True Parents, as the first stop on their first world tour, visited Japan on January 28, 1965. Seven years had passed since 1958, when Choi Bong-chun began his missionary work in Japan. True Parents made holy grounds in eight places: Tokyo, Nagoya, Osaka, Takamtsu, Hiroshima, Fukuoka, Sapporo, and Sendai. On the last day, True Father encouraged the members there by saying, "You should become people that think, 'No one has loved Japan more than I have' or 'No one among the billions of people on earth loved Japan with a heart more intense than mine.' If you can do this, your heart, which loves not only the present but also the past and the future, will cause you to become a historic person." This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of True Parents' visit to Japan.
