

Do Superman and Wonder Woman Have to Be Single?

Everybody wants true love, and true love begins between parent and child, husband and wife, brother and sister.

This means that everybody wants to be part of a true family.

A true family begins with true parents, and true parents begin with a true man and woman.

Human beings usually consider the Messiah to be a true man, but what about a true woman? The magical insights are that, one, a true man and true woman are destined by design to have a cosmic marriage, and, two, a true man and true woman in marital oneness is the actual Messiah.

So it's not enough to have Superman and Wonder Woman. Superman will succumb to Kryptonite until he creates a super marriage with a Wonder Woman. Wonder Woman will keep wandering until she creates a wonder-filled marriage with a Super Husband.

The contemporary film, "Wonder Woman," teaches that true men and women sacrifice for the sake of others. Sadly, the man, Chris, dies, the woman, Diana, flies away, and there is no marriage. True Family Values teaches that this ideal brother and sister, Chris and Diana, are built to create a perfect marriage and invest their power of self-sacrifice to create a super home and wonder-filled community in reality.

The Holy Marriage Blessing calls us all to be Wonder Wives and Super Husbands. It connects couples to source of super power, God.

The Bible reveals that God's super power is nothing other than sacrificial love.

"If you fully obey the Lord your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, ... the fruit of your womb will be blessed."

"Has not the Lord made them one? In flesh and spirit they are his."

"Go therefore and make disciples (blessed couples) of all the nations, baptizing them (blessing them) in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (True Parents), teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you (True Family Values); and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age (in your home)."
