Hi. Welcome back to 'Peace Starts with Me.' I'm Tyler Hendricks.

We are going to talk about 'The Twin Towers.' I consider the political 'left' and 'right' to represent the masculine and feminine perspectives and our age to be one in which both are restoring their proper positions.

In the 1960's, the left's call for peace and love was good; but, to that generation, 'love' meant free sex and homosexuality. As a result, the peace and love that the left generated was a 'Potemkin village,' a mirage of government artifice masking social disintegration.

At the end of Her (True Mother's) Speech inaugurating The Women's Federation, True Mother articulated God's vision of masculine and feminine, the twin towers of true peace and true love. First, True Mother described the sacrificial love of The Unification Church, which crossed over the hill of Calvary on the individual, family, world and cosmic levels and gave the United States a new sense of direction. It gave the Christian world new hope, as well as the communist and Islamic worlds.

She (True Mother) was referring to tens of thousands of post-Soviet youth studying the Divine Principle. She was referring to hundreds of young Muslims sent by their Grand Muftis to attend 40-day Divine Principle workshops. On the morning of that very speech, 42 Muslim couples received the Holy Marriage

Blessing in that stadium. They stood up for the Blessing that is not religious conversion. They pioneered True Parents' Way for the Islamic world.

True Mother cast a vision for the United States, Russia and China. She said that, with the protection of God, these countries are developing an alliance among themselves centering upon Korea. Is this not now coming into reality.

True Mother cast a vision for the Asia Pacific Cultural Sphere. The countries of Asia, She said, must now establish a united world centering on True Parents. Is this not now coming into reality?

True Mother then linked peace to love by calling women to take the lead in government, finance, culture and society on behalf of the values that 'unite left and right and overcome atheistic materialism.' Her Words echoed those of Moses to Israel, "Thou shalt not go aside ... to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them."

True Love is women carrying God-centered values that bring unity of left and right into the spheres of government, culture, finance and society. True Mother then explained how. We'll talk about this next week.

Thank you for listening.
