Welcome back to 'The Victorious Gospel of True Parents' Session 5

I'm your host Tyler Hendricks

Our title is: A True Leader

1996 is a landmark date: The Second Founder

Father's Words:

"The time has come when Eve can emerge to restore the world. This Eve is the embodiment of the Holy Spirit and the representative of all women on earth."

What we have here is a picture of Deborah, the one female judge of Israel; and here is part of the song she and her general sang:

"Villagers in Israel would not fight, they held back until I, Deborah, arose, until I arose, a mother in Israel. (Judges: 5 7-9)

Caption: Leading with the Word

God chose new leaders when war came to the city gates but not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

My heart is with Israel's princes, with the willing volunteers among the people. Praise the Lord!
(Judges 5: 7-9)

True Mother began with a wife's testimony to the world when she went out as a leader, following Father's call to go forward on her own. She went out with a wife's testimony throughout Korea in 1991 that her husband was the Lord, Messiah, Savior and True Parents. In her testimony she spoke as His wife. She spoke as knowing Him as no one else does.

She said:

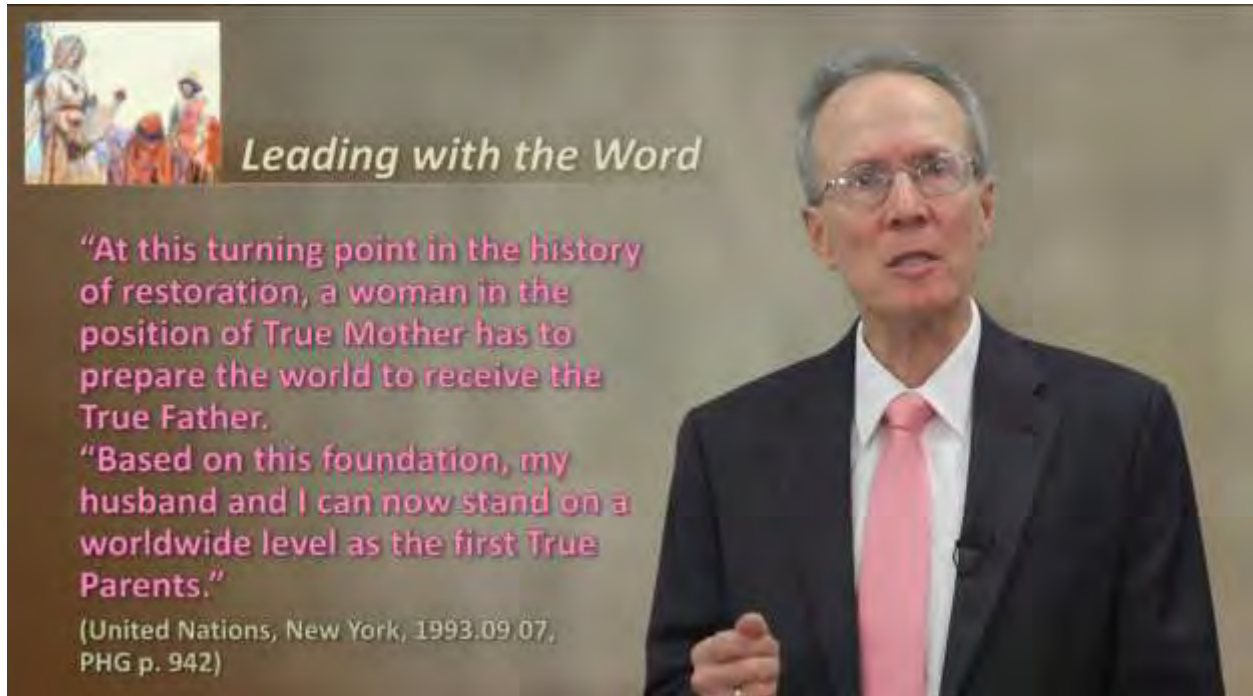

"I believe that only God knows my husband better than I do.
(Feb. 15, 2002, PHG 141, 144)

She, who knew Father best, testified to His uncompromising, unyielding righteousness.

She said:

"There is no negotiation or compromise in matters of right and wrong, or good and evil, and there is no yielding when it comes to devoting our lives and love to God."
(Feb 15, 2002, PHG 141, 144)

Within two years, she was giving this testimony within the halls of the United Nations.

She said:

"At this turning point in the history of restoration, a woman in the position of True Mother has to prepare the world to receive the True Father. Based on this foundation, my husband and I can now stand on a worldwide level as the first True Parents."
(Sept. 7, 1993 at the United Nations, New York - PHG p. 942)

What was the path that True Mother took to arrive at the UN?

In 1992, April 10th, True Mother founded the Women's Federation for World Peace and she immediately launched a global speaking tour. Here she pronounced teachings that, I at least, had never heard from True Father, although they are completely Principled. She pointed out the difference between an individualistic, competitive model and a relational, complimentary model. She called the world's women to the world women's movement to adopt this model.

She said:

"Our ideal is to seek out tasks that men cannot perform, that is, tasks that can be performed only by women, so that we can join men in complementarity in order to establish true families."
(1992.09.24, PHG p. 927)

And Mother made the word to the women very clear:

We need to establish a model for the whole world ... the realization of true love in which we embrace our husbands and raise our children properly. And thus was launched the Women's Federation, which was as it happens, the precursor to the Family Federation.

As also noted by Mother:

"By doing so, (by making this model) we need to develop the Family Federation for World Peace."
(Aug. 26, 1992; PHG 921)

Father, knowing what goes into creating speaking events, noted Mother's accomplishment, which was the accomplishment of all Unification women. Speaking about one of Mother's big speeches in Japan, Father said:

They asked how we could possibly gather 10,000 people in just 20 days. But we did it, gathering 15,000 people...

Four months later, about 160,000 people attended the inaugural assembly of the Women's Federation for World Peace. (In Korea)

And Father pronounced a startling and unexpected outcome. He gave all the credit to Mother. He said:

"By Mother taking leadership like this, she substantially came to stand right beside me."

And then He reminded us of the Principle that a husband cannot be in God's kingdom without his wife by his side, and parents cannot be there without their children.

Father said:

"For me to go to the heavenly kingdom, both of us have to go together, and the children will have to follow after us."
(CBG 12-4-1 1, 1992.04.13)

We know that this is true for all of us ordinary people, but we for some reason don't expect to hear that Father's arrival in Heaven is just the same. He depends on Mother. No Mother, no kingdom of heaven, and no children, no kingdom of heaven. The Principle is unyielding.

The surprises kept coming in terms of Father's elevating the status of Mother.

Caption: Authority Through Responsibility

Father said:

"Mother shouldered a great responsibility when she had to stand on the front line for three years, from 1992 until 1995. The True Family was welcomed worldwide."
(CBG 8-1-5 5, 1996.01.01)

"I gradually handed over my authority to Mother in a process that continued for three or four years."
(CBG 12-3-2 3, 1997.01.02)

This was actually the fulfillment of Father's Words spoken in 1990, amazing Words that perhaps few of us noticed or were even aware of. He said:

Even when I am alone, I represent True Parents. And the same goes for Mother. When she is alone, she represents True Parents.

Fundamentally, I am the first founder of the church and Mother is the second founder of the church.
(CBG 12-4-3 3, 1990.03.27)

That citation is from the Chambumo Gyeong. And you can see the rest of the Speech online, where we read the following:

From now if Mother goes to visit mission countries, no one can question why only Mother may visit or ask where Father is, because Mother represents Father and is also a founder of the church."

(1990.03.27, World Mission Center, New Yorker Hotel - interpreter's version)

And while we're on the subject, here is a citation given by Father during a talk in Hawaii when True Parents were on their way to meet Kim Il Sung, again an interpreter's translation, Father said:

This is Mother's age. Father is even preparing to put Mother in Father's place.
(True Mother's Role' Hawaii, Nov. 27, 1991)

And here is another critical word from Father concerning Mother's position that Father was elevating Mother into by Father's support and calling. He said:

I am sure that all of you know that the title 'second founder of the church,' which makes her status equal to mine, is not just words, and that you feel, 'Father gave her this title on the basis of knowing her well.'
(CBG 12-4-3 2, 1991.10.11)

Now, anyone who would doubt True Mother's victory, her eternal perfection of love with Father, such that Their bond is eternal, unchanging, absolute and unique, anyone who would feature the possibility that Mother would go off course, after what Father said, is denying Father's veracity. He said clearly "I have given her this title on the basis of knowing her well."

Just as Mother said that she knows Father well, Father said He knows Mother well. If He misjudged Mother, if He didn't really know Mother well, we can't trust Father's discernment in much else either (including successors He might have appointed) In Father's statements lifting up Mother, in those statements He drove home this point often:

She accomplished the position of having perfected herself on the world level, and therefore we could finally proclaim the liberation of women throughout the world.
(CBG 12-4-1 23, 1992.07.09)

Now we return to Father's statements that there must be a woman who embodies the Holy Spirit. In 1992 He stated that Mother fulfilled this mission. He stated:

"You are the sons and daughters of True Mother, the woman who represents the world. Mother is the Holy Spirit. Mother is the one who resurrects your life. She gives you rebirth and then she blesses you."

Here Father has described the work of the Holy Spirit, which is Mother's work, telling us that we are Mother's children. He goes on to explain the biblical implications of this:

"The Bible teaches that if you betray the Holy Spirit, you cannot be forgiven. There is no way for you to be reborn. Even though she wants to forgive you, you have no basis on which to be forgiven."

(CBG 1:1-2-48, 1992.7.10)

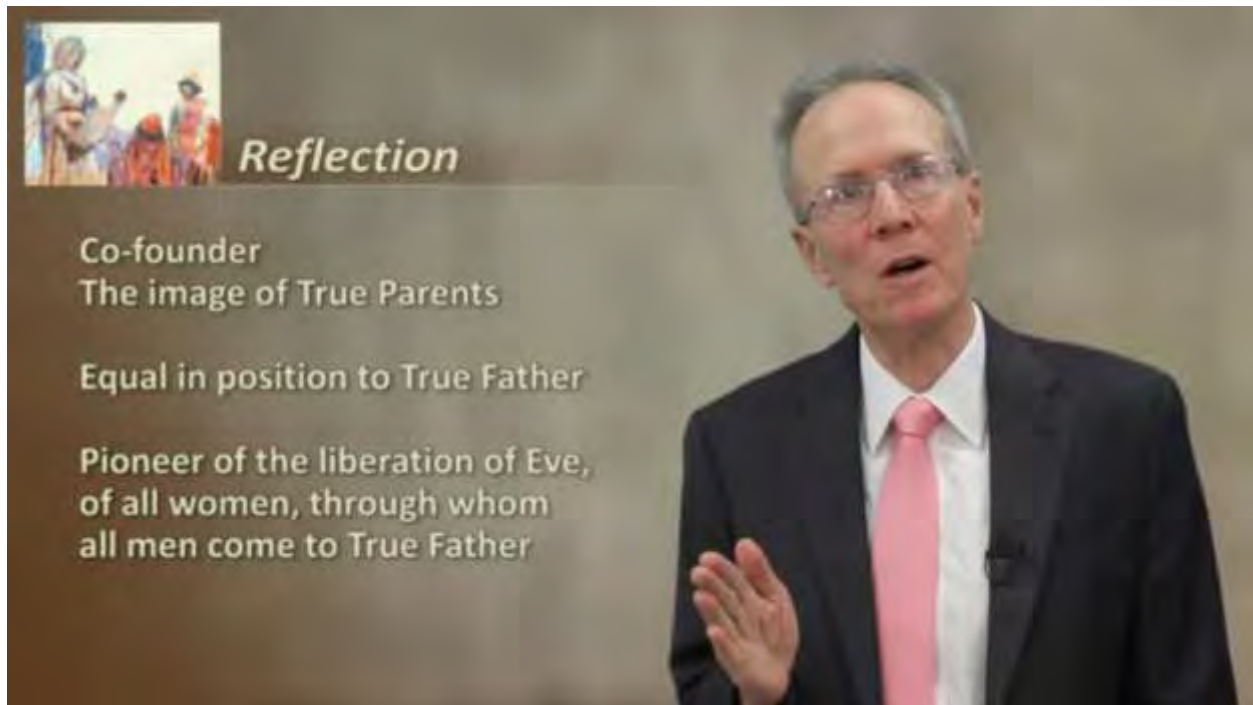

In summary, True Mother pioneered the public proclamation that True Father is the Messiah and that He and she are the True Parents.

She said that in matters of good and evil, there is no yielding.

She was Father's #1 "John the Baptist." (Jesus wife's position, the Holy Spirit's position)

True Mother led the breakthrough into the United Nations.

She led the Women's Federation, which pioneered the way of God's peace movements for youth, family, religions, nations and lineages.

A "follower" could not do this; she went beyond "follower" status to become: Co-founder

The image of True Parents

Equal in position to True Father

The pioneer of liberation of Eve, of all women, through whom all men come to True Father

Inheritor of Father's authority

The visible Holy Spirit, the rejection of which is the only sin that cannot be forgiven...
(Jesus warns) because the Holy Spirit is forgiveness itself.

Thank you for listening.
