and all the founders of the major religions, we are more powerful than anything in the world.

It is not easy to adjust the speech so that people could receive it. You may not know it, but until yesterday I went through deep suffering to shape and mold every word of this speech so that God’s revelation could be understood and received. I came here to America centering on Hawaii. This has been going on for this time.

You know the contents of the peace messages. Imagine the situation in the spirit world of those who know the content and don’t fol- low it, or even oppose it. Jesus was rejected for 33 years without a moment of freedom from persecution. I smell the dirty smells of the world. I can feel when people are not living moral- ly aligned with the truth. That is why I go right into hell to teach them.

The power of God is far greater than any political power in the world. That is why Jesus was feared. That is why the world sometimes reacts to us with fear. They don’t understand and fear the power of God.

Everyone must be blessed. To be blessed in marriage is central to becoming one with God. You must be very careful about your relationships. You must truly seek God and blessed marriage.

The situation in Africa is so desperate that we must do everything we can to help. AIDS, there is a serious potential that a third of all the people could be lost.

The relationship between me and America is centered on the providence of God. God has raised up America. Now, Abel must live for Cain; we have to resolve all the divisions and barri- ers.

When evil people come against you, rise above it and bring them with love to the realm of heaven.

My throat feels so dry here because the climate is so different than in Korea. You know I cannot relax here. I have to check every word of the speech for March was successfully held in the morning on April 3 in the Gymnasium of Changwon City, South Kyongsang Province. Rev. and Mrs. Sun-myung Moon, Pan-do Park, Speaker of Assembly of South Kyongsang Province, In-sun Jeong, Chairman of the Association of Peace Ambassadors of South Kyongsang Province and some 10,000 people participated in the event.

After the opening address by Rev. Chang-hwan Kwak, Chairman of Universal Peace Federation, the keynote address entitled “A Providential View of the Pacific Rim Era in Light of God’s Will: The United States and the Future Direction of the United Nations and the World” was given by Rev. Moon. In his speech Rev. Moon stated, that “The development of human civilization has completed a circuit of the entire globe and has arrived at the Pacific sphere. Human history has come to a point in time in the providence at which it should reach completion and fruition through the Pacific Rim region,” and explain, that “Herein lies the reason that Heaven declared this a jubilee year.”

Rev. Moon pledged that the Universal Peace Federation founded by him in 2005 would play the role of an “Abel-type” UN renewing the existing United Nations and together with millions of Ambassadors for Peace working in every corner of the world by all means fulfill heavenly decree to “build one human family under God”.

Starting from the first event in Changwon, other rallies were held in all major cities of Korea: Seoul (April 4th and 5th), Suwon (6th), Incheon (7th), Northern Kyongsang province (8th), Kogju, Southern Gyeonggi Province (9th).

Dr. Yang and Archbishop Stallings bring Gratitude and Gifts to Turkish Veterans of the Korean War

by Ken Owens

R epresenting the United Nations Peace Forces of the Korean War Memorial Federation (UPKMF), Dr. Chang Shik Yang and Archbishop George Augustus Stallings, Jr., led a small delegation to Istanbul, Turkey, on April 8th, 2007, to meet with 46 Turkish soldiers who voluntarily, with soldiers from 20 other UN member countries, fought against communist forces in the Korean War.

Dr. Yang and Archbishop Stallings brought greetings of gratitude and gifts to the aging veterans who had sacrificed much in saving Korea from being overrun by North Korean and Chinese military aggressions from 1950 to 1953. Upon arrival at the Veterans Hall, the equivalent to the Veterans of Foreign Wars in America, the veterans, dressed in suits and displaying their hard earned medals, greeted us with big smiles and firm handshakes. Dr. Yang was overwhelmed by their greetings.

Inside the hall, we saw one wall that displayed photos from the time that these old veterans were young soldiers in Korea. As we began the meeting, the chairman of the Turkish veterans, Ahmet Kendigel, greeted us all. As the veterans looked on, he gave Dr. Yang and our delegation special flowers to officially welcome us.

Dr. Yang then addressed the veterans, telling the old soldiers how grateful Reverend and Mrs. Moon and the people of Korea were to them for everything they had done to save Korea. Then, in the middle of his address, Dr. Yang gave these heroes a tremendous salute, which the soldiers answered back with their own. Dr. Yang then heartfully gave his flowers to one of the veterans to thank all of them. He continued in addressing them about the purpose for UPKMF and its mission to the 21 nations who participated in the war.

Members of the UPKMF delegation pinned the UPKMF pin to each veteran. Afterwards, the veterans received gifts of a UPKMF flag, a booklet, and a Korean fan. Dr. Yang then showed a movie of UPKMF activities and of the first UPKMF tour, in which representative veterans from all the nations participated.

Archbishop Stallings then spoke to the veterans on how much he admired them because they had gone to Korea as young boys and came back men who lived for the sake of others. He also told them that even though the war was over 50 years ago, they still looked very young and strong. Several veterans stood up to tell Dr. Yang and Archbishop Stallings their thoughts and feelings. One old soldier said that this was the first time in 50 years that he felt appreciated for what he had done and was proud. Another veteran slowly stood up and said that if Korea was invaded again, he would quickly go and fight again for the Korean people. One other veteran wanted to know when the next UPKMF tour would be to Korea so that he could attend. Many of the Turkish veterans sat smiling and proud through out the ceremony, for they still have very clear memories of their experiences from 50 years before when they were young men in battle.

The project, which Russia is coordinating with the U.S. and Canada, would take 10 to 15 years to complete, Viktor Razbegin, deputy head of industrial authority for special economic zones, said at the media briefing.

Russia plans to build the world's longest trans-Temple corridor from Siberia into the U.S. will feed into the tunnel, which at 64 miles will be more than twice as long as the underwater section of the Channel Tunnel between the U.K. and France, according to the plan. The tunnel would run in three sections to link the two islands in the Bering Strait between Russia and the U.S.

What a Good Idea!

(Imam Jodeh then addressed the veterans on how proud he was of them, that when he had first moved to America he wanted to join the army and fight the communists in Vietnam; communism was the enemy of Islam because communism had declared itself the enemy of God. He then, with his great smile, gave his flowers to the wife of the chairman.)

At the close of the meeting, a toast of juice was given by Dr. Yang with all the veterans. Afterwards, we all went outside for a commemorative photo. As we departed, everyone shook hands with beautiful smiles, and more photos were taken. Dr. Yang and the rest of the delegation realized the importance of the nation of Turkey to the Middle East region. Dr. Yang has plans to return to continue the work of UPKMF here and bringing peace to the Middle East.

W e can break this endless cycle of revenge, retaliation and punishment: the only way to do it is to listen to the pain of the other,” said Rami Elhanan, an Israeli Jew whose fourteen-year-old daughter was killed in a suicide attack in Jerusalem.

He and a Palestinian who had lost a brother in the conflict were speaking on behalf of the Bereaved Families Forum to 120 participants in the Universal Peace Federation’s Middle East Peace Initiative in Jerusalem April 10-16, 2007.

A graphic designer whose family has roots in Jerusalem dating back seven generations, Rami described the day his daughter Smadar died. September 4, 1997. When he heard the news of a suicide bombing near where his daughter and her friends were shopping on Ben-Yehuda Street in Jerusalem, he ran in the streets and then from hospital to hospital looking for her.

Finally he found her body at the morgue. “It was a sight and a time I will never ever be able to forget, and it changed my life completely,” he said.

He had been a young soldier in the 1967 Six Day War. He had served in a company that had eleven tanks at the start of the war and only three at its close. He lost good friends and ended the war with the determination at its close. He lost good friends and only three years later he lost his brother.

“Israelis want security, but the only way you can get what you want is to help others get what they want. We do a lot of dialogue work. We say we lost those who are close to us. We put our hatred and anger behind us. Rami is one of my closest friends. I think it is kind of ironic that a Palestinian can say an Israeli is one of my closest friends. If I’m in trouble, this is the one I call, and he has to help me out. We show people it is possible. If Rami and I can call each other.”

Cracking the Walls of Hate and Fear

by Joy Pople

Most people choose the way of hatred and retaliation. But we are people, not animals; we can think. You ask yourself if killing someone will bring back what was lost. If causing pain to anyone will ease your pain.

At first he thought he could go back to his normal life and pretend that nothing had happened. But life was not normal any more. Then he met Yitzhak Frankenthal, who co-founded the group Yad Vashem, in Jerusalem.

Rami invited Ram to come to a meeting, where he saw people he had found admirable, such as Yaacov Guterman, a Holocaust survivor who lost his son Rami during the war in Lebanon.

For the first time in his life he saw Palestinian bereaved families, and they shook his hand and cried with him.

An old Arab lady had a picture of her six-year-old child on her chest.

“I’m not a very religious person,” Rami reflected. “I cannot explain what happened to me that minute nine years ago. I know this: from that moment on I have devoted my life to go anywhere to speak to anyone, those who listen and those who do not want to listen, to convey one simple truth: We are not doomed. It is not our destiny to keep murdering. If I am listening to the pain of my brother here, whom I really love like my own blood, I can expect him to listen to my own pain. We can go on the long and difficult journey and together we can go to peace. We put cracks of hate and fear and together we can go to peace. We put cracks of hate and fear in the wall of hatred and fear. We say that ouraimed is to make him laugh in the same color. Our pain is the same pain. We paid the highest price possible. If we can talk to one another, anyone can.”

Rami is the son of a Holocaust survivor, who, along with his grandparents were taken to the ovens in Europe, the free and civilized nations never lifted a finger. He expressed appreciation for people with open hearts who come to the Holy Land to listen, learn and work for peace.

The Bereaved Families Forum sends pairs of Jews and Palestinians to speak in schools, and it changed my life completely — to hospital looking for her.

Finally he found her body at the morgue. “It was a sight and a time I will never ever be able to forget, and it changed my life completely,” he said.

America Completes the 12,000 Peace Message Events Goal

Our Blessed Central Families are so faithful and committed. It is a comfort to God and True Parents. Let us all, Koreans, Japanese, Americans, all races and nations, and Muslims, Christians and Jews resolve without question that we will hasten the day in which the guns will fall silent in the Middle East and the 38th parallel will become the place where all enemies are reconciled once and forever.

The Word is the essential element that created man's spirit and character in the Garden of Eden; it's by the "Word" that we recreate families of the Peace Kingdom. The Word has power. The Scripture says that the word is like "bread" that God casts upon the waters, and that bread will not come back void.

The Scripture says that faith cometh by hearing and reading the messages of peace and reading them aloud, you gave the messages of peace and reading them aloud, you gave the people of America and the world for God. The Scripture says that the word is like "bread" that God casts upon the waters, and that bread will not come back void.

New Scholarships

In celebration of the tenth anniversary of Bridgeport International Academy, the chairman of BIA, Dr. Chang Shik Yang, announced that the Family Federation will offer five New Eden Scholarships for American students who wish to attend BIA, a college preparatory high school. The scholarship will cover full tuition for students with outstanding academic records who are ready to enter the ninth grade.

To be considered for a scholarship, a youth must be fluent in English, have an overall Grade Point Average of 3.5 for the last two years of school, have parents who are Unification members, and either be an American citizen or have a US permanent resident card.

Bridgeport International Academy is taking two giant leaps forward this year: The first was the announcement that the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), which is the most prestigious accrediting body in New England, granted regional accreditation to BIA for ten years and that the State of Connecticut renewed BIA's accreditation. Founded by our True Parents, the Academy has a high standard of moral and academic excellence.

The second step is that in August BIA will begin the new school year in a beautiful, newly renovated facility, which will allow the Academy to enroll more students. The Academy's arrangement with the University of Bridgeport will continue with BIA students taking courses at U.B. and using university facilities. To celebrate its tenth anniversary, on September 1st BIA will have an alumni reunion and open house in the new building. It has been a hardworking decade of building a foundation upon which the school can now expand.

Scholarship decisions will be made by a committee chaired by Dr. Yang. To apply for a New Eden Scholarship, please contact Mrs. Nora Spurgin, Principal BIA, 285 Lafayette Street, Box 100, Bridgeport, CT 06604; phone 203-260-6801 or 203-365-5799; or email noraspurgin2@yahoo.com. I arrived event in Jerusalem for the MEPI on Easter Sunday. We first went to the holy ground of Gethsemane. It is always so meaningful to go to the place where Jesus offered his tearful prayer. This is the day of Resurrection for Jesus. Through overcoming death and revealed the era of the cross and bloodshed is now over and the era of love from the cross. They proclaimed that the era of life - he opened up the realm between heaven and earth. This is the time of resurrection for the world from the history of darkness, death and destruction. This is the time of the Peace Kingdom.

We have been chosen for such a time as this. A time when God's word of Peace is now being sown in every heart in every nation and race throughout the world. This is the time of harvest.

The development of the work of UPP and the Ambassadors for Peace is profound. It is continuing to expand among the true believers of every faith. It has the power to unite the people of faith to bring ethics and morality to the decision making process of elected officials so that a spirit of love for the enemy can guide the process of bringing peace.

Here we are in Jerusalem at the time of Passover. Jesus had the Passover dinner which became the last supper and then washed the disciples feet. Judas revealed himself and then left Jesus. Jesus called for loyalty and faith and then established the Lord's Supper. Giving the bread and wine became a covenant of loyalty and faith and then established the Lord's Supper and then washed the disciples feet. Judas then went to Gethsemane and prayed three times. Three key disciples could not stay awake and the "Son of Man was betrayed into the hands of sinners."

He was betrayed with a kiss from Judas and arrested. He was examined by Annas the father in law of Caiaphas and then tried by Caiaphas and the council who spited on him and struck him and rent their robes when he would admit to wrong doing. Peter denied him three times just as Jesus walked up the steps to the prison that was under Caiaphas' residence. Jesus caught Peter's eye and, according to scripture, Peter wept bitterly knowing that the prediction of his three denials had come true.

Jesus was condemned by the council and he was led to Pilate, then to Herod, who refused to try him and then Pilate again who responded to the cries of the chief priests, the scribes and the people - crucify him.

He was given 39 lashes and a crown of thorns by the Roman Soldiers and they put on him a scarlet robe and mocked him kneeling as if before the king. They mocked him saying this is no king and the spit in his face.

It was the custom of Passover to allow a man to be released. Pilate offered to release one man. He brought Barabbas and Jesus before the people and they cried to let Barabbas go. Then Jesus picked up the cross and walked the Via Dolorosa carrying the cross to Golgotha. We gratitude he gave his life for all. He and his resurrection to eternal life. They removed his crosses from their churches praising Jesus resurrection as the source of life and his forgiveness and love from the cross. They proclaimed that the era of the cross and bloodshed is now over and the era of life and resurrection from death is now the central aspect of the work of God.

These 120 Christians came to Jerusalem 4 years ago, not with the desire to convert but the desire to repent and be reconciled to their Jewish brothers and sisters of the first Israel. These Christian leaders were touched by the spirit of the Gospel Hymn "The Old Rugged Cross" that said when the Lord comes again we will exchange our crosses for a crown. These Christian leaders believe that the Lord has come again. In fact through persecution and criticism, they are sure about it.

Jewish leaders were touched the act of 120 Christian leaders who removed their crosses is still a reality. On Easter Sunday, they removed their crosses and came to Jerusalem in May of 2003 and were moved to the degree that they could join their Christian brothers and sisters hugging Jesus saying they were sorry for the divide in their family. These Jews will not become Christian but they expressed love and respect for Jesus and the work that God was bringing through the teaching of love. This has enormous meaning. The Muslim leaders came forth together on that day at the urging of a key Jewish leader and the three sons of Abraham repented. This will be recorded in the Bible as this time when the spirit of love was rising now - the crown of thorns but the crown of David to Jesus and honored him as the King of Peace. Jesus course ultimately became victorious not only in heaven but also one earth. Because he anointed True Parents and from heaven supported the work of the Peace Kingdom. True Parents could manifest the unity of all the various religious leaders the fulfillment of the prayer of Jesus in John 17:21 - "that all may be one."

This is why we are inspired, as we see the work expanding and developing 4 years later. All the principals who led the conflict and refused to talk years ago have moved on. All the principals now are talking and genuinely seeking the final end of the conflict in this Holy City of Jerusalem. The conflict is not going on, but it the root cause of the conflict, the rejection of Jesus - has been healed and restored. Therefore the power of the conflict is destined to diminish if we continue to courageously cross over all barriers and religious lines and venture into what was once called the 'enemy camp' and win our brother's heart by serving him and loving him. This is the power that is rising now - the power of love, but the power of love.

Provisional leaders have inherited the victory of 2000 years ago and have come to this Passover Time - at this time of Easter - at this time of Resurrection and the Peace Kingdom to proclaim the reality from God's viewpoint. The reality from God's view is that the dwelling of God has now been established with his true people permanently because the perfection of love and heart has manifested in the True Parents. True Family and the Blessed couple who are on their path to perfecting their love and now the Ambassadors for Peace of all faiths are now pursuing the power of love to resolve all conflicts. God is dwelling with these Jews who have become One Family Under God. Jews, Christians and Muslims who have realized that they have become one lineage of heaven before one God. Although the world didn't think anything even happened when Jesus was crucified, but they knew... what happened when he resurrected. The expansion of believers could not be stopped because the right conditions of faith and love were set. The world doesn’t know what happened when Christians gave True Love to the Jews who then came together and loved and embraced Jesus. This in turn is causing Muslims, Christians and Jews embraced each other as one family. Those who pioneered this path are all assembling this week in Jerusalem. None of them have been lost. They were bitterly persecuted but they have survived and they have multiplied in spirit and numbers.

I can report honestly that they all have become stronger and more confident that the path we are on will end the hatred and violence. Though persecuted, their communities because of this work they have endured. On this foundation the expansion of blessed couples who stand firm in their different faiths cannot be stopped as the power of God’s faith and love continues to expand. A massive body of believers is assembling in every nation of the world. They are joining in heart, not from just one religion, but based on a common faith that there is one God and Creator of all mankind. They believe that the essence of God is love and that if we unite and believe in the God of love and life a life of love for one another the love of God will manifest and dissolve hatred melting all hearts into one - as one family.

The UPF is rising now with the element of faith and love to support the people that God has prepared from every community. The people that God has prepared to lead the way to Peace. They are in every community. That is why when we have some twelve thousand messages of peace in each country a “great awakening” is inevitable because the people prepared by God come to life.

We are deeply grateful for Jesus on this day of Easter. We are grateful that in the midst of his greatest moment of suffering, he expressed love and asked for God’s forgiveness for the people. We are grateful for the crowning of Jesus in Jerusalem and the anointing that he gave to True Parents. We are grateful for the confirmation that God has given that True Parents have fulfilled the course of the providence. Now the True Family is rising and the path that has opened now for all families to become “True” Families that are truly the dwelling of God. Families that are faithful to their spouses and loyal to the parents and children. Families who love all other families as their own. Families who have one heavenly lineage rooted in God. This is the spirit of God - who sees ALL families as his own.

This is the time for all of us to be bold and courageous in our faith. Each step we take will bring a huge harvest for the Peace Kingdom. God has prepared all. True Parents have secured all the conditions. The True Family is now rising to lead the providence in this new era after the coming of heaven. It is now our time to bring in the harvest and heal the world. Let us celebrate and be jubilant in this 7th Year of Cheon Il Guk (the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth). This year of 2007 is the year that our True Parents have proclaimed is the JUBILEE YEAR. This is the time of JUBILEE.

PASTOR WANTED

The Family Church of Omaha, Nebraska is seeking a qualified blessed couple in good standing, with high English proficiency and demonstrable pastoral experience (especially in youth ministry), to lead our church. References will be required.

The Omaha church consists of approximately 20 First Generation adults and 30 Second Generation children aged infant through 18.

We have our own small church building with a 3-bedroom house attached for the use of the pastor and his or her family.

For more information, call Eugene Curtin at (402) 201-2509

Here is a new website all about True Parents.

There is a huge amount of information and it’s wonderful for witnessing. Check it out.
Imagine spending a weekend learning how to be successful in the most important aspects of your life and future. Now imagine doing this in the beautiful subtropical weather of southern Florida, in a gorgeous lecture hall with huge windows looking out into the tree tops of a pristine and primordial forest. Then imagine doing all this with 65 of your best friends, who have gathered from afar as one big family!

That is a good description of exactly what happened the weekend (March 31-April 1) at the Blessing Workshop for Second Generation held at the Fern Forest Nature Park in Pompano Beach, Florida! There were 67 young people, aged 14 – 22, who came to the workshop from as far as North Carolina, Georgia, and even Canada and the Bahamas! They were joined by 34 parents, who enthusiastically participated in the workshop, including the lectures, Dads’ discussion groups, and Moms’ group shoutings.

One of the key factors that made this workshop special was the presence of the national level leaders of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification. This group spearheaded the lectures and leadership of the overall event. Our Florida young people were thrilled to hear that Rev. Philip Schanker would be presenting the lectures. He exceeded their expectations with sincere heartfelt presentations. The participants were moved by his honesty and concern for them.

One of the most meaningful lectures was from Rev. Inguk Seo, the Director of the Second Generation Blessing, on the identity and role of the 2G. We also heard two very relevant (and very different) testimonies from David Hunter and Naokimi Ushiroda, as elder members of the Second Generation. Naokimi also was the MC and leader of the workshop, meeting and asking questions of the ten 2G group leaders.

As a central theme to the workshop, Rev. Schanker encouraged each young person to focus on becoming the right person for the blessing, rather than looking for the right person to be blessed to. He emphasized that if I’m looking for someone who’s the perfect fit for me; my chances of success are very low, because no one will fit all the criteria I set. If we commit to become the right person to serve God, True Parents, and make the world a better place, then we learn the culture of heart and the way of true love. With this approach, our chance of success in the matching and blessing is extremely high, because we have learned to put others before ourselves, and live for the greater good.

Each second generation participant over 16 years of age received a graduation certificate that fulfilled the workshop requirement for matching and blessing. The parents who attended received certificates of gratitude that read, “You are hereby thanked thousands of times for your heart, your dedication, and your assistance to the Second Generation during the 2 Day Blessing Workshop for matching candidates.”

Every person who invested their weekend into this Blessing preparation was able to experience a little heaven, reconnect with core values, and feel a great surge of hope and excitement about the very special mission of being a couple Blessed by True Parents.
The ACLC conference in Houston, held from March 22-24, 2007 was an incredible turning point in ACLC and the work with empowering the clergy. It is indeed a new era and time, with events turning and developing in ways beyond our imagination.

The testimony of Mrs. Jackson, the wife of Rev. Andrew Jackson, the ACLC Co-Convener from the Bay Area in California, summarizes and reflects the sentiments of many of the participants. She said the conference was the best ACLC conference she has attended. She said that she has been to many ACLC conferences and that after the conferences one sometimes does not feel if one wants to return or not, but that this time one had a feeling of wanting to return again. She said that the Holy Spirit descended during the lectures on Friday and gave her more understanding of the content that was being read.

This was the first time that a conference was held in a location that was not a tourist attraction. The only attraction was the conference itself. In addition, most participants paid their own registration fee. Interestingly, we reached full conference participant capacity with 10 days after the conference invitations were first sent out, with the conference being held only 3 1/2 weeks later from the date of the invitations(!)

As Bishop Margie de la Rosa, the ACLC Co-Convener of New York noted, that if participants had a 2-month notice to register we could have easily had 200-300 paid participants.

The Hispanic Clergy and the Native Americans contributed substantially to the conference. They had a deep and rich experience and expressed much appreciation and gratitude for the conference and for having been able to participate.

I had received a vision in the early planning stages of this conference that we should include Native Americans in this conference in order for the conference to be successful. Interestingly, in fulfillment of this vision, 8 Native Americans attended, including Bishop Margie de la Rosa.

Fr. Contreras gave a Character Education curriculum introduction lecture at the conference, and many of the participants, both English and Spanish speaking, expressed much interest in the curriculum. Many wanted to get the curriculum CDs from Fr. Contreras. Fr. Contreras not only is providing copies of the CD (with a donation), he is creating a mailing list and forum for all that want to be involved in it. Through this mailing list and forum, he will keep them all informed of what other leaders are doing with the curriculum, success stories, and provide updates and new materials, as it is available to the participants.

When Fr. Contreras and I went to Mexico, we distributed the Character Education CDs to the priests and clergy there. Since that visit only a short time ago, Fr. Jorge is already teaching 60 students Character Education and has another 140 leaders that are interested in the material.

In addition, Fr. Contreras will be teaching this curriculum on a radio station in California and has plans for expansion of the radio program. Fr. Jorge also plans to teach this curriculum on a radio station in Mexico. Bishop Kim and I had a lunch meeting with several of the Hispanic Clergy at the conference. Bishop Kim discussed about having a conference for 400 Hispanic clergy in 6 months from the conference date, and possibly inviting True Parents to this conference. The Hispanic Clergy became very excited about this and asked me excitedly, when and where! It is indeed a new time. The Hispanic clergy, together with the married priests, will play an important role in saving America. This was revealed in a spiritual vision that Bishop Margie de la Rosa had.

In addition, I believe very strongly that the Native Americans will play an important role along with this group. But their being called is not just for the Hispanic Clergy. They are being called to reach out and serve the whole. To serve our White brothers and sisters, Black brothers and sisters and all nations and all peoples.

My personal reflection of the conference was that it was successful, in the sense that we were able to draw good, serious, participants, and they left empowered, with tools to carry on their work.
“the Way of the Heavenly Father.”

At such intense times, what exactly is the role of America and the United Nations? Norfolk and Hawaii—which is located at the center of the Pacific Rim region—represent the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans and also all the five great oceans. Hawaii in the Pacific and Norfolk on the Atlantic bridge East and West and link North and South. With the support and protection of the American continent, Hawaii should bring together the island nations of the Pacific and preserve and defend the Pacific Rim region. I say this because the future of humankind lies in the preservation of the Pacific Rim region centering on the United States.

As I was fully aware of Heaven’s plans for this area, I invested thirty-three of the golden years of my life beginning in the early 1970s, for the sake of world peace, centering on America. I first visited Hawaii and prayed here at a critical moment, when I was on my way to meet Kim Il Sung of North Korea in 1991 with the purpose of bringing an end to the cold war era.

Ladies and gentlemen, I ask that you closely analyze the current state of affairs in the world and in the Pacific Rim. Although the days of communism are gone, even now powerful nations such as China and Russia are constantly on the lookout for opportunities to aggressively pursue their own interests with the powerless and small island nations. Regardless of what nation it may be, no small island nation by itself can deal with these powerful surrounding nations and their economic, political, or even military ambitions. Those nations, if they wanted to, could dominate any of the smaller nations in a single day, without shedding blood.

Only when peace and security are settled in the Pacific Rim can peace for all humankind be guaranteed. As I said, the small island nations by themselves will not be able to stop the incredible tsunami of powerful nations moving into the region. The time has come, therefore, for all the small island nations in the Pacific Rim sphere to unite as one. The small island nations dispersed in both the northern and southern regions of the Pacific, on either side of the equator, as well as Japan, Taiwan, the Philippines, Indonesia, Singapore, the Solomon Islands, Australia, New Zealand and other countries, should enter into an agreement as one body to sustain peace throughout the Pacific Rim sphere. This will secure peace and stability for all people.

What I am saying to you is that you have the responsibility to protect and save the oceanic realm, which is the resource on which humanity’s future depends, from the environmental destruction and conflicts that are worsening by the day, and shield the raw materials for the sake of peace in the future.

This year, in particular, a jubilee year in the providence, I have come to Hawaii as the first transit stop on my visit to America. I am now completing the providence of establishing God’s homeland and hometown.

True Parents’ Achievements

Distinguished guests, I have surmounted and triumphed over a course of inexpressible suffering and tribulations. I have not lived for personal glory or comfort. Even as I walked a thorny path hovering in a state between life and death, I received heaven’s seal and was fully aware of the destiny of God’s will. Thus, I held dearly to Heaven’s command to bring salvation to humanity as I carried on, like a phoenix, with my eventful life.

In Jerusalem, in 2003, on the foundation of the victory attained through such blood, sweat and tears, I had Jesus proclaimed as the king of kings before heaven and earth with the acknowledgement of Christianity, Judaism and Islam. Following this, in 2004, I was acknowledged as the King of Peace both in a United States Senate Office Building and at the Korean National Assembly. Subsequently, in June 2006, we held the Coronation Ceremony of the True Parents as the King and Queen of Peace in Heaven and Earth.

On September 12, 2005, I proclaimed throughout all of heaven and earth the establishment of the Universal Peace Federation (UPF), which will enable God’s providence to flourish. Now, it is entirely possible for the Universal Peace Federation to serve as an “Abel-type” counterpart to the United Nations in the era after the coming of heaven. It will renew the “Cain-type” United Nations and activate millions of Ambassadors for Peace throughout the world who have taken up my teachings, “the Way of the Heavenly Father”—which consists of principles of true love and the ideal of a true family—and, without fail, fulfill the heavenly will of creating “one family under God.”
Ladies and gentlemen, the Universal Peace Federation will be the vanguard carrying out the great revolution of restoring the original lineage of humankind back to that of Adam before the Fall through the International and Cross-cultural Marriage Blessing held on the international and international level. Some may laugh and say that it is impossible. Yet, please think about this: what do you think will happen if people from the United States and Russia marry across the boundaries of their nationalities through the International and Cross-cultural Marriage Blessing, according to the teachings of Rev. Moon, who does God’s works on His behalf. The two nations will become one family under God, who is the eternal, absolute Master. How could anyone harbor antagonism toward, much less point guns and knives at, a nation which billions of grandchildren from their own lineage make their home?

Distinguished guests, the holy task of restoring the 6.5 billion people of the world to the true lineage, and fulfilling God’s wish for an ideal kingdom of heaven that is the sacred reign of peace on earth, is being carried out in all corners of the world. At this very moment, people are in intense competition to fulfill their responsibility to hold Hoondok-Blessing Rallies in 12,000 locations in each of the 185 nations of the world.

Advocate of the Culture of Women

You have truly come to a meaningful occasion today. Please do not miss your chance to ride on the currents of heavenly fortune that will surge together during this important and sacred jubilee year. Take the lead in developing the realm of the oceans, which cover seventy-five percent of the earth. Where else will you find a treasure store of raw materials that hold the promise to resuscitate the earth endangered by all manner of pollution and resource exhaustion?

The oceanic era that has begun represents the women’s era. The Pacific Rim region must fulfill its mission as the vehicle for creating the culture of the oceanic sphere, which is the sphere of women’s culture. It transcends nations and transcends the ocean itself. Please inscribe this in your hearts. Again I say to you who have come to this meaningful occasion, please engrave this message on your hearts.

The families of your good ancestors in heaven are blessed. Numbering in the billions, they have come to the earth today and are hearing this message with you. They too must perfect themselves and they do so through you, their descendants. Thereby they advance to the position of true parents, true teachers and true owners and lords. Furthermore, they must become one in heart and body with the True Parents, the king of kings. They must uphold the True Parents’ standard absolutely, take an active role in carrying out their works, and be mobilized for the creation of the kingdom of heaven on earth and in heaven through a life of service and attendance. Please do not forget that in this way, the spirit world and the physical world exist as one entity, and move and breathe together.

There is one special request I would like to ask of you today. Please immerse yourselves in the contents of the “Peace Messages” and make them the guidelines of your life. These Messages of Peace are a summary of my teachings that can be found in over a thousand volumes of True Parents’ speeches. God will take the lead in uniting the spiritual and physical worlds to protect and aid you in creating the peaceful, ideal world of God’s desire in which you can enjoy eternal liberation and complete freedom. Aju!

May God’s blessings be with you, your nation and especially upon America and the Pacific Rim region. Thank you very much.

Note: This is the text of an official speech and does not include remarks made by True Father impromptu.†
In preparation for Holy Week, members and guests of the Los Angeles Chapter of ACLC gathered on Saturday, March 31, at Sadoc Christian Peace Family Church in Compton to hold the monthly ministers’ prayer breakfast. Fresh from the national ACLC conference in Houston, St. John’s Lutheran Church Pastoral Assistant Rev. Carlos Torres served as MC with a passion and enthusiasm that reflected the excitement generated at the Houston convocation.

Host pastor, Rev. Dr. Walter W. Millsap, gave the invocation followed by Rev. James Toldson, pastor of New Mt. Zion MBC, who gave the scripture reading. Dr. William R. Johnson, ACLC co-chairman, gave the Peace Message readings. In keeping with the morning’s theme of focusing on the restoration of the family, three ACLC pastors and their wives—the Millsap couple, the Henning couple and the Morris couple, led all participants in the blessing of their marriages.

The inspired Gospel selection performed by the Sadoc Christian Choir prepared the attendees to receive Minister Michelene Millsap’s clear and spirited talk about the ACLC goals and objectives. She asked the participants to join her in reciting the ACLC motto: “Restore the Family, Rebuild the Community, Renew the Nation and the World!” In addition, the new easy membership payment system was explained; the simplicity of the new system is really helping to spearhead new memberships. Special recognition of the seven new ACLC members was also given.

Keynote speaker Bishop John Morris gave his talk on “Restoring the Family to Build God’s Kingdom.” Both Bishop and Mrs. Morris have been appointed to be Ambassadors for Peace with the Universal Peace Federation because of their dedicated ministry called “IAM”, short for International Anointed Ministries of Jesus Christ. With humor, compassion, and precise teaching, Bishop Morris proceeded to share several practical points that we Christians need to be aware of in both our relationships with God as individuals, and in our intimate relationships as husband and wife. He really challenged us to bring God’s Blessing to our homes by continuously praying and “seeking His face.”

After the offering, we moved to Fellowship Hall where Sadoc members served a delicious homemade breakfast. In the warm, hospitable atmosphere everybody enjoyed the meal while reports and announcements were given, beginning with Ms. Norma Foster, director of the Hollywood Bowl Easter Sunrise Service. She encouraged all ACLC ministers to be involved with the annual historical Easter event. Several ACLC ministers, their choirs, and their members will be on the stage April 8th this year as 5,000 to 8,000 people gather in the early hours to celebrate the resurrection of Christ.

Rev. J.L. Briggs and Rev. Margaret Tate then gave inspirational reports about their experiences at the Houston ACLC National Convocation. In a different vein, new ACLC member Mrs. Linda Harris Foster, daughter of Sweet Alice Harris, founder of Parents of Watts (POW), gave a passionate testimony about how she grew up in a difficult neighborhood where so many tragedies were experienced. She fully endorses the important role that churches have in supporting and changing the community. Also, she decided to join the pilgrimage to Israel right there in the breakfast meeting—there was a real sense that the Holy Spirit was working on the righteous people of God.

Finally, Ms. Elizabeth Millsap described the Sadoc Christian Church Ministry, where youth can come and learn dance performance, computer skills, and, of course, the word of God.

Overall, this meeting can only be described, in the words of one participant, as “high spirited and the best yet!” Such a high spirit can only be attributed to the fact that host church pastor Rev. Dr. Millsap and his congregation and family supported not only this breakfast meeting but continually support the work of Peace Ambassadors and the ACLC ministry. Thank you, Sadoc Christian Peace Family Church!
With warm remarks, Bishop Cecil G. Riley, New York ACLC Co-Chairman, welcomed our ACLC members and guests to the Freedom Hall Church of God on Saturday, March 10. After greeting everyone, he asked us to move around and sit at different tables other than with the people we came with, in order to get to know each other and make new friends. Bishop Riley then introduced Rev. Bruce Grodner, New York ACLC Co-Chairman.

Rev. Grodner started by saying that not only is Bishop Riley the bishop and pastor to his congregation but he also stands in the position of parent. He emphasized the need for unity and cooperation between different denominations and religions. Recently, he said, a friend had asked him if he knew the reason why God was not residing at the UN. In answering the question for Beryl, his first name, God was not at the UN because of religion. Religions are not represented at the UN because they have such a hard time getting along with each other. He continued by saying that the body of Christ, the Christian denominations, must come together in order to accomplish God’s will and make this possible. Rev. Grodner asked, how does the human spirit grow? He answered, through good action. In concluding, he said the more you invest, the more you will receive, and he encouraged all, as Bishop Riley had done, to get to know you that you are not what you think you are.

In essence, we have to be careful who we listen to; if we study the Word about what we have heard, we will discover that what they heard influenced their direction. However, I know who I’m listening to. We must come together as one family under God. In the beginning, we would discover that we were all together prior to the time of Babel. We were all the children of the family of God, he proclaimed. He said society would have us believe that anyone who associates with Rev. Sun Myung Moon is headed for destruction, but it depends on who we are listening to. We have to learn how to listen critically to the voices we hear in the world. We have to understand that God would have us come together as one family.

We also have to be careful when we get to the gate of the Kingdom of Heaven because there are people who have set traps for us. When you get to the Kingdom you will find wells that you did not dig, vineyards that you did not plant. Let us not forget how we got there. Moses warned the Israelites as they were entering the land of Canaan that they had to be careful who they listened to. You will find people who tell you that you are not what you think you are, so you have to be careful who you listen to. You have to listen to the right voice. You have to walk with the right crowd. He continued: “I am here to tell you that you are in the right place. The right voice will always give you hope. Who’s got your ear? I can’t tell. However, I know who I’m listening to. All of us are to become one family under God.”

Following Dr. McGhee’s sermon, Rev. Grodner introduced the Holy Wine ceremony and invited three couples to the front as representative couples. Rev. Kendricks of the First Grace Baptist Church in Harlem was invited to say a few words and to lead the offering for our keynote speaker. As the offering was taken, the choir from Dr. Kenneth Davis’ church blessed us by singing, “We Are Blessed.” Rev. Kendricks concluded the offering with a prayer.

In closing, Bishop Riley noted that black folk get a hard time when they associate with Rev. Moon. However, we are proud to do so, he said, and when we read the scripture we must remember that it was a black man who helped Jesus. He complemented the many people who performed with very hard work to bring the monthly breakfast meetings together, and concluded the meeting with a prayer.

18. Verses 18-19, where Moses gives guidance about who the Israelites should listen to. He shared about growing up in Virginia and being familiar with the flying of bats. He and his brother spent time observing the bats and noticed how they were always able to avoid collisions, not because of their sight, but because of what they heard, that what they heard influenced their direction.
Mr. Jum-Nung Kim and Mr. Tae Ho Choi, both former high school principals near Busan, arrived in New Jersey on Monday, March 19th. On Tuesday, March 20, we began our activities with a lunch meeting together with a local middle-school principal. He was moved by the heart and commitment of our peace ambassadors and after lunch we toured his school and met some of his teachers and students. We discussed the differences in approach to education between Korea and America. We look forward to our local educator’s involvement in the Ambassador for Peace initiative. That evening we held an event in United Missionary Baptist Church, where Pastor Sykes testified to the great vision of True Parents and the Ambassadors for Peace program. Mr. Kim spoke from his heart about how True Parents saved his life and helped in his recovery from cancer.

On Day 3 we toured local schools, including one Catholic elementary school. The principal is one of our peace ambassadors and she conducted the tour. In every class the children stood up and greeted us with the phrase “Peace be with you.” When we visited New Hope School, the children greeted us with a beautiful rendition of the Song of Unity. Finally, at Jin-a pre-school, Mrs. Christal Brunkhorst took the time to show us the “Peace Labyrinth” the children use as part of their education in “Peace Studies” that is integrated into their daily activities. “We also instruct the children in problem solving and conflict resolution,” Mrs Brunkhorst informed us. That evening we held our second event at a local hotel. Over 100 people gathered to hear Mr. Choi share about his deep love for True Parents and their work with the Ambassadors for Peace.

Day 4 was spent out on the ocean, sightseeing in spectacular New York Harbor. Fortunately, we had the privilege to welcome the New York delegation on this outing. We held our closing banquet in a restaurant overlooking the New Jersey Palisades and a beautiful view of Manhattan Island. We bid farewell with hopes and dreams of more and deeper opportunities for educational exchange of ideas. New Jerusalem Community is grateful for the love of True Parents expressed through our Korean Ambassadors for Peace, and we look forward to ongoing developments for true peace.
Witnessing in the Age of the Internet:
New UPF Website Educates the World about the Life and Works of True Parents

by Nancy Hanna

were on the Internet do you refer your contacts for a basic introduction to True Parents?

For True Father’s 88th Birthday, the Universal Peace Federation launched this website to resurrect True Father’s name on the Internet and introduce the public to the extraordinary life and work of True Parents. The site is a well-designed, well-organized and easy-to-navigate website with the latest in web technology and design. These days, the most effective way to get out the word about something is through a well-done website. This site is an invaluable witnessing resource to reach out to friends, family and important contacts.

View Principle Lectures on Internet TV

One important feature of the website is the prominent links inviting people worldwide to view Divine Principle lectures in the privacy of their home and download the mp3 audio of the lectures. On the His Teaching section, there are links to Kevin McCarthy’s Divine Principle lectures as well as presentations on Unificationism for people of all faiths and backgrounds.

Visitors can also see internet TV programs about True Parents’ projects on the His Works section through links to excellent internet TV programs on another UPF website, Universal Peace TV, www.uptv.org. For example there are programs about Ambassadors for Peace, Hyun Jin Nim speaking to youth about Service For Peace and the Ieruing Strait project.

Testimonies of Prominent Leaders about True Father and His Works

If something is really good, not only the parties directly involved will testify to its value but others as well. In public relations this is known as a ‘third party’ endorsement. Therefore, an important feature of the website are many testimonials from prominent religious, academic, civil society and political leaders who have who have worked with True Father and our movement for decades and more, as from Ambassadors for Peace. Many of the testimonies are excerpts taken from the new book Peace King: Essays on the Life and Work of Dr. Sun Myung Moon. The contents of this important book can reach the whole world via the Internet.

His Life, His Teachings, His Family, His Works

The website has four main sections: His Life, His Teachings, His Family, His Works. Each section has a flash photo show and many pages of relevant content. One of the most important website features are testimonials by prominent leaders about True Father himself, his teachings and his works.

His Life: This section has a biography of True Father, a description of True Father’s lifestyle, the historical interview with Dr. Frederick Sontag, many family photos, information about the unjust persecution True Father has suffered, especially his United States imprisonment, and a wonderful section titled What Others Say About Him, with personal testimonies about True Father from religious leaders, scholars, heads of state and political leaders.

His Teachings: This section introduces Divine Principle, Unification Thought and True Father’s Sermons. There are positive scholarly comments about Divine Principle from prominent religious scholars and leaders, a sample sermon and--most important--internet TV presentations of Divine Principle and MP3 audio downloads.

His Family: A biography of True Mother and short biographical information of several of the True Children as well as many family photos are featured in this section. The His Family section introduces True Mother as a world leader in her own right and members of three generations of the Moon family who are active in carrying out True Father’s work.

His Works: This is by far the largest section, since True Father’s works are numerous and cover nearly every field of human endeavor. A flash show on the main page shows the scope of True Father’s work, ranging from interreligious work to social service to a world-class ballet company. The 18 sections of His Works include the categories of religious organizations, educational institutions, media, the arts, humanist aid, etc. Each section has a description of the organizations, photos and where appropriate, a link to the respective websites.

Some of the many comments UPF has received about reverendsunmyung-moon.org

Second Generation

I’m a 2nd Generation Unificationist and for many years I struggled with the fact that there wasn’t a site where I could direct my friends to so that they could learn more about True Parents, the Movement, and our teachings and impact in the world. Other sites (familyfed.org) were more historical archives, or for people who were already members.

Especially after seeing www.mormon.org, I was really impressed with it as a witnessing tool and felt that we really needed something similar. So it was a real breath of fresh air and even a relief when I found your site: it’s exactly what the doctor ordered. Especially the multimedia section is really important for younger people as it actively shows the breadth and power of True Parent’s thought and activity. Thank you so much for this site, it’s an answer to my prayers and I know it will be a gateway for many people to find True Parents. Keep expanding the multimedia

American Leader

Congratulations to you and anyone else involved in creating the beautiful website at reverendsunmyung-moon.com. Lovely graphics, attractive design, and great content. Thanks for this wonderful gift to all our movement!

European Leader:

Congratulations to you and anyone else involved in creating the beautiful website at reverendsunmyung-moon.com. Lovely graphics, attractive design, and great content. Thanks for this wonderful gift to all our movement!

How you can help

Translate the site: UPF has already received some inquiries about translating the site into other languages. The UPF will grant permission for authorized persons to create such translations. All requests and correspondence should be emailed to HYPER-LINK info@reverendsunmyung-moon.org info@reverendsunmyung-moon.org

Give feedback: New content will be added regularly. UPF welcomes your suggestions and content contributions. Material should be introductory in nature.

Spread the word: We also ask that leaders and members let our whole movement know about this invaluable new resource to witness to our family, friends and VIP contacts about the work of True Parents, through official and unofficial e-news, memos and announcements. English is today’s universal language, and thus people in every country can learn about the life and works of True Parents through this site.

I can help you organize what you know and fill in the missing branches! And a family tree makes a great gift: Christmas, birthday or anniversary.

This poem is dedicated to all little store-front churches in America, and throughout the world.

The little store-front churches
Have a congregation
Of about 50 to 300 membership

This small congregation of people
May seem insignificant to some,
But they work very hard,
Providing all the spirituality
That keeps the community strong.

The little store-front Church is supported
By the little one dollar donation,
It's not much,
But it helps out.

The usher board sells Saturday afternoon dinners
To but their beautiful white uniforms
They wear to usher in the congregations
To their seats.

The senior choir gives a little concert to purchase
Their beautiful robes they wear on Sunday morning
To sing the songs of Zion.

The little children go door-to-door
Selling raffle tickets
To help out.

The entire community
Gets involved in supporting
Their little store-front church.

The Pastor
Well he's always available
He stops whatever he's doing
When the call comes in.

Whether sickness in the home,
Some on stranded,
Tragedies on the highways...
Just call him – he'll be there.

Family problems
Or the last hour
Just call him.

This poem was inspired from a recent trip
To Boston, Massachusetts
I visited Plymouth Rock,
For the first time
There I sense the spirit of those pilgrim-fathers
Who bravely crossed the Atlantic
With one goal in mind,
That was to serve GOD.

When they arrived
The very first building was
A little store-front church.

From there came
The greatest Nation in the world:
those beautiful skyscraper buildings
The bridges that run from river to river
The roads we built that will take us
From one end of the country to the other
Museums that are packed
With awards and great accomplishments
All the beautiful homes we just marvel at.

As we pass by.
Yes, all that, and much, much more.
Then, what has happened to us?
Have we forgotten God?
Have we forgotten those Pilgrim Fathers?
Have we forgotten the sacrifices it took
To build this great nation?

Well, take a look at us today:
Family break-down which is the very core of our society
Immorality that is out of control
Young people are confused
And continue looking for stimulation.

Have we wandered, off course?
The answer is yes, yes we have.

God will never give up.

When He's rejected by the strong,
He finds some other way
Recently, Rev. and Mrs. Sun Myung Moon
Engaged in a 50 state speaking tour, preaching:
"Rebuild the family,
Restore the community,
Renew the Nation,
And the World."

The Pastors of these little store-front churches said,
"You are not alone, we will stand with you."
And stand they did.

This small congregation of people
Packed their little store-front churches
With love, Prayers, and good wishers
50 consecutive nights.

God is always looking
For a way He can bless His children
And lift them up.

This is the time,
A new Millennium

God is calling once again.
We may not understand or agree sometimes, for He said, "My ways are not your ways, said the Lord."

He has sent his messenger, a new voice,
The Rev. and Mrs. Sun Myung Moon,
True Parents of humanity, calling,
"In the name of Jesus,
Let us rebuild the family, restore the community,
Renew the nation, and the world."

Yes, that's our calling today.
Are you with me?
Are you really with me?
If you are, then
Let us rebuild the Family,
Let us restore the Community,
Let us renew the Nation.
And let us restore the World.

IN MEMORIAM

Sumiko Murayama Miyagi

My beloved wife, Sumiko Miyagi, passed away on Friday night, March 2, 2007 due to cancer.

She is the mother of five children, Takayasu (10th grade at Mark Keppel High, Alhambra), Shuhel (9th grade at Keppell, Yoshukuni (6th grade at Brightwood Elementary), Yuka (5th grade at Brightwood), and Mikka (3rd grade at Brightwood).

The Miyagis are part of the 1,800 couples blessing and are best known as the hosts of the Nikkei Parents’ Day, perhaps the largest Parents’ Day celebration in America.

Brief biography:

Sumiko Miyagi, 50, was a hardworking mother and music lover. She joined our church when she was a high school student in Yamagata, Japan, and joined the 1,800 couples blessing group through her blessing to Ted Miyagi. She served as a full time church member in Texas and Louisiana for many years until joining her husband in California to raise their family.

She had been on hospice care at home due to cancer since she was released from the hospital last December. Her husband Ted is the Monterey Park District leader for the Los Angeles Peace Family church and a leader for the Los Angeles Peace Family church and a leader.

I want to announce the sudden passing of our dear brother, Mr. Elizardo (Eli) Santiago. He passed away at Beth Israel Hospital in Passaic, N.J. He was 54 years old.

Mr. Santiago joined our TP and the Unification Movement on May 26, 1971. He joined in the church of Rev. “Papa-san” Choi in the San Francisco Bay area, where Eli was studying Math on a full scholarship at San Francisco University.

In the early days of the American movement, Mr. Santiago was very active serving 2 years as a missionary to Valenzuela and 5 years of Mobile Fundraising Team in America. Mr. Santiago was blessed in 1982 (2075 couples) to Mrs. Sun Runyang Lee Santiago.

They have 2 children: Adam (18) and Jadkin (16). Both are students at the Clifton High School. After 5 years of MPT, he worked in New York City for Christina Bahm and Go World Travel. He was also a dedicated Sunday School teacher in our New Jerusalem community and more recently worked as a financial consultant.

Interview With Rev. Dong Woo Kim

I first met Rev. Dong Woo Kim over ten years ago in Toronto. He had just been transferred from Korea. His timing couldn’t have been any better. I remember many of the Korean and Canadian members not getting along, feeling misunderstood and overlooked by their brethren and all of them wanting someone to simply sit and listen to their hurt. All I remember thinking was, great, another Korean dude who won’t be able to relate. He doesn’t know what he was getting into. Just two weeks later I was proven wrong.

Rev. Dong Woo Kim is a likable guy, you can’t help but like him. He came to Toronto, that huge smile on his face, that pleasing demeanor and all around charismatic personality and in two weeks, he had the brothers and sisters in Toronto feeling loved and understood. His secret? He did exactly what they wanted, he sat down with them one-by-one and listened.

When Rev. Kim was made regional director of New Jersey - what is now proudly referred to as The New Jerusalem - he worked his magic there and to everyone’s great surprise and happiness, Rev. Kim is now the overseer of education for the American Unification movement.

On Wednesday, April 18th, 2007, I was fortunate enough to get an hour of his time for a short interview where I asked him various questions about the education of second generation in America and Hyun Jin Nim vision for second gen. Following is Rev. Kim’s responses, edited only for it’s format and grammar.

* * * * *

I’m basically in charge of the education of 2nd generation right now. I’m not in a certain position of responsibility within that umbrella, but I act as an overall advisor to those within that umbrella. I am also in charge of the education of first generation overall. So I don’t make decisions. We already have department directors or responsible persons, so my position is one of building up and integrating a system bridging 1st and 2nd gen. That existing departments under the umbrella of education in American Movement can incorporate themselves into this is the kind of mission that I have.

Do you know what the ideal education for 2nd gen is? From my experience talking with many 1st gen’s, I’ve come to really understand why 1st gen. will not be able to know what the ideal education for 2nd gen. is because they have different roots.

My understanding of my present position is as an advisor. I can give advice and share my life experiences with 2nd gen. to help them find their own, true way of doing things but though I’ve been put in charge of overseeing the education of our members in the American movement, I don’t have any answers or a vision or way for the creation of the best educational system for second generation in America. Only our brothers and sisters in 1st gen. are leaders in their own right can create the ideal educational system for their younger brother’s and sisters. But I want to be very clear about this concept and my statement. My main point in saying this is how can 2nd gen. reach a point in their understanding where they can come to the right means to create that ideal educational system?

I believe that the responsibility to build the foundation of faith is the mission of 1st gen. and the mission of the 2nd gen. is to achieve the foundation of substance. I can accept that idea and that understanding but as we see in the bible, the parents, in order to achieve the whole restoration, the parents’ generation must fulfill the foundation of faith, and of course the children must go the way of the foundation of substance in order to fulfill restoration, however, they must together do this under one condition: there must be some internal condition or external way of inheriting the foundation of faith. So whether you are 1st gen. or 2nd gen., you must discover what that condition is. Whereupon everyone can agree, “Oh this is the condition whereupon everyone can inherit the foundation of faith from the 1st gen. to 2nd gen.”

When we discover how to pass on the faith inheritance in such a way that 2nd gen. will fully come to realize their position in the restorative process, then 1st gen. will accept everything 2nd gen. does from that point on and will support them, in whatever way they go because they have inherited the foundation of faith.

1st gen.’s mentality - or what we have tried to do to this world - is to apply the principle of restoration. But the 2nd gen. aren’t supposed to live in THAT world. Originally, the 2nd gen. is supposed to live in the original world of the principle of creation. That is a difference between 1st and 2nd gen. that has come in a big difference. But again, without some kind of 1st gen. influence, 2nd gen. cannot build up the ideal. So if I say, “Only 2nd gen. can create the ideal...” I don’t mean without 1st gen. No. We should do this together. But the perspectives of 1st gen., their experiences, may have certain limits when creating the best and ideal education for 2nd gen. That’s my main point.

2nd gen. can say, “We have to build up our own system,” but this cannot come from character or personality. In what sense can 2nd gen. inherit and build up that inheritance of the foundation of faith? If we can know this, then 2nd gen.’s foundation of substance - the many things our 2nd gen. are doing - can directly connect with 1st gen. and the results of their whole generation and their whole vertical tradition. Upon this foundation, 2nd gen. can build and create their path.

I had a very strong experience when I was CARP leader in Korea. I was CARP leader the same year the first time 2nd gen. became college students - children from the 36 couples, 72, and 124 couples. The age gap between myself and them was actually less than 5 or 6 years. We were almost the same generation on the campus. I was so interested in them because I was beginning to realize my future - how my childhood friends will come to have true families. I became so anxious. I questioned them internally: who are they? What is the difference between them and myself? I was really thirsty to know what the difference is between 1st gen. and 2nd gen. before God. I couldn’t see any difference in the general areas of life, like during witnessing and church activities, but what I discovered was, that once 2nd gen. comes to discover who they are – by that I mean when they find God within them, they start to build up this mutual relationship with God and it naturally come to have true families. I was so interested in them and thought, “Why is this difference so much! I never imagined that kind of level of living. That’s why I was wowed.

As an educator, I try to build things up but my results are less compared to even a single 2nd gen.’s results who is really aligned with God’s heart, with God’s spirit. That was my conclusion from my experience as CARP leader in Korea. That is why I’m saying now what is not only the perspective of 2nd gen. But the perspective of 1st gen. who have contributed an article to this section. Spread the word, communicate, and link yourself to the rest of America by subscribing to the paper and submitting your voice at newvog@gmail.com for this section. We are looking to fill this section of the paper with the following submissions: articles written by our first and second generation focusing on second generation – that includes ALL second gen’s!

As subjective as you please, but keep in mind, that as this is a public paper, be respectful in your opinions. If you have an idea for submissions to this section, please let us know at newvog@gmail.com, and send something in. In keeping with the perspectives of 1st gen., their experiences, may have certain limits when creating the best and ideal education for 2nd gen. That’s my main point.

I don’t mean without 1st gen. No. We should do this together. But the perspectives of 1st gen., their experiences, may have certain limits when creating the best and ideal education for 2nd gen. That’s my main point.
Some people might not want to look into the lives and thoughts of suicide bombers. Said and Khaled are two normal young men, who are best friends. They work at an auto-mechanic shop and spend their evenings drinking tea and smoking. One day they are recruited to be suicide bombers for a mission that will take place the next day. They are given the night to spend with their families, but they cannot tell them, for fear of discovery. On their way across the border, the two friends become separated. With the mission in jeopardy, they are now searching for each other and also searching if they really want to fulfill the mission.

Having been to Israel twice, I was interested to see this movie, not only because it was nominated in the Foreign Language Film category at the 2006 Academy Awards, but also because it was actually made by Palestinians and shot in the West Bank. I felt that it would really show the situation from their perspective. I always wondered what would drive someone to the point of being a suicide bomber. On the way to the mission, the two young men are assured that when they die, two angels will meet them and bring them to heaven. But are you really a martyr if you believe that you will be rewarded for what you are doing? Is that really sacrifice?

This movie raises many questions such as that. One part of the movie that really struck me was a conversation between a young woman, Suha, and Khaled. She had just found out about their mission, and is asking him what the people they leave behind are expected to do once they are gone. She is the daughter of a respected martyr, and she tells him that dying for a cause is not the only way to fight for what you leave for the ones you leave behind? For me, Suha was a very important character in the story. As a daughter of a martyr, she has already lived through what the act does to the people who care for the martyr, and she knows that it doesn’t change anything in the big picture. She has lived in the world, and she is trying to tell people that there are other ways to promote their cause and bring change. She believes that violence only creates more violence, not peace. She just started to fall in love with Said, and you can feel her pain when she discovers what he is going to do.

The movie was shot in Palestine, which brings a realism and authenticity to the movie, that would not be there if it was shot anywhere else. Most people have not been there, and it gives us a little taste as to what their world is like. Many of us only see what is on the news. It is easy for us to judge other people, when they do things for reasons we do not understand. Maybe this is what I found so chilling and surprising about the movie. It made me sympathetic toward suicide bombers. They had real reasons to want to carry out the mission. These young men were not crazy. I actually did not find them crazy.

The people in the movie that scared me were the organizers of the mission. The fact that they thought that they had the right to send these young men to their death, and confidently tell them that they were doing the right thing, and that they were going to heaven scared me.

I would recommend this movie to anyone, and especially to people who have been to Israel or the Middle East, or is thinking of going. This is not your typical Hollywood movie, with special effects and famous actors. It shows the real human story.
second gen can create an ideal educational system or way for their children and sisters. Of course our role as 1st gen. is very clear. We can support our children and we can see whether they develop in a peaceful way or not. That’s all. Until they can discover, and take the right way, based upon the foundation of faith, then their role that we can do, will not be much higher or better than what we can do as 1st gen.

Perception is thinking, thinking is perception. Perspective is very different. It comes from cultural background and from what is studied. It comes from an internal base. So when we look at a certain situation, there is always two aspects: one is perspective and the other one is perception. When it comes to how we think about the Unification traditions, we can say perception is the Divine Principle facts. But why? Because there is a church system and Japanese Unification church system and American Unification church system try to implement those Divine Principle facts according to their cultural backgrounds and many different situations, the implementation may not be totally the same among those three countries. That’s why the key to implementing the Divine Principle facts and create a successful foundation or result anywhere is to build up a certain perspective from the perception.

Hyun Jin Nim recently and has, ever since he concerned himself with 2nd generation more directly, in the past as well really wanted to build up an educational pipeline. I don’t know if that’s the right term to use or not. Maybe it’s better to say ‘educational track’. Education for our 2nd gen., especially elementary, middle and high school students is not what happens in the camps. At the camps there are many programs to create friendships and have interest-relationship with other blessed children. There is an identity educational component to the camps - a ‘who am I?’ and then, on top of that, there is the desire to incorporate valuable Divine Principle fact into camp experiences. I don’t think these three components put together in one week or ten days will bring lasting results. I don’t think it works.

Hyun Jin Nim has said that we need to evaluate how our present educational systems is composed for 2nd gen. – what kind of elements should education incorporate? What aspects? In order to fulfill hyun jin nim’s ideal, we really need to figure out, how many aspects, how many components are being taught in our second generation department then see how these aspects and components connect, react, and develop. So we really need to implement an educational perspective to evaluate what we have then and we need to build up a different educational system and provide a new, overall educational track.

So we need to decide, for example, on summer camp: what constitutes elementary, middle and junior high school camp and college student programs? They are all different, but at present, we only use different age groups to decide this difference. There is no clear step-by-step constitution of each level of education.

So we are challenged now to figure out how to divide the levels for camp and other educational programs and give reason for that division, and provide what is being taught at those levels. This needs to be figured out and set as the pipeline from which all the departments will build from.

This is my basic understanding of Hyun Jin Nim’s explanation of the educational pipeline. STF education and the second year formula course is also included within this whole educational pipeline. Educational leaders in America a particularly focusing on building up one track. So from elementary school, Junior highschool, senior highschool, college with CARP and how this 2nd gen. course includes STF is 2nd gen. education right now. But the most important point is family education. Without making sure what family education is, we cannot mean teaching verbally or giving lectures to children in the family - just showing, what we are doing as educators with these programs means nothing. Education within the family and Family Education is a more important, fundamental fact in the education of our second gen. In other words, if there is no such spiritual, heartistic, Divine Principle educational component within the family, then second gen, no matter what kind of amazing education track we have, cannot follow or fit within this education. So the most important question we have at this moment is what is family tradition? How should blessed central families live? What kind of family life do they have and should they have? This is very serious, the education center is to build up all these components of education from the first level to – well on ward.

It is our aim to build up a long-term educational track to include to the 2nd gen. This year we have been developing each department in the educational area on a short-term goal as well. We are basically developing a strong college education center on CARP. Centering on Naokimi Ushiroda , the new director of 2nd Gen. Department, for junior and senior high school, we are continuing on building up the S T F program, which is a ‘lack of faith’ oriented program and leadership program.

Many 2nd gen. look at 2nd gen. blessed couples and they wonder because they cannot figure out what is the model of a 2nd gen. blessed family? When they look at college 2nd gen. , they ask who here is the model? Middle and high schoolers look at their older brothers and sisters and they often see what is the wrong model. That’s why in short-term goals in each area the staff is to create the right model in each age level. These models will be incorporated into the long-term vision – the educational pipeline. When we look at any organization or system on the whole, they all have certain problems they try to solve in the short-term. We are seeing on the overall point of view, we have the same problems. We, like them, try our best to try to contain these problems but we have a lot of limitations in terms of what we can do, what can be done, especially where 2nd gen. are concerned. I don’t really want to deal with the short-term situation because there is no short-term answer. The only answer I have for solving problems we face is we really need to give vision to 2nd gen. We need to build a real vision. And if we successfully instill ownership in them, the key is the giving of them the vision, then I think in a short time, 2nd gen. will really change. But this kind of result depends actually on leadership commitment. 1st gen. like to say, “Okay, now 2nd gen. can take leadership.” But almost next to none of them have real vision. That’s why I always want to work together with our youth to build up a vision. Once we discover that vision, all 1st gen. should give everything to 2nd gen. - all organizations, all power, and everything to 2nd gen. so that they can become real owners. I am very clear on this point in my mind. Hyun Jin Nim does not think that he is solely a leader of 2nd gen. right now. He is concerned with the bigger picture, really thinking about our entire movement, including 1st and 2nd gen. in his thoughts. This is what I’ve come to understand from talking with and listening to him. I really listen to what he’s talking about, try to understand where he is heading.

For the future, I believe Hyun Jin Nim really wants to build up a strong internal foundation for 2nd gen. so they can take ownership for the future providence. On the other hand, Hyun Jin Nim doesn’t want to ignore 1st gen. He realizes now how much 1st gen. has done. Because of their sacrifices, Father was able to build up this foundation and based on this foundation, Hyun Jin Nim can work now. So what I received from him is no matter what kind of idea, or theory, or values he spoke of before, now he is very clear about wanting to see until between 1st and 2nd gen. That is his main point that I have been able to gather from listening to him. A couple of years ago, Hyun Jin Nim’s perspective was very clear – only 2nd gen. That was my honest feeling! That was everybody’s feeling. But now, he has totally changed. He is very clearly saying that he will try to build up this 2nd gen. to the level he wants to. But this is not just vision, he needs to back up his vision with actions. As he said, he needs to support his vision by working and trying to convey it to the people, he is working tirelessly to do so. But these are all based on the principle that he is solely a leader of 2nd gen.

The Center for Education at UTS is announcing the Curriculum Mini-Grant Program. The mini-grants program offers grants between $500 - $1,000 for the creation of professional curricula and teaching tools for the diverse age groups within the Unification movement. The Center for Education at UTS wishes to encourage the development and publication of effective and creative curricula or teaching tools that can be used throughout the country.

There is a tremendous need for effective curricula in each of the target age groups. Currently, some centers are using the national curriculum while others have simply done their best to teach Divine Principle or the Bible or a combination of the two. Then there are other church centers that are not doing any kind of educational program because they don't have any type of curriculum or outline from which to work. Therefore, we wish to encourage those with the desire, experience or means to develop curricula that can be used in: K-6 Sunday Schools, Youth Ministries, Young Adult Ministries and even Adult Ministries.

In addition, there is a need to create effective teaching tools such as games, activities, specialized felt board teaching tools, dramas and similar creative tools for use in each of these ministries. Have you designed a game or teaching tool that you have found to be effective? Why not professionalize it or expand it so that others can use it?

Those who wish to apply need to review the grant requirements and submit an application. go to www.centerforeducation.net for more Grant Information and details.

Hyung Jin Moon is the author of THE MOMENT and A BALD HEAD AND A STRAWBERRY

A TRUE PERSON must be able to remain firm in his concentration, steadfast in his mindfulness and gratitude for God’s blessings, and unwavering in his ability to selflessly Love. These are some enormous requirements, but they are our guide. Like travelers using the North Star to tell which way is north, the true person sees focus, mindfulness, and selfless love as his guides to tell which direction to go.

As Unificationists we must be able to use all the faculties of our minds and bodies to embody the True Love that our True Parents have shown and given us. Thus, we embark on the training contained in this book—to understand how we have been saved from suffering, and how we are now empowered to become true parents ourselves and serve this world with humility, courage, and compassion.
