

God Had Sex in Mind

Tyler Hendricks

June 7, 2018

Divine Principle will defeat porn because love rooted in truth defeats love rooted in lies.

Porn is all about sex. The product is the female sex organ. Women, whether by seduction or coercion, sell it. Immature men, dominated by angels, pay money to see it. Pornography is a form of prostitution.

Human beings invented porn, but did not invent sex. Sex is embedded in the universe. I'm not being pornographic; I'm being scientific.

Consider the definition of sex. Google defines the noun, "sex," as "either of the two main categories (male and female) into which humans and many other living things are divided on the basis of their reproductive functions."

Three points here. First, the definition has to do with reproductive functions. Second, the division between male and female is absolute. Third, each sex is essential to the definition of the other.

"The sex that can bear offspring or produce eggs ...that can be fertilized by male gametes" is female. "The sex that produces small, typically motile gametes ...with which a female may be fertilized or inseminated to produce offspring" is male.

We see that male and female are defined as parts of a whole of which each constitute half. This greater whole is defined by the power of reproduction, and that whole can manifest as a new creation, male or female.

The definition of sex reveals that the God of Genesis 1 created with sex in mind. From vegetation: "seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds," to fish and fowl, "Be fruitful and increase in number," to "the wild animals according to their kinds," to human beings: "male and female he created them. God blessed them and said to them, 'Be fruitful and increase in number...,'" the Word is about sex.

Divine Principle's definition of ideal personhood also has sex in mind. Jesus said, "be ye therefore perfect," and Principle makes sex intrinsic to perfection: Perfect men embody all the universe's masculine elements and perfect women all the feminine elements. Then what? "A perfected man and woman ...join as husband and wife centered on God" and "the entire universe will perform a spherical movement."

Why would nature, the Bible, and Principle, put sex in the center? We can begin with a Darwinian explanation and take it from there.

(Citations: Google definitions: female, male, sex definition 2; Genesis 1:11-28; Exposition of Divine Principle, p. 30.)